

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

THE STATUTES AT LARGE.

Anno Regni GEORGII III. Britanniarum Regis, Quinquagesimo Quarto.

AT the Parliament begun and holden at Westminster, the Twenty fourth Day of November, Anno Domini 1812, in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith; And from thence continued, by several Prorogations, to the Fourth Day of November 1813; being the Second Session of the Fifth Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

C A P. I.

An Act to enable His Majesty to accept the Services of a Proportion of the Militia out of the United Kingdom, for the vigorous Prosecution of the War.

[24th November 1813.]

WHEREAS it is highly important that the most effectual Measures should be adopted for the vigorous Prosecution of the War upon the Continent of Europe; and it is therefore expedient that His Majesty should be empowered to accept any Offer of a Proportion of the Officers, Non Commissioned Officers, Drummers and Private Men, of the Militia of the United Kingdom, to serve in any Part of Europe, or to transfer their Services to Regiments of the Line, under certain Regulations; May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to accept the Services, and to employ in any Part of Europe, under the Regulations and Restrictions specified in this Act, such Part of the present Regular Militia of Great Britain, and of the Militia of Ireland, not exceeding in any case three fourths of the Number actually serving in any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of any such Militia, as may make a voluntary Offer, duly certified by their respective Commanding Officers, of extending their Services to all Parts of Europe, and as His Majesty may think proper to permit to extend their Services in consequence of such voluntary Offers as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order signed by the Principal Secretary of State, or by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or by his or their Chief Secretary, directed to the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of the Militia of Great Britain

His Majesty may accept voluntary Offers of Proportion of Militia to serve in any Part of Europe.

or Ireland, to propose to such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, or any Part or Parts thereof, not exceeding such Proportion as aforesaid, to extend their Services to all Parts of Europe, under such Rules and Regulations as His Majesty may think fit to appoint.

Bounty of Eight Guineas to Persons making voluntary Offer.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to direct that a Bounty not exceeding Eight Guineas shall be allowed to every Non Commissioned Officer, Drummer and Private Man, who shall make such voluntary Offer as aforesaid; and every Non Commissioned Officer, Drummer and Private Man, making such voluntary Offer as aforesaid, shall take the following Oath; videlicet,

Oath.

‘ I A. B. do sincerely promise and swear, That I will be faithful and bear true Allegiance to His Majesty King George, his Heirs and Successors, and that I will faithfully serve in the Militia in any Part of Europe, during the Remainder of the War, and until the Expiration of Six Months after the Termination thereof, to be reckoned from the Ratification of any Definitive Treaty of Peace, unless I shall be sooner discharged.’

Enrolment.

And every Non Commissioned Officer, Drummer and Private Man, making such voluntary Offer as aforesaid, and taking such Oath, shall be enrolled to serve in the Militia in any Part of Europe, according to the Terms of such Oath; and such several Enrolments shall take place and such Oaths shall be administered, by the Officer commanding any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia, or by any Deputy Lieutenant or Justice of the Peace, at such Times, and under such Regulations, as His Majesty, by any Order to be signed by the Secretary of State, or by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or his or their Secretary, shall in that Behalf direct or appoint; and every Non Commissioned Officer, Drummer and Private Man, so enrolled to serve in the Militia in any Part of Europe, under the Provisions of this Act, shall be entitled to his Discharge at the Expiration of the Period specified in such Oath, without any regard to the Period for which he shall have been enrolled to serve in the Militia under any former Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Militia, in any Part of the United Kingdom.

Discharge.

Commanding
Officers to explain that Offer is voluntary.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Person serving in the Militia of any Part of the United Kingdom shall be compelled to make such Offer, or be engaged to serve out of the United Kingdom for which he is enrolled and serving, except by his own Consent; and no Commanding Officer shall certify according to this Act any voluntary Offer, before he shall have explained to every Person offering to serve, that the Offer is to be purely voluntary on his Part.

Services of Three Field Officers accepted with 900 Men;
Two Field Officers with 600 Men; and One with 300, &c.
and Proportion of other Officers
according to Establishment.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to accept the Services of Three Field Officers of any Regiment of Militia, in which Nine hundred Private Men shall offer to extend their Services under this Act; and of Two Field Officers of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia, in which Six hundred Private Men shall so offer to extend their Services; and of One Field Officer of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia, in which Three hundred Private Men, or Three Fourths of the Number of Private Men actually serving in any such Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia, shall so offer to extend their Services; and in every case in which such Proportion of Field Officers of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia, from which such Numbers of Men

Men respectively shall so volunteer as aforesaid, shall not offer to extend their Services with such Men, it shall be lawful for His Majesty to give the Rank of Field Officers to any Captains in such Regiments, Battalions or Corps of Militia respectively, who may offer to extend their Services with such Men; and it shall also be lawful for His Majesty to accept the Services of such Proportion of other Officers, Non Commissioned Officers and Drummers, with any such Numbers of Private Men as shall be allowed to such Numbers of Men respectively in the Establishment of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which they respectively belong.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, from time to time to form the Officers, Non Commissioned Officers, Drummers and Private Men, who shall so extend their Services from the Regiments, Battalions or Corps of Militia, into such Provisional Regiments or Battalions as may be deemed most expedient for His Majesty's Service: Provided always, that in all cases in which a Field Officer of Militia shall have volunteered for Extended Service in any Part of Europe, the Officer having the Chief Command in such provisional Battalions shall be a Field Officer of Militia.

His Majesty may form Militia for Extended Service into Provisional Regiments or Battalions.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Officer of the Militia shall, while out of the United Kingdom upon any such Extended Service, rank with the Officers of His Majesty's Regular Forces higher than as a Lieutenant Colonel of the Militia.

Rank of Officers.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in any case in which the Number of Officers of each Rank so volunteering to extend their Services to any Part of Europe, and accepted by His Majesty, shall not be in due Proportion to the Number of Men so volunteering, it shall be lawful for His Majesty to appoint any fit and proper Persons to be Officers in such provisional Battalions of Militia without regard to the Qualifications now required by Law for such Officers in the Militia, and from time to time to supply any Vacancies which may occur in such provisional Battalions of Militia in consequence of the Death, Resignation or Dismissal of any such Officer who shall have been so appointed by His Majesty: Provided always, that no Person so appointed by His Majesty shall hold a Commission in any such provisional Battalion of higher Rank than that of a Subaltern, unless he shall at the time of such Appointment have been an Officer of His Majesty's Regular Forces or Militia: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect the Appointment of Officers, as by Law established, in any case of Vacancy which may occur in consequence of the Death, Resignation or Dismissal of any Militia Officer who may have volunteered for Extended Service in Europe.

In what case His Majesty may appoint Officers, remain subject to Militia Regulations.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all the Militia enrolled and formed for Extended Service as Militia to any Part of Europe under this Act shall, notwithstanding such Extension of Service, remain subject to all the Provisions and Regulations in force, in relation to the Militia to which they shall respectively belong (except in such cases as are in this Act particularly specified), and shall be entitled to all such Privileges and Immunities, and to such Provisions for their Wives and Families, as if they had continued serving as Militia in the United Kingdom.

His Majesty
may make Regulations for retaining Officers, &c. as Supernumeraries.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty from time to time to make such Regulations as His Majesty may deem most expedient in relation to the retaining upon the Establishment of the Militia to which they belong, as Supernumeraries or otherwise, any Officers, Non Commissioned Officers and Drummers, of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia, as may not so volunteer to extend their Services to any Part of Europe, or as may not be so employed upon such Extended Service; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Militia, and the officering of the Militia, to the contrary notwithstanding.

C A P. II.

An Act for continuing to His Majesty certain Duties on Malt, Sugar, Tobacco and Snuff in Great Britain; and on Pensions, Offices and Personal Estates, in England, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

XXXIX. And whereas by the said Act passed in the Thirty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for making perpetual subject to Redemption and Purchase in the manner therein stated, the several Sums of Money now charged in Great Britain as a Land Tax for One Year, from the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and ninety eight, it was enacted, that the several Duties imposed on Sugar by Three Acts of the Twenty seventh, Thirty fourth and Thirty seventh Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, on Malt, by an Act made in the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and the Duties of Excise on Tobacco and Snuff, by an Act made in the Twenty ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, should continue in force until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and ninety nine, and no longer, but should from thenceforth cease and determine, unless the same should be specially continued by Parliament, which said several Duties were by an Act made and passed in the Thirty ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for continuing and granting to His Majesty a Duty on Pensions, Offices and Personal Estates, in England, Wales and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and certain Duties on Sugar, Malt, Tobacco and Snuff, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety nine, further continued until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred, and which by several subsequent Acts, were further continued until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and eleven: And whereas by an Act passed in the Forty ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for repealing the several Duties of Customs chargeable in Great Britain, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof, the said several Duties on Sugar were repealed, and other Duties granted on Sugar in lieu thereof: And whereas by another Act, passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to repeal the Duties of Excise payable in Great Britain, and to grant other Duties in lieu thereof, certain of the said Duties on Licences to be taken out by Dealers in Tobacco and Snuff, and certain Duties on Tobacco, were repealed, and other Duties granted in lieu thereof: And whereas the said Duties granted by the said last recited Acts were continued until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirteen: And whereas ‘ Reign of His present Majesty, further continued until the Twenty ‘ fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen;’

Be it further enacted, That the said several Duties on Sugar, Malt, Tobacco and Snuff, and the said Acts granting and continuing the same, and all the Provisions thereof, shall be and the same are hereby severally and respectively further continued from and after the Expiration of the time limited as aforesaid, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and all Monies arising thereby which shall be paid into the said Receipt of the Exchequer, shall be entered separate and distinct from all other Monies paid and payable to His Majesty.

An Act to continue until Six Weeks after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to continue and amend an Act of the present Session, to prevent the issuing and circulating of Pieces of Gold and Silver, or other Metal, usually called Tokens, except such as are issued by the Banks of England and Ireland respectively. [26th November 1813.]

53 G. 3. c. 114.

‘ WHEREAS an Act passed in the last Session of Parlia‘ ment, intituled An Act to continue and amend an Act of ‘ the present Session, to prevent the issuing and circulating of Pieces
‘ of Gold and Silver, or other Metal, usually called Tokens, except ‘ such as are issued by the Banks of England and Ireland respec- ‘ tively: And whereas it is expedient that the Period limited in ‘ the said recited Act for the Circulation of Pieces of Gold or Silver ‘ and mixed Metals, in the said recited Act specified and denominated ‘ Tokens, should be further extended;’ May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted, by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,
That so much of the said recited Act as prohibits the Circulation of any such Tokens as are in the said recited Act described, after Six Weeks from the Commencement of this Session of Parliament, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Original Issuer.

III. And be it therefore enacted, That all Persons who shall have originally issued or have been concerned in the original Issuing or Circulation of any such Tokens, and their respective Executors and Administrators, shall be and they are hereby declared to be liable in Law, upon Demand made of the Value denoted upon the Tokens issued by such Persons respectively, to pay the same; and the Amount of Money or Value denoted upon any such Tokens, either by Letters, Words, Figures, Marks or otherwise, may be recovered by the Bearer or Holder hereof, in any Action or Suit against the Person or Persons who shall have originally issued or been concerned in the original Issuing or Circulation of such Token, in like manner as the Amount or Value of any Promissory Notes payable to Bearer, and issuable by Law, may now be recovered, to pay off or discharge the same.

Issuers of Local Tokens: liable to pay same by Law.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to authorize or make legal the issuing of any Promissory Note, not being a Token composed of Gold or Silver, or of mixed Metal composed partly of Gold or Silver, which cannot now be issued by Law.

Issue of Promissory Notes under 20s.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Tokens issued or circulated by or under the Authority of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or by or under the Authority of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland respectively; or in any manner to affect any such Tokens, or the Circulation thereof; or to subject any Company or Companies, or Person or Persons, to any Penalty for issuing or circulating any such Tokens.

Proviso for Tokens of Bank of England or Ireland.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act shall and may be recoverable and recovered, and levied and applied, in like manner and by such Means as the like Penalties and Forfeitures are made recoverable by the said recited Act; and all the Powers, Authorities, Clauses, Matters

Penalties how recovered.

Matters and Provisions, in the said recited Act contained or referred to, shall be and remain, and continue in full force, and be applied and executed for the enforcing the Provisions of this Act, and for the recovering and applying of any Penalties and Forfeitures under this Act, as fully and effectually as if all such Powers, Authorities, Clauses and Provisions, were severally and separately re-enacted in and made Part of this Act.

Act altered, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

An Act to provide for the Charge of the Addition to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

[6th December 1813.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to alter and amend several Acts, passed in His present Majesty's Reign relating to the Redemption of the National Debt; and for making further Provisions in respect thereof, it was enacted and declared, That, for the Purposes of the said Act, an Amount of Public Debt, equal to the whole Capital of the Public Debt in perpetual redeemable Annuities existing on the Fifth Day of January One thousand seven hundred and eighty six, should be deemed to be satisfied and discharged, and so much of the Capital Stock so purchased and transferred as therein mentioned, and standing in the Names of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, as Parliament by any Act or Acts of the said Session should or might direct should be cancelled in like manner as if the same had been transferred to the said Commissioners for the Redemption of Land Tax, pursuant to the Provisions of the several Acts thereunto relating, in order to make Provision for the Charge of any Addition to be made to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain, by way of Loan, or in any other manner, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirteen; and it was thereby further enacted, that whenever the Amount of the Sum to be raised by way of Loan, or in any other manner which might create an Addition to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain in the present or any future Year should exceed the Sum which on the First Day of February should have been or should be estimated to be applicable in the same Year to the Reduction of the National Debt; then and in every such case an annual Sum amounting to the One hundredth Part of the Capital Stock, created by so much only of the Monies raised by way of Loan, or in any other manner as aforesaid in the Year, as should be equal to the Sum so estimated to be applicable to the Reduction of the National Debt within the same Year, should be

An Act to amend an Act passed in the Fifty first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to permit the Interchange of the British and Irish Militias respectively.
 [6th December 1813.]

§1 G. 3. c. 118.

His Majesty
 may employ in any Part of United Kingdom
 any Part of present Militia Force of G. B. or Ireland, making voluntary Offer to serve, without Reference to such Limitation.

‘WHEREAS an Act passed in the Fifty first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to permit the Interchange of the British and Irish Militias respectively: And whereas it is expedient that the said Act should be amended, for the Purpose of enabling His Majesty to employ a greater Number of the Militia of Great Britain in Ireland, and of the Militia of Ireland in England (a), at one time, than are allowed by the said Act; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, from and after the passing of this Act, and during the Continuance thereof, to accept the Services of the Militia of Great Britain, or any Part thereof, to serve in Ireland, and of the Militia of Ireland, or any Part thereof, to serve in Great Britain (b), without regard to the Proportions of the Militia of one Country allowed to serve in the other, or any Rotation, specified in the said recited Act; and from time to time to employ in any Part of the United Kingdom such Part of the Regular Militia of Great Britain and the Militia of Ireland respectively, as may make such voluntary Offer, duly certified by their respective Commanding Officers, of extending their Services to all Parts of the United Kingdom, without regard to such Limitations as aforesaid, and as His Majesty may think proper to permit so to extend their Services in consequence of such voluntary Offer as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order signed by the Principal Secretary of State, or by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or by his, or their Chief Secretary, directed by the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps, of the said Militia Forces of Great Britain or Ireland, to propose to such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, or any Part or Parts thereof, so to extend their Services, under such Rules and Regulations, and upon such Allowances as His Majesty may think fit to appoint; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

(a) [See the enacting Part of this Session.] (b) [See the Preamble.]

Commanding
 Officer shall explain to Men that Offers are to be voluntary.

II. And be it further enacted, That no Person serving in the said Militia, of either Part of the United Kingdom, shall be compelled to make such Offer, except by his own Consent; and no
 Commanding Officer shall certify according to this Act any voluntary Offer previously to his having explained to every Person of the Militia offering so to serve, that the Offer is to be purely voluntary on his Part.

Continuance.
 Act altered, &c.

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in force until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen; and may be altered, varied or repealed by any Act or Acts, to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. XI.

An Act for extending the Provisions of an Act, passed in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty, for making better Provision for Soldiers, to Serjeants of the Militia.

[6th December 1813.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient that certain of the Provisions of an Act, passed in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for making better Provision for Soldiers, and of any Regulation made in pursuance thereof, should be extended to Serjeants of the Regular Militia of Great Britain or Ireland; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Serjeant of Militia who shall, from and after the passing of this Act, become entitled to his Discharge by reason of the Expiration of any Period of Service fixed in any Orders and Regulations made by His Majesty in that Behalf, or shall have been discharged by reason of being an Invalid or disabled, shall thereupon become legally entitled to receive such Pension, Allowance or Relief, as shall have been fixed in any Orders or Regulations made by His Majesty in relation to such cases respectively, and for the Payment whereof Money shall have been voted by Parliament; and every such Serjeant may claim to be paid or receive the same, under the Provisions of this Act, or any Rules or Regulations made in pursuance thereof.

Serjeants of Militia may receive Pensions as fixed in Regulations made by His Majesty.

II. And be it further enacted, That every Serjeant of Militia who shall have been discharged by reason of the Expiration of any Period of Service fixed in any Orders and Regulations made by His Majesty, in that Behalf, or shall have been discharged by reason of being an Invalid or disabled, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, become legally entitled to an additional Pension, which together with the Pension he may now receive shall be equal to the increased Pension to which Surgeons are entitled under the Provisions of this Act, or any Rules and Regulations made in pursuance thereof, such additional Pension to take Effect from the passing of this Act.

Additional Pension allowed to Serjeants discharged.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every Serjeant of Militia, whose Offers of Extended Service in the Militia shall be accepted by His Majesty, shall be allowed to reckon, for the Purpose of claiming any Pension, Allowance or Relief, given by any such Orders and Regulations as aforesaid at the Expiration of his Service, or in case of his Discharge Two Years for such Offer of Extended Service, and also Two Years for every Year of such Service in the Militia as aforesaid, in any Part of Europe out of His Majesty's Dominions; and every Militia Man who shall so extend his Services, and who shall thereafter volunteer into His Majesty's Regular Forces, shall be entitled to reckon for such Offer of Extension of Service as a Militia Man, and for such Extended Service under any such Offer, and also for such volunteering into His Majesty's Regular Forces, such Number of Years respectively for the Purpose of claiming any Pension, Allowance or Relief as a Soldier, as shall be fixed by any Rules, Regulations or Orders, made by His Majesty in that Behalf.

Mode of computing time of Service.

Orders and Regulations laid before Parliament.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all Orders and Regulations from time to time made by His Majesty, in relation to the Discharge of Serjeants of the Militia after the Expiration of any Periods of Service; and also in relation to any Pension, Allowance or Relief, to any discharged or invalid, disabled or wounded Soldiers, shall be laid before Parliament; and that Estimates of the Amount of all such Pensions, Allowances and Relief, and of all contingent Expences and Charges relating to the Payment, Control and Management thereof, shall also be annually laid before Parliament.

Provisions of 46 G. 3. c. 69. to apply to Act.

V. And be it further enacted, That all the Rules, Regulations, Provisions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things in the said recited Act of the Forty sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign aforesaid contained, shall extend and be construed to extend, and be used, applied and enforced, in relation to any Rules and Regulations made for giving any Pensions, Allowances or Relief under this Act, and the demanding, paying, receiving, recovering and accounting for any Pensions, Allowances or Payments, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same were severally repeated and re-enacted in and made Part of this Act; and the said recited Act and this Act shall be construed as one Act.

C A P. XII.

An Act to enable His Majesty to augment the Sixtieth Regiment to Ten Battalions, by Enlistment of Foreigners.

[6th December 1813.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient that His Majesty should be empowered to augment His Sixtieth Regiment of Infantry, now consisting of Seven Battalions, by the Addition of an Eighth, Ninth and Tenth Battalion;’ Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to augment the said Sixtieth Regiment of Infantry, by the Addition of an Eighth, Ninth and Tenth Battalion, to consist of One thousand Men each, and to enlist as Soldiers to serve in such Battalions any Foreigners now in His Majesty's Pay, or other Foreigners who shall voluntarily enter themselves to serve as Soldiers therein, and to employ such Regiment, or any Part thereof, in any Country or Place out of Great Britain; any thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

His Majesty may add an Eighth, Ninth and Tenth Battalion, in Sixtieth Regiment, Foreigners may serve therein.

Foreign Officers may serve, and receive Pay.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Foreign Officers who shall receive Commissions from His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to be Officers in the said Regiment, for the Purpose of enabling His Majesty to augment the same to Ten Battalions (which Commissions it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to grant) shall be enabled to serve and receive Pay as Officers in the said Regiment; and when reduced shall be capable of receiving Half Pay, according to the Rank in which they shall serve at the time of such Reduction.

C A P. XIII.

An Act for giving Effect to certain Engagements of His Majesty with the Emperor of all the Russias and the King of Prussia, for furnishing a Part of the pecuniary Succours for assisting His Majesty's said Allies, in supporting the Expences of the War with France. [6th December 1813.]

‘ Most Gracious Sovereign,

‘ WHEREAS by Two several Conventions, signed at London on the Thirtieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, between Your Majesty on the one Part, and their Majesties the Emperor of all the Russias and the King of Prussia respectively on the other, it was agreed, That a Part of the Pecuniary Succours which Your Majesty was desirous of furnishing to Your said Allies, to assist them in supporting the Expences of the War with France, should be furnished by Aid of the Public Credit of Great Britain, and under the Form of Bills exclusively applicable to the Expences of the War, and to be re-imburfed in Specie, upon certain Terms and Conditions; and Your Majesty by the said Conventions engaged to propose to Your Parliament to authorize the Issue of these Bills of Credit, for the Benefit of their Majesties the Emperor of all the Russias and the King of Prussia, for the Sum of Two millions five hundred thousand Pounds Sterling, or of Fifteen millions Prussian Thalers of the Denomination and Weight of One thousand seven hundred and sixty four, to be furnished Monthly in manner therein mentioned, in the Proportion of Two Thirds of each Monthly Issue for the Emperor of all the Russias, and of One Third thereof for the King of Prussia, and to be computed from the Fifteenth Day of June of the Current Year; so that Your Majesty has engaged to place at the Disposal of the Emperor and the King, for the First Instalment, as many Millions of Thalers as there shall have been Months elapsed since the Fifteenth Day of June last, and thereafter a Million each Month, until the Issue of Fifteen Millions of Thalers shall be completed: And it is in the said Conventions further stipulated, that Commissioners should be named on the Part of Your Majesty and the said Sovereigns respectively, upon the Continent, who should be charged to direct the Circulation of the said Paper in conformity with the Principles of the said Conventions; and that the Bills of Credit to be issued under the said Conventions should not bear Interest, but that a General Office should be opened, in such Town in the North of Germany as the British Government with the Concurrence of the Courts of Russia and Prussia should point out for the Purpose, where the Holders of each Bill should be admitted to fund them in a Capital Stock or Fund bearing Interest at the Rate of Six per Centum per Annum, or at the Choice of the Holders of the said Bills, in Debentures bearing Six per Centum Interest; and that the Interest of the Bills funded and converted into a Six per Centum Stock, or into Debentures, should be payable every Six Months, in whatever City of the North of Germany Your Majesty's Commissioners should point out for that Purpose, to commence from Conventions,

the Month following that of their being deposited in the General Office ; and that the Bills which should neither have been registered nor funded before the Signature of the Preliminaries of Peace should be entitled to an interest of One Half per Centum per Month, to commence from the Period of the said Signature until that of their Re-imbursment ; and that the Re-imbursment of the whole of the said Fifteen millions Thalers of Bills of Credit, should be made in Specie either in Prussian Thalers according to the Tariff of One thousand seven hundred and sixty four, or in Spanish Dollars at the Rate of Two Spanish Dollars for Three such Thalers as aforesaid, and to the Amount of One Million of Thalers per Month, in the manner stated in such Conventions, and to commence from the Month following the Ratification of a General Peace : And whereas we, the Commons of the United Kingdom in Parliament assembled, have resolved that Provision be made for enabling Your Majesty to defray the Expences which may be incurred in the Execution of the said Conventions, not exceeding Two millions five hundred thousand Pounds Sterling, or Fifteen Millions of Prussian Thalers Principal Money : May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted ; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury of Great Britain, or any Three or more of them for the time being, shall and they are hereby empowered to cause Bills of Credit in the Form specified in the said Conventions, and not exceeding the Amount of Two millions five hundred thousand Pounds Sterling, or of Fifteen Millions of Prussian Thalers of the Denomination and Weight of One thousand seven hundred and sixty four, to be prepared and signed by the Commissioner to be named on the Part of His Majesty, and to be issued to the respective Commissioners to be named on the Part of their Majesties the Emperor of all the Russias and the King of Prussia, in the respective Proportions and at the times specified in the said Conventions ; and the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, are hereby also empowered and required to cause proper Books to be provided and kept by the Commissioner to be named on the Part of His Majesty for receiving the Subscriptions of all such Holders of the said Bills of Credit as may be desirous to fund the same in a Six per Centum Stock, and also to cause Bills bearing an Interest of Six per Centum from the Month succeeding the Date of their Registry, to be prepared and issued to all such Holders of the said Bills of Credit as may be desirous of converting them into Bills bearing an Interest as aforesaid.

Treasury may issue Bills of Credit, and provide Books for funding same ; and prepare Bills bearing an Interest to be exchanged in lieu thereof.

Money issued out of Supplies of Year, to pay Interest and Principal of Securities, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them for the time being respectively, shall, and he and they is and are hereby empowered from time to time, out of any of the Aids or Supplies granted or to be granted by Parliament for the Service of any Year, to cause to be issued such Sums of Money as shall be required for the Payment of the Interest on such of the said Securities as may from time to time bear an Interest, and also for the Payment ment of the Principal Monies due thereon, as and when the same may from time to time become payable, conformably to the Tenor of His Majesty's Engagements, as specified in the said Conventions respectively; and also such Sums as may be required to pay and satisfy all the Expences attending the Execution of this Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall cause to be prepared, and shall lay before both Houses of Parliament, within Twenty Days after the Commencement of every Session, an Account of the Total Amount of the said Bills of Credit which have been issued, and also of such as have been funded, and of those which have been converted into Bills bearing an Interest, and of those which remain unfunded and unconverted as aforesaid respectively, up to the Thirty first Day of December then next preceding, together with an Account of the Total Sums which shall from time to time have been issued and applied by virtue of this Act for paying and satisfying the Interest on all or any of the said Securities, and towards paying and satisfying the Principal thereof (in case the Principal of any of the said Securities shall then have been paid), and also for paying the Expences of carrying this Act into Execution.

ment.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them for the time being, to appoint such Officers and Clerks in the Office of the said Commissioner to be named on the Part of His Majesty, and in Great Britain, as they may deem necessary for carrying this Act into Execution, and to grant such Salaries and Compensations to the said Commissioners and Officers and Clerks for their Trouble and Labour therein, as they may think fit and reasonable in that Behalf.

Treasury may appoint Officers and Clerks to carry Act into Execution, and Salaries for Trouble.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall forge, counterfeit or cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or willingly act or aid or assist in the forging or counterfeiting any Bill, Receipt, Instrument or Security, made and issued under the Authority of this Act, or the Signature or Name of any Commissioner or other Person or Persons to or upon any such Bill, Receipt, Instrument or Security, or any Indorsement or Writing upon any such Bill, Receipt, Instrument or Security, or alter or cause or procure to be altered, or act as aforesaid, or assist in the altering any Number, Figure or Word therein, or utter or publish as true, any such false, forged, counterfeited or altered Bill, Receipt, Instrument or Security (knowing the same to be forged, counterfeited or altered), with Intent to defraud His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or any Body Politic or Corporate, or Person or Persons whatsoever, then and in every such case every Person being thereof convicted in due Form of Law shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and suffer Death as a Felon, without Benefit of Clergy.

An Act to enable His Majesty to accept the Services of a Proportion of the Militia of the City of London, out of the United Kingdom, for the vigorous Prosecution of the War.

WHEREAS it is highly important that the most effectual Measures should be adopted for the vigorous Prosecution of the War upon the Continent of Europe: And whereas the City of London, notwithstanding the Exemptions from raising Men for Military Service contained in their Charters, are desirous and have voluntarily proposed, That His Majesty should be empowered to accept any Offers of a Proportion of the Officers, Non Commissioned Officers, Drummers and Private Men of the Two Regiments of Militia of the said City of London, to serve in any Part of Europe, under certain Regulations, in Addition to the Proportion of the Militia of the United Kingdom, whose Services shall be accepted by His Majesty by virtue of an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to enable His Majesty to accept the Services of a Proportion of the Militia out of the United Kingdom, for the vigorous Prosecution of the War: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to accept the Services, and to employ in any Part of Europe, under the Regulations and Restrictions specified in this Act, such Part of the present Militia of the City of London, not exceeding Three fourths of the Number actually serving in each Regiment of such Militia as may make a voluntary Offer, duly certified by their respective Commanding Officers, of extending their Services to all Parts of Europe, and as His Majesty may think proper to permit to extend their Services in consequence of such voluntary Offers as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order signed by the Principal Secretary of State, or by his Chief Secretary, directed to the Commanding Officer of each or either of such Regiments, to propose to such Regiment respectively, or any Part or Parts thereof not exceeding such Proportion as aforesaid, to extend their Services to all Parts of Europe, under such Rules and Regulations as His Majesty may think fit to appoint.

c. 1. ante.

His Majesty empowered to accept voluntary Offers of Proportion of London Militia to serve in any Part of Europe.

Bounty of Eight Guineas to Persons making voluntary Offer.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to direct that a Bounty not exceeding Eight Guineas, shall be allowed to every Non Commissioned Officer, Drummer and Private Man who shall make such voluntary Offer as aforesaid; and every Non Commissioned Officer, Drummer and Private Man making such voluntary Offer as aforesaid shall take the following Oath; videlicet,

Oath.

I A. B. do sincerely promise and swear, That I will be faithful and bear true Allegiance to His Majesty King George, his

'Heirs and Successors, and that I will faithfully serve in the London Militia in any Part of Europe during the Remainder of the War, and until the Expiration of Six Months after the Termination thereof, to be reckoned from the Ratification of any Definitive Treaty of Peace, unless I shall be sooner discharged.'

Enrolment.

shall be enrolled to serve in the London Militia in any Part of Europe, according to the Terms of such Oath, and such several Enrolments shall take place, and such Oaths shall be administered, by the Officer commanding the Regiment to which such Non Commissioned Officer, Drummer and Private Man respectively shall belong, or by the Lord Mayor or any Commissioner of Lieutenancy, or Justice of the Peace, at such times and under such Regulations as His Majesty, by any Order to be signed by the Secretary of State or his Secretary, shall in that behalf direct or appoint; and every Non Commissioned Officer, Drummer and Private Man so enrolled to serve in the London Militia in any Part of Europe, under the Provisions of this Act shall be entitled to his Discharge at the Expiration of the Period specified in such Oath, without any regard to the Period for which he shall have been enrolled to serve in the Militia of the City of London, by virtue of Two several Acts of Parliament, one of them passed in the Discharge.

Thirty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for amending and reducing into One Act of Parliament Two several Acts passed in the Thirty fourth and Thirty fifth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for the better ordering the Militia of the City of London; and for the further regulating of the Trained Bands or Militia of the said City; and the other of them passed in the Thirty ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to explain and amend an Act passed in the Thirty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for amending and reducing into One Act of Parliament Two several Acts passed in the Thirty fourth and Thirty fifth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for the better ordering of the Militia of the City of London; and for the further regulating the Trained Bands or Militia of the said City.

‘WHEREAS an Act was passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to enable His Majesty to accept the Services of a Proportion of the Militia out of the United Kingdom, for the vigorous Prosecution of the War: And whereas it is expedient that further Provisions should be made for the more effectually carrying the said Act into Execution, and that the Provisions of the said Act should be extended to the Regiment of Miners of Cornwall and Devon;’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to appoint any such Number of Officers of his Regular Forces or Militia as His Majesty shall think fit, to serve during any Period of Extended Service, out of the United Kingdom, as Field Officers in the Provisional Regiments or Battalions of Militia, formed under the said recited Act for Extended Service, in addition to the Officers of the Militia allowed to volunteer for Extended Service, in Proportion to the Number of Men who shall extend their Service; and all Persons so appointed to serve as Field Officers in any such Provisional Regiments or Battalions shall rank as Field Officers therein, in such manner as His Majesty shall direct, subject nevertheless to the Provisions in the said recited Act contained as to the Officer having the Chief Command in every such Provisional Battalion being a Field Officer of Militia.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Officers of Militia who shall be appointed by His Majesty to serve in any Provisional Battalion of Militia, formed for Extended Service, with higher Rank than that which they previously held in the Militia, shall be deemed and taken to be Militia Officers within the Meaning of the said recited Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, and as such shall be capable of commanding such Provisional Battalions.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Commissioned Officers of Militia whose Services shall be accepted by His Majesty, and who shall hereafter serve upon Extended Service out of the United Kingdom, shall be entitled to Half Pay according to the Rank in which they shall so actually serve, and not according to the Rank in which their Services shall have been so accepted; any thing in the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, from time to time, to make such Regulations as His Majesty shall deem expedient for the retaining at the Expiration of any Extended Service out of the United Kingdom any Field Officers, Captains or other Officers of Militia, who shall have actually served upon any such Extended Service in any higher Ranks than those in which

which they shall have volunteered their Services, either as Supernumeraries or otherwise, upon the Establishment of the Militia to which they belonged, with the Rank in which they shall have so actually served, or upon such other Terms in respect to Rank and Service in the Militia as His Majesty shall think fit; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Militia to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. And be it further enacted, That all the Powers, Authorities, Provisions, Regulations, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things in the said recited Act of this Session of Parliament, and in this Act contained, in relation to the Regular Militia of Great Britain and Ireland, shall extend and be construed to extend to the Regiment of Miners of Cornwall and Devon, raised under an Act passed in the Forty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for repealing an Act made in the Thirty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for raising a Body of Miners in the Counties of Cornwall and Devon, for the Defence of the Kingdom during the present War; and for the more effectually raising and regulating a Body of Miners for the Defence of Great Britain, in like manner and as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the said Regiment of Miners had been comprised within the Provisions of the said Act, and made Part thereof, and as if the same were severally and separately repeated and re-enacted in this Act as to the said Regiment of Miners; and the said recited Act of the present Session of Parliament and this Act shall be construed as One Act.

Powers of recited Act and this Act to extend to Miners of Cornwall and Devon.

An Act to amend an Act of the Fifty third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England. [10th December 1813.]

WHEREAS an Act passed in the Fifty third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England, and it is expedient to amend the said Act; Be it therefore enacted and declared by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioner appointed or to be appointed by virtue of the said Act, to hold the Court established by virtue of the said Act, and to exercise his Office as occasion shall require in any Part of England; but nevertheless such Commissioner shall at all times have an Office in some convenient Place, either in the Cities of London or Westminster, or in the County of Middlesex, within the Bills of Mortality, for the Dispatch of Business.

Place for holding Court.

II. And whereas it is required by the said Act that every Prisoner applying by Petition to the said Court to be discharged by virtue of the said Act shall previously take the Oath required by the said Act, and that such Petition, with the Schedule in the said Act mentioned, and the said Oath, shall be filed as in the said Act mentioned; and it has been found inconvenient that such Oath should be taken previous to such Petition, and the Order thereon; Be it therefore further enacted, That so much of the said Act as requires such Oath to be taken before the presenting of such Petition, and to be filed therewith, and that Notice thereof should be given as provided by the said Act, be and the same is hereby repealed from and after the passing of this Act.

53 G. 3. c. 102. § 1.

in Part repealed.

III. And be it enacted, That instead thereof, from and after the passing of this Act, such Petition shall contain an Offer to take the Oath required by the said Act, in such Form as the circumstances of the case shall require; and that the said Oath shall be taken upon or after the Examination of such Prisoner under the said Act, and shall thereupon be filed as the said Act directs; and that the Notice required by the said Act to be given upon the Order made on such Petition shall not extend to such Oath: Provided always, that in all cases in which such Oath shall have been taken before the passing of this Act, the same shall be of the same Force and Effect as if this Act had not been made, and the said Court shall proceed therein accordingly, if the said Court shall think fit.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in all cases in which Notices of the Petition of any Prisoner for Discharge under the said Act, and of the Schedule of such Prisoner, and a Copy of the Order on such Petition, are required by the said Act (a) to be served on

(a) [53 G. 3. c. 102. § 1.]

Creditors, or Persons claiming to be Creditors of such Prisoner, it shall be lawful for the Court established by virtue of the said Act to dispense with such Service, and to order that Notice of such several Matters may be in the Form or to, the Effect expressed in the Schedule to this Act marked (A), or in such other Form or to such other Effect as the said Court shall direct, and that such Notice may be given either by Advertisement in the London Gazette or other Newspaper or Newspapers, or in such other manner as the said Court shall see fit; and it shall be lawful to comprise Notices on behalf of several Prisoners in the same Advertisement or Instrument, if the said Court shall so order; and it shall be lawful for the said Court either to direct Lists of the Creditors or Persons claiming to be Creditors of each of such Prisoners to be annexed to such Notice, or to direct that such Notice shall refer to the Schedule delivered by each of such Prisoners filed in the proper Office of the said Court; and such Notice so given according to the Order of the said Court shall be deemed sufficient Notice to the Creditors described in such List, or described in such Schedule, as the case may be; any thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and it shall in like manner be lawful for the said Court to order any other Notice required or authorized by the said Act or by this Act to be given by Advertisement in any Newspaper or Newspapers, or in any other manner as to the said Court shall seem fit.

Court may order any other Notice.

Defective Notices remedied.

V. And be it further enacted, That in case of Defect in the Form or Manner of Service of any Notice required or authorized by the said Act (a) or by this Act, or in the Insertion of such Notice in the London Gazette or in any Newspaper, or in any Mode of Notice ordered by the said Court, it shall be lawful for the said Court from time to time to adjourn the Hearing of any Petition, and to make such further Order respecting the same, or respecting such Notice, as to the said Court shall appear to be reasonable.

Rate paid for Advertisement.

VI. And be it further enacted, That in case any Advertisement to be inserted under the Authority of the said Act (b) or of this Act, in any Newspaper, shall contain more than Fifty Words, there shall be paid for the Insertion thereof at the Rate of Six pence for every Ten Words contained in such Advertisement beyond the Number of Fifty Words over and above the Sum of Three Shillings mentioned in the said Act, and no more.

(b) [53 G. 3. c. 102. § 3.]

In Adjudications, Creditors need not be specified.

VII. And be it further enacted, That in the Adjudication of the said Court that any Prisoner is entitled to the Benefit of the said Act and the Order thereon, it shall not be necessary to specify the several Creditors and Persons claiming to be Creditors of such Prisoner, as required by the said Act (c), but it shall be sufficient, if the said Court shall think fit, to refer in such Order to the Schedule sworn to by such Prisoner, specifying such Creditors or Persons claiming to be Creditors of such Prisoner, either generally or specially, or with such Exceptions as the circumstances of the case shall appear to the Court to require.

(c) [53 G. 3. c. 102. § 10.]

Court empowered to order

VIII. And be it further declared and enacted, That the said Court shall have full Power, and the same is hereby authorized, by any Order for that Purpose, to require the Sheriff or Sheriffs, Keepers or or Gaolers of any Prison, or any other Officer having the Custody of any Prisoner, to bring before such Court, or any Justices of the Peace, at any Quarter Session or Adjourned or Special Session of the Peace, or out of Session, as to the said Court shall seem fit, any such Prisoner, for any of the Purposes authorized by the said Act or by this Act; which Order every such Sheriff, Keeper, Gaoler or other Officer shall obey; and for so doing such Order shall be a sufficient Warrant.

IX. And be it further enacted, That in case the said Court, instead of ordering any Prisoner to be brought before the said Court for Examination, shall direct such Prisoner to be examined before His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for any County, Riding, Division or Place, at a General Session of the Peace or any Adjournment thereof, and it shall appear to the said Court, from the circumstances of the case, to be proper to authorize such Justices to certify their Opinion, whether such Prisoner is entitled to be discharged under the Authority of the said Act, it shall be lawful for any Creditor or Creditors of such Prisoner to oppose such Discharge before such Justices, who shall thereupon proceed to determine whether such Prisoner is or is not entitled to the Benefit of the said Act, and shall certify such Determination to the said Court established by virtue of the said Act, and it shall thereupon be lawful for the said Court to proceed to adjudge accordingly, as the said Court might have done in case such Prisoner had been brought before the said Court; and it shall not be lawful for any Creditor or Person claiming to be a Creditor of such Prisoner to oppose the Discharge of such Prisoner before the said Court, unless due Notice shall not † have been given or, to such Credit or Person claiming to be a Creditor, according to the Order of the said Court for that Purpose, or unless some Fraud or improper Conduct of such Prisoner, or some Irregularity not in question before the said Justices, shall be made appear to the Satisfaction of the said Court.

Court may order Prisoners to be examined before ore Justices in Quarter Sessions.

An Act for further continuing, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, certain Bounties and Drawbacks on the Exportation of Sugar from Great Britain; and for suspending the Countervailing Duties and Bounties on Sugar, when the Duties imposed by an Act of the Forty ninth Year of His present Majesty shall be suspended.

WHEREAS an Act passed in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for discontinuing certain Drawbacks and Bounties on the Exportation of Sugar from Great Britain, and for allowing other Drawbacks and Bounties in lieu thereof, until the Fifteenth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four: And whereas an Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend Two Acts passed in the Forty third and Forty fifth Years of His present Majesty for regulating the Drawbacks and Bounties on the Exportation of Sugar from Great Britain: And whereas Three other Acts passed in the Forty sixth, Forty seventh and Forty eighth Years of His present Majesty, for further continuing the said Act of the Forty third Year of His present Majesty: And whereas another Act passed in the Forty ninth Year of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for further continuing until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and ten, certain Bounties and Drawbacks on the Exportation of Sugar from Great Britain; and for suspending the Countervailing Duties and Bounties on Sugar when the Duties imposed by an Act of the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty shall be suspended: And whereas an Act passed in the Forty ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for repealing the several Duties of Customs chargeable in Great Britain, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof: And whereas by Four other Acts passed in the Fiftieth, Fifty first, Fifty second and Fifty third Years of His present Majesty, the Drawbacks allowed by the said recited Act passed in the Forty ninth Year aforesaid, and the Bounties allowed by the said recited Act of the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty were further continued; and it is expedient that the said Drawbacks and Bounties so continued by the said Acts of the Fiftieth, Fifty first, Fifty second and Fifty third Years of His present Majesty, should be further continued; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several Drawbacks in the Schedule to the said last recited Act of the Forty ninth Year aforesaid annexed, and the Bounties in the Schedule to the said recited Act of the Forty fifth (a) Year of the Reign of His present Majesty annexed, shall be respectively paid and allowed, in like manner and under and according to the like Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures (except where any Alteration is made by this Act), as the said Drawbacks and Bounties were respectively paid or allowed before the passing of this Act.  ' suspended;' Be it therefore further enacted, That whenever the Lord High Treasurer, or the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, shall exercise the Power vested in them, and shall, according to the Directions of the said A^ct, suspend the Payment of the Whole or Part of the Duties on Sugar thereby imposed, it shall be lawful for them, and they are hereby authorized and required, in like manner and for the like Period, to suspend either the whole of the additional Countervailing Duties of Customs on Refined Sugar of the Manufacture of Ireland imported from thence into Great Britain, and of the additional Drawback or Bounty on the Exportation to Ireland of Refined Sugar of the Manufacture of Great Britain, and of the additional Bounty on the Exportation of Refined Sugar from Great Britain other, than to Ireland, imposed and allowed by the said last recited A^ct, or such Part thereof respectively as shall

C A P. XXV.

An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters.

[10th December 1813.]

‘ WHEREAS the raising or keeping a Standing Army within ‘ the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Time ‘ of Peace, unless it be with the Consent of Parliament, is against ‘ Law: And whereas it is judged necessary by His Majesty, and ‘ this

‘ this present Parliament, that a Body of Forces should be continued ‘ for the Safety of the United Kingdom, the Defence of the Posses‘ sions of His Majesty’s Crown, and that the whole Number of such ‘ Forces should consist of Two hundred and thirty six thousand ‘ four hundred and ninety seven effective Officers and Men, exclusive
 ‘ of His Majesty’s Forces employed in the Territorial Possessions
 ‘ of the East India Company, and of the Foreign Corps in Britiſh ‘ Pay: And whereas no Man can be forejudged of Life or Limb, ‘ or subjected in time of Peace to any Kind of Punishment within ‘ this Realm by Martial Law or in any other manner than by the ‘ Judgment of his Peers, and according to the known and established ‘ Laws of this Realm; yet nevertheless, it being requisite for the ‘ retaining all the before mentioned Forces in their Duty, that an ‘ exact Discipline be observed, and that Soldiers who shall mutiny ‘ or stir up Sedition, or shall desert His Majesty’s Service, be ‘ brought to a more exemplary and speedy Punishment than the ‘ usual Forms of the Law will allow;’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,
 That if any Person who is or shall be commissioned or in Pay as an Officer, or who is or shall be lifted or in Pay as a Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier, shall at any time during the Continuance of this Act, begin, excite, cause or join in any Mutiny or Sedition in His Majesty’s Land or Marine Forces, or shall not use his utmost Endeavours to suppress the same, or coming to the Knowledge of any Mutiny or intended Mutiny, shall not without Delay, give Information thereof to his Commanding Officer; or shall misbehave himself before the Enemy; or shall shamefully abandon or deliver up any Garrison, Fortrefs, Post or Guard committed to his Charge, or which he shall be commanded to defend; or shall compel the Governor or Commanding Officer of any Garrison, Fortrefs or Post, to deliver up to the Enemy or to abandon the same; or shall speak Words, or use any other means to induce such Governor or Commanding Officer, or others, to misbehave before the Enemy; or shamefully to abandon or deliver up any Garrison, Fortrefs, Post or Guard committed to their respective Charge, or which he or they shall be commanded to defend; or shall leave his Post before relieved; or shall be found sleeping on his Post; or shall hold Correspondence with, or give Advice or Intelligence to any Rebel or Enemy of His Majesty, either by Letters, Messages, Signs or Tokens, in any manner or way whatsoever; or shall treat or enter into any Terms with such Rebel or Enemy, without His Majesty’s Licence, or Licence of the General or Chief Commander; or shall strike or use any Violence against his superior Officer, being in the Execution of his Office; or shall disobey any lawful Command of his superior Officer; or shall desert His Majesty’s Service; all and every Person and Persons so offending in any of the Matters before mentioned, whether such Offence shall be committed within this Realm, or in any other of His Majesty’s Dominions, or in Foreign Parts, upon Land, or upon the Sea, shall suffer Death, or such other Punishment as by a Court Martial shall be awarded.

‘ XLVIII. And whereas, by the Petition of Right, in the Third Year of King Charles the First, it is enacted and declared, that the People of the Land are not by the Laws to be burthened with the sojourning of Soldiers against their Wills; and by a Clause in an Act of the British Parliament, made in the One and thirtieth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, for granting a Supply to His Majesty of Two hundred and six thousand four hundred sixty two Pounds Seventeen Shillings and Three pence, for paying and disbanding the Forces, it is declared and enacted, That no Officer, Civil or Military, nor other Person whatsoever, should from thenceforth presume to place, quarter or billet, any Soldier or Soldiers upon any Subject or Inhabitant of this Realm, of any Degree, Quality or Profession whatsoever, without his Consent, and that it shall and may be lawful for any Subject, Sojourner or Inhabitant, to refuse to quarter any Soldier or Soldiers notwithstanding any Demand or Warrant or Billetting whatsoever: But soasmuch as at this time, and during the Continuance of this Act, there is and may be Occasion for the marching and quartering of Regiments, Troops and Companies, in several Parts of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland;’ Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, for and during the Continuance of this Act, and no longer, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Constables, Tithingmen, Headboroughs and other Chief Officers and Magistrates of Cities, Towns and Villages, and other Places within England, Wales and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and in their Default or Absence, for any One Justice of the Peace inhabiting in or near any such City, Town, Village or Place, and for no others; and such Constables, and other Chief Magistrates as aforesaid, are hereby required to quarter and billet the Officers and Soldiers in His Majesty’s Service, and Persons receiving Pay in His Majesty’s Army, in Inns, Livery Stables, Alehouses, Victualling-houses, and the Houses of Sellers of Wine by Retail, whether British or Foreign, to be drank in their own Houses, or Places thereunto belonging; other than and except Canteens held and occupied under the Authority of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Barracks, or of the Department of the Ordnance, and other than and except Persons who keep Taverns only, being Freemen of the Company of Vintners of the City of London, who were admitted to the Freedom before the Fifth Day of July One thousand seven hundred and fifty seven; or who since have or shall hereafter be admitted to their Freedom of the said Company in Right of Patrimony or Apprenticeship, notwithstanding such Persons who keep Taverns only have taken out Victualling Licenses; and all Houses of Persons selling Brandy, Strong Waters, Cyder or Metheglin, by Retail, to be drank in Houses, other than and except the House or Houses of any Distillers, who keep Houses or Places for distilling Brandy and Strong Waters, and the House of any Shopkeeper whose principal Dealings shall be more in other Goods and Merchandizes than in Brandy and Strong Waters (so as such Distillers and Shopkeepers do not permit or suffer Tippling in his or their Houses), and in no other, and in no private Houses whatsoever;

whatsoever; nor shall any more Billets at any time be ordered than there are effective Soldiers present to be quartered; all which Billets when made out by such Chief Magistrates or Constables, shall be delivered into the Hands of the Commanding Officer present: And if any Constable, Tithingman, or such like Officer or Magistrate, as aforesaid, shall presume to quarter or billet any such Officer or Soldier in any such private House, without the Consent of the Owner or Occupier, in such case such Owner or Occupier shall have his or their Remedy against such Magistrate or Law Officer, for the Damage that such Owner or Occupier shall sustain thereby: And if any Military Officer shall take upon him to quarter Soldiers otherwise than is limited and allowed by this Act, or shall use or offer any Menace or Compulsion to or upon any Mayors, Constables or other Civil Officers before mentioned, tending to deter and discourage any of them from performing any Part of their Duty hereby required or appointed; such Military Officer shall, for every such Offence (being thereof convicted before any Two or more of the Justices of the Peace of the County, by the Oath of Two credible Witnesses), be deemed and taken to be ipso facto cashiered, and shall be utterly disabled to have or hold any Military Employment within this Kingdom, or in His Majesty's Service; provided the said Conviction be affirmed at the next Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the said County, and a Certificate thereof be transmitted to the Judge Advocate in London, who is hereby obliged to certify the same to the Commander in Chief and Secretary at War: And in case any Person shall find himself aggrieved, in that such Constable, Tithingman or Headborough, Chief Officer or Magistrate (such Chief Officer or Magistrate not being a Justice of the Peace), has quartered or billeted in his House a greater Number of Soldiers than he ought to bear in proportion to his Neighbours, and shall complain thereof to One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the Division, City or Liberty, where such Soldiers are quartered; or in case such Chief Officer or Magistrate shall be a Justice of the Peace, then, on Complaint made to Two or more Justices of the Peace of such Division, City or Liberty, such Justices respectively shall have, and have hereby Power to relieve such Person, by ordering such and so many of the Soldiers to be removed and quartered upon such other Person or Persons as they shall see Cause; and such other Person or Persons shall be obliged to receive such Soldiers accordingly.

LXIV. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby enacted, That the Officers and Soldiers ſo quartered and billeted as aforeſaid, ſhall be received and furniſhed with Diet and Small Beer by the Owners of the Inns, Livery Stables, Alehouſes, Viſtalling Houſes, and other Houſes in which they are allowed to be quartered and billeted by this Act; paying and allowing for the ſame the ſeveral Rates that are or ſhall be eſtabliſhed by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in that reſpect.

LXV. Provided always, That in caſe any Innholder, or other Perſon on whom any Non Commiſſion Officers and Private Men ſhall be quartered by virtue of this Act (except on a March or employed in recruiting, and likewise except the Recruits by them raiſed, for the Space of Seven Days at moſt for ſuch Non Commiſſion Officers and Soldiers who are recruiting and the Recruits by them raiſed), ſhall be deſirous to furniſh ſuch Non Commiſſion Officers and Soldiers with Candles, Vinegar and Salt gratis, and allow to ſuch Non Commiſſion Officers or Soldiers the Uſe of Fire, and the neceſſary Utenſils for dreſſing and eating their Meat, and ſhall give Notice of ſuch his Deſire to the Commanding Officer, and ſhall furniſh and allow the ſame accordingly; then and in ſuch caſe the Non Commiſſion Officers and Soldiers ſo quartered ſhall provide their own Viſuals and Small Beer; and the Officer to whom it belongs to receive, or that does actually receive the Pay and Subſiſtence of ſuch Non Commiſſion Officers and Soldiers, ſhall pay the ſeveral Sums to be payable out of the Subſiſtence Money for Diet and Small Beer to the Non Commiſſion Officers and Soldiers as aforeſaid, and not to the Innholder or other Perſon on whom ſuch such Non Commission Officers and Soldiers are quartered; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXVI. And, that the Quarters both of Officers and Soldiers may hereafter be duly paid and satisfied, and His Majesty's Duties of Excise better answered, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the Twenty fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, every Officer to whom it belongs to receive, or that does actually receive the Pay or Subsistence Money, either for a whole Regiment, or particular Troops and Companies, or otherwise, shall every Four Days, or before the Troops shall quit their Quarters if they shall not remain so long as Four Days, settle the just Demands of all Persons keeping Inns, or other Places where Officers or Soldiers are quartered by virtue of this Act, out of the Pay and Subsistence of such Officers and Soldiers, before any Part of the said Pay or Subsistence be distributed to either of them respectively: And if any Officer or Officers as aforesaid shall not satisfy, content and pay the same, upon Complaint and Oath made thereof by any Two Witnesses, at the next Quarter Sessions for the County or City where such Quarters were (which Oath the Justices of the Peace at such Sessions are hereby authorized and required to administer), the Secretary at War in England, and the Chief Secretary, or in his Absence the Under Secretary for the Military Department in Ireland, is hereby required and authorized (upon Certificate of the said Justices before whom such Oath was made, of the Sum due upon such Accounts, and the Persons to whom the same is owing), to give Orders to the Agent of the Troop or Company to pay and satisfy the said Sums, and to charge the same against such Officer.

Officers receiving Pay to settle Demands of Innkeepers.

Officers not satisfying Accounts charged against them by Agents.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That in case of any Troop or Company being suddenly ordered to march, and that the respective Commanding Officers are not enabled to make Payment of the Sums due for the Lodgings for the Men, and Stabling for the Horses, every such Officer shall before his Departure make up the Account with every Person with whom such Troop or Company may have been quartered, and sign a Certificate thereof, which Account and Certificate shall be transmitted to the Agent of the Regiment, that immediate Payment may be made, which he is hereby required to make accordingly, and to charge the same to the Account of such Officer.

Quarters not paid for before Marching of Troops, Certificate of Amount transmitted to Agent.

[Sessions 68. to 90. are the same as § 66. to 88. of 53 G. 3. c. 17.]

XCI. And be it further enacted, That any Person who shall enlist into His Majesty's Forces, and who shall be discovered to be incapable of active Service by reason of any Infirmary which shall have been concealed by such Person, or not declared before the Justice of the Peace at the time of his Attestation, and mentioned at the Foot thereof, may be transferred into any Garrison or Veteran or Invalid Battalion, or into His Majesty's Marine Forces, notwithstanding he shall have enlisted for any particular Regiment, and shall be entitled to receive such Proportion or Residue of Bounty only as shall be allowed by His Majesty by any Regulation made in that Behalf, in lieu and instead of the Bounty upon which such Man shall have been enlisted; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or any Rules and Regulations relating to Soldiers, to the contrary notwithstanding.

C A P. XXVII.

An Act to rectify a Mistake in an Act of the present Session of Parliament, for repealing the Duties of Customs on Madder imported into Great Britain, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof. [14th December 1813.]

c. 26. ante.

WHEREAS an Act was made in the present Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for repealing the Duties of Customs on Madder imported into Great Britain, and for granting other Duties

' Duties in lieu thereof; to continue in force until the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and seventeen: And whereas it was intended by the said Act that the Duties of Customs on Madder imported into Great Britain and no other Duties should be repealed, but by Mistake the Words "on Madder" were omitted in the Clause in the said Act relating to the Repeal of Duties of Customs; Now, to rectify such Mistake, be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, the Duties of Customs upon Madder imported into Great Britain, in the Recital of the said Act mentioned, and no other Duties of Customs, shall be deemed and taken to be repealed by the said Act; any thing in the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Duty on Madder only, repealed by Act.

C A P. XXVIII.

' WHEREAS it may promote the beneficial Purposes of an Act, passed in the Fifty third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England, and thereby render it unnecessary hereafter to make temporary Laws for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, if such Provisions should be made, by Law, as are hereinafter enacted, for the Discharge of such Persons confined for Debt, as are hereinafter mentioned, to the Intent that the Number of such Persons shall be thereby so reduced, as to render more effectual the Provisions of the said Act of the Fifty third Year of His Majesty's Reign; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all and every Keeper or Gaoler of any Prison in any County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Place or Liberty within England, shall and is and are hereby required to make a true, exact and perfect List alphabetically of the Name or Names of all and every Person or Persons who upon the Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen was or were, and have since continued to be, and at the time of making out every such List shall be really an actual Prisoner or Prisoners in the Custody of any Keeper or Keepers, Gaoler or Gaolers of any Prison respectively, upon any Process whatsoever, for or by reason of any Debt, Damage, Costs, Sum or Sums of Money, or Contempt for Non-payment of Money; and an Account of the time when such Prisoner † was or were respectively charged in Custody or received in Prison, together with the Name or Names of the Person or Persons at whose Suit or Prosecution such Prisoner or Prisoners is or are detained, together with the Amount of such Debts as the said Prisoner or Prisoners are detained for; and shall deliver the same to the Justices of the Peace at their First or Second General Quarter Sessions or General Sessions of the Peace, to be held after the passing which he or she, or any Person or Persons in Trust for him or her, or for his or her Use, Benefit or Advantage, is or are seized of, interested in or entitled unto, or was or were in his, her or their Possession, Custody or Power, or which he, she or they, or such Person or Persons had any Power of disposing of, or charging for his, her or their Benefit or Advantage, at any time since his or her Commitment to Prison, with the Name of his or her several Debtors, and where they respectively live or may be met with, and the several Sums of Money from them respectively owing, and how the same respectively became due and are secured, and if by Mortgage, Specialty, Contract, Note or other Writing, then the Name and Names and Places of Abode of the several Witnesses who can prove such Debts or Contracts; and shall also make Oath and swear to the following Effect, according to the special circumstances, so far as the same shall be consistent with the Provisions hereinafter contained; that is to say,

Oath.

‘ I A. B. upon my corporal Oath, in the Presence of Almighty ‘ God, do solemnly swear, protest and declare, That on the Sixth ‘ Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, I was ‘ really and truly a Prisoner in the actual Custody of ‘ , in the Prison or Gaol of , at the Suit ‘ of , without any Fraud or Collusion what‘ soever; and that I have ever since continued a Prisoner within the ‘ Prison of , in the actual Custody of the ‘ Keeper or Gaoler of the said Prison of ,
 ‘ [or mentioning some other Prison as the case may be] or within the ‘ Liberties thereof, at the Suit of , and with‘ out any Fraud or Collusion whatsoever; and that the Schedule now ‘ delivered by me and subscribed, doth contain, to the best of my ‘ Knowledge, Remembrance and Belief, a full, just, true and perfect ‘ Account and Discovery of all the Goods and Effects, Estates ‘ Real and Personal, in Possession, Reversion, Remainder or Expect‘ ancy, and of every other Nature and Kind whatsoever, which I
 ‘ or any Person in Trust for me or for my Benefit or Advantage ‘ are seized or possessed of, interested in or entitled to, or was or were ‘ in my Possession, Custody or Power, or in the Possession, Custody ‘ or Power of any such Person as aforesaid, or which I or such Per‘ son had any Power of disposing of or charging for my Benefit or ‘ Advantage, at any time since my Commitment to Prison; and of ‘ all Debts to me owing, or to any Person or Persons in Trust
 ‘ for me, and of all the Securities and Contracts whereby any Money ‘ now is or will or may hereafter become payable, or any Benefit or ‘ Advantage may accrue to me or to my Use, or to any Person or ‘ Persons in Trust for me, and the Names and Places of Abode of ‘ the several Persons from whom such Debts are due and owing, and ‘ of the Witnesses who can prove such Debts or Contracts, (if any ‘ such there be); and that neither I, nor any Person or Persons in ‘ Trust for me, or for my Use, have any Lands, Money, Stock, or ‘ any Estate Real or Personal, in Possession, Reversion, Remainder ‘ or Expectancy, or of any Nature or Kind soever, or Power of ‘ disposing of or charging for my Benefit or Advantage, other than ‘ what are in the said Schedule contained, except Wearing Apparel
 ‘ and Bedding for myself and Family, Working Tools, and the ‘ necessary Implements for my Occupation and Calling, together ‘ with

‘ with a Sum of Money not exceeding Five Pounds, and these in ‘ the Whole not exceeding the Value of Thirty Pounds; and that ‘ I have not, nor any Person for me, hath directly or indirectly ‘ sold, lessened or otherwise conveyed, disposed of in Trust, or con‘ cealed all or any Part of my Lands, Money, Goods, Chattels, ‘ Stock, Debts, Securities, Contracts or Estates Real or Personal, ‘ whereby to secure the same, or to receive or expect any Profit or ‘ Advantage therefrom, or with an Intent to defraud or deceive any ‘ Creditor or Creditors to whom I am or was indebted in any wise ‘ howsoever. So help me GOD.’

And before such Oath shall be taken by every Debtor, the said Justices shall examine, upon Oath, such Debtor, touching the several Matters contained therein, as they shall think fit; and if such Debtor shall, upon such Examination, make Answer to the Satisfaction of the said Justices, then the said Schedule and Oath shall be by such Debtor subscribed in the Presence of the Justices in open Sessions of the Peace as hereby directed, and shall be kept by and remain with the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace for the County, City, Liberty, Town or Place, where the same shall be subscribed and taken, for the better Information of all the Creditors of such Debtors who shall desire or may have Occasion to resort thereto; and every such Creditor shall be at Liberty, at seasonable times in the Day-time, to peruse and examine the same.

Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all and every Creditor and Creditors of any Debtor who shall be discharged by virtue of this Act, for any Sum or Sums of Money payable by way of Annuity or otherwise at any future time or times, by virtue of any Bond, Covenant or other Securities of any Nature whatsoever, may be and shall be entitled to be admitted a Creditor or Creditors, and shall be entitled to receive a Dividend or Dividends of the Estate of such Debtor, in such manner and upon such Terms and Conditions as such Creditor or Creditors would have been entitled unto by the Laws now in force if such Debtor had become Bankrupt, and without Prejudice in future to their respective Securities, otherwise than as the same would have been affected by a Proof made in respect thereof by the Creditor under a Commission of Bankrupt and a Certificate obtained by the Bankrupt under such Commission.

Creditors for Annuities payable at any future time, to receive Dividends as under Commission of Bankruptcy.

XX. And

Estates of Debtors not inserted in Schedule vested in Clerk of Peace.

XX. And, to the Intent that no Loss may arise to any Creditor or Creditors from any Neglect or Omission in the Schedule not containing the Whole of the Estate Real or Personal, belonging to any Debtor who shall apply for his or her Discharge under the Authority of this Act, be it enacted, That all the Estate, whether Real or Personal, which shall belong to any Debtor or Debtors, and of which he, she or they shall be actually possessed or entitled unto at the time of making such Schedule, shall be deemed and taken to be Part of the Estate contained in such Schedule, though not inserted therein, and shall in like manner become vested in the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk or other Officer acting as such, to all Intents and Purposes as if the same had been contained in such Schedule, and had been delivered into the Court according to the Directions of this Act.

Holders of Securities without Consideration, not entitled to Benefit.

XXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Person holding any Security whatsoever, for which such Debtor never received any valuable Consideration, shall be entitled to receive any Benefit from the Estate of such Debtor, unless the Person holding such Security shall make it appear to the Satisfaction of the Justices at some General or Quarter Sessions or Adjournment thereof, that he or she became possessed of the same bona fide, and for good or valuable Consideration.

Estates to vest in Clerk of Peace for time being.

XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case of the Death or Removal of any Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace as aforesaid, in whom the Estate, Right, Title, Interest or Trust of any Debtor or Debtors shall have vested by the Authority of this Act, every such Estate, Right, Title, Interest and Trust, shall become vested in the Successor or Successors to every such Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace as aforesaid respectively, as the case may be, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever under the Provisions of this Act.

No Suit in Law or Equity without Consent of Majority of Creditors.

XXIII. Provided further, and be it also enacted, That no Suit in Law or Equity shall be commenced by any Assignee or Assignees of any such Debtor's Estate and Effects without the Consent of the major Part in Value of the Creditors of such Debtor, who shall meet together pursuant to a Notice to be given at least Ten Days before such Meeting in the London Gazette or other Newspaper which shall be published in the Neighbourhood of the last Residence of such Debtor or Debtors for that Purpose.

Mortgages to take place of Debts of an inferior Nature.

XXIV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to hinder or prevent any Mortgage or Mortgages, Charges or Liens upon the Estate of such Debtor or Debtors, or any Part thereof, to take place upon the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments or Personal Estate or Effects comprised in or charged or affected by such Mortgage or Mortgages, Charges or Liens respectively, nor to prevent any Statute Staple, Statute Merchant, Recognizance or Judgment, acknowledged by or obtained against any such Debtor or Debtors, to take place upon the Lands, Tenements or Real Estates of such Debtor or Debtors; and also, where any Inquisition shall have been taken upon any such Statute or Recognizance, or any Writ or Execution shall have been taken out and delivered to the Sheriff or proper Officer upon any such Judgment before such Discharge shall be given in open Session to

to any such Debtor as aforesaid, the Personal Estate of any such Debtor respectively shall be subject thereto in the first place for so much as shall remain due upon such Mortgage, Charge, Lien, Statute, Recognizance or Judgment respectively, in like manner as such Mortgagees and Persons having such Charges or Liens, and Creditors by Statute, Recognizance or Judgment respectively would have been preferred to other Creditors of an inferior Nature, against the Real or Personal Estate of such Debtor or Debtors respectively, if this Act had not been made; any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

‘ XXV. And whereas many Persons who may be entitled to and claim the Benefit of this Act are seised and possessed of Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, to hold to such Debtors for the Term of their natural Lives, with Power of granting Leases and taking Fines, reserving small Rents on such Estates for One, Two or Three Lives, in Possession or Reversion, or for some Number of Years determinable upon Lives, or have Powers over Real or Personal Estate, which such Debtors could execute for their own Advantage, and which said Powers ought to be executed for the Benefit of the Creditors of such Debtor;’ Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in every such case all and every the Powers of leasing such Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, and all other such Powers as aforesaid over Real or Personal Estate, which are or shall be vested in any such Prisoner or Prisoners as aforesaid, shall be and are hereby vested in the Assignee or Assignees of the Real and Personal Estate of such Prisoner by virtue of this Act, to be by such Assignee or Assignees executed for the Benefit of all and every the Creditors of such Prisoners as aforesaid.

Power of leasing Lands, &c. vested in Assignees.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Justices at any General or Quarter Sessions or Adjourned Sessions of the Peace to which any such Prisoner shall be brought in pursuance of this Act shall, if required by any Creditor or Creditors of any such Prisoner or Prisoners, who shall oppose his or her Discharge, or if the said Justices shall so think fit, administer to the Keeper or Gaoler of any such Prison or Gaol, at the time of bringing up any such Prisoner in order to be discharged under this Act, an Oath to the Effect following; that is to say,

Gaoler, on Request of Creditor, sworn.

do swear, That ‘ I was really and truly a Prisoner in my Custody, in the Prison of Oath.
‘ or in Custody in some other Prison [as the ‘ case may be] to the best of my Knowledge and Belief, at or upon ‘ the Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thir‘ teen, and that the Copy or Copies of the Cause or Causes of his ‘ [or, her] Commitment or Detainer, now by me brought, with the ‘ Body of the said and produced to the said ‘ Court, is or are a true Copy or Copies of the Cause or Causes of ‘ such Commitment or Detainer, without any Fraud or Deceit by me ‘ or any other Person, to the best of my Knowledge and Belief.
‘ So help me GOD.’

And if any Person who was a Keeper or Gaoler, or deputed Keeper or Gaoler of any such Prison or Gaol, on the said Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, or since, shall not happen to be the Keeper or Gaoler, or Deputy Keeper or Gaoler of any such Prison or Gaol at the time any such List as aforesaid

If Person delivering in List was not Gaoler on 6th Nov.
1813, he shall take following
Oath.

said is hereby required to be delivered in, then the Justices at any such Sessions or at any Adjourned Sessions may and are hereby required to administer to the respective Person or Persons who shall be Keeper or Gaoler of any such Prison or Gaol, or deputed Keeper thereof, and deliver in such List as aforesaid at any such General or Quarter Sessions or Adjourned Sessions, an Oath touching the Commitments or Books of Commitment of any such Prison or Gaol, to the Effect following; that is to say,

Oath.

‘ I do swear, That I have examined the Commitments or Books of or concerning the Commitments of Prisoners to the Prison of [in the County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Place or Liberty,] and that I do verily believe that the said Commitments or Books of Commitment are really true and not fictitious, nor calculated for this Purpose; and by them it doth appear, that was on the Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen really and truly a Prisoner in the actual Custody of the then Keeper or Gaoler, or Deputy Keeper or Gaoler of the said Prison or Gaol [or other Prison as the case may be] without Fraud or Deceit by me or any other Person or Persons, to my Knowledge or Belief. So help me GOD.’

Debtors falsely swearing shall suffer as for wilful Perjury.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Debtor as aforesaid, who shall come or be brought up to such General or Quarter Sessions, or Adjournment thereof, under the Provisions of this Act, shall wilfully forswear and perjure himself, herself or themselves, in any Oath to be taken under this Act, and shall be lawfully convicted thereof, he, she or they so offending shall suffer such Punishment as by Law may be inflicted on Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Debtors discharged not liable to be imprisoned for Debts prior to 6th Nov. 1813.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Person entitled to the Benefit of this Act shall at any time hereafter be imprisoned by reason of any Judgment or Decree obtained for Payment of Money only, or for any Debt, Bond, Damages, Contempts for Non-payment of Money, Costs, Sum or Sums of Money contracted, incurred, occasioned, owing or growing due before the said Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, but that upon every Arrest upon every Judgment or such Decree, or for such Debts, Damages, Contempts, Costs, Sum and Sums of Money, it shall and may be lawful for any Judge of the Court where the Process issued, or for any Two Justices of the Peace, upon shewing the Copy of the Order of Adjudication as aforesaid, to release and discharge out of Custody such Prisoners as aforesaid, and at the same time to order the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in such Suit or Suits to pay such Prisoner or Prisoners the Costs which he, she or they shall have incurred on such Occasion, or so much thereof as to such Judge or Justices shall seem just and reasonable; and every such Judge is hereby empowered so to do on such Prisoner's causing a Common Appearance to be entered for him on every such Action or Suit.

Prisoners not discharged of ‘ XXIX. And whereas under former Acts of this kind, Doubts have arisen what was to be done with such Prisoners who applied at any Session to be discharged, who owed and stood charged with Debts as well previous as subsequent to the Day limited by the respective Acts;’ To remedy which, be it therefore enacted, That no Prisoner or Prisoners shall be discharged of any Debts incurred subsequent to

to the Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen; and if it shall appear to the Justices at any Sessions or Adjournment, that any Prisoner or Prisoners then applying to them to be discharged shall stand charged as well with Debts previous to as subsequent to the said Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, that in such cases it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices to discharge the Person of such Prisoner on account of all Debts which shall appear to their Satisfaction, by the Oath of such Prisoner not being disproved (or otherwise), to have been incurred previous to the said Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, and to remand him or her back to the Custody of the Keeper of the Prison from whence he or she was brought, for all Debts which he or she stands charged with in his Custody, which shall appear to the Justices to have been incurred subsequent to the said Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen; and their Order for such Discharge shall indemnify the Sheriff or Sheriffs, Keeper or Keepers, Gaoler or Gaolers, against any Escape or Escapes, Action or Actions whatsoever for Escapes, which shall or may be brought, commenced or prosecuted against him or them; any thing to the contrary herein notwithstanding.

Debts subsequent to 6th Nov. 1813.

Sheriff indemnified.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That in any Action of Escape, or any Suit or Action to be brought against any Justice or Justices of the Peace, Sheriff, Keeper or Gaoler of any Prison, for performing their Office in pursuance of this Act, they may plead the General Issue, and give this Act in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff be nonsuited or discontinue his Action, or Verdict pass against him, or Judgment upon Demurrer, the Defendant shall have Treble Costs.

General Issue.

Treble Costs Act pleaded generally by Prisoners.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Seire Facias or Action of Debt, or upon Judgment, shall be brought against any Prisoner, his or her Heirs, Executors or Administrators, upon any Judgment obtained against any such Prisoner, or on any Statute or Recognizance acknowledged by him or her before the said Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, with respect to Prisoners in actual Custody on the said Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, it shall and may be lawful for any such Prisoner, his or her Heirs, Executors or Administrators, to plead generally that such Prisoner was actually a Prisoner in such Prison or in some other Prison, at such a Person's Suit, on the said Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, and was or were duly discharged according to this Act, at the General Quarter Sessions or General Sessions or Adjournment thereof, held at such Time and Place for such County, Liberty, City, Town or Place (according to his, her or their case,) without pleading any Matter specially; and in case any other Suit or Action shall be commenced against him, her or them, for any other Debt, Sum or Sums of Money due before the said Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, to plead in discharge of his or her Person from Execution (over and above such Matters as aforesaid), that such Debt or Sum of Money (as the case may be) was contracted or due before the said Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, without pleading any other Matter specially, whereto the Plaintiff shall or may reply generally, and deny the Matters pleaded as aforesaid, or reply any other Matter or Thing which may shew the said Defendant not to be entitled entitled to the Benefit of this Act, or not duly discharged according to it, in the same manner as the Plaintiff might have replied in case the Defendant had pleaded this Act, and his Discharge by virtue of this Act specially; and if the Plaintiff be nonsuited, discontinued his Action, or Verdict pass against him, or Judgment on Demurrer, the Defendant to have Treble Costs.

Treble Costs.

Prisoners, who on Application as Insolvent Debtors have been remanded back, and since discharged without Consent, entitled to Benefit of Act.

XXXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Person being a Prisoner charged in Execution on the said Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, and having before or since that Day petitioned any Court to be discharged as an Insolvent Debtor, and having conformed to the several Provisions of the Laws in being for that Purpose, shall have been brought up, and by the Court remanded back to the Prison or Gaol from which such Prisoner was brought up, there to continue in Execution, on the Undertaking of his or her Plaintiff or Plaintiffs to pay to him such weekly or other Allowance as by Law is directed to be paid in such case during such time as such Prisoner shall remain in Execution at the Suit of such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, and such Prisoner so continued in Execution shall have been or shall be discharged from such Execution by his or her Plaintiff or Plaintiffs without his or her own Privity or Consent subsequent to the said Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, and before the Day whereon he or she might otherwise have applied to take the Benefit of this Act, every such Prisoner shall be entitled, notwithstanding such Discharge, to the same Relief and Advantage to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever which he or she might or could have otherwise obtained by virtue of this Act; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Act not to extend to Attornies, Servants embezzling Money, Sheriff's Officers, &c. except confined 20 Years:

XXXIII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to release or discharge any Attorney at Law, Solicitor, or any other Person or Persons acting or pretending to act as such, with regard to any Debt with which he or they shall stand charged, for any Money or other Effects recovered or received by him or them for the Use of any Person or Persons, Bodies Corporate or Politic, and by any Attorney, Solicitor, or any other Person or Persons acting as such, embezzled, concealed or converted to his or their own Use; or to release or discharge any Servant, or any other Person or Persons employed or entrusted as such, with regard to any Debt or Demand with which he, she or they shall stand charged, for or on account of any Money, Goods or other Effects received or possessed by him, her or them, for the Use and on Account of his, her or their Master or Masters or Employers, and by such Servant or such other Person or Persons aforesaid, embezzled, concealed or converted to his, her or their own Use; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding; except where such Persons shall have been confined in Prison for the Space of Ten Years last past: Provided, that nothing in this Act contained extend or be construed to extend to release any Sheriff's Officer, or Serjeant at Mace of the City of London, or to release any other Person employed by any Sheriff, Bailiff, Gaoler or Keeper of any Prison, with regard to any Debt or Demand for or on account of any Money, Goods or other Effects, received or possessed by any such Sheriff's Officer, Serjeant at Mace, or other Person as aforesaid, for the Use or on the Account of his, her or their Employer, and by

such Sheriff's Officer, Serjeant at Mace, or other Person as aforesaid, embezzled, concealed or converted to his, her or their own Use.

‘ XXXIV. And whereas many evil disposed Persons, to support their profligate way of Life by various subtle Stratagems, Threats and Devices, and under assumed and fictitious Name or Names for the Purpose of obtaining Credit, have fraudulently obtained divers Sums of Money, or Securities for Money, Goods and Merchandizes, to the great Injury of Trade and Credit ;’ Be it enacted, That no Prisoner, who knowingly and designedly, by false Pretence or Pretences, or under any fictitious Name or Names assumed for the Purpose of obtaining Credit, shall have obtained from any Person or Persons Money, Goods, Wares, Merchandize, Bonds, Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, or other Securities for Money, shall have or receive any Benefit or Discharge by or under this Act ; but on due Proof of such fraudulent Conduct as aforesaid, the Justices shall remand such Prisoner to the Custody of the Gaoler or Keeper of the Prison from which he or she shall have been brought up to take the Benefit of this Act ; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding ; except where such Person shall have been confined in Prison for the Space of Ten Years last past.

Nor to Persons obtaining Money, &c. under false Pretences, &c. except confined 10 Years.

XXXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Truth of each of the Objections and Exceptions aforesaid against the obtaining the Benefit of this Act, shall be proved by the Testimony upon Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, or other legal Proof or Evidence admissible in a Court of Law : Provided always, that no Prisoner, who shall have been remanded to Prison under any Act heretofore passed for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, for having fraudulently obtained Money, Goods or Securities for Money on false Pretences, or for having secretly or fraudulently removed Stock, Cattle or other Effects, which were subject or liable to be detained for Rent, or who shall have lost or forfeited the Benefit of any such former Act, by having made any fraudulent Sale, Transfer, Conveyance or Assignment, since his or her Imprisonment, to the Prejudice of his Creditor or Creditors, or who shall have fraudulently obtained a Discharge under such former Act, or shall have taken a false Oath under such Act, shall have or receive any Benefit or Discharge under this Act, but shall be remanded to Prison as aforesaid by the Justices before whom he or she shall be brought up to take the Benefit of this Act : Provided always, that such Objections or Exceptions were supported by such Proof or Evidence as is hereinbefore provided and directed to be made under this present Act, and not otherwise ; and that no Person shall be permitted to make the Objections in this Act mentioned against any Prisoner, except a detaining Creditor, or such Person or Persons as have commenced their Action or Actions against such Prisoner previous to the Sixth Day of November last past grounded on the Matters in the said Exceptions mentioned : Provided also, that no Person charged in Execution for Damages recovered in any Action for Criminal Conversation with the Wife of the Plaintiff in such Action, or in any Action for seducing or carnally knowing the Daughter or Female Servant of the Plaintiff, or in any Action for a malicious Prosecution, or in any Action for any other malicious Injury, shall have any Benefit under this Act,

Evidence of Objections given.

Nor to Prisoners remanded to Prison under any Insolvent Act, for fraudulently obtaining Money, &c.

Nor to Persons charged in Execution for Damages recovered in any Action for Criminal Conversation,

Ac. except confined 10 Years.

except only in cases where the Plaintiff in such Actions respectively shall be dead, and no Person shall have obtained Probate of the Will or Letters of Administration of the Effects of such Plaintiff within Twelve Months after his Decease; and except where such Person shall have been confined in Prison for the Space of Ten Years last past.

Nor to Persons
removing Effects of Value of 30l. liable to be dis-trained for Rent, except confined

‘ XXXVI. And whereas many Debtors for Rents of Lands, Messuages, Houses and other Premises, have, with fraudulent Intent to disappoint the Right of their respective Landlords, removed the Stock, Cattle, Furniture, Goods or other Effects, which were subject or liable to be distrained for the Satisfaction of the said Rents;’ Be it therefore enacted, That no Prisoner or Prisoners, who, in a secret, clandestine or fraudulent manner, shall have removed or caused to be removed within Six Years, any such Stock, Cattle, Furniture, Goods or Effects of the Value of Thirty Pounds or upwards, which were subject or liable to be distrained by their respective Landlord or Landlords for or in Payment of such Rent or Rents, whereby such Landlord or Landlords shall have lost all or some Part of the Rent or Rents due to him, her or them as aforesaid, shall be discharged by or under this Act, but shall be remanded in manner hereinbefore mentioned; provided such Proof shall be made thereof as shall be satisfactory to the Justices before whom such Prisoner shall be brought up to take the Benefit of this Act, except where such Person shall have been confined in Prison for the Space of Ten Years last past.

selling or assigning Effects to defraud Creditors, except confined 10 Years.

‘ XXXVII. And whereas many Debtors have, with a view to defraud their Creditors, sold, transferred, conveyed or assigned their Estate or Effects to some Person or Persons, subsequent to their being in Custody of Law or imprisoned under some Process for Debt: And whereas such Sale, Transfer, Conveyance or Assignment hath been fraudulently made, to the Injury of his Creditor or Creditors, though it hath been difficult to convict the Party of a fraudulent Design;’ Be it enacted, That whenever it shall be proved that such Prisoner has sold, transferred, conveyed or assigned to any Person or Persons all or any Part of his Estate or Effects, with an Intent to defraud or delay his or her Creditors, or without just Cause for so doing, to be determined by the Justices before whom such Prisoner shall be brought up to take the Benefit of this Act, every such Debtor shall lose all the Benefits and Advantages that he might have otherwise claimed under the Authority of this Act, and shall be remanded in manner hereinbefore mentioned; and every such Sale, Transfer, Conveyance or Assignment is hereby declared null and void, except where such Person shall have been confined in Prison for the Space of Ten Years last past.

losing Money at Play, except confined 10
Years.

‘ XXXVIII. And whereas many Prisoners squander and expend a great Part of their remaining Property by playing at Cards, Dice or other unlawful Games, to the great Injury of their Creditors;’ Be it enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to discharge or release any Prisoner who hath or shall have lost, in any one Day since the Date of his Commitment to Prison for any Debt with which he stood charged on the Sixth Day of November last, the Sum or Value of Twenty Pounds, or in the Whole since such Commitment as aforesaid, the Sum of One hundred Pounds, in playing at or with Cards, Dice, Tables, Tennis,

Bowls,

Bowls, Billiards, or other Game or Games whatsoever, or in or by bearing a Share or Part in the Stakes, Wagers or Adventures, or in or by betting on the Sides or Hands of such as do play as aforesaid; but on due Proof thereof to the Satisfaction of the Justices assembled at such Quarter Sessions or Adjourned Sessions before which such Prisoner shall be brought, it shall be lawful for such Justices, and they are hereby required to remand such Prisoner to Gaol; any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary notwithstanding, except where such Person shall have been confined in Prison for the Space of Ten Years last past.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That every Gaoler or Keeper of any Prison shall and is hereby required to suffer any Person or Persons desiring the same, to see and speak with in the Day-time either in the Lodge or other convenient Room in the said Prison, any Prisoner or Prisoners whose Names are inserted in the before mentioned List or Lists, or the London Gazette or other Newspapers, in manner aforesaid, and also to see in the true and genuine Books of the said Prison the Entries made of the Name or Names of such Prisoner or Prisoners, Debtor or Debtors, together with the Name or Names of the Person or Persons at whose Suit or Suits he, she or they are or were detained; and if any such Keeper or Gaoler shall refuse or neglect to comply with what is hereby above required, every such Gaoler or Keeper who shall so offend in the Premises, shall forfeit and pay to the Person so refused and aggrieved the Sum of Forty Pounds, to be recovered with Costs of Suit by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of the Courts of Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Wager of Law or more than One Imparance shall be allowed, by and in the Name or Names of the Persons so refused and aggrieved.

Gaolers not permitting Prisoners to be spoken with, or Entry in Books of Prison to be seen.

Penalty.

XL. And be it further enacted, That if any Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper of any Prison or Prisons shall make or cause to be made any false Entries in any Book or Books belonging to any Prison or Gaol under his Care, or of which he is or was Gaoler, or shall prepare or keep, or cause to be prepared or kept, any false Book or Books, in order for any false or untrue Entry or Entries to be made therein, or shall insert in any List to be delivered in as aforesaid, the Name or Names of any Person or Persons who was or were not in actual Custody as aforesaid, except as in the Oath of any such Gaoler or Keeper or deputed Gaoler or Keeper shall be excepted, every such Gaoler or Keeper or deputed Gaoler or Keeper shall, over and above the Penalties which he shall be liable to for every such Fraud, forfeit and pay the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, to be recovered with Treble Costs of Suit, by and in the Name and for the Use of any Person or Persons who shall be prejudiced by any such false Entry or Entries, which Penalties shall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Wager of Law or more than One Imparance shall be allowed.

Gaoler making false Entries.

Penalty.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That if any Debtor, being thereunto required by any Creditor or Creditors, shall refuse to come to the Lodge of the Prison in which any such Prisoner shall be confined, or when come to such Lodge shall refuse to discover and declare the Trade or Occupation and the last Place of Abode or

Debtors refusing to discover Trade and Abode of Person at whose Suit detained,

excluded Benefit of Act.

Habitation, to the best of his or her Knowledge or Belief, of the Person or Persons at whose Suit he or she was detained or charged in Custody, without some reasonable Cause being shewn for such Refusal, every such Debtor, on Proof being made thereof before the Justices at any General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace or any Adjournment thereof, to be held as aforesaid, shall not have or receive any Benefit or Discharge by or under this Act; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Justices for Surry may adjourn to Session House Horsemonger
Lane.

XLII. Provided always, and be it hereby enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace for the said County of Surry to issue his or their Warrant or Warrants for the bringing up of any Prisoner or Prisoners in order to his, her or their Discharge under the Provisions of this Act, at any Quarter Sessions or Adjourned Session of the Peace, other than such as shall be holden at the Sessions House in Horsemonger Lane, in the Parish of Newington aforesaid.

Justices for York and Lincoln may hold Session near to County Gaol.

XLIII. And whereas there is but one Common or County Gaol for each of the respective Counties of York or Lincoln, which said Counties are each of them divided into several Ridings or Divisions, all of which have several Commissions of the Peace; and if the Gaoler of these Gaols be obliged to carry the Debtors Prisoners therein, to the Quarter Sessions of such Riding or Division, the same will be a very great Charge, not only to such Gaoler but also to the Prisoners in these large Counties; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for Two or more Justices of the Peace for any of the Ridings or Divisions in the respective Counties (or any other County or Counties where the Prisons are at a Distance from the Place where the Sessions are held), at the Common or County Gaol thereof respectively, or at any other Gaol or Gaols within the said Counties, or at some convenient Place near thereto, and they are hereby required to assemble and meet and to hold Sessions there by Adjournment from their respective Quarter Sessions from time to time, for the Discharge of the respective Prisoners therein, according to the Powers, Limitations and Directions of this Act.

Justices for District of Holland may hold an Adjourned Session.

XLIV. And whereas the District or Division of Holland in the said County of Lincoln, is distant near Forty Miles from the said County Gaol, and it is highly inconvenient and expensive for the Justices of the Peace acting for the said Division, to be obliged to travel to the said Gaol, for the sole Purpose of discharging the Prisoners under the Powers by this Act given; Be it therefore enacted, That, for the several Purposes aforesaid, the Justices for the said Division or District of Holland may adjourn their original Sessions to the County Gaol, or to some Place near thereunto; and it shall and may be lawful for any Two Justices of the Peace acting either for the Parts of Lindsey, Kesteven or Holland, to hold such Adjourned Sessions for the sole Purpose of discharging such Prisoners, Notice of the Adjournment of such original Sessions being given by the Clerk of the Sessions to such Justices, and who shall attend there to register the Proceedings of the said Court, so far as the same relate to or affect the Discharge of any Prisoner detained for Debt in the Division of Holland, and claiming the Benefit of this Act.

Prisoners in Custody for

XLV. And be it further enacted, That all Debtors and others, who were in Prison on or before the said Sixth Day of November

One

One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, in any of the Gaols of England, and now remain, for not paying their Fees, Rent or other Demand, due or claimed as due to the Keeper or Keepers of any Prison respectively, or to any other Officer of such Prison, and upon no other account, shall be discharged therefrom, he, she or they taking the Oath by this Act required to be taken by Prisoners.

XLVI. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That this Act shall not extend or be construed to extend to discharge any Prisoner seeking the Benefit of this Act, with respect of any Debt or Penalty with which he or she shall stand charged at the Suit of The Crown, or of any Person for any Offence committed against any Act or Acts of Parliament relative to His Majesty's Revenues of Customs, Excise, Stamps or Salt Duties, or any of them, or any Branches of the Public Revenue, or at the Suit of any Sheriff or other Public Officer upon any Bail Bond entered into for the Appearance of any Person prosecuted for any Offence committed against any Act or Acts of Parliament relative to His Majesty's said Revenues of Customs, Excise, Stamps or Salt Duties, or any other Branches of the Public Revenue, unless any Three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being shall certify their Consent, under their Hands, to the said Justices at their said Sessions or Adjournment thereof, for the Discharge of such Prisoner as aforesaid.

Act not to extend to Debtors of the Crown Offenders against the Revenue, &c. unless Treasury consent.

XLVII. And whereas under former Acts Creditors have been put to great Expence and Trouble in attending every Sessions and Adjournment, during the whole Continuance of this Act, to oppose the Discharge of Debtors clearly excluded from any Benefit under the said respective Acts, but who, after having been before one Sessions and refused a Discharge, or having given Notice of his or her Intention to be brought up as required by this Act, and not procuring himself or herself to be brought up conformably to such Notice, gave fresh Notices for each subsequent Sessions and Adjournment of their intended Application to be discharged, with the sole View of harassing and subjecting to Inconvenience their Creditors; To remedy which, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all cases whatever the Determination of the Justices in Sessions or Adjournment shall be final to all Intents and Purposes, unless the Debtor shall get rid of the Objection or Objections for which they refused his Discharge; and that the same may be clear and certain, the Justices are hereby required to state the Objections why such Debtor's Discharge is refused by them; and in all cases whatever it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices, at some one subsequent Sessions within the Space of Twelve Calendar Months after he shall have been so remanded, upon Application of the Prisoner, and due Proof on Oath or otherwise to the Satisfaction of the Justices in Sessions or Adjournment, of such Objection or Objections being removed, and on Proof of Notice served at least Twenty Days previous to such Application on the Creditor or Creditors who before opposed his Discharge, or on satisfactory Reasons being given to the said Court why he or she was not brought up conformably to such Notice, and of Notice likewise inserted in the London Gazette in manner before directed by this Act, to order such Prisoner to be brought before them; and if they then shall be of Opinion that the said Debtor is entitled to the Determination of Justices final, unless Debtor gets rid of Objections to Discharge.

Benefit

Benefit of this Act, to adjudge him or her to be entitled thereto, and if a Prisoner, to order him or her to be discharged, he or she taking the Oath, and in all other respects conforming to the Directions of this Act.

Estates of which Prisoners are seized in Tail, delivered up to Creditors.

XLVIII. And whereas it may happen that several Persons who may claim and be entitled to the Benefit of this Act, are seized of an Estate Tail in some Freehold Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, which Entail, with the Remainders thereon expectant, they have by Law Power to defeat and bar, either by levying a Fine or Fines, suffering a Common Recovery or Common Recoveries whereby the said Freehold Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments of such Person or Persons would be liable to the Payment of their Debts, and be delivered up according to the Terms of this Act, for the Benefit of their Creditors; Be it therefore further enacted, That in every such case such Person or Persons so seized as aforesaid, and who shall be entitled to and claim the Benefit of this Act, shall to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever in Law be deemed and taken, and is and are hereby declared to be seized of such Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments in Fee, and the same shall be delivered up to such Creditor or Creditors of every such Prisoner in the same manner as if such Person or Persons had actually levied a Fine, suffered a Common Recovery or Recoveries, and thereby had become seized in Fee; any Law or Construction of Law to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Assignees may apply for further Examination of Debtors to Two Justices.

XLIX. And whereas many Persons who may be entitled to and claim the Benefit of this Act have been great Dealers, or otherwise engaged in large Transactions, whereby they may be entitled to sundry and great Debts and Demands of various and intricate Natures, and they may be entitled to Equities of Redemption of Estates subject and liable to Mortgages, Judgments or other Incumbrances, or to Reversions, Remainders, or other Contingent Estates, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or to other Trusts or Interests in Estates both Real and Personal, which may not be sufficiently described or discovered in the Schedule or Inventory before directed to be delivered in upon Oath by the Prisoner to be discharged as aforesaid, or which may want his Aid and Assistance to adjust, make out, recover or manage for the Benefit of his Creditors; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the respective Assignees of the Estate and Effects of such Debtor or Debtors who shall obtain his, her or their Discharge in pursuance of this Act, or any other Person or Persons duly authorized by them for that Purpose, from time to time to apply to any Two or more of the Justices of the Peace for the County, City, Town, Place or Liberty where such Debtor or Debtors shall be then residing, thereby desiring that such Debtor or Debtors may be further examined as to any Matters and Things relating to his, her or their Estate or Effects; whereupon such Justices shall send for or call before them such Debtor or Debtors by such Warrant, Summons, Ways or Means as they shall think fit, and upon such Debtor's appearing, shall examine him, her or them, as well upon Oath or otherwise, as to such Matters and Things as such Assignee shall desire, relating to the Estate and Effects of such Debtor or Debtors; and if any Debtor

Debtor or Debtors, on Payment or Tender of Payment of such reasonable Charges as such Justices shall judge sufficient, shall neglect or refuse to come or appear, not having a lawful Excuse, allowed by such Justices, or being come before them shall refuse to be sworn, or to answer such Questions as by such Justices shall be put to him, her or them, relating to the Discovery of his, her or their Estate or Effects so vested or intended to be vested in such Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, of such Assignees as aforesaid, then it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justices by Warrant under their Hands and Seals to apprehend such Debtor or Debtors so offending as aforesaid, and him, her or them to commit to the Common Gaol, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize until such time as he, she or they shall submit him, her or themselves to such Justices, and answer upon Oath to all such lawful Questions as shall by such Justices be put to him, her or them, for the Purposes aforesaid.

Warrant.

Imprisonment.

L. Provided always, and be it enacted, That notwithstanding the Discharge of any Debtor or Debtors by virtue of this Act, if it shall hereafter appear that the same was obtained fraudulently, or that any Part of the Oath taken by any such Debtor was not true, then and in every such case every such Discharge shall be void and of none Effect.

Fraudulent discharge void.

LI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful at all times hereafter, for any Assignee or Assignees of the Estate or Effects of any Debtor or Debtors, who shall be chosen in pursuance of this Act, by and with the Consent of the major Part in Value of the Creditors of such Debtor or Debtors who shall be present at a Meeting to be had on Twenty one Days' Notice being previously given for the Purpose hereafter mentioned, in the London Gazette, if the Debtor was in Custody in London, or within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and if not, then also in some Newspaper which shall be published in the County, City or Place in or near which such Person or Persons shall have been in Gaol, to make Compositions with any Person or Persons or Accountants to such Debtor or Debtors, where the same shall appear necessary or reasonable, and to take such reasonable Part of any such Debt as can upon any such Composition be gotten, in full Discharge of such Debts and Accounts; and also to submit any Difference or Dispute between such Assignee or Assignees and any Person or Persons for or on account or by reason of any Matter, Cause or Thing relating to the Estate and Effects of such Debtor or Debtors; and every such Assignee or Assignees is and are hereby indemnified for what they shall fairly do in the Premises in pursuance of this Act.

Assignees with Consent of Majority in Value, of Creditors may compound Debts and submit disputes to Arbitration.

LII. And whereas Provision ought to be made as to what should become of the Estate and Effects of any Debtor or Debtors not got in, obtained or recovered by any Assignee or Assignees at the time of his or their Death or Deaths, and whose Heir or Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns refuse to act or meddle therein; To remedy which, be it enacted, That in all such cases it shall and may be lawful to and for the Creditors of every such Debtor or Debtors to choose a new Assignee or Assignees, and to obtain a new Assignment from the Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy, Town Clerk or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, pursuant to the Order of the Justices, and which said Order the said Justices are hereby required and empowered to direct (on due Proof on Oath being made to them of the Death of such former Assignee or Assignees, and Refusal of his or their Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns to act or meddle therein); and the said Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy, Town Clerk or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, hereby conforming to all Orders and Directions made by this Act relative to them or any of them, and to be liable to all such Pains and Penalties as are inflicted on them or any of them by this Act for Disobedience in any Part thereof, or Neglect of Duty whatever; and in case any such Assignee or Assignees shall die, and his Heirs, Executors, Administrators or Assigns shall refuse to act, that then and in such case it shall be lawful for such Justices of the Peace to appoint a new Assignee or Assignees with like Powers and Authorities as are given by this Act; and the said Justices shall have Power in a summary way to oblige the Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns of such Assignee or Assignees to account for and deliver up all such Estate and Effects as shall remain in his or their Hands, to be applied for the Purposes of this Act.

Courts removing Assignees.

LIII. And, to the Intent and Purpose that the Estate and Effects of such Debtor or Debtors as shall be discharged by virtue of this Act, may be duly and faithfully applied for the Benefit of his, her or their real Creditors, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the respective Courts at Westminster, and the Courts of Great Sessions in Wales, and the Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster and Durham respectively, from whence any Process issued upon which any such Debtor or Debtors was or were committed, or where the Process issued out of any other Court, to and for the Judges of the Court of King's Bench, Common Pleas and Exchequer, or of Great Sessions, or Counties Palatine aforesaid, within their respective Jurisdictions, or any one of them, from time to time upon the Petition of any such Debtor, or the Creditor or Creditors of such Debtor, complaining of any Insufficiency, Fraud or Misconduct of any Assignee or Assignees of the Estate or Effects of any such Debtor or Debtors, to summon all Parties concerned, and upon hearing the Parties concerned therein to make and give such Orders and Directions therein, either for the Removal of such Assignee or Assignees, and appointing any new Assignee or Assignees in the Place of such Assignee or Assignees so to be removed, and for the prudent, just and equitable Management or Distribution of the Estate and Effects of any such Debtor, for the Benefit of the respective Creditors, as the said Courts or Judges respectively shall think fit; and in case of the Removal of any Assignee or Assignees, and the appointing of any new Assignee or Assignees, the Estate and Effects of such Debtor or Debtors shall from thenceforth be divested out of the Assignee or Assignees so removed, and be vested in and delivered over to such new Assignee or Assignees, in the same manner and for the same Intents and Purposes as the same were before vested in the Assignee or Assignees first chosen; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

In cases of mutual Credit, Balance stated.

LIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in all cases where mutual Credit hath been given between any Debtor who shall be discharged in pursuance of this Act and any other Person or Persons

Persons, or Bodies Politic or Corporate, before the Delivery of such Schedule or Inventory of the Estate and Effects of such Debtor or Debtors upon Oath as aforesaid, the respective Assignee or Assignees of such Debtor or Debtors is and are hereby authorized and required on his and their Parts to state and allow an Account between them and the other Party or Parties concerned; and nothing more shall be deemed to be vested in such Clerk of the Peace, or Town Clerk or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, or such Assignee or Assignees as aforesaid, as the Estate or Effects of such Debtor or Debtors than what shall appear to be justly due to him, her or them respectively, as and for the Balance of such Account when truly stated.

‘ LV. And whereas great Numbers of poor People have been and are now imprisoned for Debt upon Processes issuing out of Courts of Conscience;’ It is hereby enacted and declared, That all such Prisoners shall be entitled to have the Benefit of this Act, and be discharged under the same, provided he, she and they conform to the Directions hereinbefore prescribed, touching other Prisoners who shall be discharged by virtue of this Act; and the Keeper or Keepers, Gaoler or Gaolers, of all and every Gaol, Prison or other Place of Confinement, in which any Person or Persons are confined, or charged in Execution with Debts under Process or Processes issuing out of or from such Courts of Conscience, are hereby required to make out and deliver to the Justices assembled at the next Quarter Sessions or Adjourned Sessions of the Peace, a true List or Lists of the Prisoners in their Custody so confined or charged in Execution, in like manner as the Gaolers or Keepers of other Prisons are directed by this Act.

Persons imprisoned by Courts of Conscience entitled to Benefit of Act, and Lists returned of them to Session.

‘ LVI. And be it further enacted, That in all cases wherein by this Act an Oath is required, the solemn Affirmation of any Person being a Quaker shall and may be accepted and taken in lieu thereof; and every Person making such Affirmation, who shall be convicted of wilful and false Affirmation, shall incur and suffer such and the same Penalties as are inflicted and imposed by this Act upon Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Affirmation of Quakers taken.

Perjury.

‘ LVII. And whereas Debtors are frequently, to the Injury of themselves and their Creditors, remanded back to Prison on account of mere Errors or Omissions in point of Form relating to their Notices or the making out of their Schedules, or other Proceedings directed by this Act;’ It is hereby enacted and declared, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices assembled at such Quarter Sessions or Adjournment thereof as aforesaid, to amend such Matters of Form or to supply such Omissions, or to correct such Errors in the said Notices, Schedules or other Proceedings directed or declared to be effectual by this Act, as shall appear to the said Justices to have arisen from Ignorance or Mistake of the Parties, without remanding back the said Prisoner or Prisoners; any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Justices may amend Notices and Schedules in Matters of Form.

‘ LVIII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases whatsoever the Insolvent, upon his releasing any Interest he or she may have in the Residuum of his or her Estate, shall and may be admitted as a good and sufficient Witness in any Action or Cause to be instituted by his or her Assignee or Assignees for the Recovery of any Debts due to the said Insolvent, in the same manner as a Bankrupt may after obtaining his Certificate.

Insolvent on releasing Interest, good Witness.

LIX. And

Future Estates of Debtors discharged under
Debts.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be deemed or taken to discharge the future Estate or Effects, Real or Personal, of any Person or Persons discharged under this Act, whether such Person or Persons shall or shall not have been charged in Execution of or from the Payment of any Debts, Damages, Costs, Sum or Sums of Money due, owing or demandable from any such Person or Persons, or in respect of which any such Person or Persons was or were in Custody; and all and every Person or Persons entitled to receive or be paid any such Debt, Damages, Costs, Sum or Sums of Money, shall have all such and the like Remedies in Law or Equity against such future Estate and Effects, other than and except the necessary Apparel and Bedding of such Person or Persons and their Family, and the necessary Tools for his, her or their Trade and Occupation, not exceeding the Value of Forty Pounds, but not against the Person of the Party for Payment thereof, as he, she or they might have had if this Act had not been made; and in any case in which the Payment or Recovery of such Demands or Sums of Money could before the passing of this Act have been enforced only by Commitment, either on the Ground of Contempt or otherwise, of the Persons liable thereto, the Party interested therein shall be and is hereby enabled to sue the Person or Persons who ought to have paid the same for what shall remain unsatisfied thereof, in like manner as if the Sum remaining unsatisfied had been Money lent and advanced by or Money had and received for the Use of the Person having such Demand, but shall be entitled to recover or have Execution out of or against such future Estates and Effects only, and shall not be entitled to arrest or take in Execution the Party against whom such Demand shall be enforced.

Persons having taken Benefit of Insolvent Act within Five Years, not entitled to Relief.

LX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person who shall have taken the Benefit of any Act heretofore passed for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, within the Space of Five Years last past, shall have or receive any Benefit or Advantage of or under this Act, nor be deemed to be within the Intent and Meaning thereof, so as to be discharged under the same; any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Bankrupts how far availed by Act.

LXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Prisoner against whom any Commission of Bankrupt shall have issued and shall remain in force, and who shall not have obtained a Certificate of his or her Conformity to the several Statutes concerning Bankrupts under such Commission duly allowed, shall be discharged by virtue of this Act from any Debt which shall have been or may be proved under such Commission, unless such Commission shall have issued, and such Bankrupt shall have duly surrendered himself or herself to the Commissioners, or the major Part of them named in such Commission, Two Years at the least before the passing of this Act, and shall in all Things have duly conformed himself or herself to the several Statutes concerning Bankrupts; and unless the major Part of the Commissioners named in such Commission shall specially certify, which they are hereby authorized to do if they shall think fit, that such Bankrupt has so duly conformed, and has in their Opinion made a full and fair Disclosure of all his or her Estate or Effects, and in all Things conducted himself or herself properly under such Commission; and in all such cases such Bankrupt shall be capable of being discharged in respect of all Debts which cannot be proved under such Commission,

Commission, in the same Manner and upon the same Terms as any other Prisoner may be discharged by virtue of this Act, and shall and may be discharged as to personal Arrest for Debt in respect of all Debts proved or capable of being proved under such Commission; but nevertheless such Bankrupt, and his or her Effects, shall in all other respects whatsoever remain subject to the Laws in force concerning Bankrupts, as he or she would have been if this Act had not been made.

LXII. Provided always, That in the Notices to be given by such Bankrupt as aforesaid, and in the Oath to be taken by him or her according to the Provisions of this Act, such Bankrupt shall be described as a Person against whom a Commission of Bankrupt has issued and is still in force, and who has not obtained a Certificate of his or her Conformity to the Statutes concerning Bankrupts duly allowed; and such Bankrupt, instead of swearing to the Truth of a Schedule of his or her Estate or Effects, shall swear that he or she has made a full Disclosure of his or her Effects under the said Commission, and that he or she has no Estate or Effects which can be vested in an Assignee under this Act, all the Estate and Effects of such Bankrupt being vested in the Assignee or Assignees under such Commission by virtue of such Commission, and the Assignment made in pursuance thereof.

Notices of Bankrupt. how regulated.

LXIII. Provided always, That in case such Commission shall at any time thereafter be superseded, then and in such case the Discharge which shall be obtained by virtue of this Act shall be null and void.

Commission superseded, Discharge void.

LXIV. Provided also, That nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed or construed to repeal or affect any of the Provisions contained in the Act hereinbefore mentioned, of the Fifty third Year of His Majesty's Reign, or any Act passed to amend the same; or to prevent any Person from having or taking the Benefit of the said Act, or of any Act passed to amend the same.

Act not to repeal or affect 53 G. 3. c. 102.

LXV. Provided also, That this Act may be altered, varied or amended, during this Session of Parliament.

Act altered, &c.

C A P. XXIX.

An Act to charge an additional Duty of Customs on Brandy EXP. imported into Great Britain for the Purpose of Exportation, and which shall be taken out of Warehouse for Home Consumption, before the Thirty first Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen. [14th December 1813.]

WHEREAS certain Quantities of Brandy have been brought into Great Britain under the Authority of Licences granted on the Condition of such Brandy being exported to Foreign Parts, and which Brandy now remains under the Care of the Officers of the Revenue: And whereas it is expedient that such Brandy should now be permitted to be used in Great Britain on Payment of the Duties of Customs and Excise due and payable thereon, and also of a further Duty of Customs; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Proprietor or Consignee of any such Brandy so imported or brought into into Great Britain as aforesaid, and which now actually remains under the Care of the Officers of the Revenue, to make an Entry thereof with the proper Officers of the Customs and Excise, and to pay the Duties of Customs and Excise due and payable on Brandy at the time of such Entry, and also an additional Temporary or War Duty of Customs of Two Shillings for every Gallon of such Brandy: Provided always, that no such Entry shall be permitted to be made, or the Duties on any such Brandy be received, unless such Entry shall be made and the full Duties on such Brandy paid on or before the Thirty first Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

On Payment of Duties, Brandy delivered for Home Consumption.

II. And be it further enacted, That on such Entry being made, and the Duties of Customs and Excise due and payable on the Importation of Brandy into Great Britain, together with the additional Duty of Customs imposed by this Act of Two Shillings for every Gallon of such Brandy being paid within the time hereinbefore limited, any such Brandy shall and may be delivered to the Proprietor or Consignee thereof, for the Purpose of being used or consumed in Great Britain; any thing contained in the Licence or Licences under the Authority of which any such Brandy may have been imported or brought into Great Britain, or in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

Duty levied as other Duties of Customs.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said additional Duty of Customs shall be ascertained, managed, raised, levied, collected, answered, paid and recovered in such and the like manner as the Duties of Customs due and payable on Brandy on and immediately before the passing of this Act are ascertained, managed, raised, levied, collected, answered, paid and recovered; and that the Produce and Amount of the said Duty shall be appropriated and applied in such and the like manner in every respect as the Temporary or War Duty payable on Brandy imported into Great Britain is appropriated and applied.

Act altered, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

[SECTIONS 1. to 8. are the same as the like Sections of 53 G. 3. c. 25.]

IX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any Non Commissioned Officer or Marine so convicted of Desertion, shall appear to have enlisted for a limited Term of Years, it shall be lawful for such Court to sentence any such Non Commissioned Officer or Marine so enlisted, to serve for Life as a Soldier, or for any Number of Years beyond the Period for which such Non Commissioned Officer or Marine shall have enlisted, or generally, in any Regiment or Corps which His Majesty shall please to direct; and any Non Commissioned Officer or Marine may, in any case, in addition to any Service, be further adjudged to forfeit all Benefit or Advantage as to Increase of pay, or as to Pension or Discharge, which might otherwise have accrued to such Non Commissioned Officer or Marine from the Length or Nature of his Service.

Court may sentence Deserters to serve for Life, &c.

X. And

or order them to be marked.

X. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Court Martial before which any Non Commissioned Officer or Marine shall be tried and convicted of Desertion, to direct, if it shall so think fit, in addition to any other Punishment such Court may award for any such Desertion, that such Defenter be marked on the Left Side Two Inches below the Arm Pit with the Letter (D.), such Letter not to be less than Half an Inch long, and to be marked upon the Skin with Ink or Gunpowder or other Preparation so as to be visible and conspicuous and not liable to be obliterated.

[Sections 11. to 18. are the same as § 9. to 16. of 53 G. 3. c. 25.]

during Imprisonment.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That every Non Commissioned Officer or Private Marine, to be imprisoned as aforesaid, shall forfeit all Right to any Pay, from the Day of his Commitment, during the time of such Imprisonment; and also that, during the Continuance of any such Imprisonment, the Gaoler or Keeper of such Prison or House of Correction shall receive the Sum of Nine pence per Diem out of the Subsistence of such Non Commissioned Officer or Private Marine, during the time that such Non Commissioned Officer or Private Marine shall continue in Custody, which said Sum the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are hereby authorized and required to cause to be paid by the Paymaster of Royal Marines to the said Gaoler or Keeper aforesaid, upon receiving an Application in Writing to their Secretary, signed by any Justice of the Peace for the County or Riding in which such Gaol, Prison or House of Correction shall be locally situate, together with a Copy of the Order under which the said Non Commissioned Officer or Private Marine was confined: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty for the time being, if they should think fit, to order the Issue and Payment of the Surplus of such Pay, or any Portion thereof, or of any Arrears thereof, to or on Account of such Non Commissioned Officer or Private Marine during or after the Expiration of the Period of his Imprisonment in any Gaol, House of Correction or Place of Military Confinement.

XLII. And be it further enacted, that the Sums to be paid into the Hands of such Constable or Petty Constable in England, Wales and Berwick upon Tweed, shall be according to the following Rates; that is to say, the Sum of One Shilling for every Mile any Waggon with Four or more Horses, or any Wain with Six Oxen, or Four Oxen with Two Horses, shall travel; and the Sum of Nine pence for every Mile any Cart with Four Horses, or carrying not less than Fifteen Hundred Weight, shall travel; and the Sum of Six pence for every Mile any Cart or other Carriage with less than Four Horses, and not carrying Fifteen Hundred Weight, shall travel; or any further Sum not exceeding Four pence for every Mile any Waggon with Four or more Horses, or any Wain with Six Oxen, or with Four Oxen and Two Horses, shall travel ; and not exceeding Three pence for every Mile any Cart with Four Horses, or carrying not less than Fifteen Hundred Weight, shall travel ; and not exceeding Two pence for every Mile any Cart or other Carriage with less than Four Horses, and not carrying Fifteen Hundred Weight, shall travel ; according as the same shall be fixed and ordered by the Justices of the Peace for any County or District assembled at any General Sessions of the Peace for such County or District, the said Justices having regard to the Price of Hay and Oats at the time of fixing such Additional Rates : Provided always, Fixed at Sessions. that in cases where the Day's March shall exceed Fifteen Miles, Provido. such further Compensation shall be made and paid in like manner to the Owners of the said Carriages as shall be deemed reasonable by the Magistrate who granted the Warrant for impressing them, not exceeding the usual Rate and Hire of such Carriages : Provido. always, that every Order of the Justices assembled at any General Sessions of the Peace, fixing a further Sum to be paid for the Hire of Carriages as aforesaid in Addition to the customary Rates of One Shilling and Nine pence and Six pence per Mile respectively, shall specify the Period for which the same shall be in force, and which shall not in any case exceed Ten Days beyond the General Sessions of the Peace for such County or District next ensuing the Date of such Order, and a Copy of every such Order signed by the Chairman or presiding Magistrate and one other Justice of the Peace or Magistrate at the Quarter Sessions at which the same shall be made, shall within Three Days after the making thereof be transmitted to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and no such Order shall be valid or effectual unless a Copy thereof be so signed and transmitted as aforesaid : Provided also, that in every case of any increased Rate being allowed for the Hire of any Carriage, the Justice of the Peace granting or signing such Warrant shall insert in his own Hand the Amount of such increased Rate for each Description of Carriage as so authorized by the Justices at the Quarter Sessions as aforesaid, and such Warrant shall be given to the Officer or Non Commissioned Officer commanding the Regiment, Corps, Company, Detachment or Party requiring such Carriages, as his Voucher for the Payment of such increased Rate ; and no increased Rate shall be demanded, but such as shall be so inserted by the Justice in the Warrant.

LII. And whereas several Marines, who being duly entered, may afterwards desert and be found wandering, or otherwise absenting themselves illegally from His Majesty's Service ; it is hereby further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Constable, Headborough or Tithingman, of the Town or Place where any Person who may reasonably be suspected to be such a Deserter shall be found, or if no such Constable, Headborough or Tithingman can be immediately met with, then for any Marine Officer or Marine to apprehend or cause such suspected Person to be apprehended, and to bring or cause him to be brought before any Justice of the Peace living in or near such Town or Place, who is hereby empowered and required to examine such suspected Person ; and if, by his Confession, or the Testimony of One or more Witness or Witnesses upon Oath, or by Knowledge of such Justice of the Peace, it shall appear or be found that such suspected Person is a Marine duly entered, and

C A P. XXXII.

An Act to amend the several Acts for preventing the illicit Distillation of Spirits in Ireland. [17th December 1813.]

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Forty seventh Year ^{47 G. 3. Sect. 2.} of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend an Act made in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign for the regulating and securing the Collection of the Duties on Spirits distilled in Ireland, it is, amongst other things, enacted, That ^{§ 12.}
 it shall and may be lawful for any Justice of the Peace in Ireland, upon Information upon Oath to him given, that any unlicensed Still, or any Part of a Still, or any Appendage to a Still, or any Worm, or any Utensil for distilling Spirits has been found or used in any Place within the Jurisdiction of the said Justice, or that any such Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines or Singlings as in the said Act is mentioned and described has or have been found in any Place within the Jurisdiction of such Justice, to examine into the Truth of the said Information; and if he shall find Reason to believe that such Still, or Part of a Still, or Appendage to a Still, or such Worm or other Utensil had been so found or used as the case may be, or that such Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines or Singlings has or have been so found, he shall sign a Notice of such Information directed to, and the said Notice shall be served upon any Two Inhabitants, being Householders of the Parish (or if such Still, or Part of a Still, or Appendage to a Still, or such Worm or other Utensil shall be found or used, as the case may be, or if such Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines or Singlings shall be found in any Extra-parochial Place, then such Notice shall be directed to and served on Two such Inhabitants of the Townland, Manor or Lordship), in which it shall appear by such Information that the Place is situate where any such Still, or Part of a Still, or Appendage to a Still, or such Worm or other Utensil shall have been so found or used, or any such Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines or Singlings shall have been so found: And whereas there are many Townlands in Ireland which contain but few Inhabitants being Householders therein, and it is expedient to provide for the more effectual Service of the Notices required by the said Act; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,
 That it shall and may be lawful for the Person or Persons who shall be employed to serve any such Notice, to serve the same by leaving such Notice at the Dwelling House of each such Inhabitant in such Parish, Townland, Manor or Lordship, with any Person or Persons resident therein, above the Age of Sixteen Years; and if no Person shall appear at such House, on whom such Notice can be served, then the Person or Persons who shall be employed to serve the same shall and he or they is and are hereby required to post such Notice on the Door of such House, and shall leave the same there posted; and every such Notice so served or posted shall be deemed and taken to be a good and sufficient Notice for proceeding under the said recited A^cts and this A^ct, or any other A^ct for the preventing the illicit Distillation of Spirits in Ireland.

‘ II. And whereas in and by the said recited A^ct of the Fifty third Year aforesaid (a) it is, amongst other things, enacted, That all and every the Clauses and Provisions in the said recited A^ct of the Forty seventh Year and in the several other A^cts in the said A^ct of the Fifty third Year mentioned, relating to the imposing or levying of certain Fines in respect of unlicensed Stills, or Parts of Stills, or Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines or Singlings, being used or found in any Townland in Ireland, should be revived and be in full Force, except so far as the same relate to the fining of any Parish, Manor or Lordship, or any other District than a Townland: And whereas it is expedient that all the Clauses and Provisions in the said recited A^cts should be extended to Parishes, Manors and Lordships, as well as to Townlands in Ireland;’ Be it therefore enacted, That all and every the Clauses and Provisions, relating to the suing for, imposing or levying all or any such Fine or Fines on any Parish, Townland, Manor or Lordship, which are contained in an A^ct made in the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty, intituled An A^ct to amend An A^ct made in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty for the regulating and securing the Collection of the Duties on Spirits distilled in Ireland; and in an A^ct made in the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty’s Reign, intituled An A^ct to amend the several A^cts for the regulating and securing the Collection of the Duty on Spirits distilled in Ireland; and in an A^ct made in the Forty ninth Year of His present Majesty’s Reign, intituled An A^ct to amend the several A^cts for the regulating and securing the Collection of the Duties on Spirits distilled in Ireland; and for the regulating the Sale of such Liquors by Retail, shall be and the same are hereby revived and shall be in full Force to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and that all Proceedings whatever had or to be had relating to or in any manner concerning the suing for, imposing, levying or applying any such Fine or Fines on any Parish, Townland, Manor or Lordship, shall be had and taken under and subject to the Rules, Regulations and Directions contained in the said several recited A^cts of the Forty seventh, Forty eighth, Forty ninth and Fifty third Years aforesaid, and this A^ct. An Act for the further Regulation of the Trade to and from the Places within the Limits of the Charter of The East India Company.

‘ WHEREAS an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for continuing in The East India Company, for a further Term, the Possession of the British Territories in India, together with certain exclusive Privileges: for establishing further Regulations for the Government of the said Territories, and the better Administration of Justice within the same; and for regulating the Trade to and from the Places within the Limits of the said Company’s Charter: And whereas by the said recited Act it was enacted, that it should be lawful for any of His Majesty’s Subjects, in Common with the said United Company, to export, in Ships navigated according to Law, from any Port or Ports within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to all Ports and Places within the Limits referred to, save and except the Dominions of the Emperor of China, any Goods, Wares and Merchandize,

'dize, which would then or might at any time or times thereafter
 'be legally exported, and also in Common with the said Company
 'to import in Ships navigated as aforesaid from any Port or Ports
 'within the Limits aforesaid, save and except as aforesaid, into the 'said United Kingdom, any Goods, Wares and Merchandize, the 'Produce or Manufacture of any of the Countries within the said
 'Limits, which could or might at any time or times thereafter be 'legally imported; subject nevertheless to the several Restrictions,
 'Conditions and Limitations in the said Act contained: And
 'whereas it was also enacted by the said Act, that nothing therein 'contained should extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the 'making, during the further Term thereby granted to the said Com'pany, such further Provisions, by Authority of Parliament, as 'might from time to time be deemed necessary for enabling His 'Majesty's Subjects to carry on Trade and Traffic, directly or cir-
 'cuitously, as well between all Ports and Places situate without the 'Limits of the said Company's Charter, and all Ports and Places
 '(except the Dominions of the Emperor of China) situate within 'those Limits, as between the said United Kingdom and all the last
 'mentioned Ports and Places, except as aforesaid; but without Pre'judice to any of the Restrictions or Provisions therein contained,
 'as to the Resort to and Residence of any Persons in the East
 'Indies, and Parts aforesaid: And whereas it is expedient to make 'Provision for the enabling the said Company, and all other His 'Majesty's Subjects, to carry on such circuitous Trade, also to 'carry on Trade between all Ports and Places within the Limits of 'the Charter of the said Company, under certain Restrictions and 'Regulations; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excel'lent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords
 'Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament
 'assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after
 'the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen,
 'it shall be lawful for the said Company, and also for any other of His 'Majesty's Subjects to trade (in Ships navigated according to Law,
 'and proceeding upon any Voyage from the United Kingdom to any
 'Ports or Places within the Limits of the Charter of the said Com'pany) to, and at any intermediate Ports, Places or Countries between

 'for that Purpose to discharge the Whole or any Part of the Cargo of 'any such Ship or Vessel at any such intermediate Ports, Places or 'Countries as aforesaid; and in the Prosecution of any such cir-
 'cuitous Voyage to take on board any other Goods, Wares and Mer-
 'chandize which can be legally carried from any of such intermediate 'Countries, Ports or Places, to any Ports or Places within the Limits 'of the Charter of the said Company; and in like manner to trade, in 'any such Ship or Vessel, in any Voyage from any Ports or Places
 'within the Limits of the said Company's Charter as aforesaid, to the 'United Kingdom, to and at any intermediate Ports, Places or 'Countries between such Limits and the said United Kingdom, situate

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to repeal or alter, or in any manner to affect the Restrictions, Regulations and Provisions in the said recited Act contained, as to the Size of Vessels allowed to clear out from or enter in at any Port of the United Kingdom; or as to any Licences, Certificates or Lifts required by the said Act, in the cases therein specified; or any of the Restrictions or Provisions in the said Act, or in any other Act contained, as to the Resort to and Residence of any Persons in the East Indies: Provided also, that all Trade with all Ports and Places upon the Continent of Asia, from the River Indus to the Town of Malacca inclusive, or any Island under the Government of the said Company, lying to the North of the Equator, or the said Company's Factory at Bencoolen and its Dependencies, shall remain and continue, subject to all such Regulations, Provisions and Restrictions, as shall from time to time be in force in relation to Trade at any such Ports and Places, under the Authority of any of the Governments of the said Company at their several Presidencies in India.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That His Majesty's Settlement at the Cape of Good Hope shall, as to all Trade allowed by this Act to be carried on between Ports and Places within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company, be deemed, construed and taken to be within such Limits; Provided also, that nothing herein contained, as to the said Settlement being deemed, as to such Trade as aforesaid, to be within such Limits, shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent or in any manner to limit or affect any other Trade which now may or which may hereafter be allowed to be carried on between the said Settlement and any other Countries, Ports or Places whatever.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

C A P. XXXV.

An Act to extend the Period for allowing Importations from and Exportations to the Places within the Limits of the Charter of the East India Company, in Ships not of British-built, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

‘ WHEREAS an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for continuing in the East India Company, for a further Time, the Possession of the British Territories in India, together with certain exclusive Privileges; for establishing further Regulations for the Government of the said Territories, and the better Administration of Justice within the same; and for regulating the Trade to and from the Places within the Limits of the said Company's Charter: And whereas the Provisions of an Act passed in the Thirty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty for allowing the Importation of Goods from Places within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company in Ships not of British-built nor registered as such, and of another Act passed in the Forty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty in relation to such Ships, were continued by the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, unless any Provision was made relating thereto in the present Session of Parliament; and His Majesty was by the said recited Act authorized by any Order or Orders in Council to authorize any of his Subjects to import from the East Indies and other Places within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company into the United Kingdom, and to export from the United Kingdom into the East Indies or Places within such Limits in such Ships under such Regulations as His Majesty should think fit: And whereas it is expedient that such Provisions should be extended and continued until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen;’ Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Provisions, Regulations, Conditions and Restrictions, contained in the said Acts or in any Order or Orders of Council now in force, or which may be issued by His Majesty under the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament in relation to the allowing of the Importation into the United Kingdom from the East Indies, and other Places within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company, or the Exportation from the United Kingdom to the East Indies or any Ports or Places within such Limits, of any Goods, Wares and Merchandize by the said Company or by any of His Majesty's Subjects in any such Ships or Vessels as are in the said Acts or Orders in Council described, shall be and the same are hereby extended and continued in full force and effect, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and shall extend and be applied to all such Ships and Vessels which shall sail from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company before the said First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

An Act to repeal the Duties of Customs (a) payable on Goods, Wares and Merchandize imported into Great Britain from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to The United Company of Merchants of England trading to The East Indies; and to grant other Duties in lieu thereof; and to establish further Regulations for the better Security of the Revenue on Goods so imported; and to alter the Periods of making up and presenting certain Accounts of the said Company to Parliament; to continue in force until the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen. [17th December 1813.]

‘ WHEREAS an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for continuing in The East India Company, for a further Term, the Possession of the British Territories in India, together with certain exclusive Privileges; for establishing further Regulations for the Government of the said Territories, and the better Administration of Justice within the same; and for regulating the Trade to and from the Places within the Limits of the said Company's Charter: And whereas it is necessary, in order to carry the said Act into Effect according to the true Intent and Meaning thereof, that further Provisions and Regulations should be established, and that the Duties on Goods so imported into Great Britain, whether by the said United Company, or by other Persons under the Authority of the said Act, should be ascertained and equalized;’ Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, all the several Duties of Customs (b) payable to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, upon the Importation into Great Britain of any Goods, Wares or Merchandize, from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and also the several Drawbacks allowed upon the Exportation from Great Britain of any such Goods, Wares or Merchandize, having been imported from any Port or Place within the said Limits, shall cease and determine; save and except in all cases relating to the recovering, allowing or paying any Arrears thereof respectively, which may, on the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, remain unpaid or allowed, or to any Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures relating thereto respectively, which shall have been incurred at any time before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

II. And

‘ II. And whereas it is necessary that other Duties of Customs should be granted to Your Majesty, in lieu and instead of the Duties repealed by this Act, We, Your Majesty’s most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, have therefore given and granted to Your Majesty the several Duties of Customs herein-after mentioned, and do humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the Tenth day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in lieu and instead of the Duties of Customs hereby made to cease and determine, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid, unto His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon Goods, Wares and Merchandize, imported or brought into Great Britain, from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, the several Duties of Customs as the same are respectively inserted, described and set forth in Figures in the Tables hereunto annexed, marked (A.) and (B.); and that there shall also be paid or allowed the several Drawbacks of the said Duties of Customs, as the same are also respectively inserted, described and set forth in Figures in the said Table hereunto annexed, marked (B.); any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

New Duties and Drawbacks.

‘ III. And whereas it is necessary, for the Security of the Public Revenue, that additional Regulations should be established with respect to Manifests, directed to be brought by Masters of Ships or Vessels arriving in Great Britain, from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, from His Majesty’s Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, the Territories and Dependencies thereof, or from the Island of Saint Helena; Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, the Master or other Person having or taking the Command of every Ship or Vessel, belonging in the Whole or in Part to His Majesty’s Subjects, arriving in Great Britain from any of the Places before mentioned, shall have on board a Manifest or Manifests, as described and directed by an Act passed in the Twenty sixth Year of His present Majesty’s Reign, intituled An Act for the Production of Manifests, and for the more effectually preventing fraudulent Practices in obtaining Bounties and Drawbacks, and in the clandestine relanding of Goods; and shall produce and deliver such Manifest or Manifests, in the manner prescribed and directed by the said recited Act; and that all the Rules, Regulations, Provisions, Penalties and Forfeitures, required and directed by the said recited Act, shall remain in force, and be applied to the Purposes of this present Act, as far as they relate or may be applicable thereto; except where any of the said Rules, Regulations, Provisions, Penalties and Forfeitures, are repealed, or in any wise altered by this Act.

have on board a Manifest or Manifests in Writing, signed by such Master, and containing the Particulars described and set forth in the said recited Act, passed in the Twenty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign; and which Manifest or Manifests shall also contain the Name or Names (if the same shall be known) of the Person or Persons to whom any such Goods shall be consigned, the time when and the Place where any such Goods shall have been taken on board; and distinguishing in every Manifest the Goods which are stowed in the Hold, from those which are stowed in other Parts of the Ship.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all Alterations which shall, after the completing of any such Manifest, be made in the Stowage of any Ship or Vessel, by the Removal of any Goods from the Hold to any other Part of the Vessel, or from any other Part of the Vessel to the Hold, or from any one Deck of the Vessel to any other Deck, shall be registered, on the Day of such Removal, in the Log Book or Journal kept by the Master of the Vessel, and also in a Supplementary Manifest which shall be kept for the Purpose of registering any such Alterations in the Stowage of Goods by any such Removals as aforesaid; and every such Supplementary Manifest shall be attached to and kept with the Original Manifest to which it refers.

VI. And be it further enacted, That before any such Ship or Vessel shall clear or depart from the Port or Place wherein the Lading or any Part thereof shall have been taken on board, the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of every such Ship or Vessel, shall prepare and deliver a Manifest in Writing, as hereinbefore required, to the Officer who shall or may be appointed by the Governor, or by the Person or Persons exercising the Powers and Authorities of Government of any such Settlement or Place; and such Master or other Person aforesaid shall verify upon Oath the Truth of the Contents of the said Manifest before the said Persons so appointed (which Oath the said Officer is hereby authorized and required to administer), and also to cause a Duplicate thereof to be forthwith made, and to indorse upon the Original Manifest his Name, with the Day and Year on which the same was produced to him; which said Original Manifest shall then be returned to the said Master or other Person aforesaid, on or before the Clearing or Departure of any such Ship or Vessel; and such Officer, so appointed as aforesaid, shall, by the first Opportunity other than by the same Ship or Vessel, transmit the said Duplicate of such Manifest so made as before directed under his Hand and Seal, to the Commissioners of the Customs in England or Scotland, as the case may require.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every Person who shall ship any Goods, Wares or Merchandize on board any such Ship or Vessel, shall at the time of such Shipment deliver to the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, a true and exact Lift in Writing, signed with the Name of the Person so shipping any such Goods, Wares or Merchandize, describing therein the particular Marks and Numbers of the several Packages; and such Master or other Person as aforesaid shall insert in the Manifest of such Ship or Vessel the Particulars contained in such Lift, and shall annex such original Lift to the Britain without the Manifest hereby required, or which shall not be included or inserted therein or which shall not agree therewith.

' XIII. And whereas by this Act certain Penalties are imposed ' on Masters of Ships or Vessels in which Goods shall be imported ' or brought into Great Britain without the Manifest or Manifests ' hereby required ;' Be it therefore enacted, That the Penalties imposed by the before recited Act, passed in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, on the Master or other Person having or taking the Command of any Ship or Vessel belonging in the Whole or in Part to His Majesty's Subjects, in which any Goods shall be imported or brought into Great Britain without the Manifest or Manifests required by the said before recited Act, or which shall not be included or described therein, or shall not agree therewith, shall, from and after the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, be repealed, so far as the same relate to Goods, Wares and Merchandize imported into Great Britain from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United East India Company, His Majesty's Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, its Territories or Dependencies, or the Island of Saints Helena, or from such other Port or Place from whence the Ship or Vessel shall have cleared or departed for Great Britain as aforesaid.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to repeal or in any way alter the manner according to which Manifests are directed to be delivered and authenticated, in respect to Goods imported into Great Britain by the United East India Company, from any Port or Place within the Dominions of the Emperor of China, by an Act passed in the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for making further Provisions in regard to such Vessels as are particularly described in an Act made in the Twenty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for the more effectual Prevention of Smuggling in this Kingdom, and for extending the said Act to other Vessels and Boats not particularly described therein ; for taking off the Duties on Flasks in which Wine or Oil is imported ; for laying an additional Duty on Foreign Geneva imported ; for taking off the Duty on Ebony the Growth of Africa, imported into this Kingdom ; and for amending several Laws relative to the Revenue of Customs.

XV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, the Hatches of all Ships and Vessels arriving from any of the Ports or Places before mentioned, in any of the Ports of Great Britain which shall have been or shall be declared fit and proper for such Importation, shall be secured under the Joint Locks of the Master of such Ship or Vessel, and of the Officers of His Majesty's Customs and of the Excise, in cases where that Revenue is concerned ; and no such Hatch or Hatches shall be opened on any Account or Pretence whatever, but in the Presence of such Officers respectively ; and if any such Officer shall refuse or neglect to attend at the locking up or opening any such Hatch or Hatches, after due Notice shall have been given him for that Purpose, every such Officer so offending shall, for every such Offence, upon being convicted thereof, forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said United Company to land and lodge, in approved Warehouses, any Goods, Wares and Merchandize, imported by them into the Port of London, under the Securities, Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, directed and required by an Act, passed in the Thirty ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for permitting certain Goods imported from the East Indies to be warehoused; and for repealing the Duties now payable thereon, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, on the Duties imposed by this Act, as the same are respectively described and set forth in Figures in the Table hereunto annexed, marked (A.), under the Description of Warehousing Duties, being first paid or secured.

XVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That, from and after the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, all Goods, Wares and Merchandize, imported into the Port of London from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United East India Company, by any Person or Persons so trading under the Authority of the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament and of this present Act, and also any Goods, Wares or Merchandize so imported, which shall have been brought into the Port of London from some other Port in Great Britain, by virtue of the Provisions contained in the said recited Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, shall be lodged and secured in any Warehouse or Warehouses belonging to the said United Company, or in any other Warehouse or Warehouses approved by the Commissioners of the Customs, or any Three or more of them for the time being, subject to all the Rules, Regulations, Securities and Provisions, directed and required by the before recited Act passed in the Thirty ninth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament respecting the warehousing such Goods, Wares or Merchandize, in force on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That all Goods, Wares and Merchandize, imported from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the said United East India Company, into any of those Ports in Great Britain (except the Port of London) which shall have been or may be declared fit and proper for the Purpose of such Importations, under the Rules, Regulations and Provisions of the before recited Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, either by the said United Company or by any Person or Persons so trading under the Authority of the before recited Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, and of this present Act, shall be lodged and secured in Warehouses approved by the Commissioners of the Customs in England or Scotland respectively, or any Three or more of them, for the time being; subject to all the Rules, Regulations, Securities and Provisions, directed and required by an Act passed in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain, to be secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty; or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament made for amending or explaining the said Act, in force on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

XIX. Pro-

XIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing contained either in the said recited A^ct, passed in the Thirty ninth Year or in the recited A^ct passed in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, shall extend, or be construed to extend, to exempt any of the Goods, Wares or Merchandize so warehoused as aforesaid, from the Payment of the Duties of Customs imposed by this A^ct on any such Goods, Wares and Merchandize, as the same are respectively described and set forth in the Table hereunto annexed marked (A.), under the Head of Warehousing Duties; which Duties shall and may be paid at any time previous to the Delivery of any such Goods, Wares and Merchandize from such Warehouse, either for the Purpose of Exportation or Home Consumption.

Nothing contained in 39 G. 3. c. 59. or 43 G. 3. c. 132. to exempt Good's from Warehousing Duties imposed by A^ct.

XX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said United Company to secure by Bond, in the usual and accustomed manner, the several Duties of Customs imposed by this A^ct on Goods, Wares and Merchandize imported by the said Company; and such Bonds shall be given under such Penalties and Conditions, and for such Periods, as to the Payment of the said Duties, in like manner as Bonds were given for the Payment of Duties of Customs by the said United Company before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

E. I. Company may Bond Duties.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Proprietor or Proprietors, Purchaser or Purchasers, of any Goods, Wares or Merchandize, which, having been imported from some Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and secured in approved Warehouses, and on which Goods the Duties imposed by this A^ct, under the Description of Warehousing Duties, as the same are respectively described and set forth in Figures in the Table hereunto annexed, marked (A.), shall have been paid or secured, to export the same directly from any such Warehouse, without Payment of any further Duty of Customs or Excise whatever; subject nevertheless to all and every the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Securities, directed and required by any A^ct or A^cts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, as far as the same are applicable.

Goods on which Warehousing Duties paid, exported from Warehouse without Payment of further Duty.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That in case the Proprietor or Proprietors, Purchaser or Purchasers of any such Goods, Wares or Merchandize, imported as aforesaid (not being prohibited to be used or consumed in Great Britain), on which the Duties imposed by this A^ct under the Description of Warehousing Duties shall have been paid, shall intend to take the same out of the Warehouse wherein the same shall have been lodged as aforesaid, in order to be used or consumed in Great Britain, the Person or Persons so intending to take out any such Goods, shall, before the same shall be so delivered from any such Warehouse, make a due Entry of such Goods, Wares or Merchandize with the proper Officers of His Majesty's Customs, and pay down in ready Money to the Collector or other proper Officer or Officers of the Customs, the full Duties due and payable on such Goods, as the same are respectively described and set forth in Figures in the Table hereunto annexed, marked (B.), under the Description of Home Consumption who shall import or bring into Great Britain, from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, any of the Articles before mentioned, or any Articles whatever (not being prohibited to be used or consumed in Great Britain), on which the Duties of Customs are now chargeable according to the Value thereof, either as Presents or for Private Use, and not by way of Merchandize, to enter the same with the proper Officers of His Majesty's Customs, such Goods having been first lodged and housed in Warehouses according to Law; and that the Value of such Goods, according to which the Duties of Customs are due and payable, shall be ascertained according to the Declaration of the Value thereof, to be made by the Owner or Proprietor, or his known Agent, in the like Manner and Form, and under all the Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, and subject and liable to such and the like Forfeitures and Penalties, as are prescribed, directed and imposed with respect to Goods not imported by the East India Company, and on which the Duties of Customs are payable according to the Value thereof.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That any such Goods on which the Duties of Customs have not been paid, may be entered, and the Value ascertained, according to the Directions of this Act, notwithstanding such Goods may have been imported or brought into Great Britain on or before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen: Provided always, that no such Goods shall be admitted to entry under the Authority of this Act, unless Proof shall be made on Oath, before the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs of the Port of Great Britain into which such Goods shall have been imported or brought, that such Goods were imported or brought for Private Use, and not by way of Merchandize.

XXX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all Goods, Wares and Merchandize, of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of any Country or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, taken and condemned as Prize, shall be lodged and deposited in the Warehouses of the said United Company, or in Warehouses approved by the Commissioners of the Customs, or any Three or more of them for the time being, and shall be sold at the Public Sale of the said Company; and such Goods, Wares and Merchandize shall be subject and liable to such Duties, and entitled to such Drawbacks as the like Sort of Goods are respectively subject and entitled to by this Act, when imported by the said United Company, and shall be subject and liable also to all and every the Rules, Regulations and Restrictions directed by this Act or any other Act or Acts respecting such Goods in force on or before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, as far as the same are applicable.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That the Duties imposed by this Act upon the Importation of Sugar, as inserted, described and set forth in the Table hereunto annexed, marked (B.), shall continue and be in force until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and no longer; and shall be appropriated, applied and accounted for, according to the Provisions of an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled As AB for continuing continuing to His Majesty certain Duties on Malt, Sugar, Tobacco and Salt in Great Britain; and on Pensions, Offices and Personal Estates in England, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen; and that a separate Account of such Duties shall be kept at the Custom House, distinct and apart from all other Duties of Customs; and the same shall be paid into the Exchequer, pursuant to the Provisions of the said recited Act, as to the Duties by the said Act granted on Sugar.

lings in the Hundred Weight of the said Duty shall be suspended; and if such Average Price shall exceed Sixty nine Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Ten Shillings in the Hundred Weight, Part of the said Duty, shall be suspended.

Bounties on Refined Sugar.

‘ XXXIV. And whereas certain Bounties are allowed on the Exportation of Refined Sugar produced from Raw Sugar imported from the British Plantations in America: And whereas it is expedient that the like Bounties should be allowed on the Exportation from Great Britain of Refined Sugar produced from Sugar imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or by Persons authorized to trade within the Limits of the Charter granted to the said United Company;’ Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, there shall be paid and allowed on the Exportation from Great Britain of Refined Sugar produced from Sugar imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or by any Person or Persons authorized to trade within the Limits of the Charter granted to the said United Company, the like Bounty as is now or hereafter may be allowed by Law on the Exportation from Great Britain of the like Sort or Description of Refined Sugar produced from Raw Sugar imported from the British Plantations in America; subject in every respect to the Conditions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures now by Law practised and applied with respect to the Bounty allowed on the Exportation of Refined Sugar.

Ship with more than Six Pounds of Tea on board forfeited.

‘ XXXV. And whereas it is necessary that some further Provision should be made to prevent the illegal Importation of Tea into this Kingdom;’ Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, if any Ship or Vessel coming from Foreign Parts, and belonging wholly or in Part to His Majesty’s Subjects, or whereof One Half of the Persons on board shall be Subjects of His Majesty (other than and except such Ships or Vessels as shall belong to or be employed by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies), shall be found on the High Seas, or shall be discovered to have been within the Limits, having on board any Tea exceeding Six Pounds in the Whole, except Tea for the Use of the Persons on board, not exceeding One Pound for each Person, then not only such Tea, together with the Packages containing the same, but also every such Ship or Vessel, together with all the Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle and Apparel thereof, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty’s Navy or Marines, or of the Customs or Excise.

[See § 36. as to such Seizures by Officers of Customs.]

Goods and Ships forfeited seized by Officers of Navy.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Goods, Wares or Merchandize, and all Ships or Vessels forfeited by this Act, may and shall be seized by the Commander or Commanders of any of His Majesty’s Ships of War, or any Commissioned, Warrant or Petty Officer specially appointed by him or them, or by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty’s Customs (a); and that every Forfeiture incurred by this Act, and whereof the Recovery is not specially provided for by this Act, may and shall respectively be fined.

sued for, prosecuted and recovered in such Courts, and by such and the like ways, means and methods, and the Produce thereof respectively disposed and applied in such and the like manner, and to such and the like Uses and Purposes, as any Forfeiture incurred by any Law respecting the Revenue of Customs (a) may now be sued for, prosecuted or recovered, disposed of and applied, either in Great Britain, or in the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or in any of His Majesty's other Dominions in or out of Europe respectively, as the case may happen to be.

(a) [See § 35. ante, as to such Seizures by Officers of Excise also.]

XXXVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act, or in the before recited Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, shall extend or be construed to extend to alter, vary or repeal any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, for prohibiting the Consumption or Use of any Foreign Manufacture within Great Britain; but that all and singular the said Acts, and the Provisions, Penalties and Regulations therein contained respectively, shall remain and continue of the same Force and Effect, to all Intents and Purposes, as if this Act and the said before recited Act passed in the last Session of Parliament had not been made; any thing contained in the said recited Act or this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provido for Acts by which Goods were formerly prohibited to be used.

53 G. 3 c. 155.

XXXVIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to permit or allow any Goods, Wares or Merchandize whatever, to be imported into or exported from Great Britain, in any way or manner contrary to any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, except in any case where Provision is expressly made for that Purpose by this Act, or by the before recited Act passed in the last Session of Parliament.

Goods subject to former Laws of Import and Export.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Duties granted and imposed by this Act, and made payable according to the Weight, Tale, Gauge, Measure or Value of any Goods, Wares or Merchandize, charged with such Duties, shall be charged and payable upon any greater or less Weight, Number, Quantity or Value thereof, than the Weight, Number, Quantity or Value particularly inserted, described and set forth in the Tables hereunto annexed, marked (A.) and (B.), in proportion to the actual Weight, Number, Quantity or Value of such Goods, Wares or Merchandize.

Duty payable on any greater or less Quantity.

XL. And whereas it is expedient that Goods, Wares and Merchandize, legally imported into that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, should be allowed to be imported into Great Britain directly from Ireland; Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, any such Goods, Wares or Merchandize so imported as aforesaid into Ireland, shall and may be imported directly from thence into any of those Ports in Great Britain, which shall have been or may be declared fit and proper for the safe Custody of such Goods; and all such Goods, Wares and Merchandize so imported into Great Britain, shall be subject and liable to such Regulations as to E. I. Goods imported from Ireland.

such and the like Duties on Importation, and entitled to such and the like Drawbacks on Exportation, as the like Articles would be subject and liable to, if imported directly into Great Britain from some Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United East India Company; and all such Goods, Wares and Merchandize shall in every other respect be subject and liable to the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Limitations and Conditions, and to the same Penalties and Forfeitures, and shall and may be warehoused under the same Regulations, Securities and Conditions, as such Goods, Wares or Merchandize would be subject and liable or entitled to, if the same had been imported into Great Britain directly from some Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United East India Company; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Act not to alter manner in which Duties on Tea now paid or recovered.

XL I. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to alter the manner in which the Duties of Customs payable on the Importation of Tea into Great Britain, are now paid or secured, but that the said Duties shall continue to be paid or secured as heretofore.

Not to repeal Acts of Union.

XL II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal or alter any of the Provisions contained in Two Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, the one made in the Parliament of Great Britain in the Thirty ninth and Fortieth Years of His present Majesty's Reign, and the other made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fortieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or any other Act or Acts in force on or immediately before the said First Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, by which any Goods, Wares or Merchandize imported from Ireland into Great Britain, or any Goods, Wares and Merchandize exported from Great Britain to Ireland, are respectively made to remain liable to or are charged with or exempted from any Duties of Customs, whether Countervailing or other, or by which any Drawbacks or Bounties are allowed or given in respect of any such Goods, Wares or Merchandize.

Not to affect Tonnage Duty in G. B.

XL III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to alter or repeal, or in any wise to affect the Tonnage Duty on Ships and Vessels entering Inwards or Outwards in any Port in Great Britain, from or to Foreign Parts, granted by an Act passed in the Forty ninth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for repealing the several Duties of Customs chargeable in Great Britain, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof.

Not to affect Tonnage Duties of 39 G. 3. c. lxxix. § 134.

XL IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to alter or repeal or in any wise to affect any of the Duties on Ships or Vessels, according to the Tonnage thereof, granted by an Act passed in the Thirty ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for rendering more commodious, and for better regulating the Port of London; or by an Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to authorize the Advancement of further Sums of Money out of the Consolidated Fund, to be applied in the Improvement of the Port of London, by the Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled;

XLV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to, or in any way affect, alter, vary or repeal, any of the Duties granted by, or any of the Provisions contained in an Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for making further Provision for the effectual Performance of Quarantine; or in an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for making additional and further Provision for the effectual Performance of Quarantine in Great Britain.

Not to affect
Laws.

45 G.3. c. 10.

46 G. 3. c. 98.

XLVI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to alter or repeal, or in any wise to affect any of the Rates or Duties granted and made payable to the East India Dock Company, by any Act (a) or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

Not to affect
East India Dock

(a) [43 G.3. c. cxxvi. §91.]

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal or in any wise alter the Duties of Package, Scavage, Baillage or Portage, or any other Duties payable to the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, or to the Lord Mayor of the said City for the time being, or to any other City or Town Corporate within Great Britain, or any other special Privilege or Exemption to which any Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, is or are now entitled by Law; but the same shall be continued as heretofore.

Not to affect Scavage.

XLVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to alter, vary or repeal any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, by which Duties of Excise are imposed on any Article imported or brought into Great Britain, or by which any Securities, Rules, Regulations or Restrictions are made or provided for the securing any of the Duties of Excise, but that the same shall remain in full Force and Effect as if this Act had not been made.

altered.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That every Act of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, by which any Rules, Regulations, Conditions or Restrictions were made, established or directed, for the ascertaining the Value of any Goods, Wares or Merchandize, or for the remitting or allowing of any Deduction of any Duties on account of Damage, or for the better securing the Revenue of Customs, or for the regular Importation into or Exportation from Great Britain, or the bringing or carrying Coastwise, or from any Port to Port within Great Britain, or the entering, landing or shipping of any Goods, Wares or Merchandize whatever, except where any Alteration is expressly made by this Act; and all Provisions, Clauses, Matters and Things relating thereto, shall and are hereby declared to be and remain in full Force and Effect, and shall be applied to the Subject of this Act, and for carrying the same into Execution

as fully and effectually as if they had been repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

Duties and Drawbacks collected as former Duties and Drawbacks.

Goods in Tables A. B. subject to former Regulations.

Exceptions.

Former Penalties, &c., in Force.
Exception.

Duties under Commissioners of Customs.

L. And be it further enacted, That the several Sums of Money respectively inserted, described and set forth in Figures in the said Tables hereunto annexed, marked (A.) and (B.), as the Duties of Customs, and the Drawbacks of the Duties of Customs, upon, for or in respect of the several Goods, Wares or Merchandize specified therein, may and shall respectively be managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, answered, paid, recovered and allowed, except where any Alteration is expressly made by this Act, in such and the like manner, and by the same means, ways or methods, as former Duties of Customs and Drawbacks of Duties of Customs upon Goods, Wares or Merchandize in general, and also by any such special means, ways or methods respectively as former Duties of Customs and Drawbacks of Duties of Customs upon Goods, Wares or Merchandize of the same Sorts or Kinds, were or might be managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, answered, paid, recovered and allowed; and the Goods, Wares or Merchandize whereon Duties of Customs are by this Act charged, and Drawbacks of Duties of Customs allowed, as the same are respectively inserted, described and set forth in the said Tables hereunto annexed, marked (A.) and (B.) upon the Importation thereof into, or Exportation thereof from Great Britain, or on any other account whatsoever, shall be and the same are hereby made subject and liable to all and every the Conditions, Regulations, Rules, Restrictions, Seizures and Forfeitures, to which Goods, Wares or Merchandize in general, and also all and every the special Conditions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Seizures, Sales and Forfeitures respectively, to which the like Goods, Wares or Merchandize were subject and liable by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, respecting the Revenue of Customs, except where any Alteration is expressly made by this Act; and all Pains, Penalties, Fines and Forfeitures, of whatever nature or kind the same may be, as well Pains of Death as others, for any Offence whatever, committed against or in breach of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, made for securing the Revenue of Customs, or for the Regulation or Improvement thereof, and the several Clauses, Powers, Provisions and Declarations contained in any such Act or Acts, shall (unless where expressly altered by this Act) and are hereby directed and declared to extend to, and shall be respectively applied, practised and put in Execution, for and in respect of the several Duties of Customs and Drawbacks of Duties of Customs hereby charged and allowed, in as full and ample manner, to all Intents and Purposes whatever, as if all and every the said Acts, Clauses, Provisions, Powers, Directions, Fines, Pains, Penalties or Forfeitures, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act, and made Part thereof.

LI. And be it further enacted, That such of the Duties of Customs by this Act imposed as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called England shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in England for the time being; and such thereof as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland shall shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in Scotland for the time being.

LII. And be it further enacted, That the Duties of Customs by this Act imposed on Goods, Wares and Merchandize, and which are particularly described and set forth in Figures in the Tables hereunto annexed, marked (A.) and (B.), under the Title and Description of Temporary or War Duties, shall continue in force during the War, and until Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies arising from the Duties of Customs imposed by this Act, described and set forth in the Tables hereunto annexed, marked (A.) and (B.), under the Head of Permanent Duties (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted), shall from time to time be paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, and be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, and shall be appropriated, issued and applied in like manner and to the same Services as the Permanent Duties of Customs hereby repealed would have been appropriated, issued and applied if this Act had not been passed; and that the Monies arising from the Duties of Customs, as the same are described and set forth in the Tables hereunto annexed, marked (A.) and (B.), under the Head of Temporary or War Duties (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted), shall from time to time be appropriated, issued and applied in like manner in every respect as the Monies arising from the Duties called Temporary or War Duties, granted by an Act passed in the Forty ninth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for repealing the several Duties of Customs chargeable in Great Britain, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof, were directed to be appropriated, issued and applied.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That on the due Exportation from Great Britain of any Sugar on which the Home Consumption Duty imposed by this Act shall have been paid, the Exporter or Exporters thereof shall be entitled to such and the like Drawbacks as shall be allowed at the time of such Exportation on Brown or Muscovado Sugar of the Produce of the British Plantations exported from Great Britain: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to impose any Duty on such Sugar when taken out of the Warehouse for Exportation only.

L.V. And whereas by an Act made in the Thirty third Year of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for continuing in the East India Company, for a further Term, the Possession of the British Territories in India, together with their exclusive Trade, under certain Limitations; for establishing further Regulations for the Government of the said Territories, and the better Administration of Justice within the same; for appropriating to certain Uses the Revenues and Profits of the said Company; and for making Provision for the good Order and Government of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, it is, among other things, enacted, that the Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies should, within the First Fourteen Sitting Days after the Thirtieth Day of March in every Year, lay certain Accounts before Parliament: And whereas it is expedient to alter the Periods for making up and presenting the said

And, for the Conditions, Rules and Regulations respecting the Payment of the Home Consumption Duty on such of the said Articles, as shall be imported by Persons authorized to trade within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company; — See the Act to which this Table is annexed.

C A P. XXXVII.

An Act for repealing an Act, made in the Fifty first Year of His present Majesty, for the more effectual Administration of the Office of a Justice of the Peace, in such Parts of the Counties of Middlesex and Surry as lie in and near the Metropolis; and for making other Provisions in lieu thereof; to continue in force until the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and from thence until the Expiration of Six Weeks from the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament. [17th December 1813.]

51 G. 3. c. 119.

WHEREAS an Act was made in the Fifty first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for repealing Two Acts, made in the Forty second and Forty seventh Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for the more effectual Administration of the Office of a Justice, of the Peace in such Parts of the Counties of Middlesex and Surry as lie in and near the Metropolis, and for the more effectual Prevention of Felonies, and for making other Provisions in lieu thereof; to continue in force until the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, and from thence until the Expiration of Six Weeks from the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament: And whereas it is expedient that the said Act should be repealed, and more effectual Provisions made in lieu thereof: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be and the same is hereby repealed.

II. And be it enacted, That the several Public Offices now established in the following Places, namely, the Parishes of Saint Margaret Westminster, Saint James Westminster, Saint Andrew Holborn, Saint Leonard Shoreditch, Saint Mary Whitechapel and Saint Paul Shadwell, in the County of Middlesex, and the Parish of Saint Saviour, in the Borough of Southwark, in the County of Surry, shall be continued, and the several Persons appointed by His Majesty to execute the Office of Justice of the Peace at each of the said Offices by virtue of the said Act, shall continue to execute the same, together, with such other Justices of the Peace for the said Counties respectively as may think proper to attend.

His Majesty may appoint Justices to fill up Vacancies.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, from time to time, upon any Vacancy in any of the said Offices, by Death or otherwise, to appoint other fit and proper Persons, being Justices of the Peace of the said Counties of Middlesex and Surry respectively, to execute the Duties of the said Office in his Place; and that one or more of the said Justices so appointed as aforesaid, shall diligently attend at each of the said Public Offices every Day from Ten of the Clock in the Morning until Eight of the Clock in the Evening, and at such other Times and Places as shall be found necessary; and that Two of the said Justices so to be appointed as aforesaid, shall in like manner attend together at each of the said Offices from Twelve of the Clock at Noon until Three in the Afternoon, Attendance.

IV. And be it further enacted, That no Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, County of Surry, City and Liberty of Westminster or Liberty of the Tower of London, or his or their Clerk or Clerks, or any Person for them, other than at the said Public Offices, shall directly or indirectly, upon any Pretence or under any Colour whatever, take or receive any Fee, Gratuities, Reward or Recompence, for any Act by him or them done or to be done in the Execution of his or their Office or Employ as Justice or Justices of the Peace, Clerk or Clerks as aforesaid, within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within the Parishes of Saint Mary le bone, Paddington, Saint Pancras, Kensington and Saint Luke at Chelsea, in the said County of Middlesex, upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of One hundred Pounds for every such Offence; to be recovered, one Moiety thereof to the Receiver appointed in the manner hereinafter mentioned, to be applied to the Purposes of this Act, and the other Moiety thereof, with full Costs of Suit, to the Person or Persons who shall sue for the same in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, by Action of Debt, Plaint or Information, wherein no Essoin, Privilege, Wager of Law, or more than One Imparance shall be allowed: Provided always nevertheless, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to any Fees taken at any General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace or at any Meeting of Justices, for the Purpose of licensing Alehouses, pursuant to an Act passed in the Twenty sixth Year of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for regulating the manner of licensing Alehouses in that Part of Great Britain called England; and for the more easy conveying Persons selling Ale and other Liquors without Licence; or to any Fees taken at a certain Public Office within the Liberty of Westminster, known by the Name of The Public Office in Bow Street; or to any Fees taken by any Vestry Clerk or his Assistant, as Clerk to any Justice or Justices of the Peace acting within the Parish in which such Justice or Justices reside, for the Purpose of enforcing the Payment of any Taxes or Assessments arising within the same Parish, or for the Purpose of hearing and determining any Offence cognizable before a Justice or Justices of the Peace, by virtue of any Statute made and provided for the special Regulation or Government of such Parish.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Justices so appointed to attend at the said Seven Public Offices as aforesaid, and their Clerks respectively, shall, in Books to be provided for that Purpose, keep a full, true and particular Account of all the Fees taken and received at each of the said Offices, together with all Penalties and Forfeitures which shall have been recovered, levied or received in pursuance of any Adjudication, Conviction or Order, had or made at any of the said Seven Public Offices, or any Process or Warrant issuing from the same; to which said Books and Accounts the Receiver to be appointed in manner hereinafter mentioned shall at all times have free Access; and the said Justices shall, Once in every Month, deliver unto such Receiver such Account, verified upon Oath by such Justice or Justices, their Clerk or Clerks, and such other Person or Persons as shall be employed in keeping such Accounts respectively, or any Part thereof, before some Justice of the Peace for the said County of Middlesex or County of Surry, as the case may be; which Oath such Justice is hereby authorized and required to administer, and shall pay

Justice taking Fees but at the Public Offices.

VIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in case of the Death of any Receiver continued or appointed by virtue of this Act, or of any Person having resigned or been removed from such Office, or of any of the other Persons whom the said Receiver for the time being is authorized to sue as aforesaid, then and in such case the Receiver for the time being may in his own proper Name only, or by his Name and Description of Office, sue for and recover such Sum of Money as shall have been remaining in the Hands of such deceased Receiver or other Person, applicable to the Purposes of this Act, or the Executors or Administrators of such Person deceased; in which Action it shall be sufficient for the Plaintiff in Substance to state that the Deceased was indebted to the Plaintiff for Money had and received for the Purposes of this Act, or that the Deceased died possessed of Money had and received for the Purposes of this Act, whereby an Action accrued to the Plaintiff to demand and have the same of such Executors or Administrators; and the like Actions shall and may be brought against any Executors or Administrators of Executors or Administrators; in all which Actions, the Defendant or Defendants may plead in like manner and avail themselves of the like Matters in their Defence, as in any Action founded upon simple Contracts of the original Testator or Intestate; and in all Actions to be brought by such Receiver by virtue of this Act, Proof of the Plaintiff's acting in the Execution of such Office shall be sufficient Evidence of his holding the same, unless the contrary can be shown in Evidence by the Defendant or Defendants in such Action.

Receiver may sue for Money in Hands of deceased Receivers, and recover from Executors.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by and with the Advice of His or their Privy Council, to direct the Salaries hereinafter mentioned, to be paid to the Justices so appointed to attend each of the said Seven Public Offices, for their Time and Trouble, and such further Sums for the Expences of the said Offices, and for the Payment of Clerks, Peace Officers, and others therein employed, in such manner as to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by and with the Advice of His or their Privy Council, shall seem meet: Provided always, that the yearly Salary paid to each of the Justices shall be Six hundred Pounds, clear of all Taxes and Deductions whatever: Provided also, that the whole Charges attending the said Offices (the said Salaries being included) shall not exceed the annual Sum of Twenty four thousand Pounds over and above the necessary Disbursements for hiring and repairing the Houses or Buildings wherein the said Seven Public Offices shall be held.

His Majesty in Council may order Salaries to Justices.

And be it further enacted, That the said Receiver out of the Monies hereinbefore directed to be applied in Discharge of the Salaries, Expences and Charges attending the said Public Offices, shall and may pay to the Constables so appointed as aforesaid, for their Trouble and Attendance as aforesaid, such Sum as may from time to time appear reasonable to His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Home Department, and any extraordinary Expences they shall appear to have been necessarily put to in apprehending Offenders, and executing the Orders of the Justices acting under and by virtue of this Act ; such extraordinary Expences being first examined and approved of by the Justices attending the Office in which such Constables shall have been respectively appointed.

‘ XVIII. And whereas divers ill disposed and suspected Persons ‘ and reputed Thieves frequent Places of Public Resort, the ‘ Avenues leading thereto, and the Streets and Highways, and ‘ Places adjacent, with Intent to commit Felony on the Persons and ‘ Property of His Majesty's Subjects there being ; and although ‘ their evil Purposes are sufficiently manifest, the Power of His ‘ Majesty's Justices of the Peace, to demand of them Sureties for ‘ their Good Behaviour, hath not been of sufficient Effect to ‘ prevent them from carrying their evil Purposes into Execution ; ‘ Be it enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any Constable, Headborough, Patrole, Watchman or other Person to apprehend every such suspected Person or reputed Thief, and convey him or them before any Justice of the Peace ; and if it shall appear before the said Justice upon the Oath of One or more creditable † Witness or Witnesses, that such Person or Persons so brought before him, by such Constable, Headborough, Patrole or Watchman, or by any other Person whatever, as well within the said Counties of Middlesex and Surry, or † elsewhere, is or are a Person or Persons of evil Fame and a reputed Thief or Thieves, and such Person or Persons shall not be able to give a satisfactory Account of himself or themselves, and of his or their way of living, and it shall also appear to the Satisfaction of the said Justice that there is a just Ground to believe that such Person or Persons was or were in such Public Place of Resort, Avenue, Street, Highway or Place adjacent as aforesaid, with such Intent as aforesaid, every such Person shall be deemed a Rogue and Vagabond, within the Intent and Meaning of the Statute made in the Seventeenth Year of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act to amend and make more effectual the Laws relating to Rogues, Vagabonds and other idle and disorderly Persons, and to Houses of Correction.

XIX. And

XIX. And be it further enacted, That every such Conviction shall be in the following Form of Words, as the case may happen, or in any other Form of Words to the like Effect: Form of Conviction.

‘ B E it remembered, That on the Day of
 ‘ in the Year of our Lord
 ‘ A. B. is brought before me C. D. Esquire, one of His Majesty’s ‘ Justices of the Peace in and for the County of ‘ [or, City, Liberty or Place, as the case may be], and charged ‘ before me the said Justice with being a Rogue and Vagabond; he
 ‘ the said A. B. having been apprehended on the Day of
 ‘ in a certain called in the Parish ‘ of in the said County [or, City, etcetera, as the case ‘ may be]; and it appearing to me the said Justice, on the Oath of ‘ a credible Witness, that the said
 ‘ A. B. is a Person of evil Fame and a reputed Thief; and the said
 ‘ A. B. on his Examination before me not being able to give a satis‘ factory Account of himself, or of his way of living, and it also ‘ appearing to the Satisfaction of me the said Justice, that there is ‘ just Ground to believe the said A. B. was in such ‘ afore said, with Intent to commit Felony on the Person or Property
 ‘ of His Majesty’s Subjects there being; I do therefore, in pursuance ‘ of an Act passed in the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of King ‘ George the Third, intituled [here insert the Title of this Act], ‘ convict him the said A. B. of the said Offence, and adjudge him ‘ to be a Rogue and Vagabond, within the Intent and Meaning of 17 G. 2. c. 3.
 ‘ the Statute made in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of His late ‘ Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act to amend and ‘ make more effectual the Laws relating to Rogues, Vagabonds, and ‘ other idle and disorderly Persons, and to Houses of Correction; and ‘ that he for his said Offence be committed to the House of Cor‘ rection for the said County, until the next General or Quarter ‘ [as the case may be] Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the ‘ said County-City or Place, [as the case may be] then and there ‘ to be further dealt with according to Law. [If the Party be ‘ committed for a less time than until the Sessions, then say, there to

and proceed against such Person in the same manner as they might have done if such Rogue and Vagabond had been committed to the House of Correction until such General or Quarter Sessions; and in case such Person shall not appear pursuant to the said Recognizance, the Person so convicted by such Justice shall be deemed an incorrigible Rogue within the Intent and Meaning of an Act made and passed in the Seventeenth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to amend and make more effectual the Laws relating to Rogues, Vagabonds, and other idle and disorderly Persons, and to Houses of Correction; and the said Justices at such Sessions, or any Two of them, shall issue their Warrant to apprehend and commit the Person so deemed an incorrigible Rogue to some House of Correction or Common Gaol within their Jurisdiction, there to remain until the next General or Quarter Sessions for the said County, [Liberty, or City, as the case may be,] then and there to be further dealt with according to Law: Provided always, that no Person convicted under this Act shall be deemed subject or liable to Punishment by Whipping.

XXI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to deprive the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, of any Rights, Privileges or Jurisdictions, which they have heretofore lawfully claimed, exercised or enjoyed, within the Town and Borough of Southwark and the Liberties thereof; or to prevent the Mayor of the City of London for the time being, and such of the Aldermen of the said City who have borne the Office of Mayoralty, and the Recorder of the said City for the time being, from acting as Justices of the Peace within the said Town and Borough of Southwark, and the Liberties thereof, in such and the like manner as they could or might have done in case this Act had not been made.

XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to deprive the Dean of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter Westminster for the time being, or the High Steward of the City and Liberty of Westminster for the time being, or his lawful Deputy, of any Rights, Privileges or Jurisdictions which they have heretofore lawfully claimed, exercised or enjoyed within the said City and Liberty, in such and the like manner as they could or might have done in case this Act had not been made.

XXIII. And whereas it is expedient that the Officers and Patrole belonging to the said Public Office in Bow Street, should be sworn in as Constables, and be empowered to act within the Limits of the several Counties of Middlesex, Surry, Essex and Kent, the City and Liberty of Westminster, and the Liberty of the Tower of London; Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Two Justices belonging to the said Public Office in Bow Street (the Chief Magistrate of such Office for the time being, being one) being Justices of the said several Counties, City and Liberties, to administer to such Persons respectively an Oath duly to execute the Office of Constable within the Limits aforesaid; and each of such Persons being sworn shall have Power to act as a Constable for the Preservation of the Peace, and for the Security of Property against Felonies and other unlawful Modes of obtaining the same †, within any and every of the said several Counties, City and Liberties, and for apprehending Offenders against the Peace, as well by by Night as by Day; and within the Limits aforesaid, every such Constable shall have all such Powers and Authorities, Privileges and Advantages, as any Constable duly appointed now has or hereafter may have within his Constableness: Provided always, that when any such Constable shall be dismissed from his said Employment, or cease to belong to the said Public Office in Bow Street, all Powers and Authorities, Allowances, Emoluments, Privileges and Advantages, vested in the Person so dismissed or ceasing to belong to the said Office, shall immediately cease and determine.

Proviso.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in force until the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and from thence until the Expiration of Six Weeks from the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament.

Continuance of Act.

C A P. XXXVIII.

An Act for allowing a certain Proportion of the London Militia to enlist into the Regular Forces for the vigorous Prosecution of the War; also, a certain Proportion to enlist annually into the Regular Forces; and for completing the said Militia.

[17th December 1813.]

‘ WHEREAS Two Regiments of Militia have been raised in ‘ and for the City of London, by virtue of Two several ‘ Acts of Parliament, one of them passed in the Thirty sixth Year of 36 G. 3. c. 92.
 ‘ the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for amending ‘ and reducing into One Act of Parliament Two several Acts passed in ‘ the Thirty fourth and Thirty fifth Years of the Reign of His present ‘ Majesty, for the better ordering the Militia of the City of London;
 ‘ and for the further regulating of the Trained Bands or Militia of the ‘ said City; and the other of them, passed in the Thirty ninth Year 39 G. 3. c. 82.
 ‘ of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to explain
 ‘ and amend an Act, passed in the Thirty sixth Year of the Reign of His ‘ present Majesty, intituled An Act for amending and reducing into One ‘ Act of Parliament Two several Acts passed in the Thirty fourth and ‘ Thirty fifth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty for the better ‘ ordering the Militia of the City of London; and for the further ‘ regulating the Trained Bands or Militia of the said City: And ‘ whereas an Act was passed in the Fifty first Year of the Reign of ‘ His present Majesty, intituled An Act to allow a certain Proportion 51 G. 3. c. 20.
 ‘ of the Militia of Great Britain to enlist annually into the Regular ‘ Forces; and to provide for the gradual Reduction of the said Militia;
 ‘ and it was thereby enacted, that the said Act should not extend to the ‘ City of London (a); And whereas an Act has been passed in this c. 1. ante.
 ‘ present Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to enable His Majesty
 ‘ to accept the Services of a Proportion of the Militia out of the § 20.
 ‘ United Kingdom, for the vigorous Prosecution of the War; and ‘ it is thereby enacted, that the said Act shall not extend to the ‘ City of London: And whereas by an Act passed in this present c. 17. ante.
 ‘ Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to enable His Majesty
 ‘ to accept the Services of a Proportion of the Militia of the City ‘ of London, out of the United Kingdom, for the vigorous Prosecu‘ tion of the War, His Majesty has been empowered to accept the ‘ Services, and to employ in any Part of Europe, such Part of the ‘ London

* London Militia, not exceeding Three Fourths of the Number * actually serving in each Regiment of such Militia, as may make a * voluntary Offer of extending their Services to all Parts of Europe :
 * And Whereas it is highly important that the most effectual Measures
 * should be adopted for the vigorous Prosecution of the War upon
 * the Continent of Europe, and it is necessary to provide a permanent
 * Supply of Men for His Majesty's Regular Forces : And Whereas
 * the City of London, notwithstanding the Exemptions from raising * of Men for Military Service contained in their Charters and in
 * the said recited Acts, are desirous, and have voluntarily agreed, * that His Majesty should be empowered to accept any Offers of a * Proportion of the Officers, Non Commissioned Officers and Private
 * Men of the London Militia to transfer their Services into Regi* ments of the Line, under certain Regulations ; and that a certain
 * Proportion of the said Militia should be annually allowed to enlist
 * into His Majesty's Regular Forces under certain Restrictions :
 * May it therefore please Your Majesty, that it may be enacted ; and
 * be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with
 * the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and
 * Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Autho* rity of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to accept
 * the Services, under the Regulations and Restrictions specified in
 * this Act, of such Part of the present London Militia not exceed* ing in any case Three Fourths of the Number actually serving in
 * the said Militia, as shall be desirous of enlisting into His Majesty's
 * Regular Forces in manner hereinafter mentioned.

His Majesty
 may accept Offers of Proportion of London Militia to enlist into the Line.

Number of Men in a Company.

His Majesty
 may appoint Officers from London Militia, and make Battalions of Companies, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That where any Number of Private London Militia Men shall be desirous of enlisting into any Regiment of the Line of His Majesty's Regular Forces, which may be appointed by His Majesty for that Purpose, as a Company or Companies of not less than One hundred Men to each Company, and His Majesty shall have signified his Intention of granting Commissions in His Majesty's Regular Forces to any Officer or Officers actually serving in the Regiment of London Militia, from which any such Company of Men shall volunteer to serve as aforesaid in His Majesty's Regular Forces as Captain, Lieutenant and Ensign of any such Company ; that in every such case it shall be lawful for such Men to enlist as such Company or Companies as aforesaid, and in every such case it shall be lawful for any Number of Non Commissioned Officers, Corporals and Drummers of such Regiment of London Militia, not exceeding Five Serjeants and Six Corporals to every One hundred Men, to enlist with any such Company of Men as aforesaid ; and every Colonel and Commanding Officer of such Regiment is hereby required to discharge such Non Commissioned Officers, Corporals and Drummers as shall be desirous of enlisting as aforesaid, not exceeding such Number as aforesaid, and it shall be lawful for His Majesty to attach such Company or Companies of Men to any Regiment of the Line of His Majesty's Regular Forces so appointed by His Majesty, or to join together any Number of such Companies and form the same into an additional Battalion or additional Battalions of any such Regiment as aforesaid, and in such case to appoint such and such Number of Field and Staff Officers to any such Battalion or Battalions as His Majesty shall think necessary : Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall

Provide.

shall be construed to prevent any Number of Men less than One hundred from enlisting as Part of a Company into any Regiment so appointed by His Majesty, under such Regulations, with respect to the Proportion of Officers and Non Commissioned Officers as His Majesty may think fit to appoint.

Proviso.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every Officer so volunteering to serve in His Majesty's Regular Forces, with any such Company of Men as aforesaid, shall upon his Reduction be entitled to and receive the Half Pay of the Rank in which he shall have been serving at the time of his Reduction.

Officers volunteering to serve in Regulars to have Half Pay.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Number of Men to be raised in either of the said Regiments under the last recited Act (b), passed in this Session of Parliament, by extending their Services to Europe as Militia, and under this Act by Enlistment by Companies into such Regiments of the Line as may be appointed by His Majesty for that Purpose, shall not altogether exceed Three Fourths of the Number of Private Men actually serving in such Regiment.

(b) [c. 17. § 1. ante.]

V. And, towards providing a Permanent Supply of Men for His Majesty's Regular Forces, be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty annually to accept the Services of such Men of the London Militia, not exceeding One Seventh Part of the Number of Private Men in each of the said Regiments, as shall be willing to enlist into His Majesty's Regular Forces, under the Regulations and subject to the Restrictions hereinafter mentioned, but in addition to the Men now serving in the said Militia who may enlist in Companies by virtue of the Provisions hereinbefore contained.

Proportion of London Militia annually allowed to enlist.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty by any Order or Orders, signed by His Majesty's Secretary of State, to name and appoint such and so many of the Regiments of His Majesty's Regular Forces as His Majesty shall think fit, to receive Volunteers from the London Militia under this Act, out of either of the Regiments of such Militia named in any such Order; and it shall be lawful for any Number of Private Men, of each of such Regiments of Militia, not exceeding the Proportion hereinafter mentioned, to enlist in the manner and under the Regulations herein mentioned into any Regiment as aforesaid, which, in any such Order of His Majesty, shall be named to receive Volunteers from such Regiments of Militia.

His Majesty may appoint Regiments in which Militia Men may enlist.

VII. And be it further enacted, That His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State shall, annually, ascertain the Number of Private Men that shall be allowed to enlist out of each Regiment of London Militia, so that the whole Number do not exceed One Seventh Part of each of the said Regiments; and His Majesty's Secretary of State shall, annually, on or before the First Day of February, signify to the Commanding Officer of each of the said Regiments the Number of Private Men that shall be allowed to enlist out of such Regiment respectively, under the Provisions of this Act.

Number of Men to enlist.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to appoint such General or Field Officers especially authorized by His Majesty, or by the Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces for that Purpose, to inspect, approve or reject the Private Men who shall be desirous of enlisting under this Act, and such Officers may approve of or reject such Private Men accordingly:

His Majesty may appoint Officers to approve or reject Men.

Age, Height,
&c. of Men.

Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend to authorize any such Officers to reject any Private Men, desirous of enlisting as aforesaid, who shall be of the Height of Five Feet and Four Inches or upwards, and under the Age of Thirty five Years, and not disabled by Lameness or other Bodily Infirmary.

Commanding
Officer of each Regiment shall read His Majesty's Order and explain
Terms of enrolment, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the Commanding Officer of each Regiment of London Militia shall, within Two Days after the Receipt of the Order as to Men enlisting, cause such Regiment to be drawn out, and such Commanding Officer shall read, or cause to be read, by some Commissioned Officer to the Regiment so drawn out, His Majesty's Orders in relation to enlisting under this Act, and shall cause the same to be given out in Orders, and shall in such manner as His Majesty shall direct, explain to the Men the Terms upon which any Man serving in such Militia may enlist into His Majesty's Regular Forces under this Act, and shall, on the Day next succeeding, cause his Regiment to be drawn out, and the Names of the Men who shall then voluntarily declare their Intention of enlisting to be written down, and if the Number of such Men shall exceed the Proportion allowed to enlist, such Excess shall be reduced by Ballot to the Number authorized to enlist.

If Number who shall enlist shall not be due Proportion, in what case further Enlistment may take place.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if the Number of Private Men in either of the Regiments of London Militia, who shall (when so drawn out as aforesaid) voluntarily declare their Intention to enlist, shall not amount to the Proportion authorized to enlist as aforesaid, then and in such case, a Book shall be opened by the Commanding Officer, and it shall be lawful for any other of such Men, not exceeding the Number necessary to complete the Number allowed to enlist under this Act, at any time within Seven Days after the last Day of such Two Days on which such Regiment shall have been drawn out, to enter their Names in such Book as willing to enlist as aforesaid.

In what case His Majesty may appoint further Periods.

XI. And be it further enacted, That in case the whole Number of Men allowed to enlist in any One Year under the Provisions of this Act, from each or either of the said Regiments, shall not have enlisted into His Majesty's Regular Forces within the said Seven Days as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order of the Secretary of State, signified to the Commanding Officer of such Regiment, to appoint, from time to time, further Periods of Three Days each for enlisting into His Majesty's Regular Forces, until the whole Number allowed to enlist shall have declared their Intention of enlisting; and during any such Periods it shall be lawful for any Man to enlist under this Act from such Regiment in manner aforesaid: Provided always, that Ten Days Notice shall, from time to time, be given to such Commanding Officer, and by him to his Regiment, of the several Days or Periods so to be appointed for enlisting previous to each such Period, and that there be an Interval of Fourteen Days at least between each such Period of Three Days.

Proviso.

As soon as Number enlisted from either Regiment is ascertained, they shall be discharged; and shall, if approved,

XII. And be it further enacted, That so soon as the Number of Private Men to be enlisted from either of such Regiments shall have been ascertained in manner by this Act directed at each of such respective Periods as aforesaid, the Commanding Officer of such Regiment is hereby required to discharge all such Private Men so to be enlisted from the Militia; and every such Private Man so discharged as aforesaid, shall, if approved by the Officer to be appointed pointed by His Majesty for that Purpose, immediately belong to the Regiment into which he shall have declared or shall declare his Intention to enlist, if he shall have enlisted into any Regiment of His Majesty's Regular Forces specified in His Majesty's Orders, or shall belong if he shall not have enlisted into any such Regiment as an enlisted Soldier in His Majesty's Regular Forces, and every such Man shall be thereupon immediately attested for such Service in His Majesty's Regular Forces, and shall (as soon as conveniently may be) be transferred to some Officer of the Regiment into which he shall have enlisted, or such Officer of His Majesty's Regular Forces as His Majesty may have appointed to receive Men enlisted under this Act.

be attested for Regular Service.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of Lieutenancy of the City of London shall within Ten Days after the receiving of any Order for that Purpose from His Majesty, signified by His Majesty's Secretary of State, transmit to His Majesty's Privy Council an accurate Account, in Writing, of the Number of Persons that shall have been discharged from the said London Militia and enlisted as aforesaid under this Act, which Account shall, in all cases where the same may be necessary, be transmitted by the Commanding Officer of each Regiment of such Militia to such Commissioners as aforesaid for that Purpose.

Lieutenancy to transmit to Privy Council an Account of Number discharged, &c.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Private Militia Man shall be entitled to enlist under this Act who shall be in Confinement under any Sentence of any Court Martial, or with a View to being tried by any Court Martial, until he shall have suffered the Sentence of such Court Martial, or shall have been acquitted, or until such Sentence shall have been remitted; and that no Private Militia Man shall be entitled to his Discharge or to enlist under this Act who shall have been sentenced to any Punishment by any Court Martial for any Offence committed within the Space of Three Calendar Months next before the time of his so offering to enlist, unless he shall obtain the Consent of the Commanding Officer of the Regiment of Militia in which he shall be serving at the time of his being desirous of enlisting as aforesaid.

No Person under Court Confinement, entitled to enlist until he shall have suffered Sentence of Court Martial, &c.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful, with the Consent of the Officer commanding either of the said Regiments, for any Number of Serjeants and Corporals, not exceeding the Proportion of One Serjeant and One Corporal for every Twenty Men enlisting from such Regiment, to enlist in like manner and at such Periods as Part of the said Quota into His Majesty's Regular Forces; and if any greater Number of Serjeants and Corporals, than such Proportion as aforesaid, shall be desirous of enlisting as aforesaid, such Number shall be reduced by Ballot to the Number authorized to enlist.

Serjeants and Corporals may enlist.

XVI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall authorize any Officers appointed by His Majesty to enlist and receive Militia Men under this Act, or any Commanding Officer or other Officer or Non Commissioned Officer of any Regiment as aforesaid, or other Person, to enlist or persuade to enlist or receive any Militia Men, other than such as shall have been duly discharged by the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Regiment of Militia to which the Person desirous of enlisting shall belong; and if any Officer shall enlist, or attempt to enlist any London Militia Man, Act not to authorize enlisting, or persuading to enlist, any Man not duly discharged.

such Man shall not be permitted to enter into the Regiment to which the Officer persuading him to enlist may belong.

On Production to Commanding Officer of Certificates of Men having been enlisted, Names discharged from List of Men serving.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That upon the Production to the Colonel or Commanding Officer of either of the Regiments of London Militia of a Certificate, under the Hand of any Justice of the Peace of any County in Great Britain, or of any Magistrate of any City, Borough, Town or Place therein, of any Private Man belonging to the Militia having voluntarily enlisted and been attested for His Majesty's Regular Forces as aforesaid (which Certificate every such Justice or Magistrate and Officer respectively is hereby required to give gratis), such Colonel or Commanding Officer is hereby required to cause the Person named in such Certificate to be discharged from the List of Militia Men serving for the City of London, provided that the Number of Men authorized by this Act to enlist shall not have previously enlisted.

+ Sic.

Adjutants of Militia to transmit Returns of Men who have enlisted under Act to Commissioners of Lieutenancy, who shall transmit to Overseers of the Poor an account of Privates so enlisted.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Adjutant of each such Regiment + of Militia, shall, after the Commencement of every enlisting of Men under this Act, and until the whole Number of Men allowed to enlist from his Regiment shall have enlisted, at the End of every Week after each Period of enlisting in each Year, transmit to the said Commissioners of Lieutenancy an accurate Return of all the Private Men who shall have enlisted under this Act, specifying therein the Christian and Surname of each Private Man, and the Ward and Parish or Place to which he is allotted, or for which he was serving at the time of such enlisting; and the said Commissioners of Lieutenancy shall immediately, upon the Receipt of such Returns, transmit to the respective Overseers of the Poor, or Governors or Managers thereof, an Account of the Men allotted to or serving for their respective Parishes or Places who shall have enlisted under this Act, and all Allowances payable to the Wives and Families of any such Private Men shall cease from the time such enlisting shall have taken place.

His Majesty may direct Number permitted to enlist in any Year, to transfer Services to Europe, or to enlist in Companies.

XIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in any voluntary Offer from the London Militia, which may be ordered by His Majesty, by virtue of this Act, for the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, or any succeeding Year, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, if he shall think fit, to order and direct that the Number so permitted to enlist into the Regular Forces, from the said London Militia, may transfer their Services into that Part of the London Militia serving in Europe, under the Provisions of the said last recited Act (a) of this present Session of Parliament, or may enlist as Companies, or Parts of Companies, under the Provisions of this Act, and in the manner hereinbefore prescribed with regard to the specific Quota which each of the said Regiments is by this Act required to furnish.

(a) [c. 17. ante.]

Persons enlisting without Consent of Commanding Officer.

XX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person serving in the London Militia, who shall be usually employed as Adjutant's Clerk or Regimental Clerk, or as a Drummer, or as a Musician in the Band of the Regiment to which he shall belong, or shall be usually employed as an Armourer in such Regiment, shall be entitled to his Discharge, or to enlist into the Regular Forces as Part of a Company, or in an Enlistment for the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, or any succeeding Year, under this Act, unless he shall shall obtain the Consent for that Purpose of the Commanding Officer of the Regiment in which he shall be then serving.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commanding Officer of either Regiment of London Militia to refuse to discharge any Private Militia Man who shall desire his Discharge for the Purpose of being enlisted into the Regular Forces, as Part of a Company, or in an Enlistment for the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, or any succeeding Year, under this Act, upon assigning in Writing to the General Officer commanding in the District within which such Regiment of Militia shall be quartered, or to the Adjutant General of His Majesty's Forces, where there shall not be such General Officer as aforesaid, such Cause for his Refusal as shall be deemed sufficient by such General Officer or Adjutant General, as the case may be.

Commanding Officers may refuse to discharge Men upon sufficient cause.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person discharged from the London Militia for the Purpose of being enlisted into His Majesty's Regular Forces as Part of a Company, or in an Enlistment for the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, or any succeeding Year, under this Act, shall notwithstanding refuse to enlist pursuant to any Declaration of being desirous to enlist, so made by him as aforesaid, or shall not be approved of by the Officer appointed by His Majesty for that Purpose, then and in every such case such Person shall continue to belong to the Regiment of London Militia from which he shall have been so discharged for the Purpose of enlisting as aforesaid notwithstanding any such Discharge.

Persons discharged refusing to enlist, or not approved of, to continue to belong to Regiment from which discharged.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall be enlisted to serve in any Regiment so named and appointed as aforesaid, as Part of a Company, or in an Enlistment for the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, or any succeeding Year, shall serve in the Regiment in which he shall have originally enlisted to serve, and in no other Regiment whatever; and no Person enlisting in any such Regiment shall on any Account or Pretence whatsoever be drafted into or serve in any other Regiment without his Consent, except in some Garrison or Veteran Battalion, in case it shall be necessary or expedient to transfer such Person into any Garrison or Veteran Battalion, on account of his being disabled, or for any other sufficient Cause; and every such Person may also be transferred from one Battalion to another of any Regiment in which he may be serving.

No Person drafted from Regiment in which enlisted.

XXIV. And, for replacing the Number of Men hereinbefore allowed to enlist by Companies or Parts of Companies, and annually, into the Regular Forces out of the London Militia, be it further enacted, That there shall be raised from time to time, in manner hereinafter mentioned, a Number of Private Militia Men, equal to the Number of Rank and File, as shall enlist into His Majesty's Regular Forces, as well in Companies or Parts of Companies, as annually, by virtue of this Act.

Men raised to replace those enlisted in manner after mentioned.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, when it shall appear to His Majesty to be necessary for the more speedily completing the Number of Men to be raised for the Militia, from time to time, under the Provisions of this Act, to order and direct, under an Order of His Majesty in Council, that the Commissioners of Lieutenancy of the City of London, or the Colonels or Commanding Officers of the Two Regiments of Militia, and the Commissioned Officers, Adjutants, Quarter Masters, Staff

His Majesty may order Men to be raised by Beat of Drum for Militia.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That of the Number of Persons to be raised for the London Militia, under this Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty to direct that such Proportion as He shall think fit, not exceeding One Fourth Part of the whole Number of Persons to be raised within the same Year, shall consist of Boys of the Age of Fourteen Years and upwards, of such Height as His Majesty may direct, who shall be raised by Beat of Drum.

His Majesty may direct Boys to be enlisted for Militia.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That all the Provisions contained in any Act of Parliament in force for the Punishment of Mutiny and Desertion; and the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, in relation to the enlisting any Men for His Majesty's Army, shall, so far as the same can be made applicable to the Men enlisted for the London Militia, be applied and used and put in force by all Justices of the Peace and others, and all Persons authorized to raise Men by Beat of Drum for the London Militia, and the preventing Frauds and absconding by Persons enlisted, and for the Protection of Men having hastily enlisted, as fully and effectually as if all such Provisions were repeated and re-enacted as to the raising of Men by Beat of Drum for the London Militia.

Mutiny Act as to enlisting extended to Men raised by Beat of Drum for London Militia.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That all Provisions contained in any Act in force for the Punishment of Mutiny and Desertion; and the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, in relation to the enlisting of Apprentices, and the claiming of Apprentices by their Masters, and the Punishment of any Apprentices, and the Liability to Service after the Expiration of the Indentures, and all other Provisions in any such Act in relation to Apprentices or their Masters, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, extend to all Apprentices who shall enlist or enrol themselves as Volunteers in the London Militia, and the Masters of such Apprentices, as fully and effectually as if the same were severally and separately repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

Mutiny Act relating to Apprentices extended to London Militia.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That no Allowance to the Wives and Families of London Militia Men granted by the said Acts of the Thirty sixth and Thirty ninth Years of His present Majesty, shall be granted to the Wife or Family of any Man who shall be raised to serve in the London Militia by Beat of Drum, under the Provisions hereinbefore contained, but all Allowances to be granted under the said Acts, or either of them, to the Wives or Families of any Men raised after the passing of this Act, shall be confined to the Wives or Families of Men raised by the City of London, in manner hereinafter mentioned.

Allowance to Families.
36 G. 3. c. 92.
39 G. 3. c. 82.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to order and direct that a Number of Men shall be raised for the London Militia by the City of London, equal to the Number of Men who shall from time to time enlist into His Majesty's Regular Forces, as well in Companies or Parts of Companies as annually by virtue of this Act, and such Men shall be raised and supplied by the several Wards within the said City of London, and the Liberties and Precincts within the same, to whom, from time to time, the Men who shall have enlisted into His Majesty's Regular Forces, and who shall be directed to be replaced, shall have been allotted or belonged; and so many of such Men shall be raised and supplied by each and every of such Wards, as shall be equal to the Number of Men directed to be replaced who shall have been allotted or belonged to such Ward respectively, in the manner by the said recited Acts of the Thirty sixth and Thirty ninth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty described in relation to providing Men for the said Militia of the City of London; and for that Purpose all the Powers, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Pains, Penalties, Forfeitures, Bounties, Clauses, Matters and Things contained in the said Acts, as far as the same are applicable, and are not hereby altered, varied or repealed, shall be applied and practised for the Purpose of raising the Men directed to be raised by this Act, in as full and ample a manner as if the said Powers, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Pains, Penalties, Forfeitures, Bounties, Clauses, Matters and Things were again repealed and enacted in this Act.

Lieutenancy to act in raising Men in such and same manner as in raising Men for London Militia.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London, and the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the said City, and all Constables therein, shall respectively have full Power and Authority, and are hereby authorized and empowered and required, from time to time, to raise and provide the Number of Men by this Act directed to be raised, and to do all Acts, Matters and Things necessary for carrying this Act into Execution, in like manner, and as fully and effectually as they are respectively authorized, empowered or required to carry into Execution the said Acts of the Thirty sixth and Thirty ninth Years of His present Majesty.

Lieutenancy to issue Precepts for raising Men.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That Courts or General Meetings of the Commissioners of Lieutenancy of the said City of London shall be held in the said City of London, from time to time, as often as Occasion shall require, and at such Courts or General Meetings the Commissioners of Lieutenancy, or such of them as shall be present at such Meeting, shall issue Precepts for the raising such Men, by this Act directed to be raised in the said several Wards, in the manner in the said Acts of the Thirty sixth and Thirty ninth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty directed, and such Men shall be respectively raised and provided in the said Wards within Twenty eight Days after the issuing of such Precepts.

Ten Guineas to be allowed to Wards by His Majesty for every Man raised under Act.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That a Sum of Ten Guineas shall be allowed by His Majesty in respect of every man who shall be provided or raised for the London Militia under the Provisions lastly hereinbefore contained, and shall be paid into the Chamber of London to the Account of the Commissioners of Lieutenancy, and shall be applied in manner hereinafter mentioned, and it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, to order any Receiver General in England to advance and pay any Sum or Sums of Money for or in respect of any such Allowances, or any Advances with respect† thereof that may be necessary, out of any Public Monies in their Hands, or received, or receivable by them, out of any Rates and Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and all Monies paid under any such Orders as aforesaid shall be good and valid, and be allowed to all such Receivers General in their Accounts.

† Sic.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That such Sum of Money as the Commissioners of Lieutenancy shall from time to time think necessary (together with the Allowances to be made by His Majesty as hereinbefore is mentioned) for providing for the London Militia the Men required to be provided by the said City of London by virtue of this Act, shall from time to time be provided and raised by all the several Wards of the said City, and the Liberties and Precincts within the same, in such or the like Proportions as the Number of Private Men in the said London Militia was by the said Act of the Thirty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty required to be raised.

Money which Lieutenancy shall think necessary, raised by Wards, in same Proportions as they raise Men.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners of Lieutenancy at their Courts shall, and they are hereby required from time to time as and when they shall think it necessary, to issue Precepts to the Aldermen, Deputies and Common Councilmen of the said several Wards of the said City, and the Liberties thereof, requiring them to cause the Proportions of the Sum of Money for the time being, thought necessary to be raised as aforesaid, hereinbefore appointed to be raised in their respective Wards to be provided; and the Aldermen or Deputies and Common Councilmen, of the several Wards aforesaid, or the major Part of them, shall provide the Proportions of the Sum of Money directed to be raised in their respective Wards, and shall, within Twenty eight Days next after the issuing of the said Precepts, pay the same into the Chamber of the City of London to the Account of the said Commissioners of Lieutenancy, to be applied as hereinafter is mentioned; and for raising such Proportions of such Sums of Money the Aldermen, Deputies and Common Councilmen of the said several Wards, or the major Part of them, shall from time to time when and as often as Occasion shall require, make such and the like Rates, and upon such or the like several and respective Bodies and Persons within their respective Wards as they were authorized and required to make by the said Acts of the Thirty sixth and Thirty ninth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for providing the Men thereby required to be raised, and shall levy or cause the same Rates to be levied accordingly; and all the Powers, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Pains, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things contained in the said Acts of the Thirty sixth and Thirty ninth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty in relation to the Rates thereby directed to be made, shall, so far as the same are applicable and are not hereby altered, varied or repealed, shall be applied and practised for the Purpose of making and levying the Rates to be made by virtue of this Act in as full and ample a manner as if the said Powers, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Pains, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things were again repeated and enacted in this Act.

Lieutenancy to issue Precepts to raise Money, and Wards to pay it into Chamber to Account of Commissioners, and to levy it by Rates, in same manner as Monies for raising Men.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Allowances or Sums of Ten Guineas, and the said Sums of Money to be, from time to time, paid by the said several Wards into the Chamber of the City of London by virtue of this Act, shall be applied in defraying the Expences of providing the Men by this Act required to be raised by the said City of London, and for that Purpose shall be paid, from time to time, by the Chamberlain of the said City of London, in such manner, and at such times, as the said Commissioners by their Order or Precept shall direct; and such Precepts or Orders

An Act to remove Doubts respecting the Payment of Drawback on the Exportation of French Wine in certain Cases.

53 G. 3. c. 34.

Sch. C.

" WHEREAS by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for granting to His Majesty additional Duties of Excise in Great Britain on Tobacco and Snuff, and on French Wines, it is enacted, That every Dealer or Dealers or Seller or Sellers of Foreign Wine who should, on or before the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, have actually paid in Advance the whole of the Additional Duties by the said Act imposed on any French Wine which should have been found on the first actual Survey by the proper Officer or Officers of Excise, after the Thirtieth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, in his, her or their Stock, Custody or Possession, as in the said Act was mentioned, should be entitled to an Allowance equal to One Third of such Additional Duties so paid in Advance as aforesaid; and by the said Act a Drawback of Sixty three Pounds, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity, was allowed for every Tun of French Wine imported into Great Britain, for which all the Duties imposed for or in respect thereof should have been paid, and which should be duly exported as Merchandize from or out of the entered Stock of any Dealer or Dealers, or Seller or Sellers of French Wines: And whereas Doubts have arisen whether, under or by virtue of the said recited Provisions, the Drawback of Sixty three Pounds for every Tun of such French Wine, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity so exported from or out of such entered Stock, is not payable for or in respect of such Wine whereon the said recited Allowance has been received for the said Additional Duties so paid in Advance; Now, to obviate and remove all such Doubts, be it enacted and declared by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Drawback exceeding the Amount of the said Additional Duty actually paid and retained in the Hands of His said Majesty, for or in respect of any such Wine, shall

shall be paid or allowed on the Exportation of any such Wine; any thing in the said Act contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

An Act to continue until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, an Act made in the Forty ninth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, to suspend the Importation of British or Irish-made Spirits into Great Britain and Ireland respectively. [20th December 1813.]

WHEREAS an Act was made in the Forty ninth Year of His⁴⁹ G. 3. c. 8. present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to suspend the Im- portation of British or Irish-made Spirits into Great Britain or Ireland respectively, until the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and nine; and by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to continue, until the Thirty first Day of December 53 G. 3. c. 7.
One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, an Act made in the Forty ninth Year of His present Majesty, to prohibit the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain in the United Kingdom, and another Act, made in the Forty ninth Year of His present Majesty, to suspend the Importation of British or Irish-made Spirits into Great Britain and Ireland respectively, and to continue the Duties on Worts or Wafsh made from Sugar in Great Britain, and the Duties on Spirits made from Sugar in Ireland, it was, amongst other things, enacted, that all the Powers and Provisions of the said recited Act of the Forty ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign (except as in the said Act of the Fifty third Year of His Majesty's Reign is excepted), should be continued until Four Calendar Months after the Expiration of the time which should or might be fixed under the Authority of the said Act of the Fifty third Year of His Majesty's Reign for prohibiting the Distillation of Spirits from Grain in Great Britain:
 And Whereas it is expedient that the said recited Act of the Forty ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign should be further continued for the Purpose of affording sufficient time for making effectual Provisions for regulating the Intercourse between Great Britain and Ireland, in relation to Spirits the Manufacture of either Country;
 Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all the Powers and Provisions in the said Act of the Forty ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign contained (except as in the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of His Majesty's Reign is excepted) shall continue and be in force, from and after the passing of this Act, until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said recited Act of the Forty ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign and this Act may be amended, altered or repealed by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

An Act to vest in Trustees certain Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, for extending the present Lines and Works, and for erecting other Works and Buildings at and near Portsmouth and Hilsea, in the County of Scutthampton.

‘ WHEREAS, for better securing His Majesty’s Docks, Ships of War, and Stores at Portsmouth, it is necessary to extend the present Lines and Works, and to erect other Works and Buildings at and near Portsmouth and Hilsea, and in order thereunto to purchase the Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments hereinafter mentioned: And Whereas the said Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments are or may be vested in or belong to Infants, Females Covert, Trustees, or other Persons, who by Law are disabled to make any Contracts or Conveyances; in all which cases, as also when any Owner or other Persons entitled to or interested in the same, designing to obstruct the Public Service, or to make any unreasonable Gain to themselves, insist on extravagant Rates, it will be necessary to have Recourse to the same Methods that have been taken in cases of the like nature;’ To the end therefore that the true and real Value of the said Estates, Rights and Interests may be ascertained, and the Owners and Proprietors thereof, or Persons entitled thereto, may have a just and reasonable Satisfaction for the same; be it enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and singular the Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments specified in the Two Schedules hereunder written, or hereunto annexed, marked (A.) and (B.), shall be, and the same are hereby vested in the Right Honourable Charles Abbot, William Chute Esquire and Thomas Freeman Heathcote Esquire, their Heirs and Assigns; In Trust nevertheless for such Person or Persons as at or immediately before the time of making this Act was or were the Owner or the several and respective Owners thereof, or had any Rights or Interests therein, according to their several Estates, Rights and Interests in Possession, Reversion, Remainder or otherwise, until such Estates, Rights and Interests respectively shall be adjudged and determined, or Possession thereof taken by the principal Officers of His Majesty’s Ordnance, or their Engineers or other Officers acting under their Authority (which they are hereby empowered to do when it shall be found necessary for His Majesty’s Service), and until the Purchase Monies for the same, together with Interest from the time of taking Possession, after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum for the Year for the Sum that shall be agreed upon or assessed, as the true Value thereof, shall be paid; and that the said Purchase Monies shall be paid and applied to such and the same Uses, Intents and Premises specified in Schedules (A.) and (B.) vested in Trustees till Possession taken by Ordnance, &c.

and Purposes as the said Estates, Rights and Interests so vested in the above mentioned Trustees, were limited and settled previous to the passing of this Act, so far as the Rules of Law or Equity will allow thereof, and that in the mean time, and until such Possession taken, or Payment made as aforesaid, the Rents and Profits of the said Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments shall be paid and applied by the said Trustees to, and all such Rights and Interests shall be held and enjoyed by such Person or Persons as was or were entitled to have, receive, hold and enjoy the same respectively, and in such Proportions, Manner and Form as the same were payable, and were held and enjoyed previous to the passing of this Act.

Compensation made out of Money granted
by Parliament.

II. And be it further enacted, That such Compensation and Satisfaction as shall be agreed upon, or as shall be found by the Verdict of a Jury, for and in respect of the Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments hereby vested, shall be made to all and every the Person and Persons out of any Money already granted by Parliament for that Purpose.

Commissioners appointed to ascertain and determine Claims of Owners.

III. And be it further enacted, That, for the better ascertaining the several Owners and Proprietors of and Persons interested in the said Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, vested by and to be purchased in pursuance of this Act, and the respective Titles, Rights, Interests and Claims of such Owners and Proprietors, and other Persons thereto, it shall and may be lawful to and for His Majesty, by One or more Commission or Commissions, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to authorize and appoint any Number of Persons to be Commissioners to hear and determine all Titles, Rights, Interests and Claims, that shall or may be made or set up to the said Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, or to any Part or Parcel thereof; which Commissioners so to be appointed, or any Five or more of them, shall and may, and they are hereby authorized and required, in a summary way, by and upon the Testimony of Witnesses upon Oath (which they or any Five or more of them are hereby empowered to administer), or upon the Inspection and Examination of Deeds, Writings and Records, or by the Inquest of Twelve good and lawful Men, to be impannelled and sworn in manner hereinafter mentioned and directed, or by all or any of the said ways, or otherwise, according to their Discretion, to enquire into, and to proceed, act upon and determine all and all manner of Rights, Titles, Estates, Claims and Interests, and all Controversies, Debates and Questions, which shall happen or arise between any Person or Persons whomsoever, or any other Matter or Thing relating to any of the Premises, or any Part thereof, and shall have Power to send for any Person or Persons, and oblige them to produce their Deeds or Writings upon Oath, relating to any of the same Premises, and also shall and may, by Agreement with the respective Person or Persons that shall be determined to be the Owners and Proprietors of and Persons interested in the said Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, vested by and to be purchased in pursuance of this Act; or by the said Inquest of Twelve good and lawful Men, to be impannelled and sworn as aforesaid, enquire into, proceed, act and determine, touching and concerning the true and real Value of the said Premises, or any Part or Parcel thereof; and the said Commissioners so to be appointed, or any Five or more of them, are ‘ another Act was passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to continue, until the Twentieth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, an Act passed in this Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to stay, until the Twentieth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, Proceedings in Actions under an Act passed in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty to amend the Laws relating to Spiritual Persons: And Whereas it is expedient that further Provision should be made in relation to Proceedings already commenced, and for the Prevention of other vexatious Prosecutions of Spiritual Persons;’ Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Licences for the Non Residence of any Spiritual Persons, which shall have been granted, or which shall be granted on or before the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, by any Archbishop or Bishop, under and subject to the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Forty third Year aforesaid, and upon which the Archbishop or Bishop granting the same shall certify, that they are satisfied and verily believe, that the Causes of granting such Licences really and truly have existed for many Periods antecedent to the granting thereof, and specified in such Certificates respectively, and that the Archbishop or Bishop giving such Certificates, would have granted the Licences to which they refer, from the Periods specified in such Certificates, if proper Application had or could have been made to him in due time for the same, and that the Conditions, if any, upon which such Licence would have been granted have been performed and complied with; and also all Certificates given by any Archbishop or Bishop to any Spiritual Persons of their respective Dioceses, which shall certify that the Archbishop or Bishop giving such Certificate would have granted Licences for the Non Residence of such Spiritual Persons for and during the Periods specified in such Certificates, for Causes of a temporary Nature, to be also specified in such Certificates, and which they are satisfied and verily believe did really and truly exist, and which may have ceased, if proper Application had or could have been made to him in due time for the same, and that the Conditions, if any, upon which such Licences would have been granted, have been performed and complied with; shall be deemed and taken to be good and valid as Licences under the said recited Act, for the Purpose of exempting such Persons respectively from any pecuniary Penalties and Forfeitures for Non Residence, from and for and during the Periods specified in such Certificates respectively, as fully and effectually as if Licences had been duly granted at and for such Period, and had been duly registered, and all the Provisions of the said first recited Act in relation thereto duly observed.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every such Licence and Certificate shall, within Fourteen Days after the granting thereof, or after the passing of this Act, be registered in like manner as Licences are required to be registered under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Forty third Year aforesaid, and shall be open to the Inspection of all Persons, upon Payment of Two Shillings, and no more.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Notification by any Person who shall have been non resident by reason of any Exemption, and and where no Licence is required, and which shall specify the Nature of the Exemption, and the Period for which the Benefit thereof is claimed, and which shall have been made and registered, or which shall be made and registered before the said First Day of July, shall be deemed a good and valid Notification for the Period specified, for the Purpose of entitling the Person making the same to the Benefit of any Exemption specified therein to which he may be entitled, as fully and effectually as if the same had been made and registered within the Period required by the said recited Act of the Forty third Year aforesaid; any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding; and every Registrar is hereby required to register such Notification, and such Register of Notification shall be open to Inspection of all Persons, upon Payment of Two Shillings, and no more.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, immediately from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons against whom any Original Writ, Suit, Action, Bill, Complaint or Information, shall have been sued out, commenced or prosecuted, before the Sixth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, for any pecuniary Penalty or Penalties, or any Forfeiture or Forfeitures incurred under the said recited Act, for any Non Residence, or Omission to procure a Licence, or register the same, or for omitting to notify any Ground of Exemption, and to whom any such Licence and Certificate shall have been granted, or who shall have notified his Exemption before the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, to apply to the Court in which such Original Writ, Suit, Action, Bill, Complaint or Information shall have been sued out, commenced or prosecuted, if such Court shall be sitting, or to any Judge of any such Court when not sitting, for an Order, that such Writ, Suit, Action, Bill, Complaint or Information shall be discontinued, upon Payment of the Costs incurred up to the time of such Application being made; all such Costs to be taxed as between Attorney and Client, according to the Practice of such Court; and every such Court or Judge is hereby authorized, upon such Application, and Proof by Affidavit of the granting and registering of any Licence and Certificate, or of the Notification of any Exemption, and that sufficient Notice thereof, together with a Copy of the Licence, Certificate or Notification, as the case may be, has been given to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or his or their Attorney, and of the Application and the Ground upon which the same is made, to make such Order as aforesaid; and upon the making such Order and Payment of such Costs as aforesaid, such Writ, Suit, Action, Bill, Complaint or Information shall be forthwith discontinued; and in every case it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in any such Original Writ, Suit, Action, Bill, Complaint or Information, at any time after the Twentieth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, until such Application shall be made as aforesaid, to proceed therein as if this Act or the said recited Acts of the present Session of Parliament had not been passed, and as if no such Licence and Certificate had been granted, or Notification made; any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Penalty or Forfeiture under the said recited Act of the Forty third Year aforesaid, which shall have arisen or been incurred, at or for or during any Period antecedent to the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and eleven, shall be recoverable or recovered in any Action or Suit which has been commenced previous to the Sixth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirteen; and that no Penalty or Forfeiture under the said recited Act of the Forty third Year aforesaid, which shall have arisen or been incurred at or for or during any Period antecedent to the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twelve, shall be recoverable or be recovered in any Action or Suit which shall have been or shall be sued out after the Sixth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirteen; any thing in the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Penalties for Periods antecedent to Dec. 31, 1811, recoverable in Action previous to Dec. 6, 1813.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to affect any Original Writ, Suit, Action, Bill, Plaint or Information which shall have been sued out, commenced or prosecuted before the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twelve, and whereon Issue has been joined between the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs and the Person or Persons against whom the said Original Writ, Suit, Action, Bill, Plaint or Information may have been sued out, commenced or prosecuted.

Proviso for Actions commenced before Jan. 1, 1812.

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That a certified Copy of the Register of such Licence and Certificate, and of the Date when the same was issued, or of such Notification, with the Date of Delivery thereof, shall be deemed sufficient Proof of the same.

Certified Copies of Licences, &c. sufficient Proof.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend, to affect any Verdict, Judgment or Execution, which has been or at any time hereafter may be given, awarded or issued against any Spiritual Person under the Act made and passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Laws relating to Spiritual Persons holding of Farms; and for enforcing the Residence of Spiritual Persons on their Benefices in England.

Proviso for Verdicts, &c. given under 43 G. 3. c. 84.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, for punishing Mutiny and Desertion; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, it is enacted, that Officers and Soldiers shall be furnished with Diet and Small Beer upon paying and allowing for the same the several Rates that are or shall be established by any Act or Acts of Parliament; and an Option is given to Innholders and others, upon whom Officers and Soldiers are quartered and billeted, to furnish certain Articles gratis, in lieu of Diet and Small Beer, and it is just and expedient that an adequate Allowance shall be made and established for Provision and other Articles furnished to Officers and Soldiers:’ May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Non Commissioned Officer and Private Soldier who shall be furnished with Diet and Small Beer within the aforesaid Parts of the United Kingdom, by the Innholders or other Persons on whom such Non Commissioned Officers or Private Soldiers shall be quartered and billeted by virtue of the said Act shall pay and allow for the same the Sum of Fourteen pence per Diem; and that for such Allowance of Fourteen pence the Innholder or other Person shall furnish One Meal; videlicet, a hot Dinner if required in each Day, to each Non Commissioned Officer, Trumpeter, Drummer and Private Soldier quartered and billeted on him, to consist of such Quantities of Diet and Small Beer as have been or shall be specified and fixed in and by any Regulations made or to be made from time to time by His Majesty in that behalf, but not to exceed One Pound and a Quarter of Meat previous to being dressed, One Pound of Bread, One Pound of Potatoes or other Vegetables previous to being cooked, and Two Pints of Small Beer, and Vinegar, Salt and Pepper; and that the Accounts of the same shall be rendered, and Payment thereof made, in like manner as is directed by the said Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That in case any Innholders or other Persons on whom any Non Commissioned Officers or Private Men shall be quartered within the aforesaid Parts of the United Kingdom, shall, by virtue of the said Option in the said Act, furnish such Non Commissioned Officers or Soldiers with the Articles therein mentioned in lieu of furnishing Diet and Small Beer, at the Rate prescribed by this A^ct, such Innholders or other Persons on whom such Non Commissioned Officers or Soldiers are quartered, and by whom the said Articles shall have been so supplied, shall receive in Consideration thereof, One Halfpenny per Diem for each Non Commissioned Officer and Soldier; which Sum of One Halfpenny per Diem shall be accounted for and paid in like manner as is directed touching the Rate aforesaid.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Sum to be paid to the Innholder or other Person within the aforesaid Parts of the United Kingdom, on whom any of the Horses belonging to His Majesty's Forces shall be quartered by virtue of the said A^ct, for Hay and Straw, shall be One Shilling and Two pence per Diem for each Horse.

backs and Bounties were allowed on the Exportation of Sugar from Great Britain, in like manner and under and according to the like Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures (except where any Alteration was made by the said Act), as the Drawbacks and Bounties were respectively paid or allowed before the passing of the said Act: And Whereas it is expedient that an Alteration should be made with respect to the Periods at which the Average Prices of Brown or Muscovado Sugar should be taken and published in the London Gazette; and also that the Schedule and Table of Drawbacks, Bounties and Duties annexed to an Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend Two Acts passed in the Forty third and Forty fifth Years of His present Majesty for regulating the Drawbacks and Bounties on the Exportation of Sugar from Great Britain, should be repealed, and that another Schedule and Table should be enacted in lieu thereof: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Seventh Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, the Schedule annexed to the said last recited Act shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and that instead and in lieu thereof the Schedule to this Act annexed shall, from and after the said Seventh Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, be construed and taken to be the Schedule according to which the Drawbacks and Bounties on Sugar exported from Great Britain shall be paid or allowed, except as hereinafter is provided.

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Seventh Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, the Drawback or Bounty to be paid or allowed on the Exportation of Sugar from Great Britain, shall be regulated and ascertained according to such Average Prices of Brown or Muscovado Sugar taken in manner directed by an Act made in the Thirty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating the Allowance of the Drawback and Payment of the Bounty on the Exportation of Sugar, and for permitting the Importation of Sugar and Coffee into the Bahama and Bermuda Islands in Foreign Ships, as shall appear by Notice in the London Gazette, published on the Saturday which shall happen next after the First Wednesday in May, the First Wednesday in August, the First Wednesday in November One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and the First Wednesday in January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and the said Bounties and Drawbacks shall be paid or allowed according to the Schedule hereunto annexed (except as hereinafter is provided), as corresponding to or with the Prices of which such Notice shall have been given in the London Gazette as aforesaid; and which Bounties and Drawbacks shall be paid or allowed until Notice of any other Average Price shall in like manner appear in the London Gazette on any of such Saturdays before mentioned (save and except the Notice hereby required to be given in the London Gazette on the Saturday which shall happen next after the First Wednesday in January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen; which last mentioned Notice shall continue in force until the Fifth Day of of April One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and no longer); and the several Drawbacks and Bounties hereby granted shall be paid or allowed in such and the like manner in every respect, and subject and under and according to the like Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures (except where any Alteration is made by this present Act), as any Drawbacks or Bounties on Sugar were paid or allowed before the said Seventh Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

Drawbacks and Bounties how paid and allowed.

. III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Bounty by this Act granted on Refined Sugar exported from Great Britain shall not take effect or be paid or allowed on any such Sugar which shall be shipped for Exportation on or before the Fifth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, but that the Bounty on Refined Sugar exported from Great Britain shall be paid or allowed on such Sugar only as shall be shipped for Exportation after the said Fifth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fourteen; any thing contained in this Act or in the Schedule hereunto annexed to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to alter, vary or repeal the additional Bounty payable on the Exportation from Great Britain of Sugar being Double Refined, or to repeal the additional Bounties payable on the Exportation from Great Britain of Refined Sugar on account of the Temporary or War Duties imposed on Sugar: Provided always, that the last mentioned additional Bounties shall be calculated on the Amount of the Bounty to be paid or allowed under the Directions of this present Act, and according to the Schedule hereunto annexed and not otherwise.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That before any such Presentment shall be made by the Grand Jury of any County, County of a City or County of a Town in Ireland, there shall be laid before such Grand Jury at the Assizes, a Certificate signed by the Governors of such Infirmary or Hospital, or by Five of them at the least, at a Meeting to be holden by them in the Month of January preceding such Assizes, stating that the Surgeon for whom such additional Salary is requested to be presented hath duly and faithfully executed his Duty as Surgeon of such Infirmary or Hospital during the preceding Year: Provided also, that in all cases where any such Surgeon of any Infirmary or Hospital shall have been appointed to be such Surgeon, at any time subsequent to the passing of an Act, made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty sixth Year of His present Majesty’s Reign, intituled An Act for the further Regulation of Public Infirmaries or Hospitals, a true Copy (certified under the Hand of the Treasurer of such Infirmary or Hospital), of the Letters Testimonial from the College of Surgeons in Ireland, required by the said Act to be obtained by every such Surgeon, shall be laid before such Grand Jury previous to the requiring or making of any such Presentment.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any such Grand Jury to present such additional Salary unless the Surgeon for whom it is presented shall have given his Attendance and Professional Assistance without any other or further Fee or Reward to the Prisoners and others in the Gaol of the County, County of a City or County of a Town, to the Infirmary of which he has been appointed Surgeon, if such Gaol is situate within Five Miles of such Infirmary.

IV. And be it further enacted, That no Annual Governor or Governors of any such Infirmary or Hospitals shall be permitted to vote at the Election of such Infirmary upon any Vacancy in such Office, unless they shall have respectively paid the Subscription by virtue of which they claim a Right to vote at such Election Two Years at the least before any such Vacancy shall have occurred.

V. And be it further enacted, That whenever and so often as the Governors of any Infirmary or Hospital established within and for any

any County in Ireland shall deem it expedient to establish a Second Infirmary or Hospital within the same County, it shall and may be lawful for them so to do, taking Care that such Infirmary shall not be situate within Ten Miles of the Infirmary first established; and in such case it shall be lawful for such Governors to elect a Surgeon and Apothecary for the Purpose of attending such Second or Additional Infirmary or Hospital; and that whenever and so often as Two Infirmaries shall be so established within any County it shall and may be lawful for the Surgeon and Apothecary of each of the said Infirmaries or Hospitals to receive respectively One Half of the Emoluments provided for Surgeons or Apothecaries of Infirmaries or Hospitals by this Act or any other Acts now in force relating to such Infirmaries or Hospitals: Provided always, that both such Surgeons shall be duly qualified according to Law, and that both of them shall have conformed to all and singular the Enactments and Provisions contained in this Act or in any other Act or Acts now in force relating to such Infirmaries or Hospitals.

An Act to allow Viva Voce Verdicts to be returned to the High Court and Circuit Courts of Justiciary of Scotland, in certain Cases; and for allowing Appeals to the Circuit Courts of Justiciary, in Civil Cases, to a certain Amount.

[27th May 1814.]

WHEREAS by the Form of Proceeding in Trials for Crimes before the High Court and Circuit Courts of Justiciary in Scotland, Verdicts of Juries must be prepared in Writing, and regularly executed in Presence of the Jurymen, by their Chancellor and Clerk, after the Jury are inclosed, when Access to the Court for Advice or Direction, or otherwise, is incompetent: And Whereas the Necessity of always observing this Form is in many cases attended with an unnecessary Consumption of Time and Delay of Public Business; and by means of Mistakes in written Verdicts, guilty Persons sometimes escape Punishment, and the Ends of Justice are thereby defeated; May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That notwithstanding any Law or Practice to the contrary, it shall hereafter be lawful for the said High Court of Justiciary and Circuit Courts, and at the Discretion thereof respectively, to receive Verdicts from Juries by the Mouth of their Chancellors, when upon a Consultation in the Jury Box, the whole Jurymen are agreed therein, although the said Verdicts be not contained in Writing nor prepared after the Jury shall have been inclosed, and to cause the same to be taken down and recorded; and that in cases where Juries retire from the Presence of the Court, and are inclosed in order to consider of and prepare their Verdicts, it shall also be lawful for the said High Court of Justiciary and Circuit Courts, at the Discretion of the said Courts respectively, to receive such Verdicts by the Mouth of the Chancellors of the said Juries, in Presence of the Pannel, although the Verdicts have not been made out in Writing; provided the whole Jurymen are agreed therein, and provided the Judges are then sitting in Court, so that the Jury may straightway repair to the Presence of the Court, attended by an Officer or Officers thereof.

Verdicts received from Mouth of Chancellor of Jury.

II. And be it enacted, That notwithstanding another Trial be depending at the time, and even after another Jury shall have been charged with a Pannel or Pannels, when a Jury as aforesaid shall repair to the Presence of the Court, in order to return their Verdict, it shall be lawful for the said Courts either to receive the Verdict, in Presence of the Pannel, provided the whole Jurymen are agreed therein, and to cause the same to be recorded, or to remand the Jury, and order them to be re-inclosed, and to prepare a Verdict in Writing.

Provision in case another Trial pending.

III. And be it enacted, That in any of the said cases provided for by this Act, the Interruption thereby occasioned in the Proceedings of the said Courts shall not be deemed any Irregularity, or entitle any

In what case Proceedings not deemed irregular.

Pannel or Pannels under Trial to take any Objection to the Proceedings; and all Trials conducted agreeably to any of the Forms hereby authorized, shall be held equally regular, and the Judgments pronounced therein be equally effectual to all Intents and Purposes, as if they had been conducted according to the Forms hitherto in use.

Forms hitherto in use directed to be observed, and Act not to extend to cases of Treason.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where Verdicts shall not be received Viva Voce in any of the said cases above provided for, the Forms hitherto established in the said Courts shall be practised and observed in every respect as heretofore; and that those Forms which regulate Proceedings in cases of Treason or Misprision of Treason, shall also remain as heretofore by Law established; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Twentieth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for taking away and abolishing the Heritable Jurisdictions in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and for making Satisfaction to the Proprietors thereof, and for restoring such Jurisdictions to The Crown, and for making more effectual Provision for the Administration of Justice throughout that Part of the United Kingdom, by The King's Courts and Judges there; and for obliging all Persons acting as Procurators, Writers or Agents in the Law in Scotland, to take the Oaths; and for rendering the Union of the Two Kingdoms more complete; it was enacted, "That it should and might be lawful to and for any Party or Parties conceiving himself or themselves aggrieved by any Interlocutor, Decree, Sentence or Judgment of the Sheriff or Stewards Court of any County, Shire or Stewartry, or of the Courts of any Royal Burgh or Burgh of Regality or Barony, or of any Court of any Baron or other Heritor, having such Jurisdiction as is not abrogated or taken away by the said Act, where such Interlocutor, Decree, Sentence or Judgment shall be concerning Matters Criminal, of whatever Nature or Extent the same may be, except all cases which are for the Loss of Life or Demembration, or in Matters Civil, where the Subject Matter of the Suit did not exceed in Value the Sum of Twelve Pounds Sterling, to complain and seek Relief against the same by Appeal to the next Circuit Court of Justiciary of the Circuit wherein such County, Shire or Stewartry, Royal Burgh or Burgh of Regality or Barony, or such Barony or Eitate shall lie, so as no such Appeal be competent before a final Decree, Sentence or Judgment pronounced;" which Act, in so far as regarded such Appeals being at first temporary, was made perpetual by another Act passed in the Thirty first Year of the Reign of His said Majesty George the Second, for making perpetual several Acts therein mentioned, and among others so much of the said last recited Act as relates to the Power of appealing to the Circuit Courts in Civil Cases, in Scotland: And Whereas it is expedient to allow such Appeals, where the Subject Matter of the Suit shall not exceed in Value Twenty five Pounds Sterling; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Party or Parties who might appeal to any Circuit Court in Cases Civil, where the Subject Matter of the Suit did not exceed in Value the Sum of Twelve Pounds Sterling, pursuant to the said recited Act, henceforth to appeal in the manner thereby directed in Cases Civil, where the Subject Matter of the Suit shall not exceed in Value the Sum of Twenty five Pounds Sterling.

C A P. LXVIII.

An Act for the better Regulation of Ecclesiastical Courts in Ireland; and for the more easy Recovery of Church Rates and Tithes. [17th June 1814.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient that Excommunication, together with all Proceedings following thereupon, should in certain cases be discontinued, and that other Proceedings should be substituted in lieu thereof; and that certain other Regulations should be made in the Proceedings of the Ecclesiastical Courts; and that more convenient Modes of recovering Tithes and Church Rates, in certain cases, should be provided; Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, Excommunication, together with all Proceedings following thereupon, shall in all cases, save those hereafter to be specified, be discontinued throughout that Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Ireland; and that in all Causes, which according to the Laws of this Realm are cognizable in the Ecclesiastical Courts, when any Person or Persons having been duly cited to appear in any Ecclesiastical Court, or required to comply with the lawful Orders or Decrees, as well final as interlocutory, of any such Court, shall neglect or refuse to appear, or neglect or refuse to pay Obedience to such lawful Orders or Decrees; or when any Person or Persons shall commit a Contempt in the Face of such Court, no Sentence of Excommunication shall be given or pronounced, saving in the particular cases hereafter to be specified; but instead thereof it shall be lawful for the Judges or Judge who issued out the Citation, or whose lawful Orders or Decrees have not been obeyed, or before whom such Contempt in the Face of the Court shall have been committed, to pronounce such Person or Persons Contumacious and in Contempt, and within Ten Days to signify the same, in the Form to this Act annexed, to His Majesty in Chancery, as hath heretofore been done in signifying Excommunications; and thereupon a Writ de Contumace Capiendo, in the Form to this Act annexed, shall issue from the Court of Chancery, directed to the same Persons to whom the Writs de Excommunicato Capiendo have heretofore been directed; and the same shall be returnable in like manner as the Writ de Excommunicato Capiendo hath been by Law returnable heretofore, and shall have the same Force and Effect as the said Writ; and all Rules and Regulations not hereby altered, now by Law applying to the said Writ, and the Proceedings following thereupon, shall extend and be applied to the said Writ de Contumace Capiendo and the Proceedings following thereupon, as if the same were herein particularly repeated and enacted; and the proper Officers of the said Court of Chancery are hereby authorized and required to issue such Writ de Contumace Capiendo accordingly; and all Sheriffs, Gaolers and other Officers, are hereby authorized and required to execute the same, by taking and detaining the Body of the Person against whom the said Writ shall be directed to be executed; and upon the due Appearance of the Party so cited and not having appeared as afore-

Excommunication in certain cases discontinued.

cases, Excommunication.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this A& contained shall prevent any Ecclesiastical Court from pronouncing or declaring Persons to be Excommunicate in definitive Sentences, or in interlocutory Decrees having the force and effect of definitive Sentences, such Sentences or Decrees being pronounced as Spiritual Censures for Offences of Ecclesiastical Cognizance, in the same manner as such Court might lawfully have pronounced or declared the same, had this A& not been passed.

Punishment by Imprisonment.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Person who shall be so pronounced or declared Excommunicate, shall incur any Civil Penalty or Incapacity whatever, in consequence of such Excommunication, save such Imprisonment not exceeding Six Months, as the Court pronouncing or declaring such Person Excommunicate, shall direct; and in such case the said Excommunication and the Term of such Imprisonment shall be signified to His Majesty in Chancery, in the same manner as Excommunications have been heretofore signified; and thereupon the Writ de Excommunicato Capiendo shall issue, and the usual Proceeding shall be had, and the Party being taken into Custody shall remain therein for the Term so directed, or until he shall be absolved by such Ecclesiastical Court.

King George the Second, concerning Tithes, Offerings, Ecclesiastical Dues or Compositions, not exceeding Forty Shillings: Provided always nevertheless, that, from and after the passing of this Act, One Justice of the Peace shall be competent to receive the original Complaint, and to summon the Parties to appear before Two or more Justices of the Peace, as in the said Act is set forth.

Proviso.

V. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Action shall be brought for the Recovery of any Penalty for the not setting out of Tithes, nor any Suit instituted in any Court of Equity, or in any Ecclesiastical Court, to recover the Value of any Tithes, unless such Action shall be brought, or such Suit commenced within Six Years from the time when such Tithes became due.

Limitation of Actions.

VI. And Whereas in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, an Act was made and passed in Ireland, intituled An Act to continue and amend an Act, passed in the Third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to amend and explain an Act, made in the Thirty third Year of the Reign of Henry the Eighth, intituled An Act for Tithes; and for other Purposes therein mentioned; which Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty was at first temporary, but was afterwards from time to time continued by subsequent Acts of Parliament, and at length made perpetual by an Act passed in Ireland, in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for reviving and continuing several temporary Statutes that have lately expired, and for continuing others that are near expiring; by which said Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, it is enacted, That where any Quaker shall refuse to pay, compound for or set out his Great or Small Tithes, or pay any Customary or other Rights or Dues belonging to any Church or Chapel, which by Law or Custom ought to be paid, Two or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace are authorized to hear and determine the same, not exceeding the Value of Ten Pounds: And Whereas it is become expedient to enlarge the said Sum; Be it enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all the Provisions of the said Act of the Seventh Year of His present Majesty, touching Quakers, shall be deemed and taken to extend to any Value not exceeding Fifty Pounds: Provided always nevertheless, that, from and after the passing of this Act, One Justice of the Peace shall be competent to receive the original Complaint, and to summon the Parties to appear before Two or more Justices of the Peace, as in the said Act is set forth.

receive and collect the same, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of such Justice, to convene before any Two or more of such Justices of the Peace, any Person so refusing or neglecting to pay such Rate or Parish Cess, and to examine upon Oath (which Oath the said Justices are hereby empowered to administer) into the Merits of the said Complaint, and by Order under their Hands and Seals to direct the Payment of what is due and payable in respect of such Rate or Cess, so as the Sum ordered and directed to be paid as aforesaid do not exceed Ten Pounds over and above the reasonable Costs and Charges to be ascertained by such Justices; and upon Refusal or Neglect of such Party to pay according to such Order, it shall and may be lawful for any One of such Justices, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to levy the Money thereby ordered to be paid, together with the Amount of such Costs and Charges, by Distress and Sale of the Goods of such Offender, his Executors or Administrators, rendering only the Overplus to him or her, the necessary Charges of distraining being thereout first deducted and allowed by the said Justices; and any Person finding him or herself aggrieved by any Judgment given by Two or more such Justices, may appeal to the next General Quarter Sessions to be held for the County, County of a City or Town Corporate, wherein the Church is situated, in respect whereof such Rate or Cess shall have been made; and the Justices of the Peace then present, or the major Part of them, shall proceed finally to hear and determine the Matter, and to reverse the said Judgment if they shall see Cause; and if the Justices then present, or the major Part of them, shall find Cause to affirm the Judgment given by the first Two or more Justices, the same shall be decreed by Order of Sessions, with Costs against the Appellant, to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the said Party Appellant: Provided always, that in case any such Appeal be made as aforesaid, no Warrant of Distress shall be granted until after such Appeal be determined: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall extend to alter or interfere with the Jurisdiction of the Ecclesiastical Courts to hear and determine Causes touching the Validity of any Church Rate or Cess, or from Proceeding to enforce the Payment of any such Rate or Cess, if the same shall exceed the Sum of Ten Pounds, from the Party proceeded against: Provided likewise, that if the Validity of such Rate or Cess, or the Liability of the Person from whom it is demanded to pay the same be disputed, and the Party disputing the same give Notice thereof to the Justices, the Justices shall forbear giving Judgment thereupon; and the Person or Persons demanding the same may then proceed to the Recovery of their Demand, according to the Course of Law as heretofore used and accustomed: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall extend to alter, change or make void any Clause, Matter or Thing respecting the rebuilding and repairing of Churches contained in a certain Act of Parliament made and passed in Ireland, in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King George the First, intituled An Act for the more effectual erecting and better regulating of Free Schools and for rebuilding and repairing of Churches.

‘ VIII. And Whereas by the aforesaid in part recited Act, passed in Ireland in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, it is enacted, That where any Person or Persons are concerned in any Sum or Sums of Money for Predial Tithes or Costs of Suit, in any such Cause (as in the Act mentioned), and the Party to condemned shall refuse or neglect, after Service of a Monition for that Purpose from the Court where such Sentence is or shall be given, and Proof made upon Oath of the due Service thereof, by the Space of Fifteen Days after such Service, to satisfy and pay to the Party obtaining such Sentence, such Sum or Sums as shall be so decreed, it shall and may be lawful for the Person or Persons so obtaining such Sentence or Sentences, their Executors or Administrators, to sue for the Money so decreed, by Civil Bills, before the next going Judges of Assize for the County where the Parties against whom such Sentence was pronounced shall reside, or in any other Court where Civil Bills are or shall be allowed to be brought, in such manner as Suits by Civil Bills are now allowed to be brought, so as the same do not exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds: And Whereas an Act was made and passed in Ireland, in the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for the better Execution of the Law and Preservation of the Peace within Counties at large; by virtue of which Act, a Barrister at Law, of Six Years standing at least, was appointed to act as a constant Assistant to the Justices at every Session of the Peace in each County in Ireland: And Whereas an Act was made and passed, in Ireland, in the Thirty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for the better and more convenient Administration of Justice, and for the Recovery of Small Debts in a summary way, at the Sessions of the Peace of the several Counties at large within this Kingdom (except the County of Dublin), and for continuing and amending an Act, intituled An Act for the better Execution of the Law and Preservation of the Peace within the Counties at large; and it is by said Act enacted, That the aforesaid Assistant Barristers be authorised and empowered, at the General Sessions or Quarter Sessions of the Peace in their respective Counties, to hear and determine in a summary way, by English Bill or Paper Petition, usually called a Civil Bill, among other Actions therein recited, all Actions or Monitions issuing from Ecclesiastical Courts, for Nonpayment of Sums in which the Parties shall have been condemned in such Ecclesiastical Courts for Predial Tithes or Costs of Suit, according to the Provisions of the hereinbefore in part recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty; and that the said

 Assistant Barristers shall respectively be the sole and exclusive Judges in such Courts of General and Quarter Sessions of the Peace, for hearing and determining in a summary way by English Bill or Paper Petition, usually called a Civil Bill, such Causes as they are empowered as aforesaid to hear and determine, in like manner as the Chairman of the County of Dublin now is: And Whereas an Act was made and passed, in Ireland, in the Thirty ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for the further Amendment of an Act passed in the Thirty sixth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the better and more convenient Administration of Justice, and for the Recovery of Small Debts in a summary way, at the Sessions of the Peace within this Kingdom (except the County of Dublin); and for continuing and amending an Act for the better Execution of the Law and Preservation of the Peace within Counties at large; by which Act it is enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the aforesaid Assistant Barristers, at all times hereafter, to make Decrees on all Monitions issuing out of Ecclesiastical Courts, without any Limitation on account of the Sum therein contained: And Whereas the Chairman of the County of Dublin is always one of His Majesty's Judges or Counsel learned in the Law, who, with the Justices of the Peace for the County of Dublin, holds the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said County; and the said Chairman of the County of Dublin is, by an Act of Parliament made and passed in Ireland, in the Second Year of the Reign of King George the First, intituled An Act for reviving and amending an Act, intituled An Act for recovering of Small Debts in a summary way, before the Judges of Assize, authorized and empowered to exercise a full Civil Bill Jurisdiction, at the General Quarter Sessions for the said County, but he cannot make a Decree for any greater Sum on a Monition issuing out of an Ecclesiastical Court than the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and it is expedient that he should have the same Power and Authority to make Decrees on Monitions issuing out of the Metropolitan and Consistorial Court of the Diocese of Dublin, within the County of Dublin, as the aforesaid Assistant Barristers are invested with, in the manner before mentioned, in their respective Counties; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace for the County of Dublin, and he is hereby authorized and empowered, to hear and determine in a summary way, by English Bill or Paper Petition, usually called a Civil Bill, all Actions on Monitions issuing from the Metropolitan and Consistorial Court of the Diocese of Dublin, for Nonpayment of Sums in which the Parties shall have been condemned in the said Ecclesiastical Court, for Predial Tithes issuing, growing and increasing within the said County of Dublin, and Costs of Suit, according to the Provisions of the hereinbefore in part recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, without any Limitation respecting the Amount of the Sum therein contained.

IX. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, if any Proctor of His Majesty's Court of Prerogative in Ireland, or of the Consistorial and Metropolitan Courts of Armagh and Dublin, or of any other Ecclesiastical Court or Courts in Ireland, in which he shall be entitled to act as Proctor, shall act as such, or permit and suffer his Name to be in any manner used in any Suit, the Prosecution or Defence whereof shall appertain to the Office of a Proctor, or in obtaining Probates of Wills, Letters of Administration or Marriage Licences, or for or on account or for the Profit and Benefit of any Person or Persons not entitled to act as a Proctor, or shall permit or suffer any such Person or Persons to demand or participate in such Profit and Benefit, and Complaint thereof shall be made in the Court or Courts wherein such Proctor hath been admitted and enrolled, and Proof given to the Satisfaction of the said Court or Courts that such Proctor hath offended therein as aforesaid: then and in such case every such Proctor so offending, shall be struck off the Roll of Proctors, and be for ever after disabled from practising as a Proctor, or be suspended from the Office, Functions and Practice of a Proctor, in all and every the said Court or Courts, for so long a Period as the Judge or Judges of the said Court

Court or Courts may deem fit; save and except as to any Allowance or Allowances, Sum or Sums of Money that are or shall be agreed to be made to the Widows or Children of any deceased Proctor or Proctors, by any surviving Partner or Partners of such deceased Proctor or Proctors; and also save and except as to any Agreement made or understood to have been made between Proctors and Articled Clerks, whose Articles have been executed prior to the passing of this Act.

X. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, in case any Person or Persons shall, in his or in their own Name, or in the Name of any other Person or Persons, make, do, act, exercise or perform any Act, Matter or Thing whatsoever, in any way appertaining or belonging to the Office, Function or Practice of a Proctor, for or in Consideration of any Gain, Fee or Reward, or with a View to participate in the Benefit to be derived from the Office, Functions or Practice of a Proctor, without being admitted and enrolled, every such Person for every such Offence shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds, to be sued for and recovered in manner hereinafter mentioned.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign ‘ of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for the Support of ‘ His Majesty’s Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of The ‘ Crown of Great Britain, it was enacted, that the Revenue arising ‘ to His Majesty by Rents of Lands, or for Fines of Leases of ‘ the same, or any of them (except the Revenue of the Duchy ‘ of Cornwall), should, during His present Majesty’s Life, be carried ‘ to and made Part of the General or Aggregate Fund established ‘ by the Act of the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty ‘ King George the First, and be, during the said Term, issued and ‘ applied in manner thereinafter mentioned, to the Uses to which ‘ the said Fund was or should be made applicable : And Whereas ‘ by another Act passed in the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign ‘ of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for repealing the several ‘ Duties of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in lieu ‘ thereof, and for applying the said Duties together with the other ‘ Duties composing the Public Revenue; for permitting the Importa- ‘ tion of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandize, the Produce or ‘ Manufecture of the European Dominions of the French King into ‘ this Kingdom; and for applying certain unclaimed Monies, remain- ‘ ing in the Exchequer, for the Payment of Annuities on Lives, to ‘ the Reduction of the National Debt, it was enacted, that the ‘ Revenue arising to His Majesty by Rents of Lands, or for Fines
‘ of Leases of the same or any of them, should, during the Life
‘ of His present Majesty, be carried to and made Part of a Fund
‘ to be called The Consolidated Fund: And Whereas by an Act ‘ passed in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His present ‘ Majesty, intituled An Act for appointing Commissioners to enquire ‘ into the State and Condition of the Woods, Forests and Land Re- ‘ venues belonging to The Crown; and to sell or alienate Fee Farm
‘ and other unimprovable Rents, the Commissioners thereby appointed ‘ were empowered to contract and agree with any Person or Per‘ sons, or any Bodies Politic or Corporate, for the Sale of any ‘ Fee Farm Rents, Rents Services, Rents Seck, Quit Rents, ‘ Chauntry Rents, Guild Rents, Castle Guard Rents, Viscountiel ‘ Rents, and other dry, fixed and unimprovable Rents, due and ‘ payable to His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, within the Survey
‘ and Receipt of His Majesty’s Exchequer, at or for the best ‘ Prices or Considerations, in Money, which the said Commissioners ‘ should be able to procure for the same, not being less, for any ‘ Rent amounting to or exceeding One Shilling per Annum, than ‘ after the several Rates of Purchase thereinafter specified; and ‘ the Governor and Directors of the Bank of England were thereby ‘ required to open an Account in their Books with the said Commis‘ sioners thereby appointed, under the Title of “ Commissioners for ‘ the Land Revenue,” and carry to the Credit of such Account the ‘ several Monies by the said Act directed to be paid to the Cashiers
‘ of the Bank; and it was by the said Act enacted, that all Sums ‘ of Money which should be paid into the Bank of England by virtue of the said Act, should from time to time be laid out, by Order of the said Commissioners thereby appointed, in the Purchase of Three per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, in the Names of the said Commissioners; in which Names the Governor and Company of the Bank of England were thereby authorized and required to permit Transfers to be made of the Annuities, Funds or Stocks, to be purchased, and such Transfers to be accepted by the Commissioners appointed by the said Act, for and in the Name of the Lord High Treasurer of England; and the said Commissioners were thereby required to accept the same accordingly; and that all the Annuities so to be purchased and accepted, should remain invested in the Name of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer for the time being, and should not be transferred or transferrable without the Authority of Parliament; but that all the Interest of the said Annuities or Yearly Dividends should from time to time be paid by the said Governor and Company into the Hands of such Person or Persons as should be appointed to receive the same, by Warrant or Power of Attorney under the Hand and Seal of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, and should by force and virtue of the said Act be deemed and taken in Law to be Part of the said Land Revenues of The Crown, and should be from time to time answered, accounted for, applied and appropriated to such and the same Uses and Purposes as the Land Revenues of The Crown then were or would thereafter have been liable to have been applied and appropriated in case the said Act had not been made; and the Powers of the said Act were to continue in force from the passing thereof, for the Term of Three Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament:
‘ of

 And Whereas by another Act passed in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to continue, and amend an Act, made in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for appointing Commissioners to enquire into the State and Condition of the Woods, Forests and Land Revenues belonging to The Crown; and to sell or alienate Fee Farm and other unimprovable Rents, the Powers of the said last recited Act (except where the same were altered by the said Act now in recital) were extended, from the End of the then Session of Parliament, for the further Term of Twelve Calendar Months, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament:
 And Whereas by another Act, passed in the Thirty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for the better Management of the Land Revenue of The Crown; and for the Sale of Fee Farm and other unimprovable Rents, the Surveyor General of the Land Revenues of The Crown for the time being was empowered to contract and agree with any Person or Persons, or any Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, for the Sale of any Fee Farm Rents, Rents Services, Rents Seck, Chauntry Rents, Castle Guard Rents, Viscontiel Rents, and other dry, fixed and

IX. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Sum and Sums of Money which shall or may arise or be produced from the Sale or Sales of such Waste Lands as aforesaid, shall from time to time be carried over to the Account of the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, "The New Street Account," and shall be by them applied for and towards carrying the several Purposes of the said last mentioned Act into Execution, until the Sums thereby authorized to be raised shall have been raised, and thereafter fully paid and satisfied; and from and immediately after the same shall have been so raised, paid and satisfied, all and every the Sum and Sums of Money which shall or may thereafter arise or be produced from the Sale or Sales of such Waste Lands, shall be paid into the Bank, and placed to the Account hereinafter directed to be raised in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, in the Names of the said Commissioners, to be intituled "The Navy Timber Nursery Fund," and shall be applied in such and the like manner, and for such and the like Purposes as the other Monies hereinafter directed to be paid into the same Account are hereinafter directed to be applied.

Application of Monies arising from Sale of Lands in Wales.

X. And

Certain Parcels of Waste Land, Part of Forest
of Dean, sold.

‘ X. And Whereas His Majesty in Right of His Crown is Owner
‘ of the Soil of the several Tracts, Pieces or Parcels of Waste Land, ‘ mentioned and described in the Schedule (D.) to this A&., being ‘ Part of His Majesty’s Forest of Dean, in the County of Gloucester, ‘ and of all Mines, Minerals and other Substances within and under ‘ the same, subject to the Rights and Privileges which the Inhabitants ‘ of the Parish of Saint Brivals have or claim for the taking,
‘ cutting and enjoying the Wood growing on certain Parts thereof,
‘ and subject to certain Rights of Common which the Inhabitants ‘ of the neighbouring Parishes have or claim to have in or over the ‘ same, or some Part or Parts thereof: And Whereas the same ‘ Tracts, Pieces or Parcels of Waste Land lie intermixed with the ‘ Property of Individuals, and at a considerable Distance from the ‘ remaining Parts of the said Forest, and are detached therefrom, ‘ and although His Majesty’s Rights and Interests therein are in their ‘ present State of little Value to The Crown, yet it is apprehended
‘ the same may be sold to Advantage, and it is therefore expedient ‘ that Power should be given to the said Commissioners of His ‘ Majesty’s Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or to the Surveyor ‘ General of His Majesty’s Woods, Forests, Parks and Chaces, ‘ to sell and dispose of His Majesty’s Rights and Interests, in and ‘ over the said Tracts, Pieces or Parcels of Land;’ Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of His Majesty’s Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or the Surveyor General of His Majesty’s Woods, Forests, Parks and Chaces, for the time being, with the Approbation of the said
Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury for the time being, or any Three of them, to contract and agree for the Sale of and absolutely make sale and dispose of all the Estate, Right, Title and Interest of His Majesty, of and in the several Tracts, Pieces or Parcels of Waste Land, mentioned and described in the said Schedule (D.) to this A&., being Part of His Majesty’s said Forest of Dean, for the best Prices or Considerations in Money, which the said Commissioners of His Majesty’s Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or the said Surveyor General, shall be able to procure for the same; and all and every the Sum and Sums of Money which shall or may arise or be produced from such last mentioned Sale or Sales, shall from time to time be paid into the Bank of England, and placed to the Account directed by this A&.
to be raised in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, in the Names of the said Commissioners, being “ The Navy Timber Nursery Fund” Account, and shall be applied and disposed of in such and the like manner, and for such and the like Purposes as the other Monies hereinafter directed or authorized to be paid in, carried over or placed to the same Account, are hereby authorized or directed to be paid, applied or disposed of.

48 G. 3. c. 37.

‘ XI. And Whereas under the Provisions of the said recited A&
‘ of the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, ‘ intituled An Act to improve the Land Revenue of The Crown
‘ in England, and also of His Majesty’s Duchy of Lancaster, the ‘ Surveyor General of the Land Revenues of The Crown for the ‘ time being, was empowered to sell Lands belonging to The Crown ‘ dispersed in small Quantities, and intermixed with the Property
‘ of Individuals, and lying remote from other Property belonging ‘ to

‘ to The Crown: And Whereas Doubts have arisen, what are to be considered small Quantities of Land within the Scope and Meaning of the said Act;’ Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Lord High Treasurer, or the said Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury for the time being, or any Three of them, and he or they is and are hereby fully authorized and empowered, by any Warrant or Writing under their Hands, to ascertain, determine and declare, what Lands are comprised within the said recited Act, and are thereby made saleable under the Denomination of Lands dispersed in small Quantities, and intermixed with the Property of Individuals, and lying remote from other Property belonging to The Crown.

Treasury empowered to determine what are small Quantities of Land.

XII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Sums for the Purposes of the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty shall have been raised, and thereafter fully paid and satisfied as aforesaid, the Monies from time to time arising or which shall or may arise from the Sale of any Manors or Lordships belonging to The Crown, which consist of Manorial Rights and Quit Rents without any Lands or with very small Quantities of Land belonging to them, and of Manors or Lands of which His Majesty is not the sole Proprietor, but is entitled to an undivided Share jointly with Individuals, and of Lands dispersed in small Quantities and intermixed with the Property of Individuals, and lying remote from other Property belonging to The Crown, and of any other Hereditaments authorized by the Eleventh Section of the said recited Act of the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty, to be sold, shall be paid into the Bank, and placed to the said Account hereinafter directed to be raised in the Books of the said Governor and Company, to be intituled “ The Account of the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Woods, Forests and Land Revenues,” being “ The Navy Timber Nursery Fund” Account; and all such Monies shall be applied and disposed of in such and the like manner, and for such and the like Purposes as the other Monies hereinafter directed to be paid into the same Account are hereinafter directed to be paid, applied and disposed of.

After Money raised, Monies to arise from Sale of Manorial Rights, Quit Rents, &c. laid out in Lands for Growth of Timber.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever the said Commissioners, or the said Surveyor General, shall have contracted with any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, for the Sale of any of the said Waste Lands in Wales, or in the said Forest of Dean, hereby authorized to be sold, or for any such Manors, Lordships, Manorial Rights, Quit Rents or other Hereditaments as aforesaid, the said Commissioners, or the said Surveyor General, shall grant to the Purchaser or respective Purchasers thereof a Certificate under their Hands or his Hand, describing the Premises so agreed to be sold, and the Amount of the Purchase Money to be paid for the same, and which shall accordingly be paid into the Bank of England, within Thirty one Days after the Date of such Certificate; and the Cashiers of the Bank, or one of them, shall, upon the Production of such Certificate, accept and receive the Purchase Monies therein mentioned, and carry the same to the Account therein specified, and at the Foot or on the Back of such Certificate acknowledge the Receipt of the same, without Fee or Reward; and every such Certificate and Receipt shall be according to the Form contained in Schedule (B.) to this Act, or as near thereto as the circumstances of the case will admit, and shall be exempt from any Stamp Duty whatever; and every such Certificate and Receipt shall, within One Calendar Month after the Date of such Certificate, be taken to the Office of the Auditor of the Land Revenue for the District within which the said Lands or Hereditaments therein described are situate, and be there forthwith enrolled in the proper Books for that Purpose; and such Auditor having enrolled the said Certificate and Receipt, shall attest the same under his Hand, and shall, upon receiving the usual Fees for such Enrolment, return the said Certificate and Receipt to the Purchaser or Purchasers; and from and after such Enrolment, and thenceforth for ever, the respective Purchasers, their Heirs or Successors, shall by force and virtue of this Act be and shall be adjudged, deemed and taken to be in the actual Seizin and Possession of the Waste Lands, Manors, Lordships, Manorial Rights, Quit Rents, Lands or other Hereditaments so by them respectively purchased, and shall hold and enjoy the same peaceably and quietly, freed and discharged from all Claims and Demands of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, or of any Person or Persons claiming under him or them, as fully and amply, to all Intents and Purposes, as His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, might or could have held or enjoyed the same, if such Sale had not taken place; and every such Certificate shall be respectively witnessed and attested as to the signing thereof by the said Commissioners, or the said Surveyor General, by one of the Principal Clerks, or other Officers, in their or his Office; and every such Certificate and Receipt, being enrolled as aforesaid, shall effectually discharge the respective Purchasers to whom the same shall be given or granted, of and from the Purchase or Consideration Money therein expressed; and such Purchasers shall never afterwards be liable to be called upon, sued, troubled, molested or questioned, for or in respect thereof, or of any Part thereof.

Purchasers to have Certificates &c. for Purchase Money, which Certificates shall be enrolled in Office of Auditor of Land Revenue, &c.

Stamp Duty.

Purchase Money not paid into the Bank within time limited.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons to whom any such Certificate as aforesaid shall be granted, shall neglect to pay into the Bank the Consideration Money therein to be specified, for the Space of Thirty one Days after the Date of such Certificate, or shall neglect to enrol such Certificate, and the said Cashier's Receipt for the said Money, for the like Space of time, then every such Certificate shall be null and void; and the Consideration Money, if paid into the Bank, shall be forfeited, unless the said Commissioners or the said Surveyor General shall, for any reasonable Cause to him or them shewn for the Omission of such Enrolment, order the said Certificate and Receipt to be enrolled nunc pro tunc, and which, upon such Cause being shewn, the said Commissioners or the said Surveyor General are and is hereby authorized to order accordingly.

vate Banker.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, shall make all Payments required to be made out of the Monies to be deposited in the Bank of England, by Drafts under their Hands on the said Bank; and shall specify on each such Draft, the particular Service, Salary or other

Payments made by Drafts on Bank.

Charge, Purpose or Cause for which such Draft shall be given : and every such Draft shall also have marked in the Margin thereof, a Figure corresponding to the Page in a Book to be kept by the said Commissioners, wherein Entry shall be made of the particular Service, Salary or other Charge, Purpose or Cause, for which such Draft shall be given.

Drafts Authority to Bank.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That all Drafts drawn pursuant to the Directions of this Act, but not otherwise, shall be sufficient Authority to the Bank of England to pay the Amount thereof to the Persons mentioned in such Drafts, or to the Bearer of them ; and that the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, observing the Rules and Regulations hereby prescribed, shall not be answerable, either collectively or individually, for any Money which they the said Commissioners, or any or either of them, shall have so paid into the Bank of England ; and that the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall be answerable for all the Monies which shall be actually received by them from such Commissioners.

Commissioners to render an Account to Treasury.

XX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, shall from time to time render and give an Account to the said Lord High Treasurer, or to the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, of the Amount of all Monies which shall be raised or received by them by virtue of this Act, and of the Application of all such Monies ; and the said Lord High Treasurer, or the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, shall be and he and they is and are hereby authorized and required to examine or cause to be examined every such Account, and in case they shall approve thereof, to signify such their Approbation at the Foot of such Account, signed by the said Lord High Treasurer, or by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, and to transmit and return the same so approved to the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty ; and every Account so approved and signed as aforesaid, shall be a full and sufficient Discharge to the said Commissioners for executing the said Act, from or on account of all such Sums of Money as shall be mentioned in such Account, and for the Expenditure and Application thereof ; and the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act shall not be compelled or compellable to give or render any further or other Account of any such Money, or of the Expenditure or Application thereof ; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Monies received for Rents, &c. applied for Purposes of 53 G. 3. c. 121.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Rents, Fines, Bank Annuities, Dividends and other the Monies by this Act respectively directed to be paid, transferred and made over to or raised by the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, shall from time to time be applied by them for and towards carrying the several Purposes thereof into Execution, and as a Fund in Aid of the Two several Sums of Five hundred thousand Pounds and One hundred thousand Pounds, thereby authorized to be raised on Mortgage, until such time as the said Two Sums shall be raised and thereafter fully paid and satisfied.

XXII. Pro.

XXII. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That notwithstanding any thing hereinbefore or in the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of His Majesty contained, if the said Lord High Treasurer, or any Three of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, shall deem it expedient that any Part or Parts of the Monies to arise from the Sale of the Bank Annuities hereinbefore directed to be transferred or made over to the said Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year aforesaid, for the Purposes of the same Act, or any Part of the Rents, Balances, Fines, Dividends and Land Revenue of The Crown, hereby directed to be paid and made over to the said last mentioned Commissioners from time to time, shall, instead of being applied to the Purposes of the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year as aforesaid, be laid out in the Purchase of Lands or Hereditaments, to be used or employed for the public Purpose hereinafter mentioned; then it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer for the time being, or any Three or more of them, by Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands, from time to time to direct that such Part or Parts of the said Monies as it shall be thought expedient so to lay out in the Purchase of such Lands or Hereditaments as aforesaid, shall be carried over or transferred from the Account directed by the said last mentioned Act to be raised in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to an Account to be raised immediately after the passing of this Act, in the Books of the said Governor and Company, to be intituled "The Account of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues," being "The Navy Timber Nursery Fund;" and the same shall be thereupon forthwith carried over to such Account accordingly; and the same, when so carried over, and all and every other the Sum and Sums hereby directed or authorized to be paid in or placed, or which shall hereafter by any Act or Acts of Parliament or otherwise be directed or authorized to be paid in or placed to the said last mentioned Account, shall be by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or the said Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Parks and Chaces, for the time being, applied, with the Approbation of the said Lord High Treasurer, or any Three of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, in the Purchase of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, the Property of Individuals, or in the Purchase of any Rights of Individuals, where the Reversion of such Rights shall be vested in His Majesty, to or over any Lands which shall, in the Judgment of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or of the said Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Parks and Chaces for the time being, be fit and proper for the Growth and Cultivation of Wood and Timber for the Service of His Majesty's Navy; and all such Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments and Rights shall, when so purchased, be held by and become the Property of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and all such Lands shall be used and employed for the Growth and Cultivation of Timber for the Service of His Majesty's Navy.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That when and as soon as the Account so hereby directed to be raised in the Books of the Governor

Treasury may authorize Application of Part of Monies paid for Purchase of Lands, for Cultivation of Timber.

Death.

XXXIX. And Whereas by several Acts of Parliament which have been passed for the disafforesting certain Forests belonging to His Majesty, and for the inclosing divers Commons, Open and Waste Lands, over which His Majesty had Forestal, Manorial or other Rights, or in which He was otherwise interested, Powers have been given to the Lord High Treasurer, or to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or to the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Parks and Chaces, or to the Surveyor General of the Land Revenue of The Crown, for the time being, with the Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer, or any Three of the Lords Commissioners, for the time being, of His Majesty's Treasury, to contract and purchase, for and on behalf of His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors from any Purchaser or Owners, or any other Persons who should be entitled to any Allotments of Land under such Acts, or from any other Owners or Proprietors of Lands, all or any Part of their respective Lands, or of the Allotments to be made to them in respect thereof, for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to the intent that such Lands, when so purchased, should be appropriated to the Growth and Preservation of Timber; and also to purchase all or any of the Timber, Underwood, Bushes or Thorns, which were or should be standing or growing upon the same Lands: And Whereas the said Provisions have been and may be in a great Measure frustrated, by reason that such Acts do not extend to enable any Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate or any Person or Persons having only a partial or qualified Interest in any of the Lands or Allotments so to be purchased, or any Committees, Guardians or Trustees, or others, acting for Persons who are or may

• may be under Disabilities or incapable of acting for themselves, to
 • contract for the Sale of, or to sell or convey the same Allotments
 • or Lands: And Whereas, from the great and increasing Difficulty of • procuring a sufficient Supply of Timber for the Use of His Majesty's
 • Navy, it would be of great public Utility if such Body or Bodies
 • Politic or Corporate, or other Person and Persons as aforesaid, were • enabled to sell (if they or the Persons acting on their behalf, as • hereinafter mentioned, shall think fit so to do), all or any of their • Allotments under such Acts, or any other of their Lands or He-
 • reditaments for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors,
 • in order to be set apart for the Growth and Cultivation of such • Timber as aforesaid; Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Body Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, Corporations Aggregate or Sole, Tenants for Life or in Tail, or others, having a partial or qualified Interest or Estate in any Lands or other Hereditaments which have been or shall be set out or allotted (under or by virtue of the Powers and Provisions contained in any Act or Acts already passed or hereafter to be passed for disafforesting any Forests belonging to His Majesty, or for inclosing any Lands wherein His Majesty had or has any such Forestal, Manorial or other Rights as hereinbefore mentioned) to or for any such Body Politic or Corporate, or Person or Persons, or which shall have devolved or shall devolve upon or be or become vested in any such Body Politic or Corporate, or Person or Persons, after the same shall have been so allotted or set out, or in any other Lands or Hereditaments; and also for all Husbonds, Femmes Covert, Committees of Lunatics or Idiots, Guardians of Infants or Minors, Trustees and Feoffees in Trust for Charities or other Purposes, Executors and Administrators and all other Persons whomsoever, not only on behalf of themselves and their respective Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Successors, but also on behalf of their respective Wives and Cesuique Trusts, whether Lunatics, Idiots, Issue unborn, Femmes Covert or other Persons incapable to act for themselves, seized or entitled in Possession, Reversion, Remainder or by way of Executory Devise, of or unto or otherwise interested in any Lands or Hereditaments already allotted or hereafter to be allotted under the Authority of any such Act or Acts as aforesaid, or of, unto or in any other Lands or Hereditaments whatsoever; to contract and agree (if they shall think fit so to do) with the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Parks and Chaces, for the time being, with the Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer, or any Three of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, for and on behalf of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for the absolute Sale of, and under the Regulations and Restrictions hereinafter mentioned, to sell and convey to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, all or any of the said Lands or Hereditaments which have been or shall hereafter be allotted to any such Body Politic or Corporate, or Person or Persons as aforesaid, under or by virtue of any such Act or Acts of Parliament as aforesaid, or which shall have devolved upon or have become vested in any such Body Politic or Corporate, or Person or Persons as aforesaid, after the same are or shall be so allotted; and all or any other the Lands or Hereditaments which such Body Politic

Bodies Politic,

 with Commissioners of Woods, &c. for
 to The Crown.

Politie or Corporate, or Person or Persons as aforesaid, are or is, or shall be seized of, entitled to or interested in as aforesaid, which shall in the Judgment of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or of the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Parks and Chaces, for the time being, be fit and proper for the Growth and Cultivation of Wood and Timber, together with the Timber, Underwood, Bushes and Thorns, standing and growing thereon.

XL. And be it further enacted, That when any such Lands or Hereditaments as aforesaid shall be contracted for or agreed to be sold to or for the Use of His Majesty as aforesaid, the Value thereof, and of all the Timber, Underwood, Bushes and Thorns, growing or being thereon, shall be ascertained by Two able practical Surveyors of Land one of whom shall be nominated by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Parks and Chaces for the time being, with the Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer, or any Three of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, and the other by the Body Politie or Corporate or Person or Persons contracting or agreeing to sell the same; and if such Two Surveyors shall not agree in the Valuation thereof, then by such Third Surveyor of Land as the Two so appointed shall for that Purpose nominate; and each of the said Two Surveyors (if they shall agree in and make their Valuation, or if not then the Surveyor so to be nominated by them as aforesaid) shall annex to their or his Survey, Estimate or Valuation, when completed, an Oath (or being of the People called Quakers, an Affirmation) to be subscribed by him, and taken before and certified by any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate of the United Kingdom, who is respectively hereby authorized to administer an Oath or Affirmation in that behalf; the Form whereof shall be as follows;

Lands valued upon Oath, and not sold below Valuation.

' I A.B. do swear [or, being a Quaker, do solemnly affirm], That the Survey, Estimate or Valuation, hereunto annexed, was faithfully and impartially made by me, and that the Value of the Property therein described, is justly estimated therein, according to the best of my Skill and Judgment; and that all the Particulars stated therein are true, to the best of my Knowledge and Belief.'

Oath.

† Sic.

Which Oath or Affirmation, when so subscribed, taken and certified shall be filed with the said Survey, Estimate or Valuation, in the Office of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or in the Office of the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Parks and Chaces, for the time being: And the Price or Consideration to be paid or given for the Purchase of such Lands or Hereditaments shall in no case be less than the Sum at which the same shall be estimated and valued in such Survey, Estimate or Valuation as aforesaid.

Price not to be less than Estimate in Survey.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That every Conveyance of any Lands and Hereditaments to be sold and conveyed to His Majesty in pursuance of this Act, shall be made in the Form or to the Effect contained in the Schedule marked (A.) to this Act, or as near and similar thereto as circumstances will permit; and every such Conveyance shall be exempt from any Stamp Duty whatsoever; and shall be enrolled in the Office of the Auditor of His Majesty's Land Revenues,

XLII. And Whereas it is just and reasonable that if any Archbishop, Bishop, Master and Fellows of any College, Dean and Chapter of any Cathedral, or Collegiate Church, Master or Guardian of any Hospital, Prebendary, or any other Person or Persons having any Spiritual or Ecclesiastical Promotion, shall, by virtue of this Act or otherwise, agree for the Sale of, and sell to or for the Use of The King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, any of the Lands or Hereditaments so already allotted or to be allotted to, or which shall have devolved or shall devolve to any such Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate as aforesaid, such Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, should be considered as having had the same Right of leasing for Three Lives or Twenty one Years, such Lands so allotted or to be allotted, or which have devolved or shall devolve to him or them as aforesaid, as he or they had or have of demising or leasing the Lands or Hereditaments in respect whereof such Allotment or Allotments shall have been made or claimed, at or under a Yearly Rent, to be apportioned after the same Rate per Acre as the Rent reserved in any subsisting Lease or Leases of such other Lands and Hereditaments as the accustomed Yearly Rent thereof; and that such Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, should be compensated for the Loss he or they may sustain, by reason of such Sale or Sales, of any Fine he or they might otherwise have had or taken for the Grant or Renewal of any Lease or Leases for the Term of Three Lives or Twenty one Years, at and under such Rent of the Lands so to be sold as aforesaid; Be it therefore declared and enacted, That if any such Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, shall by means of any such Sale or Sales lose or be deprived of any Benefit which such Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, would or might otherwise have received or taken by way of Fine for the Grant or Renewal of any Lease or Leases of any of such Lands or Hereditaments as shall be so sold as aforesaid, then and in such case, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, or any Three of them, and he and they is and are hereby required to pay or cause to be paid to such Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, for his and their particular Use, such Share or Proportion of the Sum or Sums of Money payable as the Consideration for such Sale or Sales, as Two indifferent Persons, one of them to be nominated by the Lord High Treasurer, or any Three of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the time being, and the other by

by the Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, so contracting; and in case the Two Persons so chosen shall not agree, then as such Third Person, whom the Two so chosen shall for that Purpose nominate, shall adjudge and determine to be a just and reasonable Compensation to the Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, seeking the same, for any such Benefit which he or they shall have been or may be deprived of by means of any such Sale or Sales, or shall lose or forego on account thereof; in estimating which Compensation, in every case in which no specific Rent shall be directed by the Act or Acts of Parliament under which such Allotment or Allotments shall have been or shall be set out or made to be reserved on the granting any Lease or Leases thereof, the same Average Rent per Acre shall be reserved in any subsisting Lease or Leases granted by such Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, of the Lands or Hereditaments in respect of which such Allotment or Allotments shall be or shall have been made, shall be deemed and taken to have been the accustomed Yearly Rent which would and ought to have been reserved in any Lease or Leases which would or might have been granted or renewed of any such Lands or Hereditaments to be sold as aforesaid if no such Sale or Sales had been made, or if any Lease or Leases had been made or granted thereof previous to any such Sale or Sales; and the Receipt or Receipts of the Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, entitled to such Compensation, or of his or their Executors or Administrators, shall be a sufficient Discharge or sufficient Discharges to the said Lord High Treasurer, or to the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the Money so paid, or for so much thereof as shall be therein expressed to have been received.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That so much of the Money to arise by the Sale or Sales of any Lands or Hereditaments so to be sold by any such Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, under the Authority of this Act, as shall not be paid and applied by way of such Compensation as aforesaid, or which shall be payable as the Value of any Timber, Underwood, Bushes and Thorns growing thereon, shall be applied and disposed of in such or the like manner, for the Benefit of the Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, interested in such Monies respectively, as by an Act passed in the Forty first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for consolidating in One Act certain Provisions usually inserted in Acts of Inclosure, and for facilitating the Mode of proving the several Facts usually required on the passing of such Acts, is directed in respect of any Money to be paid for the Purchase or Exchange of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or of any Timber or Wood growing thereon, and which Money ought to be laid out in the Purchase of other Lands or Hereditaments, to be settled to the same Uses as the Lands or Hereditaments so sold or exchanged, or on which such Timber grew, were limited, settled or assured.

XLIV. And Whereas various Persons have or claim to be entitled to Common of Estovers for Firewood, to be had or taken in and from the Woods of certain of His Majesty's Forests or late Forests, to be used or consumed in the Dwelling Houses, Cottages or Ancient Tenements, to which such Fuel Rights do appertain; and under Pretext of the Exercise of such Rights, great ‘ Depredations have been and do continue to be committed in His Majesty’s Woods to the Timber and Trees growing therein; and it would tend greatly to the Preservation of such Timber and Trees, if such Fuel Rights could be effectually extinguished: And Whereas many of the Owners or Proprietors of such Rights are willing and desirous to sell or commute the same for an adequate Price or Consideration; and although it would be desirable to purchase the same for and on behalf of His Majesty, yet by reason that such Fuel Rights are in general of small Value, and held by many different Proprietors, and that the Tenements, to which such Rights are appurtenant, are in some cases in Settlement, and in others are held by Persons who are under Disabilities, or incapable of making any valid Surrender or Extinguishment of such Rights, and the same cannot be surrendered to His Majesty, or extinguished, by any of the ordinary Modes of Conveyance, without great Expence; whereby the Purchase of such Rights is very much obstructed and impeded, and such Difficulties cannot be removed without the Aid of Parliament;’ Be it therefore further enacted, That whensoever the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or the Surveyor General of His Majesty’s Woods, Forests, Parks and Chases, for the time being, shall, with the Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer, or any Three of the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury for the time being, contract and agree with any Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, for the Purchase or Extinguishment of any such Common of Estovers or Fuel Rights as aforesaid, whether the Person so contracting with the said Commissioners or the said Surveyor General shall be entitled thereto absolutely or for any qualified or partial Estate, or as the Husband, Committee or Trustee of any Person or Persons under any of the Incapacities or Disabilities hereinbefore mentioned, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners of His Majesty’s Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or the said Surveyor General for the time being, to pay the Price or Consideration for the Purchase of such Rights to the Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, so contracting for the Sale thereof, or to apply and dispose thereof in manner hereinafter mentioned; and such Person or Persons so contracting shall thereupon give a Certificate of such Contract, and of the Payment of the Consideration Money for the Purchase of such Rights, which shall be made according to the Form contained in the Schedule (C.) to this Act, or as near thereto as circumstances will permit; and upon Payment of such Sum of Money, and the signing such Certificate, all such Fuel Rights and Rights of Common of Estovers for Firewood, as shall be in or by every such Certificate, or any Schedule thereto, expressed to be sold, released or extinguished, shall from thenceforth and immediately thereupon become and be merged and extinguished in the Freehold and Inheritance of the said Woods, and be for ever thereafter vested in His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in Right of His Crown, without any Bargain and Sale, Fine, Recovery, Deed or other Conveyance thereof whatsoever; any Statute, Custom, Law, Practice or Usage to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Tenant for Life.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That if the Person or Persons making such Sale or Sales shall be only Tenant for Life or in Tail, or entitled only to some qualified or partial Interest therein, then the Money

Bodies Politic or Corporate, Guardians, Committees and Trustees acting for Persons under Disabilities, enabled to contract with Commissioners of His Majesty’s Woods, &c. for Sale of Fuel Rights.

Money to be paid upon such Sale or Sales shall be applied and disposed of in such and the like manner as is directed by the said hereinbefore mentioned Act of the Forty first Year of His Majesty's Reign, with respect to any Monies which ought to be laid out in the Purchase of Lands as hereinbefore mentioned, or shall be paid to some Trustees or Trustee legally authorized or empowered to receive the same, by any Settlement, Will or Deed relating thereto; and all such Certificates as aforesaid shall be exempt from any Stamp Duty whatsoever.

XLVI. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or in any wise be construed to repeal, restrain, abridge, alter, prejudice or affect any Power or Powers given by any or either of the said recited Acts of Parliament, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament now subsisting for the Sale or Exchange of any Manors, Lordships, Buildings, Lands, Manorial or other Rights, Rents, Tithes or Hereditaments belonging to His Majesty, or for leasing the same; but all such Powers shall be and remain in full Force and Virtue; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XLVII. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty second Year of His Majesty's Reign for enabling His Majesty to grant Leases under certain circumstances, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, or the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods and Forests for the time being, under the Authority of the Lord High Treasurer or the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, are empowered to grant Leases, under the Restrictions and Regulations therein mentioned, of certain Parts of the Royal Forests, and of certain Purprestures and Encroachments within such Forests: And Whereas no Provision is contained in the said last mentioned Act for exempting such Leases from Stamp Duty: And Whereas, in order to encourage Persons to accept and take such Leases, it is expedient that they should be rendered as little expensive to the Parties taking the same as possible; Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Lease or Leases which shall be made, granted or executed, under any of the Powers or Authorities of the said recited Act of the Fifty second Year aforesaid, or any Counterpart or Counterparts of any such Lease or Leases, shall be subject or liable to any Stamp Duty whatsoever imposed by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, nor to any Stamp Duty to be imposed by any future Act or Acts of Parliament, unless the same be specially subjected and specially charged in and by such future Act or Acts of Parliament.

45 G.3 c. 18.
Sch. D.

45 G. 3. c. 18.
§ 19.

Dublin, to be by them applied in manner required by the said recited Act of the Forty fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign, until any Corporation shall be established for the Purpose of erecting a Corn Exchange in the City of Dublin; and whenever any such intended Corporation shall obtain a Charter of Incorporation from His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, then the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland shall cause so much of the said Duty as shall result from Two Shillings thereof, to be paid to or for the Use of such last mentioned Corporation, to be applied by such Corporation, in the first place, to discharge any Debt due from the said Corporation for erecting Buildings for Commercial Purposes in Dublin, and the Remainder of such Sum shall be applied towards discharging the Interest of such Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding Fifteen thousand Pounds in the whole, as may have been or shall be borrowed for erecting and finishing such Corn Exchange, and towards the Discharge of the Principal Sum so borrowed, and for no other Purpose, and to be duly accounted for before the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts in Ireland. [See c. 129. § 11. post.]

Duties and Drawbacks specified in Schedule annexed levied and paid.

‘ III. And Whereas the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies granted to Your Majesty, and for the Support of Your Majesty's Government, have resolved to grant to Your Majesty the several new Duties hereinafter mentioned, upon certain Goods, Wares and Merchandize imported into Ireland; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and during the Continuance of this Act, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid unto and for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in ready Money (except as hereinafter is provided), without any Discount whatever upon the Importation of the several Goods, Wares and Merchandize mentioned and set forth in the Schedule (a) to this Act annexed, imported into Ireland, the several Duties inserted, described and set forth in Figures in the said Schedule; and that there shall also be paid and allowed the several Drawbacks in respect of the said Duties, as the same are respectively inserted, described and set forth in Figures in the said Schedule; and that the said Duties and Drawbacks in the said Schedule specified, shall be in lieu and instead of all Duties and Drawbacks payable in Ireland, upon the Importation and Exportation of Goods, Wares and Merchandize of the like Sorts, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Ireland immediately before the passing of this Act. (a) [Schedule repealed, c. 129. § 8. post.]

Duties, &c. paid in British Currency.

Consolidated Fund.

Duties, &c. paid according to Tale, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all the Duties and Drawbacks in and by the said Schedule to this Act annexed, granted and allowed, specified, mentioned and contained, shall be paid and payable and received and receivable according to the Amount thereof in British Currency, and that all the said Duties shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland; and that all the said Duties and Drawbacks in and by the said Schedule granted and allowed, specified, mentioned and contained, shall be paid and allowed according to the Tale, Weight, Measure, Gauge or Value of the said Articles respectively specified, and also in proportion upon any any greater or less Number, Weight, Quantity or Measure, or Value of such Articles, Matters and Things respectively. [See c. 129. § 4. 8.]

V. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, during the Continuance of this Act, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid unto His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon the Importation into Ireland of any White or Bay Salt, not being the Growth, Produce or Manufacture, of Great Britain, the Duty following; that is to say,

Duty paid on White or Bay
Salt, not the Produce of G. B.

For and upon every Bushel of such White or Bay Salt, weighing Fifty six Pounds, the Sum of Two Shillings Irisb Currency :

Which said Duty hereby granted shall be in lieu and instead of any former Duty payable on the Importation of such Salt, and that upon the Exportation of such Salt from Ireland (except to Great Britain), there shall be paid and allowed a Drawback of all the Duty which shall have been paid on the Importation of the same. [See c. 129. § 8. and Sch. A. post.]

Exportation.
Drawback.

VI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and during the Continuance of this Act, upon the Exportation from Ireland to any Place except Great Britain, of any Beef, Pork, Tongues, Hams or Bacon, salted in Ireland with Salt which shall have paid the Duty imposed by this Act (b), or with Salt the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain, there shall be paid and allowed to the Exporter of such Beef, Pork, Tongues, Hams or Bacon, an Allowance or Bounty in the way of Drawback for or in respect of the Duties charged upon such Salt used in the salting of such Beef, Pork, Tongues, Hams or Bacon, after the Rate of One Shilling Irisb Currency for each and every One hundred Pounds Weight thereof; which said Bounty, hereby allowed and made payable, shall be in lieu and instead of any former Allowance or Bounty in the way of Drawback on such salted Provisions respectively. (b) [See c. 129. § 8. post.]

Bounty paid on Exportation of Beef, &c. salted with Salt that has paid Duty.

VII. And be it further enacted, That when any Person shall make use of any Salt in the Process of Bleaching, or in the making of Muriatic Acid which shall be used in the Process of Bleaching, such Person shall be entitled to receive, and the Collector of the Customs in the District within which such Salt shall have been imported or made, shall repay to such Person all Duties which shall have been paid on the said Salt, on his making it appear to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties that such Salt had paid all Duties due thereon, and had been made Use of in the Process of Bleaching, or in the making of Muriatic Acid for that Purpose.

Duty repaid on Salt used in Bleaching, or in making of Muriatic Acid.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That on the Exportation from Ireland of any Coffee, the Growth or Produce of the British Colonies in the West Indies, and which on the Importation thereof into Ireland shall have paid the Duty imposed thereon under the hereinbefore recited Act of the Forty eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, there shall be paid and allowed to the Exporter of such Coffee a Drawback of Seven pence British Currency per Pound Weight, in respect of the Duty imposed by the said recited Act. [See c. 129. § 8. post.]

Drawback allowed on Exportation of Coffee.
48 G. 3. c. 80.
§ 5.

Coffee in Packages of not less than 100lb. imported into and exported from Ireland.

‘IX. And Whereas it is expedient to allow Coffee to be imported into and exported from Ireland in Packages of One hundred Pounds;’ Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful to import into and export from Ireland any Coffee in Packages containing not less than One hundred Pounds Avoirdupoise; any thing in this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

Wines paying Duty under 53 G. 3. c. 35. entitled to Drawback on Exportation.

X. And be it further enacted, That any Person who at any time since the passing of the hereinbefore first recited Act of the last Session of Parliament shall have exported, or who at any time after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, shall export from Ireland any such Wines as in the said recited Act are mentioned and described, and on which the respective additional Duties of Excise imposed by the said recited Act shall have been fully paid and satisfied, shall be entitled to and shall receive a Drawback equal to the Duty by the said recited Act imposed on such Wines respectively, and which shall have been actually paid on the same.

Instead of Duties under former Acts, following Duties paid on French Wines.

XI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and during the Continuance of this Act, in lieu and instead of the Duties payable in Ireland on the Importation of the Wines herein-after mentioned under any Act or Acts in force in Ireland at the time of the passing of this Act, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid, unto and for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for and upon the Wines hereafter mentioned which shall be imported into Ireland after the Fifth Day of July, or the Duties payable on the Import of which shall not have been duly paid and discharged at any time before the said Fifth Day of July, the several and respective Duties following; that is to say, Duties.

For and upon each and every Tun containing Two hundred and fifty two Gallons of French Wine, imported in Shipping of the United Kingdom, the Sum of One hundred and thirty five Pounds and Twelve Shillings British Currency :

For and upon each and every such Tun of French Wine, imported in Foreign Shipping, the Sum of One hundred and thirty nine Pounds Thirteen Shillings British Currency : [See c. 129. § 8. and Sch. A. post.]

Exportation.

And that upon the Exportation of any French Wine which shall have paid the said Duties imposed by this Act, or in respect of which any Repayment or Allowance shall have been made under this Act in manner hereinafter mentioned, there shall be paid in lieu of all Drawbacks on Wine of the like Sorts the several and respective Drawbacks following ; that is to say, Drawbacks.

For and upon every such Tun of French Wine exported to any British Colony or Plantation in America, to any British Settlement in the East Indies, to China, to Brazil, or to any other of the Territories or Possessions of the Crown of Portugal in South America, or to any of the Territories of the United States of America, the Sum of One hundred and twenty six Pounds Three Shillings British Currency :

For and upon every such Tun of French Wine, exported to any other Country or Place, the Sum of One hundred and twenty one Pounds Four Shillings British Currency. [See c. 129. § 8. and Sch. A. post.]

XI. Provided

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the former Draw-backs, payable by Law on the Exportation of any such Wines from Ireland in respect of any former Duties thereon, shall remain and continue payable on the Exportation of such Wines only whereon the whole of such former Duty shall have been fully paid and satisfied, and in respect of which no Repayment or Allowance shall have been made under this Act in manner hereinafter mentioned; any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Former Draw-backs to continue on Exportation of Wine whereon former Duty paid.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That upon all French Wines which on the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen shall be in the Stores or Warehouses, or in the Custody, Power or Possession of any Merchant or Importer of or Dealer in, or Factor, Seller or Retailer of such Wine, and which shall have been charged with and shall have paid all Duties payable on the Importation thereof, and all Duties imposed on the same, in the Stores, Warehouses, Custody, Power or Possession of such Merchant, Importer, Dealer, Factor, Seller or Retailer, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, immediately before the passing of this Act, there shall be received and allowed the Repayment or Allowance following, in respect of the Duties so heretofore paid thereon; that is to say, Allowance on French Wine in Warehouse.

For and upon every Tun, containing Two hundred and fifty two Gallons of such French Wine, the Sum of Three Pounds Thirteen Shillings and Six pence British Currency, which Repayment or Allowance shall be paid and allowed in manner directed by this Act.

XIV. And, for ascertaining the Stock of French Wines belonging to all Merchants, Importers of, Factors and Dealers in, or Sellers or Retailers of such Wines, on the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in order to the making such Repayment or Allowance thereon to such Merchants, Importers, Factors, Dealers, Sellers and Retailers respectively, be it further enacted, That every such Merchant, Importer, Factor, Dealer, Seller or Retailer, who shall respectively have any such French Wines in his, her or their Possession, in any Warehouse, Store Room, Shop, Cellar, Vault or other Place, or in the Custody or Possession of any other Person, for his or her Use (other than and except such Wines as may be in any of His Majesty's Warehouses for Security of the Duties thereon), and who shall claim any Repayment or Allowance under this Act, in respect of the Duties heretofore paid on any such French Wine, shall within One Calendar Month after the passing of this Act, deliver at the Office of the Collector of Excise of the District in which such Wine shall have been on the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, a just time† and particular Account in Writing of the Quantity of such French or other Wine, which on the said Fifth Day of July shall have so been in the Custody or Possession of such Merchant, Importer, Factor, Dealer, Seller or Retailer in every such Warehouse or other Place, or in the Custody or Possession of any Person for his or her Use (except as aforesaid), describing the Places in which the same shall be and the Situation thereof, and distinguishing whether such Wines are Red or White; and all Wines in Bottles shall be accounted for, according to the Number of Bottles, without expressing the Number of Gallons of Wine contained in such Bottles, but estimating the Number of such Gallons in the whole by a fair

Mode of ascertaining Stock of French Wines.

Penalty.

Officers of Excise may enter Premises of Dealers in Wine, and take an Account of Stock of French Wines.

Calculation made on the actual Contents of any given Number of such Bottles indifferently chosen; and every such Merchant, Importer, Factor, Dealer, Seller or Retailer, shall make Oath, or if a Quaker, a solemn Affirmation, before the Collector of Excise of the District, that such Account is a just and true and perfect Account of all such Wines as aforesaid, which Oath or Affirmation such Collector is hereby authorized to administer; and every such Merchant, Importer, Factor, Dealer, Seller or Retailer, or other Person, who shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, any false or untrue Account, shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds British Currency.

XV. And be it further enacted, That, for the Purposes of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers of Excise, at any time within Two Calendar Months next after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, to enter into all or any of the Warehouses, Storehouses, Rooms, Shops, Cellars, Vaults, and any other Places of any such Merchant, Importer, Dealer, Factor or Seller of such Wine, whether by Wholesale or Retail, who shall have delivered in any such Account as aforesaid, for the Purpose of claiming any such Repayment or Allowance of the Duty on any such French Wine as aforesaid, and into any Place where any such French Wine belonging to any such Merchant, Importer, Dealer, Factor or Seller shall in such Account be described to be, and by tasting, gauging or otherwise to take an Account of the Quantity and Quality of all such French Wine on which such Repayment or Allowance shall be so claimed, and then and there found in the Custody of or belonging to any such Merchant, Importer, Dealer, Factor or Seller in any Cask or in any Vessel except Bottles; and also to take an Account of all such French Wines on which such Repayment or Allowance shall be claimed, as shall then and there be found in Bottles, in any other manner than by tasting the same, or by uncorking and opening the Bottles containing such Wine (unless with the Consent of the Proprietor) for the Purpose of ascertaining the Number of Gallons therein, in manner aforesaid; and in case of Refusal of such Consent the Quantity contained in such Bottles shall not be included in the Account taken by such Officer, nor in the Quantity for which any such Repayment or Allowance shall be granted or allowed; and if any Officer or Officers of Excise, on Demand made by him or them at any such Warehouse, Storehouse, Room, Shop, Cellar, Vault or other Place, shall not be admitted therein, or shall not be suffered to take an Account of all such Wines, in manner aforesaid, or if such Merchant, Importer, Dealer, Factor, Seller or Retailer, or Person having the Custody or Possession of such Wines, shall neglect or refuse to shew, or cause to be shewn to such Officer all such Wines in respect of which such Repayment or Allowance shall be claimed as aforesaid in every such Warehouse or other Place respectively, every such Person respectively into or in whose Warehouse or other Place such Officer shall not be admitted or shall not be suffered to take such Account; and every such Person who shall refuse or neglect to shew or cause to be shewn to such Officer all such Wines as aforesaid, shall, for every such Offence or Default, respectively forfeit and pay the Sum of Two hundred Pounds British Currency.

Penalty.

XVI. And

XVI. And be it further enacted, That in case of any Dispute between any Officer of Excise and any such Merchant, Importer, Dealer, Factor, Seller or Retailer of such French or other Wine, on which such Repayment or Allowance shall be claimed as aforesaid, as to the Nature or Species of any particular Wine, and the Country of which it is the Growth or Produce, it shall and may be lawful for the Officer of Excise, and every such Officer is hereby authorized and empowered, to take at any time or times a Sample or Samples not exceeding One Quart of any such Wine, whether in Bottles or in Casks, or in any other Vessel or Vessels, paying for such Wine the usual Price thereof; and if such Officer or Officers shall not be permitted to take such Sample or Samples as aforesaid, upon his offering to pay for the same after the Rate aforesaid, or shall in any wise be obstructed or hindered by any Person or Persons whatsoever in taking such Sample or Samples, the Merchant or Importer of or Seller or Dealer in such Wine, or other Person in whose Custody such Wine shall be, shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and no such Merchant, Importer, Seller or Dealer, or other Person shall be entitled to any Repayment or Allowance under this Act, in respect of any Wines of which such Sample shall be refused as aforesaid; any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Officers may

Levant Goods imported under 43 G. 3. c. 153.
liable to Duties payable to Levant Company.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That all Goods, Wares and Merchandize, of the Produce of Countries within the Levant Seas, imported into Ireland under the Authority of an Act made in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to permit, during the Continuance of Hostilities, and until Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, the Importation into Great Britain and Ireland in Neutral Vessels from States in Amity with His Majesty of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandize; and to empower His Majesty, by Order in Council, to prohibit the Exportation of Copper; and to permit the Importation in Neutral Vessels from States not in Amity with His Majesty of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandize, shall be subject and liable to the Duties payable by Law in Ireland to the Levant Company in like manner as if such Goods, Wares and Merchandize had been imported into Ireland directly from Turkey.

Liquors and Tobacco Derelict, &c. liable to same Duties as Liquors and Tobacco regularly imported.

XX. And Whereas Doubts have arisen whether Foreign Liquors and Tobacco Derelict, Jetsam, Flotsam, Lagan or Wreck, brought or coming into Ireland, are by the Laws now in force in Ireland subject and liable to the Payment of Duties; and such Foreign Liquors and Tobacco have by reason of such Doubts been sometimes sold and carried into Consumption without any Duties having been paid for or in respect thereof, to the great Loss of His Majesty's Revenue and Injury of Persons dealing in such Liquors and Tobacco, for or in respect whereof the Duties have been paid on Importation; Be it therefore enacted, That all such Liquors and Tobacco Derelict, Jetsam, Flotsam, Lagan or Wreck, brought or coming into Ireland, are and shall be subject and liable to the Payment of the same Duties as Liquors and Tobacco of the like Kind regularly imported are by any Law or Laws now in force in Ireland subject and liable to, and shall also be entitled to such Drawbacks and be subject to such Allowances and Abatements as Liquors and Tobacco of the like Kind regularly imported are entitled and subject to; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Payment of Duties on Liquors and Tobacco Derelict, &c. secured.

XXI. And, for the better securing the Payment of the Duties upon such Liquors and Tobacco respectively, be it further enacted, That, from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, all and every Person and Persons bringing into Ire- land, or finding or discovering on the Coast of Ireland, any Foreign Liquors or Tobacco Derelict, Jetsam, Flotsam, Lagan or Wreck for or in respect whereof any Duty of Customs or Excise is by Law imposed in Ireland, shall within Twenty four Hours next after he, she or they shall have so brought, found or discovered such Liquors or Tobacco, if the same be found on Land, or within Twenty four Hours next after the same shall have been landed, if the same be found at Sea, give Notice thereof to the next Custom House or Excise Office, or to some neighbouring Officer of Customs or Excise, specifying the Place where such Liquors or Tobacco then lie or are deposited, and the proper Officers of Customs and Excise shall thereupon forthwith take a particular Account of the Kinds and Quantities of such Liquors or Tobacco, and shall demand of the Person or Persons in whose Possession such Liquors or Tobacco may be, or who shall have found or brought to Land the same, the full Duties of Customs and Excise

Excise due in respect thereof; and in case such Duties shall not on such Demand be paid by such Person or Persons, the said Officer of Customs or Excise shall cause such Liquors or Tobacco to be safely and securely lodged and deposited in a Warehouse or Warehouses, to be kept in such Warehouse or Warehouses, under His Majesty's Lock, until the Duties of Customs and Excise payable for or in respect thereof shall be paid and satisfied, or until such Liquors or Tobacco shall be sold in manner hereinafter mentioned; and if any Person or Persons shall, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, bring into Ireland, or find or discover on the Coasts of Ireland, any Foreign Liquors or Tobacco Derelict, Jetfam, Flotsam, Lagan or Wreck, for or in respect whereof any Duty of Customs or Excise is by Law imposed in Ireland, and shall not give such Notice thereof as aforesaid, every such Person and Persons shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pound British Currency; and if any Person or Persons shall, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, remove, open or alter in Quantity or Quality, or cause to be removed, opened or altered in Quantity or Quality, or aid or assist in the removing, opening or altering in Quantity or Quality any such Liquors or Tobacco, or shall break, sever or destroy or cause to be broken, severed or destroyed, or aid or assist in the breaking, severing or destroying any of the Cases or Packages containing any such Liquors or Tobacco before such Liquors or Tobacco shall have been taken an Account of by the proper Officers of Customs and Excise as aforesaid, and before the said Liquors or Tobacco shall be by them lodged and deposited in a Warehouse or Warehouses as aforesaid, every such Person and Persons so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds British Currency; and all such Liquors and Tobacco respectively so removed, opened or altered in Quantity or Quality, together with the Casks and other Packages respectively containing the same, shall be forfeited, and the same respectively shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise: Provided always, that if the Duties on such Liquors and Tobacco shall not be paid or discharged within Eighteen Months next after the said Liquors and Tobacco shall be lodged and deposited in such Warehouse or Warehouses as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Customs and Impost † Duties, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to sell and dispose of such Liquors or Tobacco, or any Part thereof, for and towards the satisfying the Duties payable in respect of such Liquors and Tobacco, and also the Costs, Charges and Expences attending the conveying such Liquors and Tobacco to such Warehouse or Warehouses, and of the Keeping and Sale of such Liquors and Tobacco, rendering the Overplus (if any) of the Monies arising by the said Sale after Payment of the said Duties, Costs, Charges and Expences to such Person or Persons as shall be by Law entitled to the same; and if upon such Liquors and Tobacco being put up or offered to Sale no Person or Persons shall offer or bid for the same as much or more Money than the Duties payable in respect thereof, together with the Warehouse Rent, Costs, Charges and Expences taken together would amount to, then and in such case it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Customs toms and Import Duties, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to permit the Person or Persons by Law entitled to the same, to expose or to sell and dispose thereof for Exportation only, subject to the usual Regulations in such cases; or if such Person or Persons should refuse so to do, then to sell and dispose of such Liquors or Tobacco for Exportation, or to destroy the same, as such Commissioners respectively may deem most expedient: Provided also, that nothing hereinbefore contained shall extend or be deemed or construed to extend to prevent any such Liquors or Tobacco, as the said Commissioners may deem necessary for that Purpose, being sold Duty-free for the Payment of the Salvage Expences incurred in respect thereof.

XXII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the Lord of the Manor on which such Liquors or Tobacco shall be found, or other Person having by Law just Claim thereto, or where no such Lord of the Manor or other Person having such just Claim shall exist, then the Person or Persons bringing into Ireland, or finding or discovering on the Coast thereof any such Foreign Liquor or Tobacco, shall be at Liberty to retain the same in his, her or their own Custody or Possession for the Space of One Year and One Day, to be computed and reckoned from such bringing, finding or discovering thereof, on his, her or their entering into Bond to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, with Two sufficient Sureties, to be approved of by the Collector of Customs for the Port, or Collector of Excise for the District where the said Liquors or Tobacco shall be found, in Treble the Value of such Liquors or Tobacco, as the case may require, for the Payment of the Duties for or in respect thereof, at the End and Expiration of such Year and Day, or in Default of such Payment to restore such Liquors and Tobacco at the End or Expiration of such Year and Day to the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise, in the same State and Condition as the same was or were in at the time of such bringing, finding or discovering thereof; any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That the several and respective Duties by this Act granted on the Importation into Ireland of the Goods, Wares and Merchandize mentioned in this Act, and the Schedule thereto annexed, shall be charged and payable on all such Goods, Wares and Merchandize as shall not have been entered on or before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, or on which the Duties due and payable on the Importation thereof shall not have been paid, notwithstanding such Goods, Wares and Merchandize may have been imported into Ireland before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, or before the passing of this Act.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Duties granted, mentioned and set forth in this Act and the said Schedule (a) shall be charged and payable on all such Goods, Wares and Merchandize therein mentioned, as, having been imported into Ireland, shall have been or shall be warehoused, or shall be or shall have been secured without the Duties due on the Importation thereof having been first paid, and shall remain so warehoused or secured on or after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in pursuance or by Authority of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Ireland for that Purpose, although such Goods, Wares or Merchandize may have been imported before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen: Provided always, that such Duties shall not be charged or payable on any such Goods, Wares or Merchandize, until the Duties which such Goods, Wares or Merchandize shall have been subject to before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, shall be payable by Law. Proviso.

XXV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That in all cases where the Whole or any Part of the Duties on the Importation of Goods, Wares and Merchandize into Ireland, are permitted to be secured by Bond or otherwise, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Ireland at the time of such Importation, the Duties by this Act and the Schedule (a) thereto annexed, granted or imposed, may in like manner and under the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Conditions, be permitted to be secured by Bond or otherwise. Duties secured by Bond.

(a) [Repealed, c. 129. § 8. post.]

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, where any Goods, Wares and Merchandize whatever, intended to be exported from Ireland, shall be entered for Exportation, if any Package, Cask or Vessel, in which any such Goods, Wares and Merchandize mentioned in such Entry shall be contained, shall not be duly described in manner directed by Law, or if the Goods contained in each particular Package, Cask or Vessel, shall not agree with the Account of the Contents of such Package, Cask or Vessel, such Goods, Wares and Merchandize, together with the Package, Cask or Vessel, in which the same shall be contained, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of the Customs or Excise at any time after such Entry made; and at any time either before or after the same shall be actually shipped off or shipped on board any Ship or Vessel for Exportation. Packages of Goods entered for Exportation described according to Law, and Contents to agree with Account.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where any Duties of Customs imposed by any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, upon the Exportation of Goods, Wares and Merchandize from Ireland are charged, not according to the Weight, Tale, Gauge or Measure, but according to the Value thereof, such Value shall be taken and considered as the same shall be at the Port of Exportation, without any Deduction or Abatement whatsoever, except of so much as the Duties of Customs or Excise paid thereon or payable at the time of the Entry of such Goods, Wares and Merchandize, shall amount unto, and that such Value shall be ascertained (except as in this Act is provided) by the Oath of the Exporter or Proprietor of such Goods, Wares and Merchandize, or of his known Agent or Factor; and in case any Goods, Wares or Merchandize shall not be valued according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, then it shall be lawful for the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs to cause the same to be detained, and the said Goods, Wares or Merchandize shall be dealt with, and the proper Officers of the Customs shall proceed in every respect, except as hereinafter is provided, in the manner prescribed in and by an Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act more effectually to regulate the Collection of the Duties on Goods, Wares and Merchandize imported or exported How Value of Goods taken in ascertaining Duties payable on Exportation.

Oath.

46 G. 3. c. 87. § 8.

exported into or from Ireland; and the Payment of Bounties, Allowances and Drawbacks thereon, with respect to Goods imported subject to Duty ad valorem.

In cases where Goods undervalued, Exporter paid Value according to Oath on Entry.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any Goods, Wares or Merchandize, subject to Duty on Exportation, according to the Value thereof, shall on Examination by the proper Officers of the Customs be found to be undervalued, and shall on that account be detained, the Exporter or Proprietor shall in such case be paid the Value of such Goods, Wares and Merchandize, according to the Oath made on the Entry thereof for Exportation, together with the Amount of the Customs paid thereon at the time of the Entry thereof, without any further Allowance whatsoever; any thing in the said recited Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

46 G. 3. c. 87.

When real Value cannot be ascertained, Collector to permit Exportation of Goods on certain Conditions.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That if at the time of making the Entry for the Exportation of any Goods, Wares or Merchandize of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Ireland on which any Duties of Customs are charged or are payable according to the Value thereof, the Exporter or Proprietor of such Goods, Wares or Merchandize so entered for Exportation, or his known Agent or Factor, shall not be able to ascertain the true and real Value thereof, it shall be lawful for the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs at the Port of Exportation, to permit such Exporter or Proprietor, Agent or Factor, to ship or export such Goods, Wares or Merchandize, upon making Oath that such real Value cannot be ascertained, and upon Bond being given either by the Exporter or Proprietor of such Goods, Wares or Merchandize, or by the known Agent or Factor of such Exporter or Proprietor, to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, with One sufficient Surety in Treble the Amount of the supposed or estimated Duty on the Value of such Goods, Wares or Merchandize conditioned for the Payment of the said Duties, within Three Months, and according to the true and real Value thereof, and for producing the Invoice and Bills of Parcels, or such other Documents as shall be required by the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs at the Port of Exportation, in case the Production thereof shall be thought necessary by such Officers of the Customs, for the Purpose of ascertaining the true and real Value of such Goods, Wares or Merchandize, so exported as aforesaid.

Names of Exporter and Agent specified in Entry, &c.

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That upon the Exportation of all Goods, Wares and Merchandize, of which the real Value cannot be ascertained, and in cases where the Duties are allowed to be secured by Bond as aforesaid, the Name of the actual and real Exporter, whether such Exporter shall be the Proprietor, or the Agent or Factor of the Proprietor, shall be specified in the Entry, together with the Name of the Agent or Factor making the Entry and giving such Bond, and an Oath of the Value of such Goods, Wares or Merchandize according to which the Duties shall be ascertained and paid and the Bond cancelled, shall in all such cases be made and signed by such actual and real Exporter, and not by any Clerk, Agent or Broker of such Exporter.

False Oath of Value.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Exporter of any such Goods, Wares or Merchandize entered for Exportation shall know-knowingly and fraudulently make any false Oath of the Value of any such Goods, Wares or Merchandize, after the same shall have been allowed to be shipped for Exportation, every such Exporter shall, for every such Offence, forfeit a Sum equal to the true and real Value of all such Goods, Wares or Merchandize. Penalty.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That the several Rates and Duties and Drawbacks and Bounties by this Act continued or granted or allowed and made payable, and all and every Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures under this Act, shall be raised, levied, collected, paid and applied in the same manner and under such Powers and Authorities, and by such ways and methods, and under such Rules and Directions, as are appointed, directed and expressed for the raising, collecting, levying and paying, and managing of Duties and Drawbacks payable on Goods, Wares and Merchandize imported into and exported from Ireland, or for the levying and applying any Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures, in and by an Act of Parliament made in Ireland, in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled An Act for settling the Excise or new Impost upon His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, according to the Book of Rates therein inserted, or in and by an Act made in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to provide for the better Execution of the several Acts relating to the Revenues, Matters and Things under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, and of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, or in and by any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland relating to the Revenue of Customs and Excise, or either of them, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Powers and Authorities, Rules and Directions, Penalties and Forfeitures were herein expressed and enacted, with the like remedy of Appeal to and for the Party or Parties aggrieved, as in and by the said Act, passed in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, or in and by any other Act or Acts as aforesaid is provided. Duties, &c. how levied.

C A P. LXXXII.

An Act to grant to His Majesty Duties upon Auctions in Ireland, in lieu of former Duties thereon, and to provide for the regulating and securing the Collection of the said Duties, and to prevent Frauds therein. [1st July 1814.]

‘ Most Gracious Sovereign,

‘ W E Your Majesty’s most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray Your Majesty’s Public Expences in Ireland, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto Your Majesty the ‘ Duties hereinafter mentioned;’ and do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, there shall be granted, raised, levied, collected and paid unto His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon and in respect of the several Articles and Things mentioned, set forth and expressed in the Schedule hereunto annexed, the several Sums of Money and Duties as they are respectively described and set forth in the said Schedule; and the said Schedule and all the Exceptions, Exemptions and Regulations therein contained shall be deemed and taken to be Part of this Act to all Intents and Purposes; and the said several Duties shall be in lieu and full Satisfaction of all Duties granted on Auctions in Ireland by any former Act or Acts of Parliament.

Auction Duties
c. 18. to cease.

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, the several Duties granted on Auctions in Ireland, by an Act made in the Parliament of the said United Kingdom, in the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty’s Reign, intituled An Act to grant to His Majesty certain Inland Duties of Excise and Taxes in Ireland, and to allow certain Drawbacks in respect thereof, in lieu of former Duties of Excise, Taxes and Drawbacks, and also all Exemptions of the said Duties granted or allowed by the said recited Act, shall cease and determine, and be no longer paid, granted or allowed save as in this Act is hereafter provided.

‘ III. And Whereas the Laws now in force for securing the ‘ Collection of the Duties on Auctions in Ireland have been found ‘ insufficient for the Purpose, and it is expedient that the same should ‘ cease and be repealed, and that one new Law, with such Pro- ‘ visions as may be necessary, should be enacted;’ Be it therefore enacted, That Three several Acts, one made in the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty’s Reign, intituled An Act to secure the Collection of the Duties on Auctions in Ireland, and to prevent Frauds therein; and one other Act made in the Forty eighth Year of His said Majesty’s Reign, to amend the said recited Act of the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty’s Reign; and one other Act made in the Forty ninth Year of His said Majesty’s Reign, intituled An Act to amend the several Acts for securing the Collection of the Duties on Auctions in Ireland; and also so much of Two several Acts, one made in the Forty ninth Year of His said Majesty’s Reign, upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of Twenty Pounds for Default of Payment at the time aforesaid, together with a Sum equal to Double the Duty chargeable on such Sale.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That if upon the Trial of any Information against any Auctioneer for any Offence against this Act, any Question shall arise, whether any Sale by Auction, or whether any Article, Lot or Parcel sold at any Sale, and for and in respect of which such Information shall be filed, was exempt from the Auction Duty, the Proof that such Sale, or that such Article, Lot or Parcel (as the case may be), was exempt from the Auction Duty, and of the circumstances of such Exemption, shall lie on every such Auctioneer, and not on the Officer prosecuting such Information.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That where any Goods, Chattels or Effects, sold by Auction, shall have been sold by Sample or otherwise, so that the Auctioneer cannot ascertain the Quantity actually sold, and where such Sale shall have taken place within the District of the Excise Office of Dublin, the Proprietor of such Goods, or some Agent or Person authorized on his behalf, shall, within Twenty one Days after the Commencement of such Sale, deliver to the Examiner of the Auction Duty in Dublin, and also to the Collector of Excise for the said District, upon Oath of such Proprietor or Agent, which Oath may be administered by such Officers respectively, an exact Account of the Quantity of such Goods, and the Sum of Money produced by the Sale thereof; and where such Sale shall have taken place in any other Part of Ireland, such Proprietor or his Agent shall, within the said Space of Twenty one Days, deliver a like Account to the Collector of the District in which such Sale shall have taken place, upon Oath of such Proprietor or Agent, which Oath may be administered by such Collector; and such Proprietor or his Agent shall also in all cases, within the said Space of Twenty one Days after the Commencement of such Sale, furnish the Auctioneer with a true Copy of such Account; and if such Proprietor or his Agent shall neglect to deliver such Account, or Copies thereof, to the Officers hereinbefore mentioned, and to the Auctioneer, in manner aforesaid, within the said Space of Twenty one Days, every such Proprietor or his Agent so neglecting shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds for every such Offence.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That in case any Error shall be discovered in any Charge of Duty against any Auctioneer, by charging such Auctioneer with a greater Amount of Duty than ought to have been charged against such Auctioneer, it shall and may be lawful for him to make his Complaint within Six Calendar Months next after the Error shall have been discovered, before the said Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes, who are hereby authorized and required to hear and determine such Complaint, and upon Proof thereof to relieve the Party so complaining of so much of the Duty as shall appear to have been overcharged; and if such Duty shall have been paid, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to repay the same; and in case it shall be discovered that any Error has been committed by charging any Auctioneer with a less Amount of Duty than ought to have been charged, it shall and may be lawful for the Examiner of the Auction Duty,

Duty, and he is hereby required to rectify the same as speedily as may be convenient, and to report the same to the said Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes, who are hereby required to give Notice to such Auctioneer of the Amount of the Deficiency of the Duty in consequence of such Error, and if such Auctioneer shall not, within One Month after such Notice, shew sufficient cause to such Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes why he should not be charged with and pay such Deficiency, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to order a Return to be made by the said Examiner of the Auction Duty to the Office of the Collector of Excise of the District in which the erroneous Charge was returned, and the Duty specified in the Return of such Examiner shall be a Surcharge on such Auctioneer; and if such Auctioneer shall not on Demand, or within Ten Days next after, pay the full Amount of such Duties so surcharged, such Auctioneer shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds, together with a Sum equal to Double the Amount of the Duty which shall be so surcharged: Provided, that no such Return shall be a Surcharge on any Auctioneer unless it shall have been made, and the Amount demanded, within Six Months after the Discovery of the Error.

XX. And be it further enacted, That if any Sale by Auction of any Estate, Goods, Chattels or Effects shall be rendered void by reason that the Person for whose Benefit the same was sold had no Title to the same, or no Right to dispose thereof, then and in every such case it shall and may be lawful for the Auctioneer chargeable with, or who shall have paid the Duty on the Things so sold, or for the Person for whose Benefit the same was sold, in case such Sale was held in the District of the Excise Office of Dublin, to lay a Complaint before the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland; and the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, upon such Complaint to them made by or on behalf of such Auctioneer, or by or on behalf of the Person for whose Benefit the same was sold, shall and they are hereby authorized and required to hear and determine upon Oath all such Complaints, and examine the Witnesses produced before them by the Parties, and thereupon or upon other due Proof to relieve the Party so complaining, and thereupon to repay the Duty in case the same shall have been paid in respect of the Estate, Goods, Chattels or Effects, the Sale of which shall be rendered void; and in case such Sale was held in any other Part of Ireland, then such Complaint shall and may be laid before the Sub-Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in and for the District in which such Sale was held who shall and may and they are hereby authorized to hear and determine the same upon Oath, and to examine Witnesses, and thereupon and upon other due Proof to report to the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes whether such Sub-Commissioners are of Opinion that the Party complaining ought to be relieved or not; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to make such Order for relieving such Party and repaying the Duty as to them shall seem fit, and such Duty shall be repaid upon the Order of the said Commissioners, or any Three of them accordingly.

Duty repaid in case Title cannot be made out to Estate or Effects sold.

XXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That such Complaint shall be made within Twelve Calendar Months after such Sale, if the Sale shall be rendered void as aforesaid within that time; or if the Sale shall not be rendered void as aforesaid within that time, then such Limitation of time for making Complaint.

such Complaint shall be made within Three Months after the Discovery of the Person for whose Benefit any such Estate, Goods, Chattels or Effects was or were sold, having no Title to the same, or no Right to dispose thereof; and no such Complaint shall be made, or any Relief given thereupon, unless such Complaint shall have been made within the time hereinbefore in that behalf prescribed, nor in any case after the Expiration of Three Years.

When Owner becomes Purchaser at Sale, an Allowance of Duty made.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where the real Owner of any Estate, Goods, Chattels or Effects put up to sale by way of Auction in Ireland shall become the Purchaser by means of his own Bidding, or the Bidding of any Person on his behalf or for his Use, at such Sale without Fraud or Collusion, then and in every such case it shall and may be lawful for the Examiner of Auction Duty in Dublin, or the Collector of Excise in the District in which such Sale shall be held, and they are respectively authorized and empowered to make an Allowance to the Owner of such Estate, Goods, Chattels or Effects, of the Duties arising under any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, upon such Bidding or Sale; provided that Notice in Writing, signed by the Owner and the Person intended to be the Bidder, that such Bidder is appointed by or on behalf of such Owner to bid at the Sale for the Use and Behoof of such Owner, shall have been given to the Auctioneer before such Bidding, and that the Delivery of such Notice shall be verified by the Oath of such Auctioneer, as also the Fairness and Reality of the Transaction to the best of his Knowledge and Belief.

Notice given of Sale of Goods distrained for Rent.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That every Auctioneer who shall sell by Auction any Goods distrained for Nonpayment of Rent, shall, Two Days previous to the Sale of such Goods, in case such Goods shall have been distrained within the District of the Excise Office of Dublin, deliver to the Examiner of Auction Duty in Dublin, and also to the Collector of Excise of the said District, a Notice in Writing, specifying the particular Day when and Place where such Goods are intended to be sold; and shall also, within Twenty eight Days after the Day specified for such Sale to commence, deliver or cause to be delivered at the Office of the said Examiner, and also at the Office of the said Collector of Excise an exact and true Account of every Article for Thing sold at such Sale, with the Amount of the whole Sum for which such Articles sold; and in case such Goods shall have been distrained in any other Part of Ireland, then such Auctioneer shall deliver a like Notice and Account respectively, within the respective times aforesaid, to the Collector of Excise of the District within which such Goods shall have been distrained, and the Landlord or other Person on whose Account the Distress shall be made shall, at the Foot of every such Account, certify the exact Sum due for the Rent in respect of which such Goods shall have been distrained, and that such Goods were really and bona fide distrained for such Rent; and if any such Auctioneer shall neglect to deliver any such Notice or Account in manner and to the respective Officers herein directed, such Auctioneer shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and if any Landlord or other Person shall give any false Certificate of any of the Particulars aforesaid, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, then and in

An Act for the more effectual Regulation of the Receipts and Issues of His Majesty's Treasury, and for securing the due Application of Money coming into the Hands of the Public Accountants, in Ireland. [1st July 1814.]

WHEREAS an Act was made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Thirty fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled *An Act for the better Regulation of the Receipts and Issues of His Majesty's Treasury; and for repealing an Act of Parliament passed in the Tenth Year of Henry the Seventh, intituled An Act authorizing the Treasurer to make all Officers as the Treasurer of England doth: And Whereas the Provisions contained in the said recited Act have not been found fully sufficient with respect to the Safety of Public Money, in the Mode of its Receipt into the Exchequer of Ireland, or with respect to the Security and due Application of such Money after being issued from the said Exchequer to Public Accountants; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Receiver General of any Aids, Revenues or Taxes, collected in Ireland, nor for any other Public Accountant or Receiver of any Public Money whatever, to make any Payments of any such Aids, Revenues, Taxes or Public Money, into the Hands of the Teller of His Majesty's Exchequer of Ireland, or at the Counter of the said Exchequer, in manner heretofore used or accustomed; but all such Payments shall be made into the Bank of Ireland, to the Credit of the said Teller of the Exchequer, in manner hereinafter directed; and no such Receiver General or other Person shall be liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture whatever, for refusing or neglecting to pay any Sum or Sums whatever to the said Teller of the Exchequer, or at the Counter of the said Exchequer; provided such Receiver General or other Person shall pay such Sum into the said Bank of Ireland, in manner hereinafter directed; any thing in the said recited Act of the Thirty fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or any Law, Usage or Custom whatever, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.*

Payments shall not in future be made to Teller of Exchequer, or at the Counter.

35 G. 3. (1.) c. 28.

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, all Monies whatever, arising from any Duties, Aids, Revenues or Taxes, or which may or ought to be placed

Public Monies payable into Exchequer, paid into Bank of Ireland to Account of Teller of Exchequer, who shall give Acquittances for same on Production of Certificate from Bank.

placed to the Credit of the Public Revenue of Ireland, in the Account of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland, and which may at any time become payable into the Exchequer of Ireland, by any Receiver General or any Public Accountant, or other Person or Persons whomsoever, for or on Account of any Aids, Revenues, Taxes, Fines or Rents, or for or upon any other Account whatever, shall by every such Receiver General or other Public Accountant, or Person required by Law to pay the same, be paid into the Bank of Ireland, to the Credit and Account of the Teller of His Majesty's Exchequer of Ireland; of all which Payments, Certificates or Accountable Receipts shall be granted to the Parties making such Payments, by the Cashier or Cashiers of the said Bank of Ireland, in such Form as the Governor of the said Bank shall think fit, or as may from time to time be directed by the Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or by the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer, or any Three of them for the time being; and upon the Production of any such Certificate or Accountable Receipt to the Teller of the said Exchequer, or at the Counter there, the said Teller of the Exchequer shall forthwith give and deliver to the Party producing any such Certificate or Accountable Receipt, an Exchequer Receipt or Acquittance for the Monies mentioned in such Certificate or Accountable Receipt of the Cashier or Cashiers of the said Bank; which said Exchequer Receipt or Acquittance shall be given in such Form, and shall specify all such Particulars, and shall be recorded and countersigned in the Office of the Auditor General and Clerk of the Pells of the said Exchequer, in such manner as is required by the said recited Act of the Thirty fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, with respect to Receipts by the said Act required to be given by the said Teller of the Exchequer, for Monies received by him according to the Directions of the said recited Act.

c. 28.

Exchequer Receipt no Acquittance, unless Money actually paid into Bank.

III. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, no Exchequer Receipt or Acquittance whatever shall be deemed, taken or considered as a sufficient Discharge or Quictus to any Receiver General or other Public Accountant whatever for any Monies chargeable to the Account of such General Receiver or other Public Accountant, unless Payment of the full Amount of all Monies mentioned in such Exchequer Receipt or Acquittance shall have been actually made into the Bank of Ireland, in pursuance of the Directions of this Act; any thing in the said recited Act of the Thirty fifth Year, or any other Act or Acts, or any Law, Usage or Custom whatever, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

No Money paid by Teller, otherwise than by Draft on Bank, countersigned by Clerk of Pells.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, no Payment shall be made by the Teller of the Exchequer in Money at the Counter of the said Exchequer, but that all Payments and Issues of any Public Monies out of the said Exchequer, for any Service whatsoever, shall be made by Drafts drawn on the Governor and Company of the said Bank of Ireland, by the Teller of the said Exchequer; and in each and every such Draft, the particular Head of Service for which the same is drawn shall be specified, and each and every such Draft shall be recorded in the Office of the Clerk of the Pells of the said Exchequer, who shall also countersign the same; and no Draft of the Teller of the said Exchequer, or his Deputy, shall be deemed a sufficient Voucher,

Autho-

Authority or Discharge to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, unless the same shall be drawn and recorded and countersigned in the manner aforesaid, and shall be actually paid by the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland.

V. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, all Issues, Advances, or Payments whatsoever, to be made out of the Exchequer of Ireland to all Public Accountants whatever, the principal Seat of whose Department or Business may be within the City or County of the City or County of Dublin, shall be issued and made to the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, by Drafts from the Teller of the said Exchequer, countersigned by the Clerk of the Pells as aforesaid, in Favour and on Account of such Public Accountants, and that by virtue of such Drafts, the Money mentioned therein shall be placed to the Account of such Public Accountants respectively, in the Books of the Bank of Ireland; and that all such Money so placed to the Account of such Public Accountants respectively in the Books of the said Bank of Ireland, shall remain in the said Bank of Ireland, until drawn out in manner hereinafter mentioned; and that all other Monies whatever which shall come to the Hands of all or any Public Accountants, shall be paid immediately on Receipt thereof, by such Public Accountants, into the said Bank of Ireland, and be placed in the Books of the said Bank to the Account of such Public Accountants respectively, and shall not at any time remain in the Hands of such Public Accountants; and that no Money shall at any time be drawn out of the Money so placed to the Account of any such Public Accountant in the Books of the Bank of Ireland, nor shall any Money be paid or applied by any such Accountant, in any manner whatever, except by Drafts drawn by such Public Accountants respectively upon the said Governor and Company of the said Bank of Ireland, for the several Services required, according to the Office and Duty of such Public Accountants respectively; and signed by such Public Accountants respectively; and in every such Draft by any such Public Accountant, the Nature of the Service and the particular Head thereof to which the Sum therein mentioned is to be applied, or for which it is ordered or intended, shall be specified and set forth; and no Draft of any such Public Accountant shall be deemed a sufficient Voucher, Authority or Discharge to the said Governor and Company, unless the same shall so specify the Service for which it is drawn, and shall be actually paid by the said Governor and Company; and the Monies so to be issued from the said Exchequer to the said Governor and Company, on Account of the said Public Accountants respectively, or any of them, shall not be paid out of the said Bank unless in pursuance of such Drafts as aforesaid, so specifying the Service to which the Sums therein mentioned are to be applied; and which Drafts so drawn, and none other, shall be sufficient Authority to the Governor and Company of the said Bank to pay such Money to the Persons mentioned in such Drafts, or to the Bearers of such Drafts respectively.

Monies issued from Treasury to, or otherwise received by Public Accountants, placed in Bank, and drawn from thence by Drafts, stating Nature of Service they are to be applied to.

Drafts of Public Accountant not sufficient Discharge unless same specify Service for which drawn, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if at any time after the Commencement of this Act, any Teller of the Exchequer of Ireland, or any Public Accountant, or other Person or Persons whomsoever, on whose Account any Money shall be paid or placed in the Bank of Ireland as aforesaid, shall make or Draw any Draft or Drafts for the Drawing Drafts, or applying Public Money contrary to Act.

Payment or Application of any Part of the Money so placed to the Account of such Teller, Public Accountant, or other Person or Persons, to or for any other Purpose than the same ought by Law to be paid and applied, or without specifying in the said Draft the particular Head of Service to which the Money mentioned therein is to be applied, in manner aforesaid, or in any manner contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; or if any such Teller or Public Accountant shall in any manner pay or apply any Public Monies in his Hands, or for which he is accountable, to any Purposes other than such as the same ought by Law to be paid and applied to; then and in every such case, every such Teller, Public Accountant, or other Person so offending, and being duly convicted thereof by Verdict, on Information or other Proceeding for the same, by or in the Name of His Majesty's Attorney General for Ireland, in the Court of Exchequer in Dublin, shall forfeit and pay to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, a Fine or Sum equal to Twice the Amount of the Sum specified in any such Draft or Drafts, or so paid or applied as aforesaid contrary to the Directions of this Act, with full Costs of Suit, together with a further Sum by way of Interest thereon, after the Rate of Twelve Pounds for every One hundred Pounds by the Year, from the time of the Judgment given or entered on any such Verdict, until the same shall be paid into the Bank of Ireland; and the Court by or before whom such Verdict or Judgment shall be given, shall and is hereby authorized and required to commit such Offender to any of His Majesty's Gaols, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize until such Fine and Interest thereon as aforesaid shall be fully paid, satisfied and discharged.

Penalty.

Imprisonment.

Teller and Public Accountants not answerable for Money; but Bank only.

VII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, the Teller of the Exchequer of Ireland, and all Public Accountants and other Persons as aforesaid, observing the Rules and Regulations by this Act prescribed, shall not be answerable for any Money which any such Teller, Public Accountant, or other Person as aforesaid shall not actually receive, or which shall not actually be drawn for by him as aforesaid; and the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland shall be answerable for all the Monies which shall be actually received by them for the several Purposes aforesaid, or any of them.

On Death or Removal of any Teller or Public Accountant, Balance in Bank to vest in Successors.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That upon the Death, Resignation or Removal of any Teller, or of any Person or Persons being such Public Accountant or Accountants as aforesaid, the Balance of Cash for which any such Teller or Public Accountant as aforesaid shall have Credit in his Account, as such Teller or Accountant as aforesaid, with the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, shall, as soon as a Successor shall be appointed to the Office or Place held by such Teller or other Public Accountant as aforesaid, actually vest in such Successor, In Trust, for the like Services and Purposes as the same were applicable to before any such Death, Resignation or Removal; and such Balance of Cash shall be forthwith carried over and placed to the Account of every such Successor respectively, to be applied to such Services respectively, in pursuance of the Drafts of such Successors, as hereinbefore directed and specified; and every such succeeding Teller or other Public Accountant as aforesaid, is hereby authorized, directed and required to issue his Draft as aforesaid, for all unsatisfied Charges and Demands on account of any such Services

Balance of Cash how disposed of.

Services as aforesaid, which shall have accrued in the time of any such Teller or other Public Accountant as aforesaid, before such Death, Resignation or Removal.

IX. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, the Fees of Pells and Poundage chargeable on certain Issues from the Exchequer of Ireland, shall not at any time be drawn out of the Bank of Ireland, by or on behalf of the Teller of the said Exchequer, but shall be carried to the Credit of the Public, in the Account of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland, by the Auditor General and Clerk of the Pells on the Saturday in every Week, and on such other Days and Times as the Account of the Teller shall be made up from time to time; and that the Fees called Treasury Fees shall no longer be carried to the Account of the Fee Fund, but shall in like manner be carried to the Credit of the Public, by the Auditor General and Clerk of the Pells.

shall be directed, shall be deemed and considered to be the Property of the Commissioners of the said Royal Hospital at Chelsea, to be applied by them, nevertheless in the manner by this Act directed; and with respect to the Monies which may have been received by such Person or Persons as aforesaid, under any Power or Order, Powers or Orders, which shall have been made and executed before the passing of this Act, in case the said Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer shall upon Inspection of the Vouchers and other Documents relating to any Account which shall be rendered and delivered in Obedience to any such Precept or Precepts as aforesaid (which Vouchers and other Documents by this Act they are authorized and empowered to call for and inspect) be dissatisfied with such Account, and have reason to believe that the Payments therein stated to have been made, or any or either of them, have not been really and truly made, or that such Account is in any other respect fraudulent or defective, it shall be lawful for such Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer of Chelsea Hospital, and they are hereby respectively authorized and empowered to file a Bill in Equity against such Person or Persons, in order to such Account being regularly taken and examined, and other Proceedings being had relative thereto, according to the usual Course of Courts of Equity; such Bills to be filed in the Name of the Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital at Chelsea for the time being, and not to be considered defective on account of the Persons beneficially entitled to the Monies which shall be the Subject of them not being made Parties thereto.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the said Royal Hospital at Chelsea to authorize their Deputy Treasurer to pay to any Person or Persons who shall prove him, her or themselves to the Satisfaction of such Commissioners, or of the said Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer, to be the next of Kin or legal Representative, or otherwise legally entitled to any Share of Prize Money belonging to any deceased Soldier, any such Share not exceeding Twenty Pounds, although such Person shall not have regularly taken out Letters of Administration, or have procured the Probate of any Will of such deceased Soldier, Seaman or Marine.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That in all cases of Claims for Prize Money to be made upon the said Royal Hospital at Chelsea by the next of Kin of Foreign Non Commissioned Officers or Soldiers who shall have been in the Pay of His Majesty, and who shall have died Intestate, and which next of Kin shall reside out of His Majesty's Dominions, it shall be lawful for the Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital for the time being, to pay and discharge such Claims to such next of Kin, or any Person or Persons duly authorized by such next of Kin to receive the same, without requiring the Production of Letters of Administration to the Person appearing upon the Prize List to be entitled to the Share or Shares which shall be so claimed; and in all cases where such Foreign Non Commissioned Officers or Soldiers shall have made Wills, it shall be lawful for the said Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer in like manner to pay and satisfy such Claims to the Person or Persons who, by Inspection of the Original Will, or an authenticated Copy thereof, shall appear to be entitled thereto, or to such Person or Persons as he, she or they shall duly authorize to receive the same, without requiring the Production of Probates of such Wills.

L. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Deputy Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital at Chelsea for the time being, and he is hereby directed and required to lay annually before both Houses of Parliament an Account in the Form set forth in the Schedule to this Act, or in some Form to the same Tenor and Effect; and that such Accounts shall be made up to the Twenty fourth Day of December in every Year, the first of them to commence from the Twenty fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, up to which Period Accounts have already been laid before Parliament.

C A P. LXXXVII.

An Act to grant Duties of Excise on certain Sorts of Glafs made in Ireland, and to grant and allow certain Countervailing Duties and Drawbacks in respect thereof.

[14th July 1814.]

‘ WE, Your Majesty’s most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray Your Majesty’s Public Expences in Ireland, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto Your Majesty the Duties hereinafter mentioned, and do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid unto His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon and in respect of the several Sorts of Glafs made in Ireland, mentioned, set forth and expressed in the Schedule marked A. hereunto annexed, the several Sums of Money and Duties of Inland Excise as they are respectively described and set forth in the said Schedule; and the said Schedule shall be deemed and taken to be Part of this Act, to all Intents and Purposes.

Duties on Glafs specified in Schedule A. levied.

39 & 40 G. 3. c. 67.
40 G. 3. (1.) c. 38.
Countervailing Duties specified in Schedule B. paid on Importation of Glafs into Ireland.

‘ II. And Whereas it is expedient, pursuant to the Provisions of the Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, that in respect of the Duties imposed by this Act on certain Sorts of Glafs made in Ireland, Duties should be charged on the like Sorts of Glafs being the manufacture of Great Britain, and imported from thence into Ireland, sufficient to countervail the said Duties in Ireland; Be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, there shall be charged on the Importation into Ireland of the several Sorts of Glafs, being the Manufacture of Great Britain, mentioned, set forth and described in the Schedule marked B. to this Act annexed, the several Countervailing Duties in the said Schedule in Figures respectively inserted, described and set forth; and that upon the Exportation from Ireland of any Glafs of like Denomination being the Manufacture of Ireland, to Great Britain, there shall be allowed and given a Drawback equal in Amount to the Countervailing Duty on British Glafs of the like Denomination.

Drawbacks specified in Schedule C. allowed on Exportation of Glafs.

III. And be it further enacted, That upon the Exportation from Ireland (except to Great Britain) of any Plate Glafs or Window Glafs made in Ireland or made in Great Britain, and imported from thence into Ireland, there shall be paid and allowed the several Drawbacks contained in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked C., upon Proof being duly made that such Glafs respectively shall have paid the several Duties imposed thereon by this Act, in respect of which such Drawback shall be claimed, and such Drawback shall be paid and allowed in such manner and under such Rules and Regulations as are in force in Ireland, with respect to Drawbacks payable on any Articles exported from Ireland, so far as the same can be applied.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all the Duties and Drawbacks in this Act and the several Schedules hereunto annexed, specified, mentioned and contained, shall be paid and payable, and received and receivable, according to the Amount thereof in British Currency; and that all and every the Duties granted by this Act, the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same being deducted, shall be carried to and be made Part of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland.

VI. And, instead of the aforesaid Provisions of the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year aforesaid hereby repealed, and for the better securing the Use of Malt in the making of Spirits, and the Payment of the Duty on all Malt so used, be it enacted, That, from and after the Twenty ninth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, every Distiller of Spirits from Corn or Grain, malted or unmalted, shall, within Seven Days next after the Wednesday in the Fourth Week of any Period of Four Weeks, during which any Still or Stills of such Distiller shall be chargeable as working immediately succeeding any Day on which such Distiller shall have given Notice of his Intention to commence brewing or mashing of Corn, malted or unmalted in his Distillery, and in like manner within Seven Days next after the Wednesday in every Fourth Week, of every Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, while any Still or Stills of such Distiller shall be chargeable as working, produce and deliver or cause to be produced and delivered to the Officer in charge of the Distillery of such Distiller an Account of the Quantity of Malt actually permitted to the Mash Kieve of such Distiller within the Four Weeks ending on and including such Wednesday; and if, upon such Account and the Permits which shall have been granted for the permitting of such Quantity of Malt into the Mash Kieve of such Distiller, it shall appear that the Quantity of Malt so permitted shall be less than after the Rate of One Barrel of Malt for every Twenty four Gallons of Spirits which such Distiller shall distil, or shall be charged or chargeable with from all Wash brewed or made by him within such last mentioned Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, ending on such Sunday, then in such case every such Distiller shall, for every Barrel of such Deficiency of Quantity of Malt, forfeit and pay the Sum of Nineteen Shillings and Six pence British Currency; and if any such Distiller shall refuse or neglect to produce and deliver, or cause to be produced and delivered any such Account to such Officer within the time aforesaid, every such Distiller shall, for every Twenty four Gallons of Spirits distilled by, or with which such Distiller shall have been charged or chargeable from all Wash brewed or made within such Period, forfeit and pay the Sum of Nineteen Shillings and Six pence British Currency, One Third Part of which said several Forfeitures shall be paid and distributed to the Officer or Officers who shall prosecute for the same, and the other Two Third Parts thereof shall be placed to the Account of the Duties on Malt payable in Ireland.

C A P. LXXXIX.

An Act for the Charge of the further Addition to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

[14th July 1814.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to alter and amend several Acts passed in His present Majesty's Reign, relating to the Redemption of the National Debt; and for making further Provisions in respect thereof; it was enacted and declared, that, for the Purposes of the said Act, an Amount of Public Debt, equal to the whole Capital of the Public Debt in perpetual redeemable Annuities, existing on the Fifth Day of January One thousand seven hundred and eighty six, should be deemed to be satisfied and discharged; and so much of the Capital Stock so purchased and transferred as therein mentioned, and standing in the Names of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, as Parliament by any Act or Acts of the said Session should or might direct, should be cancelled in like manner as if the same

53 G. 3. c. 35.

' same had been transferred to the said Commissioners for the Re' demption of Land Tax, pursuant to the Provisions of the several ' Acts thereunto relating, in order to make Provision for the Charge
 ' of any Addition to be made to the Public Funded Debt of ' Great Britain, by way of Loan or in any other manner, for the ' Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirteen;
 ' and that when and so soon as such a further Amount of the ' Capital Funded Debt of Great Britain should have been purchased ' by the said Commissioners, or transferred to them for the Re' demption of Land Tax, or the Purchase of Life Annuities, as ' together with the Amount so already purchased or transferred as ' aforesaid should have produced an Interest or Yearly Dividend
 ' equal in Amount to the whole Annual Charge in perpetual
 ' redeemable Annuities of the Public Debt of Great Britain,
 ' existing on the Fifth Day of January One thousand seven hundred ' and eighty six, the said Commissioners should thereupon certify
 ' and declare the same to the Lord High Treasurer or Com' missioners of the Treasury for the time being, who should cause
 ' the said Certificate and Declaration to be published in the London
 ' Gazette, and to be laid before Parliament (if Parliament should ' be then sitting), but if Parliament should not be then sitting,
 ' then within Fourteen Days after the next Meeting of Parliament;
 ' and so from time to time whenever such a further Amount of the ' Capital Funded Debt of Great Britain should have been purchased
 ' or transferred as aforesaid, as should be equal to the whole Capital,
 ' and should have produced an Interest or Yearly Dividend equal in ' Amount to the whole Annual Charge in perpetual redeemable
 ' Annuities, of each Loan contracted since the said Fifth Day
 ' of January One thousand seven hundred and eighty six, the said
 ' Commissioners should from time to time thereupon in like manner
 ' certify and declare the same to the Lord High Treasurer, or ' Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, who should ' in like manner cause every such Certificate and Declaration to ' be published in the London Gazette, and to be laid before Par' liament; and whenever any such Certificate and Declaration should ' have been so made, published and laid before Parliament as afo-
 ' said, the Amount of Public Debts to which such Certificate and ' Declaration should relate, should from time to time be deemed
 ' and taken to be wholly satisfied and discharged, and an equal
 ' Amount of Capital Stock standing in the Names of the said
 ' Commissioners in the Books of the Governor and Company of the ' Bank of England or of the South Sea Company should be con' sidered to be redeemed by Parliament, and should from time to ' time be cancelled as above mentioned, at such Times and in such ' Proportions as should be directed by any Act or Acts of Parlia' ment to be passed for that Purpose, in order to make Provision for ' the Charge of any Addition to be made to the Public Funded
 ' Debt of Great Britain, by way of Loan, or in any other manner;
 ' and it was thereby further enacted, that whenever the Amount of ' the Sum to be raised by way of Loan, or in any other manner
 ' which might create an Addition to the Public Funded Debt of ' Great Britain in that or any future Year should exceed the Sum
 ' which on the First Day of February should have been or should ' be estimated to be applicable in the same Year to the Reduction
 ' of

' of the National Debt, then and in every such case an annual
 ' Sum, amounting to the One hundredth Part of the Capital Stock
 ' created by so much only of the Monies raised by way of Loan,
 ' or in any other manner as aforesaid in the Year, as should be ' equal to the Sum so estimated to be applicable to the Reduction ' of the National Debt within the same Year, should be issued at ' the Receipt of the Exchequer, to the Account of the said Com' missioners, in the manner directed by the said therein recited Act
 ' of the Thirty second Year of His present Majesty, and with ' respect to the Excess of the Monies which might be so raised
 ' in any Year by way of Loan, or in any other manner as afore-
 ' said, above the estimated Sum applicable to the Reduction of the ' National Debt within the same Year, such an annual Sum as
 ' should be equal to One Half of the Interest of such Excess,
 ' should be set apart out of the Monies composing the Consolidated
 ' Fund, and should in like manner be issued at the Receipt of the ' Exchequer to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England,
 ' to be by them placed to the Account of the said Commissioners:
 ' And Whereas the Sum which on the First Day of February One ' thousand eight hundred and fourteen, was estimated to be ap' plicable in the present Year to the Reduction of the National Debt,
 ' amounted to Eleven millions three hundred and thirty thousand
 ' four hundred and fifty two Pounds: And Whereas by an Act
 ' passed in this present Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for c. 76. ante.
 ' raising the Sum of Twenty four Millions by way of Annuities, the ' Sum of Eighteen millions five hundred thousand Pounds was raised
 ' for the Service of Great Britain: And Whereas the Charge of ' the said Sum of Eighteen millions five hundred thousand Pounds
 ' will amount to the Sum of One million one hundred and seventy five ' thousand six hundred and seventy four Pounds: And Whereas it is ' expedient to make Provisions for such Charge in the manner directed ' by the said recited Act; Be it therefore enacted by The King's ' Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of ' the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present
 ' Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the ' Sum of Three millions nine hundred and ninety four thousand ' Pounds Three Pounds per Centum New South Sea Annuities, and
 ' the Sum of Nine hundred and fifty three thousand Pounds Three ' Pounds per Centum South Sea Annuities, of the Year One thousand
 ' seven hundred and fifty one, standing in the Names of the Com' missioners for the Reduction of the National Debt in the Books of ' the South Sea Company, and the Sum of Ten millions two hundred ' and seventy two thousand three hundred and ninety two Pounds
 ' Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Annuities, and the Sum of ' One hundred and forty two thousand Pounds Five Pounds per
 ' Centum Consolidated Annuities, standing in the Names of the said
 ' Commissioners in the Books of the Governor and Company of the ' Bank of England, shall, from and after the Fifth Day of July One ' thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and the Sum of Twenty three ' millions seven hundred and thirty three thousand and ninety nine ' Pounds Three Pounds per Centum Reduced Annuities, standing in
 ' the Names of the said Commissioners in the Books of the Governor ' and Company of the Bank of England, shall, from and after the ' Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, be Extended to Purchase of Buildings, &c. as well as to Purchase of Land.

Extended to Bridges, &c. repaired by Hundreds or other Divisions of Counties.

‘ WHEREAS Doubts have been entertained whether the Power contained in an Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for remedying certain Defects in the Laws relative to the building and repairing of County Bridges, and other Works maintained at the Expence of the Inhabitants of Counties in England, for the purchasing of any Land or Ground, do extend to the Purchase of any Building or Buildings, or other Erections;’ For Remedy whereof, May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every the Powers and Authorities in the said Act mentioned and contained for the Purchase of any Land or Ground for the Purposes of the said Act, shall extend and be deemed and construed to extend to all such Building or Buildings, or other Erections, as may be necessary to be purchased for the Purposes of the said Act.

‘ II. And Whereas it is expedient that the Provisions of the said Act, except as after mentioned, should be extended to Bridges repaired by the Inhabitants of Hundreds and other General Divisions of Counties;’ Be it further enacted, That the said Act and all the Powers and Provisions thereof (except such Provisions therein as relate to Bridges thereafter to be erected and built) shall extend as well to Bridges and the Roads at the Ends thereof repaired by the Inhabitants of Hundreds, and other General Divisions in the nature of Hundreds, as to Bridges and the Roads at the Ends thereof repaired by the Inhabitants of Counties.

An Act to amend so much of an Act, passed in the Forty third Year of Her late Majesty Queen Elizabeth, as concerns the time of appointing Overseers of the Poor. [14th July 1814.]

‘ WHEREAS by an Act made in the Forty third Year of Her late Majesty Queen Elizabeth, intituled An Act for the Relief of the Poor, it is enacted, That the Churchwardens of every Parish

' Parish, and Four, Three or Two substantial Household-ers there, as ' shall be thought meet, having respect to the Greatness of the ' Parish, to be nominated yearly in Easter Week, or within One ' Month after Easter, under the Hand and Seal of Two or more ' Justices of the Peace in the same County, whereof One to be of ' the Quorum, dwelling in or near the same Parish or Division where
' the same Parish doth lie, shall be called Overseers of the Poor of ' the same Parish: And Whereas great Inconvenience is often found
' to arise, from the time for appointing such Overseers being regu' lated by a Moveable Feast; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Appointment of Overseers of the Poor, so directed by said Act of Queen Elizabeth, shall, in every Year, be made on the Twenty fifth Day of March, or within Fourteen Days next after the said Twenty fifth Day of March, in all and every the same manner as directed by the said Act to be made in Easter Week; any thing in the said Act or any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

An Act to secure the Payment of Stamp Duties on Probates and Letters of Administration, and on Receipts for Property obtained by Legacy, or Intestacy, in Ireland.

[14th July 1814.]

' WHEREAS the Provisions made to regulate and secure the ' Payment of Stamp Duties on Probates and Letters of Ad' ministration, and on Legacies, and on Property obtained by In' testacy in Ireland, contained in an Act of Parliament passed in the ' Fifty second Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An ' Act to repeal the several Acts for the Collection and Management of
' the Stamp Duties in Ireland; and to make more effectual Regulations
' for collecting and managing the said Duties, have been found insuf' ficient, and it is necessary further to provide for the said Purposes;
' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, so much of the said recited Act as purports to relate only to the Regulation or Payment of the said Duties on Probates or Letters of Administration, or on Legacies, or on Property obtained or claimed by, or under, or by reason of the total or partial Intestacy of any Person, shall stand and be repealed; save so far as the said Act directs that the said Duties shall be deemed and taken to be chargeable and payable only in respect of the Amount or Value of such Estate and Effects as shall be situated in Ireland, and of such Legacies as shall be payable out of Estates and Effects in Ireland, and save also so far as the said Act relates to Trust Property becoming vested in Executors or Administrators; and save also so far as the said Act relates to the raising, levying, inflicting or recovering any Pain, Punishment, Penalty or Forfeit for or by reason of any Matter or Thing which shall

shall have been done, committed or suffered, on or before the said Day, and save as to the Receipt, Collection or Application of any Duty or Sum which shall or may be payable on or before that Day.

Administering Effects without proving Will,
&c. within certain Period.

II. And, for the better securing the Payment of the Stamp Duties on Probates, Administrations and Legacies in Ireland, be it enacted, That every Person who shall after the Commencement of this Act administer in Ireland the Personal Estate or any Part of the Personal Estate of any deceased Person, without having proved the Will of the deceased, or taken out Letters of Administration of such Personal Estate in Ireland within Twelve Calendar Months after the Death of such deceased Person, if he or she shall die after the Commencement of this Act (or with respect to Persons who shall have died before the Commencement of this Act, within Six Calendar Months after the Commencement of this Act), shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Forty Pounds British Currency.

Penalty.

Probates taken out after proving Will valid though without Stamp.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Probate which shall be taken out by any Executor after the Will therein mentioned hath or shall have been proved, and Probate thereof hath been or shall have been duly obtained by another Executor named therein, shall and may be good, valid and effectual without any Stamp, to all Intents and Purposes, as if stamped; and that all Persons concerned in the writing or taking out the same shall be and they are respectively hereby freed and indemnified from and against all Pains and Penalties for or in respect thereof, in any manner whatsoever.

Executors, &c.
to exhibit Inventory of Effects of Deceased, and afterwards, if necessary, amend it.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Executor and Administrator of any deceased Person in Ireland, who shall have left a Personal Property of the Value of Two hundred Pounds or upwards, and all and every Person who shall administer or enter upon the Possession or Management of all or any Part of the Personal Estate of any such deceased Person, or who hath heretofore entered upon the Possession or Management of any personal or moveable Estate or Effects of such deceased Person, and hath not fully administered the same, whether such Person so acting shall have been next of Kin or Creditor, or other, and whether as Principal or as Agent for any Person or Persons, who or any of whom may be out of Ireland, shall, before disposing of or distributing any Part or remaining Part of such Estate or Effects, or at all Events within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, or after taking Probate or Administration, or entering on the Possession or Management of any such Personal Estate, or of any Part thereof, exhibit upon Oath in the proper Ecclesiastical Court in Ireland, a full and complete Inventory or Statement of such Estate and Effects, so far as they shall have been recovered at the time of exhibiting such Inventory, or shall be known to be existing, distinguishing whether situate in Ireland or elsewhere; and also of all Debts due by the deceased at the time of his or her Death, and payable out of his or her Personal Estate; and the nature and kind thereof; and in case at any time or times thereafter, a Discovery shall be made of other Effects belonging to the deceased which on account of their not being known at the time were omitted in the said original Inventory, an additional Inventory or Inventories of the same shall in like manner be exhibited on Oath from time to time by any Person or Persons administering or assuming the Management or Disposal thereof, together with all such Debts due by such deceased Person as aforesaid as may not have been inserted in such former

Inven-

Inventory, any such Oath as aforesaid to be administered by the same Person or Persons, and in the same manner in all respects as is used on proving a Will; and in case any such Person or Persons shall neglect or refuse to exhibit any such Original or Additional Inventory, or shall knowingly omit or include any Part of such Estate and Effects therein, every Person so neglecting, refusing or omitting, shall forfeit the Sum of Forty Pounds for each such Neglect, Refusal or Omission. Penalty.

V. And be it further enacted, That every Person, whether Executor, Administrator, or otherwise, who shall administer the Personal Estate of any Person deceased, and shall retain, whether for his or her own Use or otherwise, any Legacy, or any Residue or Part of the Residue of such Personal Estate, shall in a reasonable time after the Death of the Person so deceased, be accountable to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for any Duty which shall be then by Law payable on any Receipt or Discharge for any such Legacy, Residue or Part of Residue; and that if any Person, whether Executor, Administrator or otherwise, who shall administer the Personal Estate of any Person deceased, shall pay any Legacy, Residue, or any Part of Residue, without obtaining a Receipt duly stamped for the same, then such Person so administering shall be entitled to deduct thereout the Amount of the Stamp Duty, which shall be then payable on such Receipt; and in case he shall so deduct the same, the Amount of such Stamp Duty shall then immediately be a Debt from such Person so administering to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and if any such Person so administering shall pay any such Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue, without obtaining for the same a Receipt duly stamped, or without deducting the Amount of such Stamp Duty thereon, then and in every such case the Amount of such Stamp Duty thereon shall be a Debt to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, as well from the Person or Persons so administering as from the Person or Persons, Body or Bodies, to whom the same shall have been so paid respectively. Legacy not paid without proper Receipt, &c.

Debt to The King.

VI. And be it further enacted, That any Gift by any Will or Testamentary Instrument of any Person, which by virtue of such Will or Testamentary Instrument shall have Effect, or be satisfied out of the Personal Estate of such Person so dying, or out of any Personal Estate which such Person shall have Power to dispose of, as he or she shall think fit, or which shall be charged upon or given out of any Real or Personal Estate, or Monies arising from the Sale of any Real Estate directed to be sold by any Will or Testamentary Instrument, shall be deemed and taken to be a Legacy within the Intent and Meaning of this Act, and of all Acts whereby any Stamp Duty is or shall be imposed, or in any wise relating to the Management or Collection of any Stamp Duty, whether the same shall be given by way of Annuity, or in any other Form, and whether the same shall be charged only on such Personal Estate, or charged also on the Real Estate of the Testator or Testatrix who shall give the same, except so far as the same shall be paid or satisfied out of such Real Estate, in a due Execution of the Will or Testamentary Instrument by which the same shall be given, and every Gift which shall have Effect as a Donatio Mortis Causa, shall also be deemed a Legacy within the Intent and Meaning of this Act, and of all other such Acts as aforesaid. What deemed Legacies.

Donatio Mortis Causa.

Executors, &c.
neglecting to pay Duties complained of to Court of Exchequer.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every case in which any Executor or Administrator, or other Person or Persons taking the Burthen of the Execution of the Will or other Testamentary Instrument, or the Administration of the Personal Estate of any Person deceased, or any Trustee, or any other Person to whom any Real Estate shall be devised to be sold, or who shall be entitled to any Real Estate subject to any Legacy, shall not have paid any Stamp Duties which shall from time to time be payable by Law on any Receipts or Discharges for any Legacy, or for any Residue, or Part of any Residue, pursuant to the Directions of this Act, within a proper and reasonable time, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Ireland, upon Application to be made for that Purpose on behalf of the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, upon such Affidavit or Affidavits as to the said Court may appear to be sufficient, to grant a Rule, requiring such Executor, Administrator, Trustee, or other Person or Persons, to shew cause why he, she or they should not deliver to the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, an Account upon Oath of all the Legacies and of all the Property respectively paid or to be paid or administered by such Executor or Administrator, or other Person or Persons, or given or bequeathed to such Trustee or other Person entitled to any Real Estate, subject to any such Legacy as the case may be, and why the Duties on any such Legacies, or any Shares or Residue of any such Estate Real or Personal have not been paid, or should not be forthwith paid according to Law, and to make any such Rule of Court absolute in every case in which the same may appear to the said Court to be proper and necessary for enforcing the Payment of any of the said Duties, together with the Costs of so recovering the same.

Commissioners of Stamps to provide Forms for Receipts agreeably to Schedule A.

VIII. And, in order that all Persons may be enabled to take Receipts and Discharges on the Payment or Satisfaction of any Legacy or Residue of any Personal Estate or any Part thereof, according to the Directions prescribed by this Act, be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, from time to time to provide sufficient Quantities of Paper adapted for such Receipts or Discharges as aforesaid, and to cause to be printed thereon the Form of Words in the Schedule hereunto annexed marked A.; and it also shall be lawful for any of His Majesty's Subjects requiring such Receipts or Discharges to cause the same to be duly filled up with Sums, Names and Date, according to the Provisions before mentioned, and also upon any Vellum or Parchment, or upon any other Paper not provided by the said Commissioners, to use the like Form whenever there shall be Occasion.

Legacies by Annuities valued and Duties calculated according to Tables annexed.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the Value of any Legacy given by way of Annuity, whether payable annually or otherwise, for any Life or Lives, or for Years determinable on any Life or Lives, or for Years or other Period of time, shall be calculated, and the Duty chargeable thereon, shall be charged according to the Tables marked I. II. and III. to this Act annexed; and the Duty chargeable on such Annuity shall be paid by Four equal Payments, the First of which Payments of Duty shall be made before or on completing the Payment of the First Year's Annuity, and the Three others of such Payments of Duty shall be made in like manner successively, before or on completing the respective Payments of the Three succeeding Years Annuity respectively; and the Value of any such such Annuity, if determinable upon any Contingency besides the Death of any Person or Persons, shall be calculated without regard to such Contingency: Provided always, that if any such Annuity shall determine by the Death of any Person before Four Years Payment of such Annuity shall become due and payable, then and in such case the Duty shall be payable in proportion only to so many of the Payments of the said Annuity as actually accrued and became due and payable; and in case any such Annuity shall at any time determine upon any other Contingency than the Death of any Person or Persons, then and in such case not only all Payments of Duty which would otherwise become due after the happening of such Contingency, if any such would become due, shall cease, but it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons who shall have paid any Duties which shall have previously become due, to apply for and obtain a Return of so much of the Duty so paid, as will reduce the same to the like Duty as would have been payable by such Person or Persons for such Annuity, calculated according to the Term for which the same shall have endured; which Abatement the said Commissioners for the Management of the Stamp Duties shall settle and determine, according to the Tables in the Schedule hereunto annexed, and shall cause the Amount of such Abatement to be paid to the Person or Persons entitled to the same, out of any Monies in their Hands, arising from the Duties imposed by this Act.

X. And be it further enacted, That the Value of any Legacy given by way of Annuity for any Life or Lives, or for Years determinable on any Life or Lives, or for Years or other Period of time, and charged on and made payable out of any other Legacy or Legacies, shall be calculated, and the Duty shall be charged thereon in the same manner as hereinbefore directed with respect to other Annuities; and the Duty on the Legacy charged with such Annuity, if any Duty shall be payable for such Legacy, shall be calculated on the Value of such Legacy, after deducting the Value of such Annuity; and the Duty for such Annuity shall be paid by the Person or Persons entitled to the Legacy or Legacies charged with such Annuity, by Four equal Payments, in the same manner as the same would be payable according to the Provisions hereinbefore contained, if such Annuity had been a direct Gift to the Annuitant, and subject to the like Proviso in case such Annuity shall determine before four Years Payment shall become due; and the Payment which shall be made for such Duty shall be retained by the Person or Persons paying the same, out of the first Four Years Payments of such Annuity, if so many shall become due, or out of so many of such Payments as shall become due, by equal Portions.

Value of Annuities payable out of Legacies, and Duty calculated according to Tables, and Duty charged on Value of such Legacies after deducting Annuities, &c.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the Duty payable upon any Legacy given by way of Direction to purchase with any Personal Estate of the Testator or Testatrix, or any Part thereof, an Annuity of a certain Amount for the Life or Lives of any Person or Persons, or any other Term, shall be calculated upon the Sum necessary to purchase such Annuity, according to the Tables before mentioned, and shall be deducted from such Sum, and paid as in the case of other pecuniary Legacies; and the Person or Persons paying or satisfying such Legacy, and the Person or Persons for whose Benefit the same shall be paid or satisfied, shall be discharged, by Payment of such Duty so calculated as aforesaid, from all other Duty on Legacies given to purchase Annuities calculated on Sums necessary for purchase.

Demands in respect of the Duty payable on such Legacy; and the Annuity to be purchased for the Benefit of the Person or Persons to be entitled to the Benefit of such Legacy shall be reduced in proportion to the Amount of the Duty payable thereon as aforesaid, such Reduction to be calculated in the same manner as the Duty so payable is hereinbefore directed to be calculated; and the Purchaser of such reduced Annuity, together with the Payment of such Duty, shall satisfy and discharge such Legacy as fully as if an Annuity had been purchased equal in Amount to the Annuity so directed to be purchased.

Duty on Legacies when Value only ascertained by Application of allotted Fund charged on Money as applied.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if any Benefit shall be given by any Will or Testamentary Instrument, in such Terms that the Amount or Value of such Benefit can only be ascertained from time to time by the actual Application for that Purpose of the Fund allotted for such Purposes, or made chargeable therewith; or if the Amount or Value of any Benefit given by any Will or Testamentary Instrument cannot, by reason of the form or manner of the Gift, be so ascertained that the Duty to which the same shall be then subject can be charged thereon under any other of the Directions herein contained, then and in every such case, such Duty shall be charged upon the several Sums of Money or Effects which shall be applied from time to time for the Purposes directed by such Will or Testamentary Instrument, as separate and distinct Legacies or Bequests, and shall be paid out of any Fund which may be applicable for such Purposes, or charged with answering the same.

How Duty on Legacies enjoyed by Persons in Succession or having partial Interests therein charged.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Duty which shall from time to time be payable on a Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue of any Personal Estate given to or for the Benefit of, or so that the same shall be enjoyed by different Persons in Succession, who shall be chargeable at one and the same Rate with the Stamp Duties which shall then be payable, shall be charged upon and paid out of the Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue so given, as in the case of a Legacy to One Person; and where any Legacy, or Residue or Part of Residue, shall be given to or for the Benefit of, or so that the same shall be enjoyed by different Persons in Succession, some or One of whom shall be then chargeable with no Duty, or some Two or more of whom shall be chargeable with different Rates of Duty, so that One Rate of Duty cannot be immediately charged thereon, all Persons who under or in consequence of any such Bequest shall be entitled for Life only, or for any other temporary Interest, shall be chargeable with the Duty in respect of such Bequest in the same manner as if the Annual Produce thereof had been given by way of Annuity; and such Persons respectively shall be so chargeable with such Duty, and the same shall be payable when they shall respectively become entitled to and begin to receive such Produce; and where any other partial Interest shall be given or shall arise out of such Property so to be enjoyed in Succession, the Duty on such partial Interest shall be charged and paid in the same manner as the Duty is hereinbefore directed to be charged and paid in like cases of partial Interests charged on any Property given otherwise than to different Persons in Succession; and all and every Person or Persons who shall become absolutely entitled to any such Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue to be enjoyed in Succession, shall, when and as such Person or Persons respectively shall receive the same, or begin to enjoy the the Benefit thereof, be chargeable with and pay the Duty for the same, or such Part thereof as shall be so received, or of which the Benefit shall be so enjoyed, in the same manner as if the same had come to such Person or Persons immediately on the Death of the Person by whom such Property shall have been given to be enjoyed, or in such manner that the same shall be enjoyed in Succession.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Duty which shall from time to time be payable on any Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue, so given to or so to be enjoyed by different Persons in Succession, upon whom the Duty shall be chargeable at one and the same Rate, shall be deducted and paid by the Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of the Will or Testamentary Instrument under which the Title thereto shall arise upon Payment or other Satisfaction or Discharge of every or any Part of such Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue, to any Trustee or Trustees, or other Person or Persons to whom the same shall be payable or paid, in Trust or for the Benefit of the Persons so entitled thereto in Succession; and if the same shall not be so paid or satisfied to any such Trustee or Trustees, then such Duty shall be deducted and paid out of the Capital of the Property so given, upon Receipt, by any of the Persons so entitled in Succession of any Produce of such Capital or any Part thereof, according to the Amount of the Capital of which such Produce shall be so received; and where the Duty chargeable upon any such Bequest for the Benefit of or to be enjoyed by different Persons in Succession, shall be chargeable at different Rates, so that the same cannot be paid at one and the same time, but must be paid in Succession as aforesaid, then and in such case all and every the Person and Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of the Will or Testamentary Instrument, in which such Bequest shall be contained, shall be chargeable with such Duties in Succession, in the same manner as such Persons would be chargeable with the like Duties in case of immediate Bequests, unless the Property bequeathed shall have been paid, or otherwise satisfied to or vested in any Trustees or Trustee as aforesaid, in which case such Trustees or Trustee, or his, her or their Representatives, shall be chargeable with the Duties then payable for or in respect of such Property so vested in him, her or them, respectively, in such and the same manner as if he, she or they had taken the Burthen of the Execution of the Will or Testamentary Instrument by which such Bequest shall have been made; and in like manner, where any partial Interest shall be given, or shall arise out of any such Property so to be enjoyed in Succession, and such partial Interest shall be satisfied or paid by the Person or Persons so enjoying such Property, such Person or Persons shall be chargeable with the Duties then payable for and in respect of such partial Interest, and shall retain and pay the same accordingly, in such and the same manner as if he, she or they had taken the Burthen of the Execution of the Will or Testamentary Instrument by which such partial Interest shall have been created; and in all such cases the Person or Persons so chargeable with Duty, shall be Debtors to The King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in like manner, and shall be subject to the like Penalties, as the Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of such Will or Testamentary Instrument shall from time to time be chargeable and subject to.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Duty shall at any time be paid on any Articles of Plate, Furniture or other Things not yielding any Income, and given to and for the Benefit of, or so as that the same be enjoyed by different Persons in Succession, whilst the same shall be so enjoyed in Kind only, by any Person or Persons not having any Power of selling or disposing thereof, so as to convert the same into Money or other Property yielding an Income; but if the same shall be actually sold or disposed of, or shall come to any Person or Persons having Power to sell or dispose thereof, or having an absolute Interest therein, then and in each and every such case the same Duty shall be chargeable and paid thereon as if the same had been originally given absolutely and with full Power to sell and dispose thereof, and shall be chargeable upon and paid by the Person or Persons for whose Benefit the same shall be sold, or who shall have Power to sell or dispose thereof, or any absolute Interest therein, and shall become the Debt of such Person or Persons, but shall not be a Charge on any Person or Persons by reason of his, her or their having assented to such Bequest as the Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of the Will or Testamentary Instrument by which such Bequest shall have been made.

Duty on Legacies enjoyed in Succession charged as such, whether taken under Wills or by Intestacy.

XVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any Legacy, or any Residue or Part of Residue, shall be so given by any Will or Testamentary Instrument, that different Persons shall become entitled thereto in Succession, the Duty shall be charged thereon, as given to be enjoyed in Succession, whether the Person or Persons entitled thereto shall take the same under or by virtue of such Will or Testamentary Instrument, and the Dispositions therein contained, or in Default of such Dispositions, and as entitled by Intestacy.

Duty on Legacies in Joint Tenancy paid in Proportion to Interest of Parties.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That where at any time any Legacy, or any Residue, or Part of Residue, shall be given to or for the Benefit of any Person or Persons in Joint Tenancy, some or One of whom shall be then chargeable with any Stamp Duty, and some or One of whom shall not be so chargeable, or where Two or more of such Joint Tenants shall be chargeable according to different Rates of Duty, then and in every of said cases all and every the Person or Persons chargeable with Duty, shall pay such Duty in proportion to the Interest of such Person or Persons respectively, and to the Rates at which they shall be so chargeable respectively in such Bequest; and if any Person or Persons so chargeable with such Duty, and entitled in Joint Tenancy as aforesaid, shall become entitled by Survivorship, or by Severance of the Joint Tenancy, to any larger Interest in the Property bequeathed than that in respect of which such Duty shall have been paid, then and in such case all and every such Person or Persons so becoming entitled by Survivorship, or by Severance, shall be charged with the same Duty as if the Property which such Joint Tenant or Joint Tenants shall so become entitled to had been then originally given to or for the Benefit of such Person or Persons only: Provided always, that if any Duty shall have been previously paid in respect of any Property to which any such Joint Tenant shall so become entitled, such Duty so previously paid shall be deducted and allowed out of the Duty to which such Joint Tenant would then become liable in respect to such Property; and if such Duty shall exceed that to which such Joint Tenant would be liable in respect to such Property, then such Joint Tenant shall not be liable to any Duty in respect thereto.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That when any Legacy, or any Residue, or Part of Residue, shall be given, subject to any Contingency which may defeat such Gift, and whereupon the same may go to some other Persons or Person, such Bequest (unless chargeable as an Annuity under the Provisions herein contained), shall be charged with Duty as an absolute Bequest to the Person or Persons who shall take the same, subject to such Contingency, and such Duty shall be paid out of the Capital of such Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue, notwithstanding the same may be upon such Contingency to go to some Person not chargeable with the same Duty, or with any Duty; and if such Contingency shall afterwards happen, and the Property so bequeathed shall thereupon go in such manner that the same if taken immediately after the Death of the Testator or Testatrix under the same Title would have been chargeable with a higher Rate of Duty than the Duty so paid, the Person or Persons becoming entitled thereto shall be charged with and shall pay the Difference between the Duty so paid, and such higher Rate of Duty.

Duty on Legacies subject to Contingencies, charged as for absolute Bequests, &c.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That where any Legacy, or the Residue, or any Part of the Residue of any Personal Estate, shall be subject to any Power of Appointment, to or for the Benefit of any Person or Persons specially named or described as Objects of such Power, such Property shall be chargeable with Duty as Property given to different Persons in Succession; and in so charging such Duty, not only the Person and Persons who shall take previous or subject to such Power of Appointment, but also any Person and Persons who shall take under or in Default of any such Appointment, when and as they shall so take respectively, shall in respect of their several Interests, whether previous or subject to or under, or in Default of such Appointment, be charged with the same Duty and in the same manner as if the same Interests had been given to him, her or them respectively, in and by the Will or Testamentary Disposition containing such Power, in the same Order and Course of Succession as shall take place under and by virtue of such Power of Appointment, or in Default of Execution thereof, as the case may happen to be; and where any Property shall be given for any limited Interest, and a general and absolute Power of Appointment shall also be given to any Person or Persons to whom the Property would not belong in Default of such Appointment, such Property, upon the Execution of such Power, shall be charged with the same Duty and in the same manner as if the same Property had been immediately given to the Person or Persons having and executing such Power, after allowing any Duty before paid in respect thereof; and where any Property shall be given with any such general Power of Appointment, which Property in Default will belong to the Person or Persons to whom such Power shall also be given, such Property shall be charged with and shall pay the Duty in the same manner as if such Property had been given to such Person or Persons absolutely in the first Instance without such Power of Appointment.

Estate, shall be charged with and pay Duty as Personal Estate, unless the same shall be given so as to be enjoyed by different Persons in Succession, and then each Person entitled thereto in Succession shall pay Duty for the same in the same manner as if the same had not been directed to be applied in the Purchase of Real Estate, unless the same shall have been actually applied in the Purchase of Real Estate before such Duty accrued; but no Duty shall accrue in respect thereof, after the same shall have been actually applied in the Purchase of Real Estate, for so much thereof as shall have been so applied: Provided nevertheless, that in case before the same or some Part thereof shall be actually so applied, any Person or Persons shall become entitled to an Estate of Inheritance in Possession in the Real Estate to be purchased therewith, or with so much thereof as shall not have been applied in the Purchase of Real Estate, the same Duty which ought to be paid by such Person or Persons if absolutely entitled thereto as Personal Estate, by virtue of any Bequest thereof, as such, shall be charged on such Person or Persons so entitled, and raised and paid out of the Fund remaining to be applied in such Purchase.

Legacies charged on Real Estates liable to Duty as Personal Estate.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That where any Real Estate shall by any Will be directed to be sold charged with any Legacy or Legacies, the Person or Persons entitled to sell the same, or bound to pay such Legacy or Legacies, and also the Person beneficially entitled to such Legacies, or to the Residue or any Parts of the Residue of the Purchase Money thereof, shall respectively be liable to pay the Stamp Duties which shall then be by Law payable thereon respectively, in the same manner in all respects mutatis mutandis as concerning the Administration of Personal Estate, as hereinbefore provided.

Estates pur auter vie.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That Estates Pur auter vie applicable by Law in the same manner as Personal Estate, shall be charged with all Stamp Duties imposed or to be imposed as Personal Estate.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Direction shall be given by any Will or Testamentary Instrument for Payment of the Duty chargeable upon any Legacy or Bequest out of some other Fund, so that such Legacy or Bequest may pass to the Person or Persons to whom or for whose Benefit the same shall be given free of Duty, no Duty shall be chargeable upon the Money to be applied for the Payment of such Duty, notwithstanding the same may be deemed a Legacy to or for the Benefit of the Person or Persons who would otherwise pay such Duty.

Mode of ascertaining Duty on Property not reduced into Money.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That in cases of specific Legacies, and where the Residue of any Personal Estate shall consist of Property which shall not be reduced into Money, it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Administration of such Effects, or the Person or Persons by whom the Duty thereon ought to be paid, to set a Value thereon, and to offer to pay the Duty according to such Value, or to require the Commissioners for Management of Stamp Duties to appoint a Person to set and appraise such Value at the Expence of the Person or Persons by whom such Duty ought to be paid; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to accept the Duty offered to be paid upon the Value set by the Person or Persons having or taking the Administration of such Effects, or by whom the Duty for the same shall be payable, without without such Appraisement, if the said Commissioners shall think fit so to do; but if the said Commissioners shall not be satisfied with the Value so set, on which the Duty shall be so offered, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, notwithstanding such Offer, to appoint a Person to appraise such Effects and to set the Value thereon, on which Value so set the said Commissioners shall assess the Duty payable in respect thereof, and require the same to be paid; but if the Person or Persons by whom such Duty shall be payable shall not be satisfied with the Valuation made under the Authority of the said Commissioners, and pay the Duty accordingly, it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons, at any time within Three Calendar Months after he, she or they shall have Notice of such Valuation, to appeal therefrom to, and to cause the Valuation so made under the Authority of the said Commissioners to be received by the Commissioners of Appeals in Revenue Causes in Ireland; and if the Valuation made under the Authority of the said Commissioners of the Stamp Duties shall not be duly appealed from within the Period aforesaid, or shall be affirmed upon Appeal, the Duty shall be paid according to such Valuation; and if any Variance shall be made on such Appeal, the Duty shall be paid according to such Variance; and if the Duty assessed in manner aforesaid shall exceed the Duty offered to, and refused by the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, the Expence of such Appraisement and other Proceedings in assessing such Duty, shall be borne by the Person or Persons by whom such Duty shall be payable; and if any Dispute shall arise between any Person or Persons entitled to any such Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue, and any Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Administration of such Effects with respect to the Value thereof, or with respect to the Duty to be paid thereon, the Duty shall be assessed by the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, on Reference to them by either Party for that Purpose; and if the Value of any Property on which such Duty ought to be paid shall be in Dispute, the said Commissioners of the Stamp Duties shall cause an Appraisement to be made thereof at the Expence of the Person or Persons by whom such Duty ought to be paid, in the manner hereinbefore directed in other cases, and assess the Duty thereon accordingly; and if such Person or Persons by whom such Duty ought to be paid shall be dissatisfied with such Valuation, or with the Assessment of Duty made upon such Valuation by the said Commissioners of the Stamp Duties, the same shall be reviewed and finally determined by the said Commissioners of Appeals in Revenue Causes, upon Appeal to them within the time and in the manner hereinbefore directed in other cases; but if such Valuation or Assessment shall not be duly appealed from within the time limited for that Purpose, or shall be affirmed upon Appeal, the Duty shall be paid according thereto; and if any Variance shall be made therein on such Appeal, the Duty shall be paid according to such Variance.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That where any Legacy or Part of any Legacy, or Residue or Part of Residue, whereon any Duty shall be chargeable by this Act, shall be satisfied otherwise than by Payment of Money, or Application of specific Effects for that Purpose, or shall be released for Consideration, or compounded for less than the Amount or Value thereof, then and in such case the Duty shall be charged and paid in respect of such Legacy or Part of Legacy, or Residue or Part of Residue, according to the Amount or Value of the Property taken in Satisfaction thereof, or as the Consideration for Release thereof or Composition for the same: Provided always, that if any Legacy or Bequest shall be made in Satisfaction of any other Legacy or Bequest, or Title to any Residue or Part of Residue of any Personal Estate remaining unpaid, the Duty shall not be paid on both Subjects, although both may be chargeable with Duty, but shall be paid on the Subject yielding the largest Duty.

If Legatees refuse to accept Legacies, Duty deducted, Court, in case of Suit, may order them to pay Costs;

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of the Will or other Testamentary Instrument, or the Administration of the Personal Estate of any Person deceased, or any Person or Persons hereby made chargeable with Duty, shall declare himself, herself or themselves ready and willing, and shall accordingly offer to pay any pecuniary Legacy, or Residue or Part of Residue, deducting the Duty payable thereon, or shall in like manner offer to deliver or otherwise dispose of any specific Legacy, or any specific Property, Part of any Residue of any Personal Estate, to or for the Benefit of the Person or Persons entitled thereto, or to any Trustee or Trustees for such Person or Persons, upon Payment of the Duty payable in respect thereof, and the Person or Persons entitled to such Legacy or Residue, or Part of Residue, or the Trustee or Trustees for such Person or Persons, shall refuse to accept such Offer, and to give a proper Release and Discharge for such Legacy or Residue, or so much thereof as shall be offered to be paid, delivered, or otherwise disposed of as aforesaid, then and in such case, although no actual Tender shall be made, if any Suit shall be afterwards instituted for such Legacy or Effects, respecting which such Offer shall have been made, it shall be lawful for the Court in which such Suit shall be instituted, to order all Costs, Charges and Expenses attending the same to be paid by the Person or Persons who shall have refused to accept such Offer, and to give or join in such Release or Discharge, or to order such Costs, Charges and Expenses to be deducted and retained out of such Legacy or Effects, together with the Duty payable thereon, as the said Court shall see fit; and in case any Suit shall be instituted for Payment of any Legacy, or Residue or Part of Residue of any Personal Estate, and the Person or Persons sued for the same shall be desirous of staying Proceedings in such Suit on Payment of the Money due, or delivering or otherwise disposing of the specific Effects demanded, after deducting or receiving the Duty payable thereon, it shall be lawful for the Court in which such Suit shall be instituted, if it shall see fit, on Application in a summary way to make such Order for Payment of such Legacy, or Residue or Part of Residue, or for delivering or otherwise disposing of such Effects, and for Payment of the Duty payable thereon, and all such Costs, Charges and Expenses attending such Suit, as shall be just.

Suits where Party sued wishes to stop Proceedings on Payment of Bequest's deducting Duty, Court may make Order.

Suit instituted concerning Administration Court to provide for Payment of Duty.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Suit shall be instituted concerning the Administration of the Personal Estate of any Person dying testate or intestate, or any Part of such Estate, in which any Direction shall be given touching the Payment of any Legacies or Legacy of such Person, or the Residue of his or her Personal Estate, or any Part thereof, the Court wherein such Suit shall be instituted shall, in giving Directions concerning the same, provide provide for the due Payment of the Duties which shall be payable thereon in taking any Account of any Personal Estate, or otherwise acting concerning the same, such Court shall take care that no Allowance shall be made in respect of any Legacy or Part of Legacy, or of any Residue, or Part of Residue in any manner whatsoever, without due Proof of the Payment of the Duties to which the same shall from time to time be liable.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That any Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of any Will or other Testamentary Instrument, or the Administration of the Personal Estate of any Person deceased, may from time to time pay, deliver or otherwise dispose of any Legacy, or any Part of any Legacy, or make Distribution of any Part of the Residue of any Personal Estate, on Payment from time to time of such Proportions of the Duty by Law payable thereon, as shall accrue in respect of such Part of such Personal Estate as shall be so administered.

Executors may discharge Legacies on Payment of Duty accrued.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That no Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of any Will or Testamentary Instrument, or the Administration of the Personal Estate of any Person deceased, nor any Trustee or Trustees, or other Person or Persons hereby directed and required to account for any Duty, shall, from and after the Commencement of this Act, pay, deliver or otherwise dispose of, or in any manner satisfy, discharge or compound for any Legacy whatsoever, or any Part thereof, or the Residue of any Personal Estate, or any Part thereof, in respect whereof any Duty is payable by Law, without taking a Receipt or Discharge in Writing for the same, expressing the Date of such Receipt or Discharge, and the Names of the Testator, Testatrix or Intestate, under whose Will or Testamentary Disposition, or upon whose Intestacy the Title to such Legacy or Part of Legacy, or to such Residue or Part of Residue shall accrue, and of the Person or Persons to whom such Receipt or Discharge shall be given, and of the Person or Persons to whom such Legacy or Residue or Part of Residue shall have been given or shall have belonged in consequence of Intestacy, and the Amount or Value of the Legacy or Part of Legacy, or Residue or Part of Residue, for which such Receipt or Discharge shall be given, and also the Amount and Rate of the Duty payable and allowed thereon; and that no written Receipt or Discharge for any Legacy or Part of Legacy, or for the Residue of any Personal Estate, or any Part of such Residue, in respect whereof any Duty is payable by Law, shall be received in Evidence or be available in any manner whatever, unless the same shall be duly stamped according to Law; and no Evidence whatsoever shall be given of any Payment, Satisfaction or Discharge whatsoever, or of any Release or Composition of such Legacy or any Part thereof, or of such Residue or any Part thereof, without producing such Receipt or Discharge, duly stamped as aforesaid, unless the actual Payment of the Duty hereby imposed shall first be given in Evidence: Provided always, that a Copy of the Entry in the Books of the Commissioners of Stamp Duties of the Payment of such Duty, shall be admitted as Evidence thereof: Provided also, that Payment of any Annuity shall not be deemed a Payment for which such stamped Receipt shall be required under the Directions of this Act, except the several Payments which shall complete the Pay-

Legacy liable to Duty not paid without Receipt.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That every such Receipt or Discharge shall be brought, within the Space of Three Calendar Months after the Date thereof, to the Head Office of the Commissioners of Stamp Duties in Ireland, or to some other Office to be appointed by the said Commissioners for such Purpose, to be stamped, paying the Duty for the same; and upon such Payment, either at the said Head Office, or at any other Office to be appointed as aforesaid, the Receiver General, or other proper Officer to be appointed for that Purpose by the said Commissioners, as the case may be, shall write upon such Receipt or Discharge an Acknowledgment of the Payment of the Duty so paid in Words at length, and bearing Date the Day on which such Payment shall be made, and shall subscribe his Name thereto, and enter an Account thereof in a Book or Books to be provided for that Purpose, to the Intent that he may be thereby charged with the Sum so paid; and in case the Duty shall be so paid at the Head Office, then the Receipt or Discharge so brought to be stamped shall be forthwith duly stamped, as the case shall require; and in case the Duty shall be so paid at any other Office to be appointed by the said Commissioners as aforesaid, the Receipt or Discharge whereon such Acknowledgment of the Payment of the Duty shall be so written and subscribed, shall be transmitted within the

Space

Space of Twenty one Days from the Day of Payment of such Duty to the said Head Office, and the same shall be duly stamped accordingly, as the case shall require; and in case the Person or Persons paying such Duty at any such Office to be appointed as aforesaid, shall be desirous that the same shall be transmitted to the said Head Office by the Officer to whom such Duty shall be paid, and shall leave the same with such Officer for such Purpose, such Officer shall thereupon sign and deliver an Acknowledgment that such Receipt or Discharge has been left with him for such Purpose, and shall transmit such Receipt or Discharge to such Head Office to be stamped as aforesaid, and the same shall be sent again to such Officer as soon as conveniently may be after the stamping thereof, and such Officer shall deliver back the same to the Persons or Person entitled thereto, upon Redelivery to him of the Acknowledgment which he shall have given for the same: Provided always; that if any such Receipt or Discharge shall not be so brought to any such Office as aforesaid within such Space of Three Calendar Months as aforesaid, it shall nevertheless be lawful to carry such Receipt or Discharge to the said Head Office to be stamped in like manner, after the Expiration of Three Calendar Months from the Date thereof, paying the Duty for the same, and also the further Sum of Ten Pounds per Centum on such Duty, by way of Penalty for not having before paid such Duty; on Payment of which Duty and Penalty the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and required to stamp such Receipt or Discharge in the same manner as if the same had been brought to the said Office within the Space of Three Calendar Months from the Date thereof: and where any such Receipt or Discharge shall have been signed out of Ireland, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, within Two Years from the Date thereof, to remit any Penalty that may have been incurred thereon, and to cause the same to be duly stamped, on Payment of the Duty payable in respect thereof; any thing contained in this Act, or in any other Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

Receipts stamped after Three Months have elapsed on Payment of Duty and 10l. per Cent. Penalty.

XXXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Party or Parties paying or satisfying any Legacy, or any Residue of any Personal Estate, or any Part of such Residue, or receiving the same contrary to the Provisions of this Act, who shall, within the Space of Twelve Calendar Months after the Offence committed, discover the other Party or Parties offending therein, so that such Party or Parties so discovered be thereupon convicted, such Person so discovering shall be indemnified and discharged from all Penalties incurred for any Offence against this Act.

Persons paying, &c. Money contrary to Act, in what case indemnified.

XXXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That, where by reason of the Infancy or Absence beyond the Seas of any Person entitled to any Legacy, or to the Residue of any Personal Estate, or any Part thereof, chargeable with Duty by virtue of this Act, or by reason of any Doubt as to the Construction of any Will, the Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of any Will or Testamentary Instrument, or the Administration of such Personal Estate, cannot pay such Legacy, or some Part thereof, although he, she or they may have Effects for that Purpose, or cannot pay such Residue, or some Part thereof, although he, she or they may have the same, or some Part thereof, in his or their Hands, it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons to pay such Legacy or Residue, or any Part thereof respectively, or any Sum or Sums of Money on account thereof,

If by Infancy or Absence Legacies cannot be paid, Money may be paid into Bank and laid out in 3½ per Cent.

thereof, after deducting the Duty chargeable thereon, into the Bank of Ireland, with the Privy of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, to be placed to the Account of the Person or Persons for whose Benefit the same shall be so paid, or of the Person who may be entitled thereto; for Payment of which Money, the said Accountant General shall give his Certificate as usual in such cases, on Production of the Certificate of the Commissioners of Stamp Duties, that the Duty thereon has been duly paid; and such Payment into the Bank shall be a sufficient Discharge for the Money so paid in, provided the Duty be also paid thereon as aforesaid; and such Money, when paid in, shall be laid out by the said Accountant General, without any formal Request for that Purpose, in the Purchase of Three and an Half Pounds per Centum Consolidated Government Stock in the Bank of Ireland; and the Dividends thereon shall be received from time to time by the Accountant General, and laid out in like manner; and the whole of such Stock, with the Dividends thereon, shall be transferred and paid to the Person or Persons entitled thereto, or otherwise applied for his or their Benefit, on Application to the Court of Chancery by Petition or Motion in a summary way: Provided always, that if it shall afterwards appear, that such Money, or any Part thereof, has been improperly paid into the Bank as aforesaid, it shall also be lawful for the said Court of Chancery, upon Petition in a summary way, to dispose thereof, and of the Stock purchased therewith, and the Dividends received thereon, in such manner as Justice shall require: Provided also, that if it shall appear that the Duty paid in respect of any Sum of Money was more than ought to have been paid, it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons who shall have paid such Duty, to apply to the said Commissioners for Management of the Stamp Duties to repay such Excess of Duty; and the said Commissioners are hereby authorized, upon such Application, to repay such Excess of Duty to such Person or Persons as shall appear to them entitled to receive the same, or to pay such Excess of Duty into the Bank, with the Privy of the said Accountant General, for the Benefit of the Person or Persons entitled thereto, to be placed to the same Account, and to be applied in the same manner as the same would have been applicable if paid together with the Remainder of the Legacy or Sum of Money in respect of which the same shall have been paid; and the said Commissioners are hereby authorized to make such Payments respectively out of the Monies in their Hands, arising from Duties under their Management; and if the Duty paid to the said Commissioners shall appear to be less than the Duty which ought to have been paid, it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons who paid such Money into the Bank as aforesaid, upon Payment of the full Duty to the said Commissioners in such manner as the same ought to be paid, with such Penalties, if any, as ought to be paid in respect thereof, to apply to the Court of Chancery in a summary way for the Repayment of the further Sum paid to the said Commissioners for such Duty, out of the Money in the Bank so paid in by such Person or Persons, or the Produce thereof; which Payment the said Court is hereby authorized to order.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That whenever any Sum of Money be so paid into the Bank of Ireland, with the Privy of the said Accountant General, the Accountant General's Certificate of such Payment shall be filed with the proper Officer of the said Court of Chancery,

cery, in the proper Office, in the same manner as Certificates of Payment of Money paid into the Bank of Ireland, with the Privy of the said Accountant General, in pursuance of any Order of the said Court, are usually filed; and when the said Accountant General shall have drawn any Draft on the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, for Payment of such Money, in the usual Form, for the Purpose of applying the same in the Purchase of Three and an Half Pounds per Centum Government Stock as aforesaid, such Draft shall be carried to the said Office, and entered and signed by the proper Officer, in the same manner as Drafts drawn by the said Accountant General in pursuance of any Order of the said Court are usually entered and signed as aforesaid; and thereupon the same shall be a Warrant to the said Governor and Company, for Payment of the Money specified in such Draft, in the same manner as Drafts of the said Accountant General drawn, entered and signed in pursuance of any Order of the said Court, are Warrants to the said Governor and Company for Payment of Money in other cases; and the said Court of Chancery shall from time to time make all and every such Orders and Order as shall be necessary for carrying the Purposes of this Act respecting any Money so to be paid into the Bank as aforesaid into Execution; and such Orders or Order shall and may be made either in any particular Matter or for the general Purposes of this Act, as Occasion shall require, and as to the said Court shall seem fit; and such Order or Orders of the said Court of Chancery shall be sufficient Warrant to the said Accountant General, and to the Officers of the said Court, and to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, and to all Persons whomsoever, for all Things which shall be done in pursuance of any such Order or Orders, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and no such Money shall be liable to Usher's Poundage.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That if at the End of Two Years after the Death of any Person deceased, it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties that it will require time to collect the Debts or Effects of such Person then outstanding, or that from Circumstances it will be difficult to ascertain or adjust the Amount of the clear Residue of the Personal Estate of such Person liable to Duty, or the Nature, Amount or Circumstances of any Legacy or Legacies, and the Parties interested therein shall be desirous of compounding for the Duty thereon, it shall be lawful for such Parties respectively, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Stamp Duties, to make Application to the Court of Exchequer in Ireland for Leave to compound such Duty, stating upon Oath the Particulars of the Personal Estate for which such Composition shall be proposed to be made by Affidavit to be filed in the said Court, and declaring at the same time upon Oath whether any other Property of the deceased, then outstanding, besides the Property for which such Composition shall be proposed to be made, hath come to the Knowledge of the said Parties, or any of them, and the Nature thereof, and the Circumstances attending the same; and in such case it shall be lawful for the said Court of Exchequer to appoint a proper Person to set a Value on the Personal Estate, or such Part thereof for which no Duty shall have been charged, and which shall have been specified in such Affidavit as the Property for which such Composition shall be desired, and to adjust and settle the Duty which justly and equitably under all Circumstances ought to be paid in respect of such Personal Estate so specified; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby required, if the said Court of Exchequer shall confirm the said Adjustment and Settlement, and order the Duty to be accepted accordingly, and by Authority of such Order, to accept Payment of the Sum so adjusted and settled in full Discharge of the Duty on so much of such Personal Estate as shall be so specified, and according to such Order, and to enter the same in their Books accordingly, and to grant Certificates thereof, expressing the Receipt of such Duty by way of Composition under such Order; and every such Person to whom such Certificate shall be granted, and every future Representative of the same Estate, and all Persons entitled to the Benefit of the Property for which such Composition shall be so paid, shall be discharged from any further Payment of Duty on the same; and in all future Payments of such Property, it shall be lawful for the Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of any Will or Testamentary Instrument disposing such Property, or the Administration thereof, to pay, apply and dispose of the same, and for all Persons entitled to the Benefit thereof, to receive the same, without having the Receipts and Discharges in Writing hereby required to be given and taken for the same, stamped as hereinbefore directed, provided such Receipts or Discharges shall express the same to be given under the Authority of such Composition as aforesaid, and not liable to such Duty: Provided always nevertheless, that the Duty shall be charged and paid upon all and every Part of the Personal Estate of such Person deceased, other than that which shall be specified in such Affidavit as aforesaid, and included in the Valuation in which such Composition shall have been made as aforesaid, and for which the said Court of Exchequer shall allow and order such Composition to be taken as aforesaid, in the same manner as if no such Composition had been made; and all and every Person and Persons shall be liable to all the like Penalties and Forfeitures for not duly paying the Duty for such Personal Estate not compounded for, and subject to the like Rules, Methods and Directions, for charging such Duty, as such Person and Persons respectively would be liable to if such Composition had not been made.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That if at any time after Payment of Duty on any Legacy, or Residue or Part of Residue of the Personal Estate of any Person deceased, any Debt shall be recovered against the Estate of such deceased Person, or any Loss shall happen, by reason whereof, or for any other just Cause, any Legatee or other Person, by whom any Legacy or Part of Legacy, or any Residue of any Personal Estate hath been received or retained, shall be obliged to refund the same or any Part thereof, then in every such case it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties and they are hereby required, on due Proof made on Oath as aforesaid, to their Satisfaction, of the Amount of such Sums refunded, and that by reason thereof there hath been an Overpayment of Duty, to settle and adjust the Amount of such Overpayment, and to repay the same out of any Money in their Hands arising from the Duties under their Management, or to allow the same in future Payment, as the case may permit or require.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of the Execution of any Will

Will or Testamentary Instrument, or the Administration of any Personal Estate as aforesaid, shall be entitled to any Legacy, or the Residue or any Part of the Residue of the Personal Estate of any Testator, Testatrix or Intestate, such Person shall be chargeable with the Duty whenever he, she or they shall be entitled in the due Course of Administration to retain to his, her or their own Use any Part of the said Estate, in Satisfaction of such Legacy or Residue or any Part thereof; and every such Person before any such Retainer shall transmit to the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties or their Officers, a Note containing the Particulars of such Legacy, Residue or Part of Residue intended to be retained, and the Amount and Value thereof, and the Duty which such Person or Persons shall offer to pay thereon; and the said Commissioners shall charge and assess the Duty thereon in such manner as the Duty shall be chargeable thereon by virtue of the Provisions in this or any other Act contained, and such Duty shall be paid accordingly; and on Payment of the said Duty the Officer appointed to receive the same shall, at the Foot of a Duplicate of the said Assessment duly stamped, in such manner as the said Commissioners shall direct for such Purpose, give a Receipt for such Duty in such Form of Words as the said Commissioners shall direct, which Receipt shall be a Discharge for the Duty expressed therein; and in case any such Person or Persons shall neglect to pay such Duty as aforesaid, within Fourteen Days after the same ought to have been paid as aforesaid, every such Person and Persons shall forfeit and pay Treble the Value of the Duty which ought to have been paid.

to transmit Particulars with Duty offered to Commissioners of Stamps.

Neglecting Payment of Duty. Penalty.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if the Authority under or by colour of which any Person shall have administered the Estate or Effects of any Person deceased, or any Part thereof, shall be void or be repealed, or declared void, and such Person shall, before the Avoidance, Repeal or Declaration of Avoidance, have paid any Duty by Law imposed which shall not be allowed to such Person out of the Estate or Effects of such deceased Person, by reason that the same Duty was not really due or payable, the Money paid for such Duty shall, on Proof thereof to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, be repaid to the Person or Persons who shall have paid the same, or his, her or their Representatives, by the said Commissioners, out of any Monies in their Hands arising from Duties under their Management; but in case such Duty ought to have been paid by the rightful Executor or Executors, Administrator or Administrators of such deceased Person, then and in such case the Payment of such Duty shall be valid and effectual, notwithstanding such Avoidance, Repeal or Declaration of Avoidance as aforesaid; and no such Person shall, by reason of the Avoidance, Repeal or Declaration of Avoidance of such Authority, be sued, molested or troubled for or in respect of such Payment; but all such Payments in respect of the said Duty shall be allowed in Account with such rightful Executor or Executors, Administrator or Administrators; and the same shall be deemed Payments in the due Course of Administration, as fully and effectually as if such Payments had been made by rightful Executors or Administrators; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

If Administration made void, and Duty shall have been improperly paid, it shall be repaid, &c.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall alter any Word, Letter, Figure or Number in any Assessment or Receipt Altering, &c. Receipts, &c.

ceipt to be made or given in pursuance of this Act for any of the said Duties, after the same shall have been duly signed, or shall utter or publish as true such altered Assessment or Receipt, with Intent to defraud His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or any other Person or Persons, then and in such case every Person so altering, uttering or publishing as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

Penalty.

Penalties incurred for Nonpayment of Duties heretofore payable remitted on Payment of Duties before Jan. 31, 1815.

‘ XL. And Whereas many Persons may through Ignorance or Inadvertence, or from accidental or unavoidable Causes, have neglected to pay the Duties heretofore payable in respect of Legacies, and of Residues of Personal Estate given by Wills or other Testamentary Instruments, or which have devolved to any Person or Persons upon Intestacies, within the time prescribed by Law for that Purpose, and may have incurred heavy Penalties by reason of such Neglect ;’ Be it therefore enacted, That if any Person or Persons who shall have incurred any Penalty before the Commencement of this Act by reason of the Nonpayment of any such Duty as aforesaid, shall offer to pay the same to the Commissioners of Stamp Duties at their Head Office in Dublin, on or before the Thirty first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and shall make it appear to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners that such Duty was not paid within the time prescribed by Law, through Ignorance or Inadvertence, or from any accidental or unavoidable Cause, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to remit the Penalty, and to receive the Duty which shall be due and payable by Law, according to the circumstances of the case, and to cause a proper Receipt to be given for such Duty, and also to cause the Receipt or Discharge (if any) which shall have been given for the Legacy or Residue, or Share of Residue, of any Personal Estate in respect of which such Duty shall be paid, to be duly stamped as the Law requires for making the same available, and thereupon such Receipt or Discharge shall be as valid and available as if the same had been stamped and the Duty paid within the time originally prescribed for that Purpose ; any thing contained in any former Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

Registrars, &c. of Ecclesiastical Courts to give an Account of Wills, &c. when required.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, or any One or more of them, to require of every Registrar or other Officer of any Ecclesiastical Court in Ireland having the Custody or Care of any Wills proved in any such Court, or having the Custody of any Entry or Register of any Administrations granted in any such Courts, an Account of all such Wills and Letters of Administration, together with an Abstract of the Particulars relating thereto, and such Extracts from any such Wills as may seem necessary to such Commissioners or Commissioner, on Payment of such Fees as shall be agreed upon for the same ; and in case there shall be any Dispute as to the Amount of Fees so to be paid, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any Distributor or other Officer duly employed or authorized by them, to require, by a Notice in Writing, the Registrar or other proper Officer of any Ecclesiastical Court, to produce any Will which shall be therein, and all and every Order and Proceeding of or in the said Court, relating to such Will, to any Person who shall be named in such Notice, and who shall have free Liberty to take an Account and Abstract thereof, and to make such Extracts as he shall think proper therefrom ; and if any such Registrar or other other Officer as aforesaid shall refuse or neglect to produce forthwith any such Will, according to such Notice, or to permit such Person so named in such Notice, at all reasonable times, to take an Account and Abstract of such Wills, Orders and Proceedings, or any of them, or any Extracts or Extract therefrom which such Person shall desire to make, or shall knowingly or wilfully deliver to such Person any false Will, Account, Abstract, Extract, Order or Proceeding, then and in every such case, every such Registrar or other Officer shall forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of Forty Pounds, to be recovered with Costs of Suit, by Information in the Name of His Majesty's Attorney General for Ireland, to the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors.

V. And be it further enacted, That if the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, or of the Vice Admiralty Court, in which any Prize shall have been condemned, shall certify that the Ship or Vessel so condemned sailed under the Flag and Pass of the Enemy, or under any Commission of War granted by the Enemy, then and in such case, on the Application or by the Direction of the Captain or other Commander of the Ship or Vessel making such Capture, the Proceeds shall be distributed and an Order of the Court may be obtained, at his Prayer, on the Agent or Agents, to distribute the Proceeds of such Prize before the time of Appeal is elapsed, subject nevertheless to the Liability of the Captor to answer any Appeal that may be instituted thereafter during the time limited by Law for Appeals.

High Court of Admiralty may order Production

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, in all cases, either in the present War or in any former War, in which the regular time of Appeal

Appeal has elapsed, or in which the Appeal hath been determined, or for any Judge of any Court of Vice Admiralty abroad, in any such case as aforesaid, to which any Certificate from the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty shall be transmitted at the time of Appeal being elapsed, without further Prosecution, together with an Order of Distribution thereon, to make an Order for Production and Verification of Accounts, and for the Distribution of the Proceeds, and to enforce the same by the Process of the said Court, by Monition and Attachment upon the Agent or Agents in whose Hands the Proceeds may be lodged, or any other Person whomsoever to whom such Proceeds may have been committed, and likewise by further Process against the Sureties of the said Agent or Agents; and all Courts of Vice Admiralty are hereby empowered, directed and required, to enforce upon all Persons within their Jurisdiction all such Orders, and all other Orders of the High Court of Admiralty, whether relating to Prizes, or to any Matter or Thing relating thereto, within their respective Jurisdictions.

of Accounts and Distribution when time of Appeal is elapsed, or Appeal determined.

Order enforced by Vice Admiralty Courts.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all the Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Forfeitures and Penalties, respecting the Distribution of Prize Money, and the accounting for and paying over the Proceeds of Prize in this Act contained, shall be extended to all Seizures under the Revenue Laws, all Grants of His Majesty, all Bounties granted by Act of Parliament, and all other Monies whatever, coming to and being in the Hands of the Prize Agents of the Officers and Crews of any of His Majesty's Ships of War, for their Use and Benefit, by reason of any Capture, Recapture or Seizure made by the said Ships.

Regulations as to Distribution and Accounts of Prize extended to Revenue Seizures, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases of Condemnation in the High Court of Admiralty, where there is no Claimant or Appellant before the Court, it shall be lawful for the said Court, at the Prayer of the Captors, to compel the Agents by Process of Monition and Attachment, to vest the Proceeds of the Property condemned in such Public Securities as the Captors shall elect, there to remain and accumulate, for the Benefit of the Parties entitled, till the time of Appeal shall be lapsed, subject nevertheless to the further Directions of the Court, upon the Application of the Captors; and in all cases of Condemnation in any Court of Vice Admiralty, where there is no Claimant or Appellant before the Court, it shall be lawful for the said Court, at the Prayer of the Captors, to direct the Property captured, or the Proceeds thereof to be forthwith transmitted to Great Britain, there to be vested in such Public Securities, after being sold (if not already converted by Sale), as the Captors shall elect, until the regular time of Appeal shall have lapsed, subject nevertheless to the Directions of the High Court of Admiralty, upon the Application of the Captors.

High Court of Admiralty may direct Proceeds of Property condemned to be invested.

Courts of Vice Admiralty may direct such Proceeds to be transmitted, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, in all cases wherein any Sentence of Condemnation pronounced in the said Court is appealed from at the time of serving the Inhibition thereon, or at any time thereafter during the Pendency of the said Appeal, and without Prejudice to such Appeal, to assign the Agent or Agents, or other Persons in whose Hands the Proceeds of the Prize may be, at the Prayer of either Party, or of the Treasurer of the Navy, or of the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, or his Deputy or Deputies for such such Purpose, to bring into and leave in the Registry the Nett Proceeds of the Sales of such Prize, deducting therefrom so much as in the Discretion of the Judge shall be requisite to be left in the Hands of the Agent or Agents, for the Expences of defending the said Appeal; and the Proceeds so brought in shall be deposited, in case the Parties shall agree thereto, in some Public Securities at Interest in the Names of the Registrar or Deputy Registrars, and of such Trustees as the Parties shall appoint, and the Court shall approve; and in case either Party shall refuse his Consent thereto, the Party praying the same shall have such Proceeds laid out and invested in Public Securities in manner aforesaid, he giving good and sufficient Security to the Court to answer to the other Party for any Loss or Deficiency that may be occasioned thereby, in case such other Party shall be ultimately pronounced to be entitled to the Property.

Lords of Appeal
may order Proceeds to be brought in, &c.

X. And be it further enacted and declared, That the Commissioners of Appeals are authorized and empowered in any case of Appeal before them, to order at their Discretion the Proceeds of any Prize, the Subject of such Appeal, or any Part or Parts thereof, to be paid by the Agent or Agents for such Prize, at the Requisition of the Captors or Claimants, into the Court, to be laid out or disposed of at the Discretion of the Court on any Application made for that Purpose, either by the Captors or Claimants.

High Court of Admiralty may compel Production of Accounts,

have Liberty to object to the Charges and Articles therein contained, and the said Court shall confirm or disallow the Accounts, upon hearing the Objections, and shall make such further Order touching the said Accounts, and the Distribution of the Proceeds, as the case may require; and any Agent who shall neglect or refuse to bring in a Copy of his Accounts at the time hereby directed, or who shall proceed to distribute without having exhibited and transmitted a Copy of the said Accounts, duly verified on Oath in manner aforesaid, or who shall refuse or neglect to obey any Order of any Court of Admiralty, for the Distribution of the Proceeds of any such Prize or Prizes, shall forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, and shall moreover be subject to the Process of the Court of Admiralty, by Monition and Attachment, until he shall have obeyed the Order of the said Court: and it shall be lawful for the said Court to pronounce the Bond given with the Letter or Letters of Agency to be forfeited, and to levy the Penalties secured thereby from the Sureties in the said Bond.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That every Prize Agent, at the same time that he shall exhibit or transmit an Attested Copy of the detailed Accounts of the Sale of any Prize or Prizes, together with Attested Copies of all Vouchers, to the Courts of Admiralty or Vice Admiralty respectively, as directed by this Act, shall and he is hereby directed and required to transmit another Attested Copy of the said detailed Accounts and Vouchers to the Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital at Greenwich; and every such Agent who shall neglect or refuse to transmit such last mentioned Attested Copies of Accounts and Vouchers, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That every Agent shall, Ten Days before he exhibits his Account of Sales in the Registry of the High Court of Admiralty, cause Advertisements to be Twice inserted in the London Gazette, notifying to all Persons concerned the Day on which the Account of Sales of such Prize or Prizes will be brought into the Registry of the said Court.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Per Centage for Agency, which in no case shall exceed Five Pounds per Centum, shall be charged upon the Nett Proceeds of any Prize or Prizes, Bounty Bills or Salvage; such Nett Proceeds to be estimated previous to any Deduction for or in respect of Law Charges.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That after the Sale or Sales of any Prize or Prizes which have been or shall be taken from the Enemy by any of His Majesty's Ships of War or hired armed Ships, in this or any former War, or after the Receipt of any Bounty, or other Monies in the Nature thereof, payable to His Majesty's Navy, by the Agent or Person authorized to receive the same, public Notification, in manner hereinafter mentioned, shall be given by the Persons or Agents appointed as aforesaid, for the Payment of the several Shares to the Captors; that is to say, if the Prize or Prizes shall have been or shall be condemned in His Majesty's High Court of Admiralty of Great Britain, then the Person or Persons, Agent or Agents, appointed or to be appointed in pursuance of this Act for the Appraisement and Sale of such Prize or Prizes, shall insert and publish, or cause to be inserted and published such Notification, under his or their Hand or Hands respectively, together with a Notification of the Amount of an Individual's Share in each Class, in the London Gazette; and if in any Court of Vice Admiralty, then in some Gazette or Newspaper of Public Authority, of the Island or Place where the Prize or Prizes shall have been or shall be condemned, and if there shall be no Gazette, or such other Newspaper published there, then in some one of the most Public Newspapers of such Island or Place; and if no Newspapers are there published, then by affixing Notice to the Church, or some other Public Building, directed by the Governor of such Island or Place; and all Persons or Agents publishing, or causing to be published every such Notification respectively, shall deliver to the Collector, Comptroller or Searcher for the time being of His Majesty's Customs, residing at or belonging to the Port or Place where the Prize or Prizes shall have been or shall be condemned, or the lawful Deputy or Deputies of such Collector, Comptroller or Searcher, Six of those Gazettes or other Newspapers in which such Notification shall be so inserted and published, together with Six Notifications of the Amount of an Individual's Share in each Class; and if there should not be any Public Newspapers in any such Island or Place, then such Person or Persons, Agent or Agents, shall give Six such Notifications in Writing, under his or their respective Hand or Hands, together with Six such Notifications of the Amount of an Individual's Share, to the said Collector, Comptroller or Searcher, or the Deputy or Deputies of such Collector, Comptroller or Searcher aforesaid; and every such Collector, Comptroller or Searcher, or such Deputy or Deputies, shall subscribe his or their Name or Names on some conspicuous Part of each of the said Gazettes, Newspapers or written Notifications respectively, and shall forthwith deliver One of the said Gazettes, Newspapers or written Notifications of Distributions, together with One of the said Notifications of the Amount of an Individual's Share, to the Deputy to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, resident at the Place where such Court of Vice Admiralty is or shall be established, or to which its Jurisdiction shall extend, and by the first Ship which shall sail (after his or their Receipt of such Gazettes, Newspapers or written Notifications respectively) from such Port or Place to any Port in Great Britain, shall transmit or send to the Treasurer of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, or the Deputy of such Treasurer for the time being, One of the said Gazettes, Newspapers or written Notifications, together with One of the said Notifications of the Amount of an Individual's Share, with his or their Name or Names so subscribed to and upon the same respectively, to be there registered, and another to the Treasurer of the Navy, or His Majesty's Paymaster of the Navy in London; and shall, by the Second Ship or Vessel which shall sail from the said Port or Place to any Port or Place in Great Britain, transmit in like manner to each of the before mentioned Officers one other of the said Gazettes, Newspapers or other Notifications, together with one other Notification of the Amount of an Individual's Share, marked by him, a Duplicate of the former, and shall faithfully preserve and keep the other of the said Six Gazettes, Newspapers or written Notifications, and the other Notification of the Amount of an Individual's Share, with his or their Name or Names thereon subscribed as aforesaid, in his or their Custody; and at all Ports or Places where Vice Admiralty

rality Courts with Jurisdiction in Prize Causes are or shall be constituted, at which there shall be no Collector, Comptroller or Searcher, or other Officer of the Customs, the said Gazettes, Newspapers, or other Notifications of Distribution, together with the said Notifications of the Amount of an Individual's Share, shall be delivered to and transmitted, and kept respectively in like manner by the Registrar or Deputy Registrar of such Vice Admiralty Court, and at all other Places where Prize or Bounty Money shall be distributed or payable; where there shall be no Court of Vice Admiralty, the said Gazettes, Newspapers or written Notifications of Distribution, together with the said Notifications of the Amount of an Individual's Share, shall be delivered to the principal Civil Officer of the said Place or his Deputy, for the Purpose of being transmitted and kept as aforesaid; and that in every such printed or written Notification as aforesaid, the said Person or Persons, Agent or Agents, shall insert or specify the Name or Names of the Prize or Prizes about to be distributed, and of the Ship or Ships by which the same shall have been captured, and also the precise Day of the Month and Year on which such Capture or Captures shall have been made, and also his or their Place or Places of Abode, Christian and Surname or Christian and Surnames at full Length, and the precise Day of the Month and Year appointed for the Payment of the several and respective Shares of the Prize or Prizes to the Captors; and all such Notifications with respect to Prizes condemned or to be condemned in Great Britain, or of which being condemned abroad the Distribution shall be made in Great Britain, shall be published in the London Gazette Three Days at least before any Part or Parts, Share or Proportion of any such Prize or Prizes shall be paid to any such Person or Persons entitled thereto; and all such Notifications with respect to Prizes condemned, or to be condemned, in any other Part of His Majesty's Dominions, where the Distribution shall also be made in such other Part of His Majesty's Dominions, shall be delivered to the said Collector, Comptroller or Searcher, Registrar or Deputy Registrar, or principal Civil Officer or Officers as aforesaid respectively, or such respective Deputy or Deputies, One Day at least before any Part or Parts, Share or Proportion of any such Prize or Prizes shall be paid to any Person or Persons entitled thereto, after which several and respective Notifications, if any Man's Share shall remain in the Hands of the Persons or Agents appointed as aforesaid, either belonging to such Men as shall be run from His Majesty's Service, or which shall not be legally demanded and paid within Three Months next after such Notification, then such Share or Shares so remaining in such Person's or Agent's Hands, or belonging to such Men as shall run from His Majesty's Service, shall go and be paid to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital.

XXXVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Flag Officer, or Commissioned or Warrant Officer, shall direct by any Order in Writing that his distributive Share or Balance shall not be paid over to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, or his Deputy or Deputies, the same shall for the Space of Three Years remain in the Hands of the Agent, subject to all such further Orders as such Officer may give respecting the same: Provided nevertheless, that if at the End of Three Years such Share or Balance shall not have been paid over to the Officer entitled to the same, the Agent shall pay the Share or Balance remaining in his Hands to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, or his Deputy or Deputies.

Officers may direct Shares to remain with Agents for Three Years.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Deduction shall be allowed on any Account in the Payments of unclaimed or forfeited Shares and Balances paid over to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, or his Deputy or Deputies, for any Sums not appearing upon the Prize List of Distribution to have been thereon paid and acknowledged, unless satisfactory Vouchers from the Parties entitled thereto, or their lawful Attornies, are produced for the same.

No Deduction allowed on forfeited Shares without Vouchers.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That every Agent, acting as such for any Prize in any of His Majesty's Settlements, Colonies or Plantations abroad, or in any Place out of the United Kingdom, shall make up his Accounts, and deliver up and verify the same in the Vice Admiralty Court in which such Prize shall have been condemned, in such manner as the said Court shall require, within Six Months after the Commencement of the Distribution of the Proceeds of such Prize, and shall, under the Direction of the Court, on the Application of the Deputy of the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital there resident, and in such manner as shall be specified in any Order made for that Purpose, remit all unclaimed Balances and Shares, and all Shares of Run Men, to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital in England; or pay the same over to the Deputy Treasurer for the Purpose of being remitted, at the Election of the Deputy, so as that the same, as to every Place except the East Indies, may be paid to the said Treasurer within Six Months, and as to any Place in the East Indies, within Twelve Months next after exhibiting his Accounts in such Court, in such manner as the said Court shall require, as aforesaid, on Pain of forfeiting his Bond of Five thousand Pounds.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall insert or cause to be inserted in any Order or Authority for receiving Prize or Bounty Money, after Attestation thereof as hereinbefore directed, the Name or Description of any Prize or Bounty Money, other than what shall have been originally expressed in the said Order or Authority when the same shall have been attested, the said Person shall, for every very such Offence, be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and be punished accordingly.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That all Powers and Remedies given by this Act to, or that may by Law be used or enforced, or Actions that may be brought by any Captor or Captors to compel Agents to exhibit their Accounts, and verify the same, and bring in Proceeds and enforce Distribution, or the Performance of any other Duty in his said Character as Agent, or for the Recovery of any Penalty or Penalties, may and shall be used, exercised, enforced and put in Execution on behalf of the Captors, generally, or on behalf of any individual Captor, by the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, or by the Treasurer of the Navy, in as full and ample a manner as by the Captors themselves, or any individual Captor himself.

XLV. And Whereas Petty Officers, Seamen, Marines and Soldiers, in His Majesty's Naval Service, have heretofore been, in many Instances, defrauded of their Prize and Bounty Monies, or large Proportions thereof, in consequence of their having improvidently, and without sufficient Consideration for the same, executed Powers of Attorney, and other Instruments, by which they have transferred their Interest not only in all such Prize and Bounty Money, which at the time of executing such Powers of Attorney or Instruments might have been due to them, but also all Prize and Bounty Money to which they might thereafter become entitled ;

For Remedy thereof, and for preventing a Continuance of such Frauds and Impositions, be it enacted, That all Share of Prize and Bounty Money due, or which shall become due to any Petty Officer, Seaman, Non Commissioned Officer of Marines, Marine or Soldier, or any Person rated as a Boy, or borne as a Supernumerary in His Majesty's Naval Service, shall be paid by the Agent or Agents to the Captors (if the Money shall be in his or their Possession), or the Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital for the time being, or his Deputy, and the Clerk of the Cheque of the said Royal Hospital for the time being, or his Chief Clerk (if the same shall have been paid over to the said Treasurer), to the Person entitled thereto, or to any other Person authorized to receive the same by any Order in the Form or to the Effect set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (B.), which Order shall specify the Name of the Prize or Prizes distributed or for Distribution, or give such Description thereof as shall be satisfactory to the Person or Persons in whose Possession the said Prize or Bounty Money may happen to be, and who shall be called upon to pay the same ; and if the Capture shall have been upon the Land, the Name of the Place captured, together with the Name of His Majesty's Ship or Vessel of War, on board of which the Person making the Order was serving at the time such Prize or Prizes, or Capture or Captures was or were made ; and the Person making such Order shall also procure a Certificate in the Form or to the Effect set forth in the said Schedule marked (B.), which Certificate shall contain a full Description of the Person making such Order, and shall be signed by the Captain or Commanding Officer on board, and One other signing Officer of the Ship or Vessel in which the Person making such Order shall be then serving, if there shall be more than One such signing Officer on board or belonging to such Ship or Vessel ; and if the Person making such Order shall be discharged from the Service, and shall be resident at any Port or Place at which a Deputy XLVI. And be it further enacted, That upon every Order made under the Authority of this Act, directing the Payment of Prize or Bounty Money, a Stamp Duty of One Shilling, and no more, shall be payable to His Majesty, and that no Order purporting to autho-

ze the Receipt of Shares due to more than One Person shall be deemed valid, but that the same shall be void and of no Effect.

XLVII. And Whereas Doubts have arisen, whether any Orders or Powers of Attorney heretofore made and executed under the Authority of an Act passed in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for the Encouragement of Seamen, for the better and more effectually Manning His Majesty's Navy; and for regulating the Payment of Prize Money, and for making Provisions for the Salaries of the Judges of the Vice Admiralty Court in the Island of Malta, and in the Bermuda and Bahama Islands; which Act was by the said hereinbefore recited Act of the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty, repealed or under the Authority or in pursuance of other Acts of Parliament now repealed or altered, although made and executed while the said Acts respectively remained in Force, are now valid; Be it therefore enacted, That all such Orders or Powers of Attorney, if made and executed prior to the passing of the said Act of the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty hereinbefore recited, although made and executed pursuant to the Laws in force at the time when the same were made and executed, are and shall be and are hereby declared to be null and void, and of no Effect whatever, save and except Orders or Powers of Attorney made and executed pursuant to the Laws in force at the time of their Execution, by Petty Officers and Seamen, Non Commissioned Officers and Privates of Marines, to Persons standing in the Relationship of either a Wife or Child, or Father or Mother, or Grandfather or Grandmother, or Brother or Sister, or Uncle or Aunt, or Niece or Nephew.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital for the time being, to nominate and appoint such Person or Persons, to be his Deputy or Deputies, for receiving Applications and Claims for Prize and Bounty Monies, and for other the Purposes of this Act, at such Port or Places within the United Kingdom, as he shall from time to time think necessary, whose Duty it shall be to prepare such Petitions and Applications, and transmit the same, together with the Certificates, to the Clerk of the Cheque of the said Hospital, in manner hereinafter mentioned.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons claiming any Share or Shares, or Balance or Balances, of any Prize or Bounty Monies paid into Greenwich Hospital, to apply to any such Person so to be appointed by the said Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital as aforesaid, and residing in any Part of the United Kingdom, and upon producing to him such Certificates of Service in His Majesty's Navy as such Claimant or Claimants may have in his, her or their Possession, to sign a Petition or Petitions, Application or Applications, to the Directors of the said Hospital, to be prepared by such Person or Persons in manner aforesaid, praying that such Share or Shares, Balance or Balances, may be paid or refunded to such Claimant or Claimants; which Petition or Petitions, Application or Applications, together with the said Certificates, shall be transmitted to the Clerk of the Cheque of the said Hospital, who shall report thereon the Sum or Sums due to the Claimant or Claimants, with the circumstances under which the same was or were paid into the Hospital; and, if he shall deem it necessary,

‘ LVI. And Whereas it has frequently happened, that Frauds
‘ have been practis'd upon Petty Officers and Seamen in the Navy,
‘ and on Non Commission'd Officers of Marines, and Marines, by ‘ Persons of bad Character, who have been authorized by them to ‘ receive Wages, Pay, Prize Money and Bounty Money, or Money ‘ in the nature of Bounty Money, to which they were entitled;’ Be it therefore enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any Person within the United Kingdom, to receive any Wages, Pay, Prize Money or Bounty Money, or Money in the nature of Bounty Money, due or to become due to any Petty Officer, Seaman, Non Commission'd Officer of Marines or Marine, for or on account of his Services respectively on board any of His Majesty's Ships, or in the Capture of any Fortress upon the Land, or any Arms, Ammunition, Stores of War, Goods, Merchandize or Treasure, on any Conjunct Expedition of Sea and Land Forces, under any such Orders as hereinbefore mentioned, other than Persons who shall be duly licens'd in the manner hereinafter mentioned for that Purpose: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent any such Petty Officers, Non Commission'd Officers, Seamen, Soldiers or Marines from giving such Orders to receive their Wages, Pay, Prize Money or Bounty Money to their Wives, or to the Persons in the several Degrees of Relationship following; that is to say, Parents, Children, Brothers or Sisters of such Petty Officers, Seamen, Marines and Soldiers; any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That any Person who shall falsely represent himself or herself to be within any of the Degrees of Relationship in Blood as before described, in order to enable himself or herself to receive any Prize Money or Bounty Money, or Share of Prize Money or Bounty Money due or to grow due for or on account of the Services of any such Petty Officer, Non Commission'd Officer, Seaman or Marine, under any such Order as aforesaid, or who, not being within any such Degree of Relationship, and not being licens'd as aforesaid, shall receive any Wages, Pay, Prize Money, Bounty Money or other Allowances of Money for the Use of any such Petty Officer, Non Commission'd Officer, Seaman or Marine; or if any Agent or Person whose Licence shall have been revoked as hereinafter mentioned, shall offer himself to receive, or shall receive any such Wages, Pay, Prize Money, Bounty Money or other Allowance of Money, not being within any of the Degrees of Relationship aforesaid, and be thereof duly convicted, shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Person, not being a Prize Agent, and having given Security as such, according to the Provisions of this Act, before he shall act as an Agent for receiving the Wages, Pay, Prize Money, Bounty Money or other Allowances of Money of any such Petty Officers, Non Commission'd Officers, Seamen or Marines, shall take out a Licence for that Purpose from the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy for the time being, who is hereby authorized and empowered to grant the same, on good and sufficient Security (to be approved of by the said Treasurer) being given by Bond to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in the Penalty of Three hundred Pounds, that such Person so taking out such Licence shall demean himself properly, and duly account to all Persons for whom

whom or for whose Use any such Wages, Pay, Prize Money or Bounty Money, shall have come to his Hands and for which Licence he Sum of Twenty Shillings, and no more over and above any Stamp Duties that may be due and payable thereon, shall be paid by the Person taking out the same, to the Officer of Prizes in the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy, who shall pay over the Amount thereof to the Paymaster of Incidents in the said Office, towards the incidental Expenses therein incurred; which Licence shall be in force for the Space of Three Years from the Date thereof.

Continuance of Licence.

LIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if after he taking out of any such Licence, it shall appear to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy for the time being, that any such licensed Agent hath abused the Trust reposed in him by not duly accounting to any Person or Persons by whom he shall have been empowered to receive any such Wages, Pay, Prize Money, Bounty Money or other Allowances of Money as aforesaid, for the Sum or Sums of Money by him received in that behalf, or by practising any Fraud or Imposition on any such Person or Persons, then and in that case it shall and may be lawful for the said Treasurer, by any Writing under his Hand to be delivered to such Licensed Agent, or left at his last or most usual Place of Abode, or Place where his Business of Agency shall be carried on, to revoke the Licence so to be granted or taken out as aforesaid; which Revocation, if such Agent's Place of transacting Agency Business shall be in London, or within the Bills of Mortality, shall be published in the London Gazette, and if in the Country or out of the said Bills of Mortality, also in some Public Newspaper in Circulation at or near to the Place where such Agent shall transact his Business of Agency, for the Information of all Persons interested in Wages or Prize Money; and thenceforth the Power and Authority of such Agent to demand and receive Wages, Pay, Prize Money, Bounty Money, and other Allowances of Money due or to grow due on Account of the Services of any such Petty Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, Seamen or Marines, shall absolutely cease and determine.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Expences incurred in executing this Act, and the Sums paid in remunerating the Officers of the Navy Office, Navy Pay Office or of Greenwich Hoſpital, for their Care, Pains and Trouble in executing the Regulations thereof, ſhall be ſubject to the Diſcretion of the Commiſſioners of the Navy, as far the ſame relate to Officers of or Perſons employed in the Navy Office, or otherwiſe under the Orders of ſuch Commiſſioners, of the Treasurer of the Navy, as far as the ſame relate to Officers of or Perſons employed in the Navy Pay Office, and of the Board of Directors of the ſaid Hoſpital, as to all Officers and Perſons employed or belonging to Greenwich Hoſpital, and ſhall be paid by the ſaid Board of Directors out of the Interest of unclaimed Shares, and Shares of Run Men, inveſted in Government Securities, or if neceſſary, out of the Principal Sums in the Hands of the Treasurer of the ſaid Hoſpital, on Account of ſuch Shares of Run Men, the Accounts of ſuch Re-

munerations and Expenditures being annually returned to Parliament ; and the Commissioners of the Navy, and the Treasurer of the Navy respectively, shall Quarterly cause an Account to be sent of the Amount of such Expences to the said Board of Directors of the said Royal Hospital, who shall immediately cause the same to be paid to the Order of the said Commissioners and Treasurer respectively.

LXVII. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all Fees heretofore paid by the said Royal Hospital at the Navy Office, for tracing the Services of Persons claiming Shares of Prize or Bounty Money, shall cease, and be no longer due or payable.

No Fees paid for tracing Services of Persons claiming Shares, &c.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Person employed by Greenwich Hospital in executing the Regulations of this Act, shall act as an Agent for Prizes, or be concerned directly or indirectly in the Business thereof, under the Penalty of Five hundred Pounds.

No Person employed by G. H. to act as Prize Agent. Penalty.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall falsely make Oath to any of the Matters hereinbefore required to be verified on Oath, or suborn any other Person so to do, such Person or Persons shall suffer the like Pains and Penalties as are incurred by Persons committing wilful and corrupt Perjury ; and that if any Person or Persons shall counterfeit, erase, alter or falsify any Commission for War or Letter of Marque, or any Warrant for making out the same, or any Certificate required or directed by this Act to be given for obtaining the same, or shall publish or make use of any such Commission for War, or Warrant for making out the same, or any Certificate as aforesaid, knowing the same to be counterfeited, erased, altered or falsified, such Person or Persons shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

said Royal Hospital for the time being, is hereby authorized to administer, an Account of all Monies which may have been received by such Person or Persons upon Orders executed since the passing of this Act; and in case the same, or any Part thereof, shall have been paid over, then to whom the same, or any Part thereof, has been so paid over as aforesaid, and shall at the same time pay or remit to the Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, as may be required by such Precept, such Part of the said Monies as shall remain in his or their Hands unpaid, to the Parties beneficially entitled to it, or to their Use; and in case such Monies shall not be paid over or remitted to the said Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer within the time limited by this Act, the same shall be recoverable from the Person detaining the same, by Action for Money had and received, or otherwise, in the Name of the Commissioners and Governors of the said Royal Hospital, and the same, when so paid in or recovered, shall be for the Use of the Parties beneficially entitled thereto, and be otherwise applied as forfeited and unclaimed Shares of Prize and Bounty Monies are by this Act directed to be applied; and in case any such Person or Persons upon whom any such Precept shall be served as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to deliver or transmit such Account within the time hereby limited, he or they shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay to the Use of the said Royal Hospital the Sum of Twenty Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt, to be brought in the Name of the said Commissioners and Governors of the said Royal Hospital, in either of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, unless sufficient Cause shall be shewn to the Satisfaction of the Board of Directors of the said Royal Hospital, why such Precepts have not been complied with.

Penalty.

LXXV. And be it further enacted, That in case any such Person or Persons as aforesaid, upon whom any such Precept or Precepts as aforesaid shall have been served, shall neglect or refuse to pay Obedience thereto, and shall in consequence thereof pay the Penalty incurred by such Disobedience, it shall nevertheless be lawful for the said Treasurer and Clerk of the Cheque of the said Royal Hospital, and they are hereby empowered to repeat such Precept or Precepts until the Accounts thereby required shall have been duly rendered and delivered; and such Person or Persons shall be, and is and are hereby declared to be liable to a separate Penalty of Twenty Pounds, for every Precept to be served upon him or them, to which due Obedience shall not be paid, to be recovered in manner aforesaid.

Precepts on Persons repeated, &c.

Penalty.

LXXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Registrars of the High Court of Appeals and High Court of Admiralty respectively, shall, on the Twenty sixth Day of March, the Twenty fifth Day of June, the Thirtieth Day of September and the Twenty sixth Day of December in every Year, transmit to the Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital, or his Deputy, and to the Treasurer of the Navy, a List of all the Prizes which shall have been adjudged in their Courts respectively, in the Three Months preceding, together with the Names of the capturing Ships and their Commanders, and of the Agents for the Captors, and the Dates of the Captures and Sentences respectively.

Registrars of Courts of Appeal and Admiralty to transmit Lists to Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital.

or so soon after each of such Quarter Days respectively as any Ship shall sail for England, transmit to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Treasurer of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, a List of all the Prizes which have been adjudged in their Courts respectively during the preceding Quarter of a Year, together with the Dates of the several Captures, as far as the same may appear, the Names of the capturing Ships and their Commanders, the Agents of the Captors, a Copy of the decretal Part of the Sentences upon the same; and at the same time deliver, or cause to be delivered, a Duplicate of the same to the Deputy of the said Treasurer, resident at the Place where such Courts of Vice Admiralty are or shall be established, or to which their Jurisdiction shall extend; which Lists so to be transmitted to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, shall be hung up for public Inspection in the Registry at Doctors' Commons, together with similar Lists of the Prizes adjudged in the High Court of Admiralty, and in the Court of Appeal; and in case any such Registrar of any Vice Admiralty Court shall neglect or refuse to transmit such Lists, or to deliver Duplicates thereof, at the times and in the manner aforesaid, every Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

LXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where the Registrar of any Vice Admiralty Court shall have neglected to make the Returns of Prizes proceeded against in the respective Courts as required by Law, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay a like Sum of Fifty Pounds, unless the Returns shall be transmitted in manner above required within Eighteen Months, so far as the same relate to the East Indies, and within Nine Months from every other Vice Admiralty Court in His Majesty's Foreign Dominions.

LXXIX. And Whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for the speedy and effectual Examination of all Accounts relating to Prizes taken by His Majesty's Ships, in order to insure the full Value thereof being duly accounted for to the Captors; Be it enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Treasurer of the Navy to appoint a Person duly qualified to examine all such Accounts, and that every Prize Agent and every Person who shall be authorized and empowered to receive and distribute any Bounty Monies or other Monies for the Use or Benefit of the Officers and Crews of any of His Majesty's Ships of War, by reason of any Capture or Seizure made by them, subject to the Provisions of this Act, shall, before he shall exhibit his Account of Sales in the High Court of Admiralty, transmit a Copy thereof to the Treasurer of the Navy, in order to the same being submitted to the immediate Examination of the Officer so to be appointed by him.

LXXX. And be it further enacted, That when the Person so to be appointed shall have carefully examined the Accounts of any Prize Agent or other Person so transmitted to him and shall be satisfied therewith, he shall give to such Agent or other Person Two Certificates signed by himself, setting forth the Names of the Prize and of the capturing Ship or Ships, and the Amount of the Nett Proceeds for Distribution, One of which Certificates such Agent or other Person shall transmit to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, together with a Copy of his Accounts and Vouchers exhibited in the High Court of Admiralty.

LXXXI. And

LXXXI. And be it further enacted, That when such Agent or other Person shall deliver his Accounts for Examination as aforesaid, he shall at the same time deliver a Scheme for the Distribution of the Nett Proceeds to the Captors of the Prize in question, according to the following Forms:

Money received for such Examination rendered.

LXXXIV. And be it further enacted, That an attested Account shall be annually rendered to the Treasurer of the Navy and Treasurer of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, by such Examiner of Prize Accounts of all Sums of Money received as Allowance or Payment for Examination as aforesaid, and that out of the same shall be paid all Charges incurred in carrying into Effect the Provisions of this Act with respect to the examining of Prize Accounts, together with such Remuneration for the Examiner of the said Accounts as shall by the Treasurer of the Navy be thought reasonable; and whatever Balance shall remain after satisfying such Charges as aforesaid, the same shall be paid to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital.

Account laid annually before Parliament.

LXXXV. And be it further enacted, That there shall be laid annually before both Houses of Parliament within Fourteen Days after their First Meeting, by the Treasurer of the Navy, an Account of the Charges and Remunerations allowed and paid as aforesaid.

Offences against Act tried in any County of England.

LXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That where the Offence of taking a false Oath, or suborning any Person so to do, or any of the Offences by this Act made cognizable in any of His Majesty's Courts

Courts of Record in Great Britain, shall be committed out of this Realm, the same may be alleged to be committed, and may be laid, enquired of, tried and determined in any County in England, in the same manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been actually done or committed within the Body of such County.

LXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, wheresoever the same shall arise or become forfeited, may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Great Britain, or Motion and Attachment thereon, in His Majesty's High Court of Admiralty, unless in cases where any other Mode is by this Act particularly directed; and all Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, which shall arise or become forfeited in any Part of His Majesty's Dominions abroad, may be recovered in any Court of Record of His Majesty in the Colony, Territory or Place where the same shall arise or have become forfeited, or in any of His Majesty's Vice Admiralty Courts having Jurisdiction there.

Penalties, &c.
how recovered.

LXXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases in which any Agent or Person is by this Act made subject to the Forfeiture of any Sum of Money equal to any Money remaining in his Hands, or to the Amount of any Balances or Shares, such Sum or Sums of Money shall, on Recovery thereof, go and be applied to the Use of the Person or Persons who shall have been aggrieved by the Misconduct of such Agent or Person, and all pecuniary Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act imposed, other than as aforesaid, and other than such as are by this Act directed to be otherwise applied and disposed of, shall go and be applied to the Use of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, and shall be sued for in the Name of the Commissioners and Governors thereof.

Application of Penalties.

LXXXIX. And Whereas by a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the Thirty first Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for the Encouragement o Seamen employed in the Royal Navy; and for establishing a regular Method for the punctual, frequent and certain Payment of their Wages; and for enabling them more easily and readily to remit the same for the Support of their Wives and Families, and preventing Frauds and Abuses attending such Payments, after reciting that divers wicked Practices had been carried on, by personating and falsely assuming the Names and Characters of Officers, Seamen and others entitled or supposed to be entitled to Wages, Pay or other Allowances of Money, or Prize Money, for serving on board of Ships or Vessels of the Royal Navy, and by forging and counterfeiting Letters of Attorney, Bills, Tickets, Assignments, last Wills, and other Authorities and Powers from such Officers and Seamen, and by falsely taking out Probate of Wills and Letters of Administration to such Officers and Seamen; it is enacted, That, from and after the First Day of November which was in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and fifty eight, whosoever willingly and knowingly should personate, or falsely assume the Name or Character of, or procure any other Person to personate or falsely to assume the Name or Character of any Officer, Seamen or other Person entitled, or supposed to be entitled, to any Wages, Pay or other Allowances of Money, or Prize Money, for Service done on board of any Ship or Vessel of His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or the Executor or Administrator, Wife, Relation or Creditor, of any such Officer or Seaman or other Person, in order to receive any Wages, Pay or other Allowances of Money, or Prize Money, due or supposed to be due or payable, for or on account of the Services of any such Officer or Seaman, or other Person as aforesaid, or shall forge or counterfeit, or procure to be forged or counterfeited, any Letter of Attorney, Bill, Ticket, Certificate, Order, Assignment, last Will, or any other Power or Authority whatsoever, in order to receive any such Wages, Pay or other Allowances of Money, or Prize Money, which shall be due or supposed to be due, to any such Officer or Seaman, or other Person as aforesaid, or shall willingly and knowingly take a false Oath, or procure any other Person to take a false Oath, to obtain the Probate of any Will or Wills, or to obtain Letters of Administration, in order to receive the Payment of any Wages, Pay or other Allowances of Money or Prize Money, which shall be due, or be supposed to be due to any such Officer, Seaman, or other Person as aforesaid, who shall have really served, or shall be supposed to have served on board of any Ship or Vessel of His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors; or if any Person shall, from and after the passing of this Act, utter or publish as true any false, forged or counterfeited Letter of Attorney, Bill, Ticket, Certificate, Order or Assignment, last Will, or any other Power or Authority whatsoever, in order to receive any Wages, Pay or other Allowances of Money, or Prize Money, due or supposed to be due to any Officer or Seaman, or other Person who shall have really served, or shall be supposed to have served, or shall hereafter serve, or be supposed to have served on board of any Ship or Vessel of His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, with Intent to defraud any Corporation whatsoever, knowing the same to be false, forged or counterfeited, every such Person, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon, without Benefit of Clergy.

XC. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Action shall be brought against any Person or Persons whomsoever, for any Matter or Thing whatsoever, done or committed under or by virtue or in the Execution of this Act, unless such Action shall be brought within Three Years next after doing or committing of such Matter or Thing, save as to Matters or Things arising out of Captures in any former War: Provided also, that if any Action or Suit shall be hereafter commenced or prosecuted against any Person or Persons for any Matter or Thing done under or by virtue or in the Execution of this Act, such Person or Persons may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, or suffer Discontinuance, or forbear further Prosecution, or if Judgment shall be given for the Defendant or Defendants, such Defendant or Defendants shall recover Treble Costs, for which he, she or they shall have the like Remedy as where Costs by Law are given to Defendants.

An Act to grant additional Annuities to Judges of the Courts of Session, Justiciary and Exchequer, in Scotland, who had resigned their Offices before the last Augmentation of Salaries granted to the Judges of those Courts. [18th July 1814.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for enabling His Majesty to grant Annuities to the Judges of the Court of Session, Justiciary and Exchequer, in Scotland, upon the Resignation of their Offices, it is enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by His Majesty's Sign Manual, to give and grant unto any Person who shall have executed the Office of Lord President of the said Court of Session, or of the Lord Justice Clerk, or of the Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, or of any Judge or Lord of Session, or of any Lord Commissioner of Justiciary, or of a Baron of the said Court of Exchequer, as well before as after the passing of the said recited Act, and who shall have respectively resigned any such Office, an Annuity or yearly Sum not exceeding Three Fourth Parts of the Salary appertaining to each such Office at the Resignation thereof, to commence and be paid in manner therein mentioned: And Whereas by another Act passed in the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for augmenting the Salaries of the Lords of Session, Lords Commissioners of Justiciary and Barons of Exchequer in Scotland, and Judges in Ireland, certain Augmentations were made to the Salaries of the said Judges respectively: And Whereas certain of the Judges of the said Courts who resigned their Offices after the passing of the said first recited Act, and before the passing of the said last recited Act, have received Grants of Annuities of less Amount than those Judges of the same Courts who have resigned or may resign their Offices since the passing of the said last recited Act, and it is reasonable and expedient that the Judges who had resigned their Offices before the passing of the said last recited Act should be entitled to similar Annuities from and after the passing of this Act, as if they had resigned the same after the passing of the said Act of the Fiftieth Year of His present Majesty: May it therefore please Your Majesty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual

An Act to amend an Act, passed in the Fifth Year of Queen Elizabeth, intituled An Act containing divers Orders for Artificers, Labourers, Servants of Husbandry and Apprentices.

5 Eliz. c. 4. § 31.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Elizabeth, intituled An Act containing divers Orders for Artificers, Labourers, Servants of Husbandry and Apprentices, it was enacted, That, from and after the First Day of May then next coming, it should not be lawful to any Person or Persons, other than such as did then lawfully use or exercise any Art, Mystery or Manual Occupation, to set up, occupy, use or exercise any Craft, Mystery or Occupation then used or occupied within the Realm of England or Wales, except he shall have been brought up therein Seven Years at least as an Apprentice; nor to set any Person on Work in such Mystery, Art or Occupation, being not a Workman at that Day, except he shall have been Apprentice as aforesaid, or else having served as an Apprentice as aforesaid, shall become a Journeyman, or hired by the Year, upon Pain that every Person willingly offending, or doing the contrary, shall forfeit and lose for every Default Forty Shillings for every Month: And Whereas it is expedient that so much of the said Act should be repealed; Be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said recited Act shall be and the same is hereby repealed, and declared to be null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

‘ VII. And Whereas by a Clause in an Act made in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty’s Reign, intituled An Act for granting to His Majesty certain additional Duties of Excise in Great Britain, it is declared and enacted, That each and every Person who shall make or manufacture any Sort or Kind of Glafs or Glafs Wares, by melting any Metal, Materials, Cullet, or old or broken Glafs, in any Pot, Crucible or other Utenfil, shall be deemed and taken to be a Maker of Glafs, and shall be subject to all and every the Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Penalties, to which Makers of Glafs were then by Law subject and liable : And Whereas divers Persons, who are not under the Survey of the Officers of Excise, make or manufacture Glafs Wares by melting or softening Glafs, otherwise than in any Pot, Crucible or other Utenfil, to the Detriment of the Revenue and Injury of the entered Manufacturers of Glafs, and Doubts have arisen whether such Persons are liable to the Survey of the Officers of Excise ;’ For Remedy whereof, be it declared and enacted, That each and every Person who shall make or manufacture any Kind or Sort of Glafs by means of the melting or softening of any Glafs, or who shall melt or soften any Glafs, in any manner whatsoever, for the Purpose of making or converting the same into any Vessel, Utenfil, Ware or Piece of Household Furniture, or Part of any Vessel, Utenfil, Ware or Piece of Household Furniture, shall be deemed and taken to be a Maker of Glafs, and shall be subject to all and every the Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Penalties, to which Makers of Glafs are now by Law subject and liable ; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall assault, resist, oppose, molest, obstruct or hinder any Officer or Officers of Excise in the due Execution of this Act, or of any of the Powers or Authorities hereby given or granted to any such Officer or Officers, or shall by Force or Violence, after any such Officer or Officers shall have seized any Common Glafs Bottles, or other Bottles, as or for Common Glafs Bottles, forfeited under or by virtue of this Act, rescue, or cause to be rescued, or shall break, damage or destroy any such Bottles, or shall attempt or endeavour so to do, all and every such Person or Persons so offending shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, shall be sued for, recovered, levied or mitigated by such ways, means or methods, as any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture may be sued for, recovered, levied or mitigated by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of His Majesty’s Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland respectively, and that One Moiety

Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture shall be to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall inform, discover or sue for the same.

X. And be it further enacted, That all Monies from time to time arising from the Duty by this Act imposed, the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same respectively excepted, shall from time to time be paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, and be made Part of the Fund called The Consolidated Fund.

Application of Duties.

XI. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Powers, Directions, Rules, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things, which, in and by an Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled An Act for taking away the Court of Wards, and Liveries and Tenures in Capite, and by Knight's Service, and Purveyance, and for settling a Revenue upon His Majesty, in lieu thereof, or by any other Law now in force relating to His Majesty's Revenue of Excise upon imported Liquors, are provided and established for managing, raising, levying, collecting, mitigating or recovering, adjudging or ascertaining the Duties thereby granted, or any of them (other than in such cases for which other Penalties or Provisions are made and prescribed by this Act) shall be practised, used and put in Execution, in and for the managing, raising, levying, collecting, mitigating, recovering and paying the said Duty hereby granted upon Common Glass Bottles, as fully and effectually as if all and every the said Powers, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things were particularly repeated and re-enacted in this present Act.

Powers of former Acts extended to Act.

Saturday which shall happen next after the First Wednesday in May, the First Wednesday in August, the First Wednesday in November One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and the First Wednesday in January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, it shall appear that the Average Price of such Sugar, ascertained and taken in manner prescribed by Law in Great Britain, shall be at any of the Average Prices stated in the Schedule to this Act annexed, exclusive of the Duties paid or payable on the Importation thereof; then and in every such case the Drawback or Bounty in the Schedule to this Act annexed, mentioned as corresponding to or with the Price of which such Notice in the London and Dublin Gazettes shall have been

An Act for the more effectual Prevention of Child Stealing.

‘ WHEREAS the Practice of carrying away young Children, by forcible or fraudulent means, from their Parents or other Persons having the Care and Charge or Custody of them, commonly called Child Stealing, has of late much prevailed and increased: And Whereas no adequate Punishment is as yet provided by Law in England or Ireland for so heinous an Offence; Be it therefore enacted by The King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons, from and after the passing of this Act, shall maliciously, either by Force or Fraud, lead, take or carry away, or decoy or entice away, any Child under the Age of Ten Years, with Intent to deprive its Parent or Parents, or any other Person having the lawful Care or Charge of such Child of the Possession of such Child, by concealing and detaining such Child from such Parent or Parents, or other Person or Persons having the lawful Care or Charge of it; or with Intent to steal any Article of Apparel or Ornament, or other Thing of Value or Use, upon or about the Person of such Child, to whomsoever such Article may belong; or shall receive and harbour with any such Intent as aforesaid any such Child, knowing the same to have been so by Force or Fraud led, taken or carried, or decoyed or enticed away as aforesaid; every such Person or Persons, and his, her and their Counsellors, Procurors, Aiders and Abettors, shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and shall be subject and liable to all such Pains, Penalties, Punishments and Forfeitures, as by the Laws now in force may be inflicted upon, or are incurred by Persons convicted of Grand Larceny.

Persons offending against Act, subject to Penalties usually inflicted on Persons guilty of Grand Larceny.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Person who shall have claimed to be the Father of an illegitimate Child, or to have any Right or Title in Law to the Possession of such Child, on account of his getting Possession of such Child, or taking such Child out of the Possession of the Mother thereof, or other Person or Persons having the lawful Charge thereof.

Not to affect Fathers of illegitimate Children.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That this Act shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

Not to extend to Scotland.

 and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, have therefore given and granted to Your Majesty the several Duties of Customs herein after mentioned ; and do humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted ; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by

by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and during the Continuance of this Act, there shall be granted, raised, levied, collected and paid unto His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon Goods, Wares and Merchandize imported or brought into Ireland from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, the several Duties of Customs as the same are respectively inserted, described and set forth in Figures in the Tables hereunto annexed, marked (A.) and (B.), and there shall also be paid or allowed the several Drawbacks of the said Duties of Customs, as the same are also respectively inserted, described and set forth in Figures in the said Tables hereunto annexed, marked (B.); and that the said Duties and Drawbacks shall be in lieu of all former Duties and Drawbacks upon such Goods, Wares and Merchandizes so imported under or by virtue of any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, immediately before the passing of this Act, except only such Duties as shall be applicable or appropriated to any local Purposes by any Act or Acts by which the same are imposed respectively.

Duties and Drawbacks specified in Tables annexed, levied and paid.

II. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall happen that any of the Duties of Customs or Excise in Great Britain, granted or made payable by any Act in force in Great Britain, at the time of the passing of this Act, upon any Articles on which any Duty is imposed by this Act, or the Schedule hereto annexed, or any Part of such Duties in Great Britain, shall cease or determine, or be repealed, or be or become no longer payable in Great Britain, Provision shall be made that so much of the Duties of Customs granted by this Act, and made payable in Ireland, as shall be equal to the Duties which shall so cease or determine, or be repealed as aforesaid, in Great Britain, shall in like manner cease or determine, or be repealed, and shall not be payable in Ireland, at any time after the time when such Duties of Customs or Excise shall cease or determine, or be repealed, or be or become no longer payable in Great Britain, and the Duties of Customs made payable by this Act shall be reduced accordingly: Provided always, that no such Reduction shall take place on any Article mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed, which shall not under this Act pay a Duty in Ireland, equal in Amount to the Duty of Customs and Excise payable on the like Article in Great Britain.

When any Duties shall cease to be payable in G. B. Provision made, that same Duties shall cease to be payable in Ireland.

Provide.

III. And Whereas it is expedient that Goods, Wares and Merchandize legally imported into that Part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, should be allowed to be imported into Ireland directly from Great Britain; Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, any such Goods, Wares or Merchandize, so imported as aforesaid into Great Britain, shall and may be imported directly from thence into any of those Ports in Ireland which shall have been or may be declared fit and proper for the safe Custody of such Goods; and all such Goods, Wares and Merchandize so imported into Ireland, shall be subject and liable to such and the like Duties on Importation, and entitled to such and the like Drawbacks on Exportation, as the like Articles would be subject and Goods imported into G. B. imported from thence into Ireland.

and liable to if imported directly into Ireland, from some Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United East India Company; and all such Goods, Wares and Merchandize shall in every other respect be subject and liable to the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Limitations and Conditions, and the same Penalties and Forfeitures, and shall and may be warehoused under the same Regulations, Securities and Conditions, as such Goods, Wares or Merchandize would be subject and liable or entitled to if the same had been imported into Ireland, directly from some Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United East India Company, except so far only as is otherwise directed by this Act.

Duties payable in British Currency, Consolidated Fund.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the several Duties of Customs by this Act imposed, and the Drawbacks and Bounties allowed by this Act, shall be paid and payable, and received and receivable, and recovered and recoverable, according to the Amount thereof, in British Currency; and that all and every the Duties by this Act imposed shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland.

Duties according to Weight and Quantity, &c. of Goods.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Duties granted and imposed by this Act, and made payable according to the Weight, Tale, Gauge, Measure or Value of any Goods, Wares or Merchandize charged with such Duties, shall be charged and payable upon any greater or less Weight, Number, Quantity or Value thereof, than the Weight, Number, Quantity or Value particularly inserted, described and set forth in the Tables hereunto annexed, marked (A.) and (B.), in proportion to the actual Weight, Number, Quantity or Value of such Goods, Wares or Merchandize.

Goods secured in approved Warehouses may afterwards be exported on Payment of Warehousing Duties.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Proprietor or Proprietors, Purchaser or Purchasers of any Goods, Wares or Merchandize, which having been imported from some Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and secured in approved Warehouses, and on which Goods the Duties imposed by this Act, under the Description of Warehousing Duties, as the same are respectively described and set forth in Figures in the Table hereunto annexed, marked (A.), shall have been paid or secured, to export the same directly from any such Warehouse without Payment of any further Duty of Customs or Excise whatever; subject nevertheless to all and every the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Securities directed and required by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Ireland, on or immediately before the passing of this Act, as far as the same are applicable.

When Goods intended to be taken out of Warehouse for Home Consumption, Entry shall be made with proper Officer, and Duty paid.

VII. And be it further enacted, That in case the Proprietor or Proprietors, Purchaser or Purchasers of any such Goods, Wares or Merchandize imported as aforesaid (not being prohibited to be used or consumed in Ireland), on which the Duties imposed by this Act, under the Description of Warehousing Duties, shall have been paid, shall intend to take the same out of the Warehouse wherein the same shall have been lodged as aforesaid, in order to be used or consumed in Ireland, the Person or Persons so intending to take out any such Goods shall, before the same shall be so delivered from any such Warehouse, make a due Entry of such Goods, Wares or Merchandize with the proper Officers of His Majesty's Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, and pay down in ready Money to the Collector or other proper proper Officer or Officers of the said Customs, the full Duties due and payable on such Goods, as the same are respectively described and set forth in Figures in the Table hereunto annexed, marked (B.), under the Description of Home Consumption Duties, together with such Duties of Excise and other Duties as may be due and payable on such Goods, Wares or Merchandize, at the time the same shall be taken out of such Warehouse, in order to be used or consumed in Ireland.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case any Goods, Wares or Merchandize, contained and specified in the Tables to this Act annexed, and which shall have been imported into Great Britain from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, shall at any time after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and during the Continuance of this Act, be imported into Ireland from Great Britain, it shall and may be lawful for the Importer of such Goods, Wares and Merchandize to import such Goods, Wares and Merchandize into Ireland, upon Payment of the Duties mentioned and expressed in the Table (B.) to this Act annexed, without warehousing such Goods, Wares or Merchandize, and without the same being subject to the Duties mentioned in Table (A.) to this Act annexed: Provided always, that if any such Goods, Wares or Merchandize shall be imported into Ireland, and shall be secured in Warehouses, that then such Goods, Wares and Merchandize shall be subject and liable to the Duties mentioned, specified and contained in the said Table (A.)

Goods imported into Ireland from G. B. to pay Duties expressed in Table B. if not warehoused; but if warehoused, Goods liable to Duties mentioned in Table A.

IX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the several Drawbacks to be paid or allowed on the Exportation from Ireland of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandize, as the same are respectively described and set forth in Figures in the Table hereunto annexed, marked (B.), shall not be paid or allowed, unless such Goods shall be exported or shipped for the Purpose of Exportation within Twelve Calendar Months from the Day on which the Home Consumption Duty shall have been paid thereon.

In what case Drawbacks in Table B. not allowed.

X. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to repeal or alter any of the Provisions contained in Two Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, the one made in the Parliament of Great Britain in the Thirty ninth and Fortieth Years of His present Majesty's Reign, and the other made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fortieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or any other Act or Acts in force on or immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, by which any Goods, Wares or Merchandize imported into Ireland from Great Britain, or any Goods, Wares or Merchandize exported from Ireland to Great Britain (other than and except such Goods, Wares and Merchandize as shall have been imported into Great Britain from any Places within the Limits of the Charter of the said East India Company), are made to remain liable to or are charged with or exempted from any Duties of Customs, whether Countervailing or other, or by which any Drawback or Bounties are allowed or given, in respect of any such Goods, Wares or Merchandize.

Proviso for 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 67.

40 G. 3. (1.) c. 38. &c.

XI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to alter or Proviso for former Acts relating to Duties of Excise.

or repeal any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, by which Duties of Excise are imposed on any Article imported or brought into or used or consumed in Ireland, or by which any Securities, Rules, Regulations or Restrictions, are made or provided for the securing any of the Duties of Excise; but that the same shall remain in full Force and Effect, as if this Act had not been made.

Goods not imported or exported contrary to former Acts, except where otherwise provided.

XII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to permit or allow any Goods, Wares or Merchandize whatsoever to be imported into or exported from Ireland, in any way or manner contrary to any Act or Acts of Parliament in force within Ireland, on or immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, except in any case where Provision is expressly made for that Purpose by this Act, or by the before recited Act passed in the last Session of Parliament.

Acts for securing Revenue, &c. to extend to Act.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That every Act of Parliament in force in Ireland, on or immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, by which any Rules, Regulations, Conditions or Restrictions were made, established or directed, for the remitting or allowing of any Deduction of any Duties on account of Damage, or for the better securing the Revenue of Customs, or for the regular Importation into or Exportation from Ireland, or the bringing or carrying Coastwise, or from any Port to Port within Ireland, or the entering, landing or shipping of any Goods, Wares or Merchandize whatever, except where any Alteration is expressly made by this Act; and all Provisions, Clauses, Matters and Things relating thereto shall and are hereby declared to be and remain in full Force and Effect, and shall be applied to the subject of this Act, and for carrying the same into Execution, as fully and effectually as if they had been repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

Duty on Sugar regulated by Average Prices of Brown or Muscovado Sugar.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That whenever in the Publication of the Dublin Gazette, containing Notice of the Average Price of Brown or Muscovado Sugar for the Four Months preceding the First Wednesday in January, or preceding the First Wednesday in May, or preceding the First Wednesday in September, in every Year, as ascertained and taken in manner prescribed by Law in Great Britain, and inserted in the London Gazette, it shall appear that the Average Price of such Sugar so ascertained and taken for the preceding Four Months in England, shall exceed Sixty Shillings the Hundred Weight, then and in such case One Shilling in the Hundred Weight, Part of the Duty on East India Sugar, imposed by Table (B.) annexed to this Act, shall be suspended until a Notice of a new Average Price shall be published in manner aforesaid; and if such Average Price shall exceed the Sum of Sixty one Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Two Shillings in the Hundred Weight, Part of the said Duty, shall be suspended, and in like manner, if such Average Price shall exceed Sixty two Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Three Shillings in the Hundred Weight of the said Duty shall be suspended; if such Average Price shall exceed Sixty three Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Four Shillings in the Hundred Weight of the said Duty shall be suspended; if such

Average

Average Price shall exceed Sixty four Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Five Shillings in the Hundred Weight of the said Duty shall be suspended; if such Average Price shall exceed Sixty five Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Six Shillings in the Hundred Weight of the said Duty shall be suspended; if such Average Price shall exceed Sixty six Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Seven Shillings in the Hundred Weight of the said Duty shall be suspended; if such Average Price shall exceed Sixty seven Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Eight Shillings in the Hundred Weight of the said Duty shall be suspended; if such Average Price shall exceed Sixty eight Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Nine Shillings in the Hundred Weight of the said Duty shall be suspended; and if such Average Price shall exceed Sixty nine Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Ten Shillings in the Hundred Weight, Part of the said Duty, shall be suspended.

XV. And be it further enacted, That whenever at any time during the Continuance of the additional Duty of Twenty five Pounds per Cent. imposed by this Act, the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury in Ireland shall be authorized under and by virtue of an Act made in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for granting to His Majesty until the Twenty ninth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and six, certain Duties on the Importation, and to allow certain Drawbacks and Bounties on the Exportation of certain Sorts of Iron, Sugar and Tea, into and from Ireland, to suspend the Payment of One, Two or Three Shillings, Part of the Duty on Brown or Muscovado Sugar, in the manner and according to the Proportions in the said Act mentioned, it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury, and they are hereby required in like manner and in like Proportions to suspend the Payment of One Shilling, Two Shillings or Three Shillings on every Hundred Weight of East India Sugar imported into Ireland, Part of the said Duty of Twenty five Pounds per Cent. additional on such Sugar under this Act.

Treasury may suspend Payment of certain Proportions of Duty on Sugar. 46 G. 3. c. 62. § 6.

XVI. And Whereas certain Bounties are allowed on the Exportation of Refined Sugar produced from Raw Sugar imported from the British Plantations in America: And Whereas it is expedient that the like Bounties should be allowed on the Exportation from Ireland of Refined Sugar produced from Sugar imported by the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or by Persons authorized to trade within the Limits of the Charter granted to the said United Company; Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, there shall be paid and allowed on the Exportation from Ireland of any Refined Sugar, the Manufacture of any Part of the United Kingdom, produced from Sugar imported from any Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, the like Bounty as is now or hereafter may be allowed by Law on the Exportation from Ireland of the like Sort or Description of Refined Sugar produced from Raw Sugar, imported from the British Plantations in America, subject in every respect to the Conditions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, now by Law practised and applied with respect to the Bounty allowed on the Exportation of Refined Sugar.

Bounty allowed on Exportation of Refined Sugar produced from Sugar imported from East Indies.

Drawback allowed on Exportation of Sugar that has paid Duty.

How Value of Goods ascertained, where Duties are charged on Value.

46 G. 3. c. 87.

45 G. 3. c. 18.

Goods imported secured in Warehouses approved by Commissioners of Customs.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That on the due Exportation from Ireland of any Sugar, on which the Home Consumption Duty imposed by this Act shall have been paid, the Exporter or Exporters thereof shall be entitled to such and the like Drawbacks, as shall be allowed at the time of such Exportation on Brown or Muscovado Sugar of the Produce of the British Plantations exported from Ireland: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend, to impose any Duty on such Sugar, when taken out of the Warehouse for Exportation only.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where the Duties of Customs imposed by this Act on the Goods, Wares or Merchandize, enumerated and described in the Tables hereunto annexed, marked (A.) and (B.) are charged not according to the Weight, Tale, Gauge or Measure, but according to the Value thereof, the Value of such Goods, Wares or Merchandize respectively, which shall be imported into any Port of Ireland, from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the said United East India Company, shall be ascertained according to the Declaration of the Value thereof, in like Manner and Form, and under the like Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Conditions, and such Goods, Wares and Merchandize shall be subject and liable to such and the like Forfeitures and Penalties as are prescribed, directed and imposed, for ascertaining and collecting Duties to be paid according to the Value by an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act more effectually to regulate the Collection of the Duties on Goods, Wares and Merchandize, imported or exported into or from Ireland, and the Payment of Bounties, Allowances and Drawbacks thereon, and by an Act or Acts in force on or immediately before the passing of this Act, so far as the same are applicable thereto; and that the Value of all such Goods, Wares and Merchandize, imported into Ireland from Great Britain, and the Price of all Teas so imported, shall be ascertained in like Manner and Form, and under the like Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Conditions, as are mentioned and contained in an Act made in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for granting to His Majesty, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and six, certain Rates and Duties, and to allow certain Drawbacks and Bounties upon Goods, Wares and Merchandize, imported into and exported from Ireland, in lieu of former Rates and Duties, Drawbacks and Bounties, so far as relates to the better ascertaining the Prices of Teas, and the Value of Goods, Wares and Merchandize so imported into Ireland, from Great Britain, and which had been imported into Great Britain by the said United East India Company.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That all Goods, Wares and Merchandize imported from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the said United East India Company, into any of the Ports in Ireland, which shall have been or may be declared fit and proper for the Purpose of such Importation under the Rules, Regulations and Provisions of the before recited Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, either by the said United Company or by any Person or Persons so trading under the Authority of the before recited Act passed in the last Session of Parliament and of this present Act, shall be lodged and secured in Warehouses approved by the Commissioners of the Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, or any Three or or more of them, for the time being, subject to all the Rules, Regulations, Securities and Provisions directed and required by an Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to permit certain Goods imported into Ireland to be warehoused or secured without the Duties due on the Importation thereof being first paid, or by any other Act (a) or Acts of Parliament made for amending or explaining the said Act in force on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

(a) [See 50 G. 3. c. 38.]

XX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing contained in the said last recited Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament made for amending or explaining the said Act, shall extend or be construed to extend to exempt any of the Goods, Wares or Merchandize so warehoused as aforesaid, from the Payment of the Duties of Customs imposed by this Act, or any such Goods, Wares and Merchandize, as the same are respectively described and set forth in the Table hereunto annexed, marked (A.), under the Head of Warehousing Duties: which Duties shall and may be paid at any time previous to the Delivery of any such Goods, Wares and Merchandize from such Warehouse, either for the Purpose of Exportation or Home Consumption.

Duties paid previous to Delivery of Goods from Warehouse.

XXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act or in the hereinbefore recited Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, shall extend, or be construed to extend, to alter, vary or repeal any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the passing of this Act, for prohibiting the Consumption or Use of any Foreign Manufacture within Ireland; but that all and singular the said Acts, and the Provisions, Penalties and Regulations therein contained respectively, shall remain and continue of the same Force and Effect to all Intents and Purposes, as if this Act and the said before recited Act passed in the last Session of Parliament had not been made; any thing contained in the said recited Act or this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Acts for prohibiting Use of Foreign Manufacture in Ireland to remain in force.

XXII. And Whereas it is necessary for the Security of the Public Revenue, that additional Regulations should be established with respect to Manifests directed to be brought by Masters of Ships or Vessels arriving in Ireland from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, from His Majesty's Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, the Territories and Dependences thereof, or from the Island of Saint Helena; Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel belonging in the Whole or in Part to His Majesty's Subjects arriving in Ireland from any of the Places afore mentioned, shall have on board a Manifest or Manifests as described and directed by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Twenty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for regulating the Production of Manifests, and for more effectually preventing fraudulent Practices in obtaining Drawbacks and Bounties, and in the clandestine Relanding of Goods, and shall produce and deliver such Manifest or Manifests in the manner prescribed by the said recited Act; and that all the Rules, Regulations, Provisions, Penalties and Forfeitures required and directed by the said recited Act shall remain in force, and be applied to the Purposes of this present Act, as far as they relate or may be applicable thereto, except where any of the said Rules, Regulations, Provisions, Penalties and Forfeitures are repealed or in any wise altered by this Act.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, no Goods, Wares or Merchandize shall be imported or brought into Ireland from any of the Ports or Places before mentioned, in any Ship or Vessel whatever belonging in the Whole or in Part to His Majesty's Subjects, unless the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of every such Ship or Vessel respectively, shall have on board a Manifest or Manifests in Writing, signed by such Master, and containing the Particulars described and set forth in the said recited Act passed in Ireland in the Twenty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign; and which Manifest or Manifests shall also contain the Name or Names (if the same shall be known) of the Person to whom any such Goods shall be consigned, the time when, and the Place where any such Goods shall have been taken on board, and distinguishing in every such Manifest the Goods which are stowed in the Hold from those which are stowed in other Parts of the Ship.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all Alterations which shall, after the completing of any such Manifest, be made in the Stowage of any Ship or Vessel, by the Removal of any Goods from the Hold to any other Part of the Ship, or from any other Part of the Vessel to the Hold, or from any one Deck of the Vessel to any other Deck, shall be registered on the Day of such Removal in the Log Book or Journal kept by the Master of the Vessel, and also in a supplementary Manifest which shall be kept for the Purpose of registering any such Alterations in the Stowage of Goods by any such Removals as aforesaid, and every such supplementary Manifest shall be attached to and kept with the original Manifest to which it refers.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That before any such Ship or Vessel shall clear or depart from the Port or Place wherein the Lading or any Part thereof shall have been taken on board, the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of every such Ship or Vessel shall prepare and deliver a Manifest in Writing as hereinbefore required, to the Officer who shall or may be appointed by the Governor, or by the Person or Persons exercising the Powers and Authorities of Government, of any such Settlement or Place; and such Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, shall verify upon Oath the Truth of the Contents of the said Manifest before the said Officer so appointed (which Oath the said Officer is hereby authorized and required to administer); and such Officer shall also cause a Duplicate thereof to be forthwith made, and shall indorse upon the Original Manifest his Name, with the Day and Year on which the same was produced to him, which said Original Manifest shall then be returned to the said Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel on or before the Clearing or Departure of any such Ship or Vessel; and such Officer so appointed as aforesaid shall, by the first Opportunity other than by the same Ship or Vessel, transmit the said Duplicate of such Manifest so made as before directed, under his Hand and Seal, to the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland.

XXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every Person who shall ship any Goods, Wares or Merchandize on board any such Ship or Vessel, shall at the time of such Shipment deliver to the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, a true and exact List in Writing, signed with the Name of the Person so shipping any such Goods, Wares or Merchandize, describing therein the particular Marks and Numbers of the several Packages; and such Master or other Person as aforesaid shall insert in the Manifest of such Ship or Vessel the Particulars contained in such List, and shall annex such Original List to the Duplicate of the Manifest hereinbefore described and required to be transmitted to the said Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties.

Lists of Marks and Numbers of Packages delivered on shipping of Goods.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That in case the Master or Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, after having departed from the Port or Place where the Whole or any Part of the Cargo shall have been first taken on board, shall proceed in such Ship or Vessel to any other Port or Place hereinbefore described, and there discharge any Part of the Cargo so taken on board, then and in such case the Officer so appointed as aforesaid shall indorse upon the Manifest containing the Part of the Cargo so discharged, an accurate Particular by Numbers, Marks and Descriptions of the Part of the Cargo so discharged, and shall verify the same, and make out and transmit a Duplicate of such Indorsement as required in cases of Manifest; and in case any such Master or other Person aforesaid shall at such or any other Port or Place take on board any other Goods, Wares and Merchandize, the said Master shall before his Clearance or Departure from any such Port or Place prepare and deliver to the Officer who may be appointed as aforesaid to receive the same, an additional Manifest, containing such and the like Particulars of the Goods, Wares and Merchandize there taken on board, in every respect as is hereinbefore directed and prescribed, and such additional Manifest shall be authenticated, and the Duplicate thereof transmitted in such and the like manner in every respect as hereinbefore is directed and required.

and Merchandize shall be produced, and delivered to and authenticated by the said Officer, and Duplicates by him transmitted in such and the like manner in every respect as is hereinbefore directed and required with respect to Manifests.

Original Manifest delivered at any Port at which Vessels may first touch.

XXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel so trading, shall not intend in the Course of the Homeward Voyage to touch either at His Majesty's Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or at the Island of Saint Helena, or in case any such Master or other Person as aforesaid of any such Ship or Vessel which shall touch either at the said Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope or at the Island of Saint Helena, shall afterwards on the Voyage to Ireland touch at any other Port or Place, then and in every such case the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of any such Ship or Vessel shall, at the Port or Place from whence he shall clear or take his Departure for Ireland, deliver each and every such Original Manifests, duly authenticated as required by this Act, to the Officer who may be appointed as aforesaid to receive the same; and every such Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of any such Ship or Vessel, and the Officer so appointed as aforesaid at any such Port or Place to receive and authenticate the Manifest or Manifests so to be delivered by the Master or other Person as aforesaid, shall proceed in every respect as in this Act is directed with regard to the Master or Officer so appointed, in the case of Ships or Vessels which in the Homeward Voyage shall touch at or depart from His Majesty's Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope or the Island of Saint Helena.

Consuls at Foreign Ports to perform Duties of Officers.

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case the Port or Place where any such Ship or Vessel shall clear or take her Departure for Ireland shall not be under the British Government, then and in every such case, it shall and may be lawful for the British Consul resident at any such Port or Place to do and perform every Matter, Act or Thing directed by this Act to be done or performed by the Officer so appointed as aforesaid; and such British Consul is hereby authorized and required to receive from the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of the Ship or Vessel so arriving, the Manifest or Manifests required by this Act to be delivered by such Master or other Person; and such Consul is also authorized and required to administer the Oath so directed to be taken, and to authenticate such Manifest or Manifests, to transmit Duplicates thereof, and to perform every Act, Matter or Thing respecting Manifests required by this Act to be done or performed by the Officer to be appointed for that Purpose as aforesaid at any other Port or Place.

Goods brought into G. B. without Manifest required, forfeited.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, if any Goods, Wares or Merchandize shall be imported or brought into Ireland from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, from His Majesty's Settlement at the Cape of Good Hope, its Territories or Dependencies, or from the Island of Saint Helena, or from such other Port or Place as aforesaid from whence the Ship or Vessel shall have cleared or departed for Ireland, in any Ship or Vessel belonging in the Whole or in Part to His Majesty's Subjects, without the Manifest or Manifests hereinbefore required, or shall not be be included or described therein, or shall not agree therewith, all such Goods, Wares or Merchandize shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs, notwithstanding such Goods, Wares or Merchandize may have been included in the Report of such Ship or Vessel; and the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of any such Ship or Vessel, shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds for every Package which shall be so imported or brought into Ireland without the Manifest hereby required, or which shall not be included or inserted therein, or which shall not agree therewith.

Penalty.

' XXXII. And Whereas by this Act certain Penalties are imposed on Masters of Ships or Vessels in which Goods shall be imported or brought into Ireland without the Manifest or Manifests hereby required; Be it therefore enacted, That the Penalties imposed by the before recited Act, made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, on the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel belonging in the Whole or in Part to His Majesty's Subjects, in which any Goods shall be imported or brought into Ireland without the Manifest or Manifests required by the said before recited Act, or which shall not be included or described therein, or shall not agree therewith, shall, from and after the said Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, be repealed so far as the same relates to Goods, Wares and Merchandize imported into Ireland from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United East India Company, His Majesty's Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, its Territories or Dependencies, or the Island of Saint Helena.

Former Penalties on Masters of Ships importing Goods without proper Manifest, repealed.
c. 28.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Goods, Wares or Merchandize, and all Ships or Vessels which may be forfeited under any of the Provisions of this Act, may and shall be seized by the Commander or Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or Commissioned, Warrant or Petty Officer specially appointed by him or them, or by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs; and that every Forfeiture incurred by this Act, and whereof the Recovery is not specially provided for by this Act, may and shall respectively be sued for, prosecuted and recovered in such Courts, and by such and the like ways, means and methods, and the Produce thereof respectively disposed and applied in such and the like manner, and to such and the like Uses and Purposes, as any Forfeiture incurred by any Law respectively, the Revenue of Customs or Port Duties in Ireland may now be sued for, prosecuted or recovered, disposed of and applied, in any of His Majesty's Dominions in or out of Europe respectively, as the case may happen to be.

Goods and Ships forfeited, seized by Officers of Navy.

' XXXIV. And Whereas it is necessary that some further Provision should be made to prevent the illegal Importation of Tea into Ireland; Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, if any Ship or Vessel coming from Foreign Parts and belonging wholly or in Part to His Majesty's Subjects, or whereof One Half of the Persons on board shall be Subjects of His Majesty, other than and except such Ships or Vessels as shall belong to or be employed by the United Company of Merchants in England trading to the East Indies, shall be found on the High Seas, or shall be discovered to have been within the said Limits of the Charter granted to the said United Ship, with more than Six Pounds of Tea on board, except for Ship's Company, forfeited.

Company, having on board any Tea exceeding Six Pounds in the whole, except Tea for the Use of the Persons on board, not exceeding One Pound for each Person, then not only such Tea, together with the Packages containing the same, but also every such Ship or Vessel, together with all the Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle and Apparel thereof, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Navy or Marines, or of the Customs or Excise.

Hatches
secured.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, the Hatches of all Ships and Vessels arriving from any of the Ports or Places before mentioned, at or into any of the Ports of Ireland which shall have been or shall be declared fit and proper for such Importation, shall be secured under the joint Locks of the Master of such Ship or Vessel and of the Officers of His Majesty's Customs and of the Excise, in cases where that Revenue is concerned, and no such Hatch or Hatches shall be opened on any account or Pretence whatever, but in the Presence of such Officers respectively; and if any such Officer shall refuse or neglect to attend at the locking up or opening any such Hatch or Hatches, after due Notice shall have been given him for that Purpose, every such Officer so offending, shall, for every such Offence, upon being convicted thereof, forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XXXVII. And

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced against any Person or Persons or any thing done in pursuance of this Act, such Action or Suit shall be commenced within Three Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be laid in the County or Place where the Cause of Complaint did arise, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in every such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon; and if the Jury should find, for the Defendant or Defendants in any such Action or Suit, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be nonsuited or discontinued his, her or their Action or Suit after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if, upon any Demurrer, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same, as any Defendant had in other cases to recover Costs by Law.

Limitation of Actions.

General Issue.

Treble Costs.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act and every thing herein contained shall continue in force (except where any special Continuation is directed by this Act) until the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and no longer.

Continuance of Act.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That this Act or any of the Provisions thereof may be altered, amended or repealed by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

Act altered, &c.

C A P. CIV.

An Act for maintaining and keeping in Repair certain Roads and Bridges made in Scotland, for the Purpose of Military Communication; and for making more effectual Provision for maintaining and repairing Roads made, and Bridges built, in Scotland, under the Authority of the Parliamentary Commissioners for Highland Roads and Bridges.

[18th July 1814.]

43 G. 3. c. 80.

• WHEREAS certain Roads and Bridges for the Purpose of • Military Communication have been made, and hitherto • maintained in the Highlands of Scotland, at the Public Expence;
 • which Roads and Bridges are no longer necessary for such Military • Communication, but for other Purposes some of them ought never-
 • theless to be maintained in Repair: And Whereas an Act was passed
 • in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, • intituled An Act for granting to His Majesty the Sum of Twenty • thousand Pounds, to be issued and applied towards making Roads and
 • Building Bridges in the Highlands of Scotland; and for enabling
 • the Proprietors of Land in Scotland to charge their Estates with a • Proportion of the Expence of making and keeping in Repair Roads
 • and Bridges in the Highlands of Scotland: And Whereas, in • Addition to the said Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, the further • Sum of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds has at sundry • times

' times been since granted, in further Execution of the said A^ct ; by ' means of which many useful Roads and Bridges have been made
 ' and completed, and others are now in course of being made, under
 ' several Contracts and Agreements entered into by the Commissioners
 ' and others, according to the Provisions and Regulations of the said
 ' A^ct : And Whereas another A^ct was passed in the Fiftieth Year 50 G. 3. c. 43
 ' of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled *An A^ct for main' taining and keeping in Repair Roads made and Bridges built in ' Scotland, under the Authority of the Parliamentary Commissioners
 ' for Highland Roads and Bridges*, whereby the Charge of keeping ' in Repair such Roads and Bridges was laid upon the several ' Counties wherein the said Roads and Bridges are situate ; and by ' the said A^ct divers Provisions were made for such Repairs, which ' Provisions have been found to be inadequate to the end proposed :
 ' And Whereas it is expedient to make new Regulations for the ' Maintenance and Repair of the Military Roads and Bridges and ' also of the Roads and Bridges made and completed, or which shall ' hereafter be made and completed, under the Authority of the ' Parliamentary Commissioners for Highland Roads and Bridges as ' aforesaid : May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted ; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this A^ct, the said recited A^ct passed in the Fiftieth Year of 50 G. 3. c. 43.
 the Reign of His present Majesty shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

II. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners appointed in and by virtue of the A^ct passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, hereinbefore recited, shall be, and they are hereby appointed Commissioners for the Purposes of this A^ct, together with the Lord Keeper of the Privy Seal of Scotland, and the first Commissioner of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenue in England, who are hereby appointed Commissioners for carrying this A^ct, and also the before mentioned A^ct into Execution ; any Three of which Commissioners shall constitute a Quorum, of Quorum.
 which One of the Commissioners appointed by virtue of his Office shall always be one ; and at all Meetings of the Commissioners, which Meetings shall be held in London or Westminster, the Chairman shall have a casting Vote in case of an Equality of Votes. Casting Vote.

' III. And Whereas it is expedient that the Maintenance and ' Repair of the Military Roads and Bridges, and also of the Roads
 ' and Bridges made under the Authority of the Parliamentary Com' missioners for Highland Roads and Bridges, should be placed ' under the Direction and Management of the Commissioners hereby ' appointed ; Be it enacted, That, from and after the passing of this A^ct, the said Commissioners shall, and they are hereby empowered to appoint and employ an Inspector of such Roads and Bridges in Scotland as have been made wholly or in part at the Public Expence, and such other Superintendents or Overseers of Roads and other Officers, as they shall see fit ; and to pay and allow to each and every of them such Sum or Sums of Money annually or otherwise, as the said Commissioners shall think proper, in Compensation of their Services.

Commissioners
 may appoint Officers.

Salary.

IV. And

What Proportion of Expence of repairing Roads and Bridges paid by Public, and what by Counties.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Military Roads and Bridges, and also the Roads and Bridges made and completed pursuant to the said recited Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, shall be during the continuance of this Act maintained and kept in Repair as follows; that is to say, a certain Proportion, being One Fourth Part of the Expence necessary to maintain and keep in Repair such Roads and Bridges (exclusive of the Allowances to the Inspector and other Officers, appointed by the Commissioners, which Allowances shall be wholly defrayed at the Expence of the Public), shall be paid and defrayed out of the Monies imprested into the Hands of the Commissioners by the Barons of the Exchequer in Scotland, as hereinafter directed; and the Remainder of the Expence of maintaining and keeping in Repair such Roads and Bridges, shall be paid and defrayed by the County or Counties in which the same shall be situated, in the manner hereinafter directed.

Commissioners to advance Money for immediate Repair of Roads and Bridges.

V. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall forthwith, after the passing of this Act, direct Estimates to be prepared of the Expence requisite for the Repair of the Roads and Bridges placed under their Direction and Management by virtue of this Act; and they are hereby authorized to employ proper Persons, or to enter into Contracts for the immediate Repair of the same; the Expence arising in consequence of so doing to be defrayed in the first Instance, and by way of Advance, wholly out of the Monies to be imprested into the Hands of the Commissioners by the Barons of the Exchequer.

Manner in which Military Roads maintained under Act.

VI. And be it enacted, That no Road or Portion of Road, made for the Purpose of Military Communication in Scotland, shall be maintained and kept in Repair in the manner directed by this Act, unless the Heritors of the County in which it is situated at some Annual Meeting for the Assessment of the Land Tax, or at some Michaelmas Head Court, or at some Special Adjournment of such Meeting or Head Court, shall agree to make Application to that Effect to the Commissioners appointed by this Act; at the same time undertaking to conform to the Provisions of the same during the Continuance thereof; which Undertaking shall be obligatory upon the Heritors of such County; whereupon the said Commissioners shall determine whether it is expedient and proper to consent to such Application; and such their Consent (if obtained) together with the previous Application and Undertaking, shall be notified by the Convener of the County, in the Newspapers usually circulated in the Highlands of Scotland, after which the Road or Portion of Road, respecting which such Application shall have been made, shall be maintained and kept in Repair under the Provisions of this Act: Provided nevertheless, that if any Person or Persons whatsoever, jointly or severally, shall make Application to the Commissioners, stating that such Person or Persons are willing to give and will find Security to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, to pay Three fourth Parts of the Expence necessary for the Maintenance and Repair of any Road or Portion of Road made for the Purpose of Military Communication, and to conform to the Provisions of this Act, as far as the same shall be applicable to the circumstances of the case, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners thereupon to determine whether it is expedient or proper to consent to such Application;

plication; and if the said Commissioners shall consent to such Application, and such Security shall be found to their Satisfaction, the said Road or Portion of Road shall be maintained and kept in Repair under the Provisions of this Act accordingly.

VII. And be it enacted, That every Boating Pier forming Part of any Road, or the Termination of any Road made pursuant to the said recited Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, shall be maintained and kept in Repair under the Provisions of this Act: Provided nevertheless, that no such Boating Pier and no Bridge erected pursuant to the said recited Act shall be rebuilt by virtue of this Act, unless the same shall have been included in the Contract entered into for making the Road of which such Boating Pier or Bridge forms a Part: And provided also, that the Sum which may be laid out in the Repair of any Boating Pier or any Bridge, or Road of Approach thereto, which is not allowed to be rebuilt by virtue of this Act (that is, any Boating Pier or Bridge, for the Erection of which a separate Contract shall have been made by the said Commissioners appointed by the said Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty), shall not exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds in any One Year, unless the Consent of the Commissioners appointed by this Act shall have been obtained for the Expenditure of a larger Sum in such Year, under the Provisions of this Act.

How Boating Piers and Bridges kept in Repair.

VIII. And be it enacted, That where any Bridge directed to be maintained and kept in Repair by virtue of this Act shall be situated partly in one County and partly in another, every such Bridge shall be maintained and kept in Repair in the manner directed by this Act, at the joint Expence of such Counties, to the Extent required by this Act; and the Assessment hereby directed to be made shall be imposed accordingly.

Provision as to Bridges situated in Two Counties.

IX. Provided further, and be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the said Commissioners to alter, or cause or suffer to be altered, the Line of any Road which shall be maintained and kept in Repair by virtue of this Act, unless such Alteration shall be made according to the Rules and Regulations of the above recited Act of the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for making Roads and building Bridges in the Highlands of Scotland.

Line of Road

direct; such Person also giving good and sufficient Security to the Satisfaction of the said Barons, for such Monies and for any other Money which may come into his Hands in consequence of this Act.

XI. And, in order to raise the other Proportion, being Three Fourths of the Money so expended, be it enacted, That Assessments shall be made by the Commissioners of Supply in the manner herein directed; that is to say, the Convener of every County Meeting at the Annual Meeting of the Commissioners of Supply which shall take place for the Assessment of the Land Tax in the Spring of every Year during the Continuance of this Act, shall lay before the Commissioners of Supply a Copy of this Act, together with an Account of the Expenditure incurred by reason of this Act, and chargeable to such County for One Year, up to the First Day of January preceeding such Meeting; such Account to be certified upon Oath, and transmitted to the Convener by the Inspector of Roads and Bridges in Scotland, or by the Agent of the Commissioners, at least One Month previous to the Twenty ninth Day of April in each Year; and the Commissioners of Supply shall thereupon make an Assessment upon each and every Proprietor, Life Renter or proper Wadsetter of Land enjoying the Dominium utile thereof, according to the Amount of their respective Rents and Profits, as assessed to the Property Tax in the Year ending the Fifth Day of April last, under Schedule (A.), of an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for granting to His Majesty during the present War, and until the Sixth Day of April next after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, further additional Rates and Duties in Great Britain, on the Rates and Duties on Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades and Offices; and for repealing an Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty, for repealing certain Parts of an Act made in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty for granting a Contribution on the Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades and Offices, and to consolidate and render more effectual the Provisions for collecting the said Duties, for such Sum or Sums of Money as shall in the whole repay the Money advanced on behalf of the Heritors of such County for the Purposes of this Act; which Sum shall be paid over to the Commissioners or their Agent at Edinburgh, from time to time as the same may have been collected and levied by the Collector, in Payment of Three Fourths of the Expence of the Repair of the Roads and Bridges of the said County during the preceeding Year; and, in order that the Commissioners of Supply may be enabled to make the Assessment required by this Act, the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes are hereby directed, upon the Application of the Commissioners of Supply, to communicate to them an Account of the Amount to which every such Proprietor, Life Renter or proper Wadsetter of Land enjoying the Dominium utile thereof, shall have been so assessed to the Property Tax: Provided always, that no County as such shall be assessed for Payment of the Expences incurred under this Act in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, nor in any subsequent Year, higher than the Rate of Three Halfpennies in the Pound upon the Rents and Profits assessed to the Property Tax as aforesaid; and the Payment of the Money which shall be levied in consequence of such Assessment, according to the same Rules, and making the same Allowances as were made in the Collection of the Property Tax for the Year ending

the Fifth of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, shall accordingly be deemed and taken to be a Payment in full to the Commissioners or their Agent at Edinburgh, towards the Expenses incurred in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, or any subsequent Year, in Execution of this Act.

XII. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Supply of any County, at the Annual Meeting at which they assemble to assess the Land Tax, to appoint a fit Person to be a Surveyor or Surveyors, Clerk or Clerks, and such Officers as they shall think necessary, for the due Execution of this Act, with such Salaries or Allowances as such Commissioners of Supply shall think fit; for which Provision shall be made in the Amount of each Assessment pursuant to this Act; and from time to time to remove such Officers, or any of them, as they shall see Occasion, and appoint others, in cases of Removal, Resignation or Death.

Commissioners of Supply may appoint Officers.

XIII. Provided further, and be it enacted, That when, by any Act or Acts of Parliament already made or to be made, any Tolls or Duties shall be applicable, and where any Conversions for Statute Labour shall be allocated or appropriated to the Repair of any Road or Bridge, made or built pursuant to the said recited Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, or to any Road made for the Purposes of Military Communication, all Monies arising from such Tolls and Duties, or such Conversions, shall and may be applied in the manner in which such Monies are directed to be applied by any such Act or Acts respectively; and such Monies shall be imputed in Part Payment of the Proportion of the Expence of such Repairs as is not to be borne by the said Commissioners; and in making any Assessment pursuant to this Act, regard shall be had to all such Monies which are or may be applicable to the Maintenance and Repair of any Road or Bridge for which any such Assessment is to be made.

Application of Tolls, and Conversions for Statute Labour.

XIV. And be it enacted, That if the Commissioners of Supply assembled at any Annual Meeting at which they assemble to assess the Land Tax, shall fail or neglect to make an Assessment in the manner directed by this Act; or if no Meeting shall have been holden before which the Account of the Expenditure incurred by reason of this Act and chargeable to such County, shall have been laid by the Convener in the manner directed by this Act, then the Commissioners appointed by this Act shall, and they are hereby authorized to direct His Majesty's Advocate General for Scotland, to institute the necessary Process for compelling the said Commissioners to raise and pay over to the Inspector the Monies which shall be or shall become due to him under the Provisions of this Act.

Lord Advocate to institute Process against Commissioners of Supply, failing to assess County.

XV. And be it enacted, That every Assessment made pursuant to this Act shall be levied and recovered by the Collector of the Land Tax of the County within which it shall have been made, in the same manner as the Land Tax is or may be levied and recovered, and at such time or times as such Commissioners of Supply shall direct, within Six Months after the Assessment shall have been made; and such and the like Remedies, Powers, Penalties and Forfeitures are hereby given, for the Payment and Recovery of every such Assessment, which are given or may be applied and enforced for the Payment and Recovery of the Land Tax: Provided always, that every such Collector shall find Security for his faithful and true accounting for for and paying all Monies to be received by him pursuant to this A^t, in the same manner that such Collector does for his faithful and true accounting and paying all Sums of Money received by him as Collector of the Land Tax.

Collector neglecting to levy Assessment.

Penalty.

XVI. And be it enacted, That if any Collector of the Land Tax shall fail or neglect to levy such Assessment or any Part of such Assessment within Six Months as aforesaid, every such Collector shall be liable to pay a Sum equal to double the Amount thereof; which Sum shall be applicable towards the Expence of repairing Roads and Bridges under the Provisions of this A^t, and for that Purpose shall be paid into the Hands of the Commissioners appointed by this A^t; Three Fourths of the same to be placed to the Credit of the Account of the County wherein such Default of the Collector has taken place; One Fourth to be added to the Money imprest into the Hands of the Commissioners by the Barons of the Exchequer.

Assessment when levied how disposed of. Collector, Allowance to, for Trouble.

XVII. And be it enacted, That all Sums of Money received by any such Collector pursuant to this A^t, shall be remitted by him to the Agent of the Commissioners: Provided always, that every such Collector may retain for his own Use, out of all Monies to be so received as aforesaid, such Allowance, not exceeding the Rate of Allowance made for levying the Assessed Taxes; and for which Allowance Provision shall be made in the Amount of each Assessment over and above the Sum due to the Commissioners appointed by this A^t.

Assessments in County of Argyll how made.

XVIII. And Whereas it may be expedient in the County of Argyll to make the Assessments directed by this A^t upon certain Districts of that County, instead of assessing the County at large for the Expences to be incurred in the Execution thereof; Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Heritors of the said County, at the Michaelmas Head Court which shall be holden next after the passing of this A^t, to determine whether the Assessment directed by this A^t shall be made and levied upon particular Districts thereof, for the Maintenance and Repair of the Roads within such several Districts, or upon the County at large, in which case the Assessments directed by this A^t shall be made and levied upon such Districts; but if no Determination shall take place at such Head Court, the Assessments shall be made and levied upon the County at large; and in either case the Collector of the Land Tax of the said County shall pay over to the Commissioners or their Agent at Edinburgh, in the manner and under the Penalty aforesaid, Three Fourth Parts of the Expence of the Repair of such Roads and Bridges in the said County, as shall be maintained and kept in Repair under the Provisions of this A^t.

Assessment in Island of Arran.

XIX. And Whereas Roads and Bridges have been made and built in the Island of Arran in the County of Bute, pursuant to the said recited A^t passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, but no such Roads or Bridges have been made or built in any other Part of the said County; Be it therefore enacted, That no Assessment directed to be made by this A^t shall be made or levied in any Part of the County of Bute, excepting in the Island of Arran.

Monies received by virtue of Assessment accounted for.

XX. And be it enacted, That all Monies paid over by such Collector to the Agent of the Commissioners appointed by this A^t, by virtue of any Assessment to be made pursuant to this A^t, shall shall be accounted for by such Agent in the manner in which the said Sums of Money directed to be imprested by the Warrant of the Barons of Exchequer in Scotland, or any other Sums of Money which shall come into his Hands in consequence of this Act, are hereby directed to be accounted for.

XXI. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners appointed by this Act, and they are hereby empowered from time to time, to make such Rules and Regulations, and to give such Orders and Directions as they may think proper, for the more effectual Maintenance and Repair of the Roads and Bridges hereby intended to be maintained and repaired; provided that such Rules and Regulations, Orders and Directions, shall not be inconsistent with the Laws of Scotland, or with the Provisions of this Act, and shall be notified to the Person or Persons required to conform to the same.

Commissioners to make Rules and Regulations.

XXII. And be it enacted, That on or before the Twenty fifth Day of March in every Year, a Report shall be made to both Houses of Parliament, by the Commissioners appointed by this Act (or if Parliament shall not then be sitting, within Twenty one Days after Parliament shall next meet), specifying their Proceedings pursuant to this Act; with a general Abstract of the Receipts and Expenditure in carrying this Act into Execution during the preceding Year: And where the Expenditure hereby directed to be defrayed out of the Monies paid into their Hands by Warrant of the Barons of the Exchequer, shall exceed the Sum hereinbefore limited and appointed for that Purpose, the said Commissioners shall further, at such times as they may find necessary, transmit an Account thereof to the Lords of the Treasury, in order that the same may be laid before Parliament.

assembled and by the Authority of the same, That if upon the Application of the Surveyor of the Highways of any Parish, Township or Place, to the Justices of the Peace at their General or Quarter Sessions, or at a Special Sessions for the Highways, the said Justices shall be fully satisfied that the Common Highways, Bridges, Cause-ways, Streets or Pavements, belonging to such Parish, Township or Place, are so far out of Order that they cannot be sufficiently amended and supported by the means in the said hereinbefore recited Act of the Thirteenth Year of His present Majesty's Reign prescribed, and by the Assessments therein authorized to be made, and collected, it shall and may be lawful for the said Justices to authorize, order and direct, an additional Assessment to be made on such Parish, Township or Place (over and above all the Assessments by the said Act authorized to be made and collected); which said additional Assessment shall be levied and collected by the same means, and in the same manner and form, as is directed for the levying and collecting the Assessments made under the Authority of the said hereinbefore recited Act, and upon the same Persons as are therein declared to be liable to be rated to the said Assessments.

Notice of Application given.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That Notice of such intended Application shall be first proved before the said Justices, upon the Oath of the Surveyor making such Application, to have been given at the Church or Chapel, on Two Sundays preceding such General or Quarter Sessions, or Special Sessions for the Highways; or, in Townships or Places where there are no Churches or Chapels, to have been stuck up in Writing in Two or more conspicuous Places within the said Townships or Places, for One Week at least previous to such General or Quarter Sessions, or Special Sessions for the Highways; or, in Extraparochial Places, to have been given in Writing to some of the principal Inhabitants residing in such Extraparochial Place, a Week at least before such General or Quarter Sessions, or Special Sessions for the Highways; in order that any Person or Persons liable to be rated to the Assessment intended to be applied for, may attend at such General or Quarter Sessions, or Special Sessions, if they shall think fit; there to state to the said Justices any Objections which he, she or they may have to the making and collecting of such Assessment.

broker or other Person or Persons shall take in pawn, buy, exchange or receive any Clothes, Linen or other Goods marked, stamped or branded as aforesaid, from any Person or Persons upon any Account or Pretence whatever (such Mark, Stamp or Brand thereon to be considered and taken to be sufficient Evidence without further Proof of the Right of Property in the said Commissioners and Governors), or shall cause such Mark or Stamp, Marks or Stamps to be taken out, obliterated or defaced, the Person or Persons so offending shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Ten Pounds, upon Conviction thereof, by the Oath of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses before any One or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the County wherein the said Offence or Offences shall be committed, which Penalty shall be levied by Warrant under the Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals of the said Justice or Justices of the Peace, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the said Offender or Offenders, one Moiety of which said Penalty or Penalties shall be paid to the Informer or Informers, and the other Moiety shall go and be paid to the Use of the said Hospital; and in case any such Offender or Offenders, who shall be convicted as aforesaid of having bought, exchanged, received or taken in pawn any such Clothes, Linen or other Goods as aforesaid, or of having caused such Mark or Stamp, Marks or Stamps as aforesaid, to be taken out or defaced, shall not have sufficient Goods and Chattels whereon Distress may be made to the Value of the said Penalty recovered against him, her or them for such Offence or Offences, or shall not pay such Penalty or Penalties within Four Days after such Conviction, then and in such case such Justice of the Peace shall and may, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, either † commit such Offender or Offenders to the Common Gaol of the County where such Offence or Offences shall be committed, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, for the Space of Three Calendar Months; and that if any Pensioner or Nurse of the said Hospital shall desert or run away from the same, and carry away with them any Clothes, Linen or other Goods belonging to the said Hospital, such Person or Persons being lawfully convicted thereof, by the Oath or Oaths of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses, shall be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction of the Town, City or County where he, she or they shall be apprehended, for the Space of Six Calendar Months, without Bail or Mainprize.

‘ II. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Thirty third Year of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for the Encouragement of Seamen and Marines employed in the Royal Navy, by rendering it more easy to Petty Officers and Seamen, Non Commissioned Officers of Marines and Marines, to remit their Wages to this Kingdom, and by providing for the Payment in this Kingdom of the Wages due to deceased Officers, Seamen and Marines as aforesaid, Provision was made for enabling Seamen resident in that Kingdom to receive Out Pensions granted to them by the said Commissioners or Governors of the said Hospital, and for preventing Frauds and Abuses attending the same, which has not been found effectual for the Attainment of the good Purposes intended thereby;’ Be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said recited Act as relates to any Provision or Provisions for enabling enabling Seamen resident in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, to receive Out Pensions granted to them by the said Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital, and for preventing Frauds and Abuses attending the same, shall be repealed.

such Collector hath unnecessarily or wilfully refused or delayed Payment of such Certificate as aforesaid, the same having been presented to him, or that such Collector, or any Person employed by or under him, hath directly or indirectly received or taken any Fee, Gratuity, Discount or Deduction whatever, on account of Payment of such Money, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to fine such Collector in a Sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds; which Fine shall be recovered and levied in such and the same manner as any Penalty for any Offence against any Law by which any Duties of Customs or Excise is imposed or levied in Ireland; and the said Fine, when recovered, shall be paid to the Informer or Informers against such Offender or Offenders.

V. And be it enacted, That every Collector who shall pay any Sum or Sums of Money to any Person entitled to receive the same in pursuance of this Act, shall return the Duplicate on which the Acknowledgment of the Receipt of such Money shall be endorsed, to the aforesaid Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue, who shall once in every Quarter of a Year cause a Certificate to be given to such Collector, specifying the Amount of the Money appearing by such Receipts to have been in pursuance of this Act, by such Collector paid within such Quarter; and every such Collector shall be credited by the said Commissioners for the Payment of such Money, in like manner as if the same had been advanced and paid, in pursuance of the Orders of the said Commissioners, for any other Purposes for which they are entitled to issue Orders for Collectors for the Payment of Money.

VI. And be it further enacted, That whosoever willingly or knowingly shall personate or falsely assume the Name or Character of, or procure any other to personate or falsely to assume the Name or Character of any Person to whom any such Certificate as aforesaid shall have been granted, in order to receive the Money mentioned in such Certificate, or shall willingly and knowingly personate or falsely assume the Name or Character of, or procure any other to personate or falsely to assume the Name or Character of any Person, in order to receive any Money due or supposed to be due for or on account of any Out Pension granted by the said Hospital; or shall forge or counterfeit, or procure to be forged or counterfeited, any Bill, Certificate, Letter of Attorney, Ticket, Certificate, Assignment, last Will or any other Power or Authority, or other Document whatsoever, in order to receive any such Money; or shall willingly and knowingly take a false Oath, or procure any other Person to take a false Oath, in order to receive Payment of any Money due or supposed to be due for or on account of any Out Pension granted by the said Hospital; or shall utter or publish as true any false, forged or counterfeited Letter of Attorney, Bill, Ticket, Certificate, Assignment, last Will or any other Power or Authority, in order to receive Payment of any Money due, or supposed to be due, for or on account of any Out Pension; being lawfully convicted of any of the said Offences, shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon, without the Benefit of Clergy.

VII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be and the same is hereby declared to be a Public Act; and all Judges, Justices and others, are hereby required to take Notice thereof as such, without specially pleading the same.

An Act to amend an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in Ireland.

[23d July 1814.]

WHEREAS by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in Ireland, it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for every Person who shall be a Prisoner in any Prison in Ireland, upon any Process whatsoever, issuing from any Court whatsoever, for or by reason of any Debt, Damages, Costs, Sum or Sums of Money, or Contempt for Non-payment of Money, and who shall have been in Custody upon some Process for some or one of the said Debts or Demands, during the Space of Three Calendar Months or more, to apply by Petition in a summary way to the Court from whence such Process issued, for his or her Discharge from such Confinement, according to the Provisions of the said recited Act: And it is also by the said recited Act enacted, that if any Person shall be confined under the Process of Two or more Courts, then if any one of the said Courts shall be one of His Majesty's Superior Courts in Dublin, such Petition shall be presented to such Court; and if all such Courts, or any Two or more of them, shall be such Superior Courts, that then and in such case such Petition shall be presented to such of the said Superior Courts under whose Process such Person shall have been first detained in Custody; and if all the said Courts shall be inferior Courts, then if such Prisoner shall be so detained in the County of Dublin, or County of the City of Dublin, such Petition shall be presented to the Court of Common Pleas; and if in any other Part of Ireland, then such Petition shall also be addressed to the said Court of Common Pleas, with Power to the said Court either to proceed on such Petition or to give Authority to the Judge or Judges of Assize for the County, County of a City or County of a Town in which any such Prisoner shall be detained, to proceed as in the said Act is mentioned: And it is further enacted, that in case the Court to whom any Prisoner shall apply to be discharged, according to the Directions of the said recited Act, shall be of Opinion that such Prisoner is entitled to the Benefit of the said Act, then and in such case the said Court shall so order and adjudge: And Whereas in the said recited Act divers Clauses and Provisions are contained, for empowering the said Courts respectively to whom any such Prisoner shall apply to be discharged, to give Judgment, and to make divers Orders, and to do divers Matters and Things with respect to the Discharge of all Prisoners so applying, and with respect to the Assignment and Application of the Estate and Effects of such Prisoners, as in the said recited Act is fully and at large mentioned and set forth: And Whereas it is expedient, that any one Judge of any Court in Ireland, to whom any Prisoner shall apply to be discharged under the Provisions of the said recited Act, should have Power to receive the Petition, and to direct the Discharge of such Prisoners, and to do all such other Matters and Things respecting the discharging or remanding of any such Prisoner, as by the said recited Act the Court to which such Prisoner shall apply is empowered to do, provided such Prisoner shall not have had an Opportunity of applying to such Court; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for every Person who shall be a Prisoner in any Prison in Ireland, upon any Process whatsoever, issuing from any Court whatsoever, for or by reason of any Debt, Damage, Costs, Sum or Sums of Money, or Contempt for Nonpayment of Money, and who shall have been in Custody upon some Process for some or one of the said Debts or Demands, during the Space of Three Calendar Months or more, and who shall not have been so in Custody in time to enable him or her to apply by Petition to the Court in Term Time, to apply in Vacation to any Judge of such Court by Petition; and it shall be lawful for such Judge in Vacation Time to receive such Petition, and any Schedule annexed thereto, and to proceed in hearing the Matter of such Petition, and to pronounce any such Judgment, and to make all such Orders, and to give all such Directions, and to do all such other Matters and Things requisite for the discharging or remanding of such Prisoner, and for the Assignment and Application of the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner; and such Judge shall have such Power to discharge or to remand such Prisoner, and in all other respects to act and do, with

with respect to such Prisoner, and with respect to the Petition of such Prisoner, and the Matter of the same, and with respect to the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner, and with respect to the Creditors of such Prisoner, as such Court could or might do under or by virtue of the said recited Act, if such Petition had been presented to such Court in open Court, during the Sitting of the said Court; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and all Judgments, Orders, Directions, Proceedings, Acts, Matters and Things, for or relating to the discharging or remanding of any such Prisoner, so made, given, taken or done by such Judge, shall be as good, valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Judgments, Orders, Directions, Proceedings, Acts, Matters and Things had been done by the said Court, in open Court, during the Sitting of the said Court, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

II. And Whereas Prisoners claiming the Benefit of the said Act or this Act, may be liable to be deprived of such Benefit on account of mere Matters of Form, or Errors or Omissions in their Petitions, Schedules or other Proceedings directed by the said Act; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Court or Judge to whom any Prisoner shall apply under the said recited Act or this Act, to be discharged under the Provisions of the said Act or this Act, to amend all Matters of Form, and to supply any Omissions, and to correct any Errors in the Petition, Schedules or other Proceedings directed by the said recited Act or this Act, in case the same shall appear to the said Court or Judge to have arisen from Ignorance, Mistake or Inadvertency, and not to have been wilful or fraudulent; any thing in the said recited Act or this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Court or Judge may amend Schedules, &c.

III. And be it further enacted, That in case any Prisoner who shall have been discharged or remanded under or by virtue of an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Thirty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for the Relief and Maintenance of Insolvent Debtors detained in Prison, or of an Act made in the Fiftieth (a) Year of His present Majesty's Reign, to extend and amend the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Thirty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, shall present a Petition to any Court or Judge, for the Purpose of taking the Benefit of the said recited Act of last Session of Parliament, or this Act; it shall and may be lawful for such Court or Judge to receive such Petition and any Schedule annexed thereto, and to discharge such Prisoner, in case such Court or Judge shall think fit so to do, upon his conforming to the Directions of the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, or this Act; although such Prisoner may have been discharged or remanded under the Provisions of the said recited Acts of the Thirty seventh and Fiftieth Years of His present Majesty's Reign, or either of them, at any time within the Period of Five Years previous to the presenting such Petition by such Petitioner, under the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, or this Act; any thing in the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

been found defective, and some Doubts have occurred as to the Construction thereof, and it is expedient that all the Provisions for enforcing the Payment of Wages due to Servants, Artificers and Labourers, should be comprised in One Act of Parliament; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after One Month after the passing of this Act, so much of the said hereinbefore recited Acts as relates to the Payment of Wages due to Servants, Artificers and Labourers, or to any of them, shall stand and be repealed; save so far as relates to any Proceedings that may have been commenced under the said Acts, or any of them, before the Period aforesaid.

II. And be it further enacted, That this Act, and all the Matters and Provisions hereinafter contained, shall commence and take Effect from and immediately after the said time of the Repeal of the said former Acts and not sooner.

III. And be it enacted, That, for the more easy Recovery of Wages which shall or may remain due, after the Commencement of this Act, or which shall become due to any Labourer, Artificer or Servant in Ireland, whose Demand shall not exceed the Sum of Six Pounds, it shall and may be lawful for any one Justice of the Peace of the County in Ireland, where the Person or Persons, or any of the Persons alleged to owe the same, shall reside, and for every Chief Magistrate of any City or Town Corporate in Ireland, within his Jurisdiction, and they are hereby empowered and required, upon the Complaint of any such Labourer, Artificer or Servant, that he or she have been refused Payment of, or cannot receive his or her Wages due to him or her, to issue his Summons in Writing to such Person or Persons so alleged to owe such Wages, or to any of them (not being a Peer or Peers), to appear before him; in which Summons the Sum demanded, and also the Place and Time for such Person's Appearance, shall be expressed; and upon such Person or Persons so summoned appearing accordingly, or in case the said Person or Persons so summoned shall neglect or refuse to appear, according to such Summons, that then upon Proof on Oath, that the said Summons was delivered to the said Person or Persons, or to any of them, or to his, her or their Son, Daughter or Menial Servant of the Age of Sixteen Years or upwards at such Person's usual Place of Abode, such Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate is hereby authorized and empowered to proceed to the hearing and determining of the said Demand, as well by the examining such Witness or Witnesses as shall appear before him, upon Oath, as by all other legal ways; and if necessary, by Examination of the Party or Parties complaining or complained against, on their respective Oaths, and to determine, order and adjudge whether any thing and how much shall be paid by the said Person or Persons to such Servant, Artificer or Labourer; and if such Person or Persons shall not pay the Sum which such Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate shall so adjudge to be due to such Servant, Artificer or Labourer, either immediately or within such time as the said Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate shall direct, not exceeding Ten Days, then the said Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate is hereby required and empow-empowered, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, at the Instance of such Servant, Artificer or Labourer, directed to any Constable or Constables of such County, City or Town, to levy so much as shall be so ordered and adjudged due to such Servant, Artificer or Labourer, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Person or Persons so refusing or omitting to pay the same, according to the Determination of the said Justice or Chief Magistrate, rendering the Overplus (if any there be) to such Person or Persons: Provided always, that if reasonable Excuse on Oath, for the Non attendance of any Person so summoned, shall be made to the Satisfaction of such Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate, then and in any such case it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justice or Magistrate to postpone the Hearing of such Complaint to such further time, and to such Place as he shall think proper, and to issue a new Summons for such time and Place accordingly.

IV. And it is hereby declared, That all Persons not being Artificers or Servants, who shall be employed to do any Species of Work or Labour whatsoever for Hire, shall be deemed and taken to be Labourers within the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and shall be entitled to recover Wages, as such, under and according to the Regulations aforesaid.

defined.

V. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall appear, to the Satisfaction of such Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate, that such Servant, Artificer or Labourer, has been, or is likely to be detained from his or her Home or usual Place of Residence, by reason of the Nonpayment of any Wages which such Justice or Magistrate shall so adjudge to be due, then and in every such case it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate, to order and adjudge that there be paid to such Servant, Artificer or Labourer, not only the Sum so due for Wages as aforesaid, but also such further Sum, for the time during which such Servant, Artificer or Labourer, shall have been there so detained from his usual Place of Residence, as such Justice or Magistrate shall think and adjudge to be reasonable, having regard to the Length of such Detention, the Diligence or Remissness of either Party, the usual Wages of such Servant, Artificer or Labourer, and the Wages which, within the time of such Detention, such Servant, Artificer or Labourer, did earn, or under all the circumstances of the case might have earned; and also a reasonable Sum by the Day, to be estimated in like manner, until such Wages so adjudged to be due shall be recovered as aforesaid, or otherwise paid; so as such additional Sums or Sum so ordered and adjudged do not exceed the Sum of Two Pounds.

Justice may award further Sum to Servants,

other Notes, Drafts or Orders, drawn on or made payable by any Banker or Bankers in Ireland, being written or printed on any Paper stamped with a Stamp of less Amount than the same ought to be according to this Act, which shall bear Date or which shall be issued in Ireland, at any time after the passing of this Act, or which shall bear Date at any time before the passing of this Act, but shall not have been actually issued before the passing of this Act, shall be and the same are hereby declared to be absolutely null and void, and shall not be issued or issuable, or negotiable, or transferrable to any Intent or Purpose whatsoever ; and that no such Note, Bill, Draft or Order, which shall bear Date at any time before the passing of this Act, and which shall have been actually issued before the passing of this Act, shall at any time after the passing of this Act be re-issued or re-issuable, nor shall be negotiated or transferred, or negotiable or transferrable, by or on behalf of the Banker or Bankers who originally issued the same, or by or on behalf of any other Person or Persons whomsoever, at any time after such Note, Bill, Draft or Order, shall come or shall have come into the Hands, Custody or Possession of such Banker or Bankers, after the passing of this Act.

V. And be it further enacted, That any Banker or Bankers, or Person or Persons, who shall issue or re-issue, or cause to be issued or re-issued, any Bank Note or Bank Post Bill, or any Foreign or Inland Bill of Exchange, or Promissory or other Note, Draft or Order, contrary to the Directions of this Act, shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds British Currency, for every such Note, Bill, Draft or Order, so issued or re-issued contrary to this Act ; and that any Person or Persons who shall give or take in Payment, any Note, Bill, Draft or Order, which shall be or shall have been issued or re-issued contrary to the Directions of this Act, shall forfeit double the Amount of the Sum expressed in any such Note, Bill, Draft or Order, respectively, to any Person who shall sue for the same ; and that the several

Penalties and Forfeitures aforesaid shall be recovered before any one Justice of the Peace in Ireland, upon the Oath of One credible Witness, or on the Confession of such Offender; and in case the said Penalties and Forfeitures shall not be paid and satisfied upon such Conviction being made, it shall be lawful for such Justice of the Peace, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Offender, together with all Costs and Charges attending such Conviction and Sale, returning the Overplus (if any) to the Owner; and if such Offender shall not have sufficient Goods and Chattels to satisfy such Penalties, every such Offender shall be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, by Warrant of such Justice, for any time not less than One Calendar Month nor more than Three Calendar Months, unless such Penalty or Forfeiture shall be sooner paid or satisfied.

Distress.

Imprisonment.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Duties of Stamps by this Act granted and made payable, shall and may be collected, raised, levied, recovered and applied under and by virtue of all the Powers and Provisions, Penalties and Forfeitures contained in an Act made in the Fifty second Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to repeal the several Acts for the Collection and Management of the Stamp Duties in Ireland: and to make more effectual Regulations for collecting and managing the said Duties (a), as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Powers and Provisions, Penalties and Forfeitures, had been repeated and re-enacted in this Act, so far as relates to the Duties granted and made payable by this Act, except only so far as the said Act is altered or amended by this Act.

Duties levied

C A P. CXX.

An Act to amend several Acts relating to the Revenues, Matters and Things under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, and of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland.

‘WHEREAS it is expedient to alter and amend several Acts relating to the Revenue of Customs and Excise in Ireland;’ Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from the Commencement of this Act, all and every the Clauses, Provisions and Regulations contained in Two several Acts, one made in the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for making perpetual several Acts for the better Collection and Security of the Revenues of Customs and Excise in Ireland, and for preventing Frauds therein; and to make further Provision for the Security of the said Revenues, and for the Execution of the several Acts relating thereto; and the other made in the Forty ninth Year of His said Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to make further Provision for the Execution of the several Acts relating to the Revenues, Matters and Things under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, and of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, which in any manner relate to or concern the Proceedings to or on the Trial of any Complaint or Information before the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, or the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes, and their Sub Commissioners respectively, for any Offence against any Act or Acts relating to the Revenues, Matters and Things under the Management of the Commissioners respectively, or to the Adjournment of the Trial of any such Complaint or Information, or to the bringing, filing or exhibiting of any such Complaint or Information, or to the

the discharging of the same, shall be and the same are hereby repealed; and that every such Complaint or Information, and all Matters relating thereto, shall and may be exhibited, proceeded upon, heard, tried and determined under the Rules, Regulations and Provisions of any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, on or immediately before the passing of the said recited Act of the Forty eighth Year aforesaid, and as if the said recited Acts of the Forty eighth and Forty ninth Years aforesaid, or either of them, had not been made.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to alter or repeal so much of the said recited Act of the Forty ninth Year (a) aforesaid, as relates to or concerns any Officer sitting or acting as a Sub Commissioner in any Cause wherein he is interested, or as provides that whenever by any Act or Acts it is or shall be required that any Claim, Entry or other Proceeding shall be made, filed or entered, or had in or at the Excise Office of the District relative to any Matter or Thing whatsoever, every such Claim, Entry or other Proceeding which shall relate to Shipping or Navigation, or to any Matters or Things under the Management and Jurisdiction of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, shall be made, filed, entered or had in the Office of the Collector of the Customs of the Port or District instead of the Excise Office of such District. (a) [49 G. 3. c. 116. § 3. 6.]

III. And Whereas under and by virtue of certain Provisions contained in certain Acts of Parliament in force in Ireland, relating to the Revenue of Excise, various Documents, Matters and Things are directed and required to be signed, done, executed or performed by Four or more of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, and certain of the said Documents, Acts, Matters or Things to be witnessed by the Secretary to the Commissioners of Excise, and which Provisions have produced Inconvenience, and it is expedient to remedy the same; Be it therefore enacted, That all and every Document, Act, Matter or Thing relating to the Revenue of Excise or Taxes which shall be signed, done, executed or performed respectively by any Three of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes for the time being, shall be held and considered as legal, valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and without the same being witnessed by the Secretary to the Commissioners of Excise; any thing contained in any Act or Acts to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Officer of His Majesty's Revenue of Customs or Excise to ask, demand or receive any Fee or Reward for granting or issuing of any Permit for the Conveyance and Protection of any Exciseable Goods in Ireland, nor shall any Fee or Reward be payable for the same; any thing in an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fortieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for better regulating the issuing and granting of Permits and Certificates for the Conveyance and Protection of certain Exciseable Goods therein mentioned, and to prevent Frauds by Dealers in or Retailers of such Goods, or in and by any other Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, the Certificate of any importing Merchant for for any Goods whatever which such importing Merchant shall sell to any Person or Persons residing within the same Port or Place, where such Merchant may have imported such Goods, shall not have any Effect to protect any Goods within such Port or Place, or to prevent the Necessity of a Permit or Permits for the Removal of such Goods within such Port or Place, it being the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, that a proper Permit or Permits shall be taken out for the Removal of such Goods; any thing in the said last recited Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fortieth Year aforesaid of the Reign of His present Majesty, or in any other Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall affect or take away the Right of prosecuting, suing for, recovering and levying any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture, which shall or may have been incurred under the said recited Act of the Fortieth Year aforesaid, or in respect of any such Certificate which shall have been given on or before the Commencement of this Act.

‘ VI. And Whereas by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for the better Collection of the Duties on Hides and Skins tanned or dressed in Oil, and on Vellum and Parchment made in Ireland, and for preventing Frauds on His Majesty's Revenue therein, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no Licence shall be granted to keep a Tan Yard or Tan Pit, or to tan Leather with Bark, unless the Person requiring the same shall with Two sufficient Sureties have executed a Bond to His Majesty in a penal Sum after the Rate of Fifty Pounds for every One hundred Cubic Feet of the Pits or Vats in the Tan Yard of such Person chargeable under the said Act, conditioned to pay all such Sums of Money as by virtue of the said Act or any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland, such Tanner should be charged with, and also to pay and satisfy all Penalties to which such Tanner should be liable under the said Act, or any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland: And Whereas it is not expedient to require Tanners to give Security to the Amount directed by the said recited Act; Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, instead of the Security by the said Act so required, every Tanner shall be bound to execute a Bond to His Majesty in the Penal Sum of Fifty Pounds for every One thousand Cubic Feet of the Pits or Vats in the Tan Yard of such Person, and so in Proportion for any Quantity or less Number of Cubic Feet of the Pits or Vats in such Tan Yard, conditioned to pay all Sum and Sums of Money as by any Law now in force, or which shall hereafter be in force in Ireland, such Tanner shall be charged or chargeable with, and also to pay and satisfy all Penalties which such Tanner shall be liable to, under any Act or Acts in force, or which shall hereafter be in force in Ireland; and no Licence shall be granted to keep a Tan Yard or Tan Pit, or to tan Leather with Bark unless the Person requiring the same shall with Two sufficient Sureties have executed such Bond to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors.

‘ VII. And Whereas by the said last recited Act of the Fifty third Year aforesaid, it is, amongst other things, directed, that the Drawback of any of the Duties chargeable on Hides and Skins and Pieces of Hides and Skins tanned in Ireland, or any Manufacture of such tanned Hides or Skins, or any Hides or Skins dressed in Oil in Ireland, or any Manufacture thereof, or on any Vellum or Parchment

‘ment made in Ireland, which shall be exported when allowed, shall ‘be paid by the Collector of the Port from which such Goods shall ‘be exported: And Whereas it is expedient that such Drawback ‘should be paid by the Collector of Excise, and not by the Collector ‘of the Port;’ Be it therefore enacted, That all such Drawbacks when allowed shall be paid by the Collector of Inland Excise and Taxes of the District from which such Goods shall have been or shall be exported under such Rules and Regulations as are by Law required in case of Drawbacks on the Exportation of Goods in respect of any internal Duty of Excise paid thereon.

Drawbacks paid

 Excise.

VIII. And, for the better preventing the Use of raw or unmalted Corn by Brewers in Ireland, be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Brewer to have in his or her Brewery, or in any Part of the Premises connected with his or her Brewery, any raw or unmalted kiln-dried Barley or Bere mixed or unmixed with any other Corn or Grain malted or unmalted; and that all raw or unmalted kiln-dried Barley or Bere mixed or unmixed with any other Corn or Grain malted or unmalted, which shall be found in such Brewery or Premises, together with all Sacks, Vessels or Packages, in which such raw or unmalted kiln-dried Barley or Bere mixed or unmixed with any other Corn or Grain malted or unmalted shall be contained, shall be forfeited and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise or Customs.

IX. And, for the further preventing the Use of raw or unmalted Corn, and of any deleterious or unwholesome Ingredients by Brewers in Ireland, be it enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, no Licence shall be granted to any Person in Ireland to brew Strong Beer, Porter or Ale, or Small Beer, for Sale, unless in the Bond required to be entered into by such Brewer under and by virtue of an Act made in the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to secure the Payment of the Duties on Licences granted to Persons in Ireland dealing in Exciseable Commodities, there be inserted a Condition that such Brewer shall not use any raw or unmalted Corn (a) nor any Vitriol, Quassia, Coccus Indicus, Grains of Paradise, Guinea Pepper, Opium or any other Ingredient whatsoever, which shall possess any deleterious or unwholesome Quality in brewing any Strong Beer, Porter, Ale or Small Beer; and that no such Licence shall be granted to any Person in Ireland, unless and until the Person or Persons to whom or on whose behalf such Licence shall be granted, or some one of them, being the acting Partner or Person concerned in the Brewery for which such Licence shall be granted, shall make and sign an Affidavit, or being a Quaker or Quakers, shall solemnly affirm in the Presence of the Collector of Excise of the District, who is hereby authorized and required to administer such Affidavit or Affirmation in the Form or to the Effect following; that is to say,

And which Oath shall be in lieu and instead of any Oath required by any former Act or Acts in force in Ireland, to be made by any Brewer in Ireland; and if any such Licence shall be granted to any Person or Persons, by or on whose behalf such Oath or Affirmation shall not have been made, or if any Person or Persons other than such as shall be specified in such Oath or Affirmation shall be concerned or engaged as a Partner or Partners in the Brewery for which such Licence shall be granted, such Licence shall be and become forfeited, and shall be null and void.

Default of Payment of Duties
 by Paper Makers, Distress made.

X. And, for the more easy Collection of the Duties payable to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by Paper Makers in Ireland, be it enacted, That in all cases where any Duties payable by any Paper Makers shall be unpaid at the time when such Duties are or shall be by Law made due and payable, it shall and may be lawful for the Collector of Excise or other Officer in Charge of the District in which such Duties shall be charged and payable, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal to empower any Person or Persons to take and distrain all or any Paper and Materials for making Paper, and all or any Engines, Vats, Wet Presses, or other Utensils for making Paper in any Paper Mill or other Place used by any such Paper Maker, and to cause the same to be sold by Public Auction, giving Six Days previous Notice thereof; and if after the Payment of all Duties and Arrears of Duties due from such Paper Maker, together with the Costs and Expences of such taking, distraining and sale, there shall be any Surplus arising from the Sale thereof, such Surplus shall be forthwith tendered and paid to such Paper Maker or his Representatives: Provided always, that when any of the Articles aforesaid shall be so taken and distrained, it shall and may be lawful for such Paper Maker or his Representatives at any time or times before the time appointed for the Sale thereof, to require the same to be delivered up to him or them upon his or their paying to the Collector or Officer in Charge as aforesaid, towards discharging the Duties so due and payable, together with the Costs and Expences as aforesaid, the real Value of such Articles as he or they shall desire to have delivered up, and the same may be delivered up accordingly.

XI. And be it further enacted, That when any Paper Maker in Ireland shall by any Fatality or unavoidable Accident have been prevented from working any Engine kept by such Paper Maker during the Whole or any Part of any Month for which such Paper Maker shall by Law be chargeable with Duty, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, or any Three of them, on Proof on Oath made to their Satisfaction, that the Fatality or Accident was unavoidable, and not owing to any Default or Negligence, to make any proportionate Abatement of any Charge of Duty which shall have been returned against such Paper Maker, for and in respect of the Engine which such Paper Maker shall be so prevented from working, and also of the Duty for and in respect of each and every of the Vats or Wet Presses belonging to such Engine: Provided always, that any such Abatement shall be first approved of by the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland: Provided also, that if any Duty chargeable by Weight on the Paper made by such Paper Maker within such Month as aforesaid shall amount to the Sum by Law chargeable for such Month, in respect to such Engine and Vat or Wet Press, then and in such case no such Abatement shall be made to such Paper Maker.

Abatement made of Duty where Paper Maker prevented by Accident from working.

Proviso.

XII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Complaint or Information shall be had or prosecuted before the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, or their Sub Commissioners, against any Person or Persons for carrying on any Trade, Business or Calling, or dealing in, manufacturing or selling, or having, using or keeping in his Possession any Article, Matter or Thing, for the having, using or keeping whereof a Licence is or shall be required by Law, without having a Licence for so doing, in manner required by Law, the Proof that such Person hath obtained such Licence, and had the same, in force at the time of the Offence charged in such Complaint or Information, shall lie on the Party against whom such Complaint or Information shall be had or prosecuted, and it shall not be necessary for the Officer, or Person complaining or prosecuting such Information, to prove that the Person or Persons so complained of had not such Licence; any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

In Informations against Persons carrying on Business without Licence, Proof shall lie on Person charged that he has obtained one.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, so much of an Act made in the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to grant to His Majesty certain Duties and Taxes in Ireland, in respect of Carriages, Dogs, Fire Hearths, Horses, Male Servants and Windows, in lieu of former Duties and Taxes, in respect of the like Articles, or of the Schedule to the said Act annexed, as exempts any Dog which any Person shall keep who shall not be subject to any Duty in respect of Windows or Fire Hearths from the Duty on Dogs imposed by the said Act, or by the Schedule thereto annexed, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Exemption from Duty on Dogs. 48 G. 3. c. 42. Sch. repealed.

No Actions for Damages for Loss of Dogs sustained unless Owner has paid Duty.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That if at any time after the Commencement of this Act, any Person in Ireland shall sue or prosecute any Action of Trover or Action on the Case for Damages, resulting from the loss or killing of, or from any Injury done to any Dog, for the having or keeping of which any Duty is by Law payable, the Plaintiff in such Action shall not be entitled to recover any Damages whatever in any such Action, unless he shall prove, that previous to the Cause of such Action he was duly rated to and paid the said Duty in respect of such Dog, under the Provisions of the Laws in force in Ireland, for granting Duties in respect of such Dogs, or for regulating or securing the Collection of the said Duties.

Rectifiers sending out Spirits in less Quantity than 50 Gallons, forfeited.

XV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Person in Ireland, licensed to keep a Still or Stills to rectify or to compound Spirits or Strong Waters, to sell, send out or deliver any Spirits or Strong Waters, in any Quantity less than Fifty Gallons; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding; and that if any Person so licensed to rectify or compound Spirits, shall sell, send out or deliver any Spirits or Strong Waters, in Quantities less than Fifty Gallons, all such Spirits or Strong Waters, and the Casks or Vessels containing the same, shall be forfeited and may be seized; and the Person by whom or on whose behalf the same shall be so sold, sent out or delivered, shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds British Currency.

Penalty.

Rectifiers at stated times to deliver to Collector of Excise an Account of Stock.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, every Person in Ireland licensed to keep a Still or Stills, to rectify or to compound Spirits or Strong Waters, shall within Seven Days after the last Day of every Calendar Month, make out and deliver at the Office of the Collector of Excise of the District in which any such Still or Stills shall be situate, a Return or Account of all Spirits received into the Stock of such Distiller at any time during such Calendar Month; and also a Return or Account of the actual Stock of Spirits and Strong Waters in the Stock, Custody or Possession of such Rectifier or Compounder, on the last Day of every such Calendar Month respectively; and every such Return or Account shall be signed by such Rectifier or Compounder, who shall swear to the Truth of the same, if required by the said Collector; and every Rectifier or Compounder who shall neglect to deliver such Monthly Returns or Accounts within the said Space of Seven Days next after the End of every Calendar Month, shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds British Currency.

Penalty.

Where Quantity less than Account kept by Officer.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall happen that the Stock of Spirits or Strong Waters in the Stores or Possession of any licensed Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits and Strong Waters shall be less than the Quantity of Spirits which by the Stock Account kept by the Officer of Excise ought to be in the Stores or Possession of such Rectifier or Compounder, every such Rectifier or Compounder for every time such Decrease shall appear, shall forfeit the Sum of Fifteen Shillings British Currency for every Gallon which shall be so deficient.

Penalty.

Spirits found in Stock of Rectifier without Permit forfeited.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Spirits shall be received into, or shall be found in the Stock or in any Still House or other Place of any Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits, for which such such Permit for the Conveyance thereof as is by Law required, shall not on Demand of any Officer be produced, or a Certificate in lieu thereof, all such Spirits shall be forfeited, and may be seized, and the Rectifier or Compounder in whose Stock or in whose Still House or other Place such Spirits shall be found, shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Shillings British Currency, for every Gallon of such Spirits for which such Permit or Certificate shall not be produced as aforesaid. Penalty.

‘XIX. And Whereas by an Act made in the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty’s Reign, intituled An Act for abolishing Fees received by Officers in the Service of the Customs in the several Ports of Ireland; and for regulating the Hours of Attendance and the Number of Holidays to be observed by the said Officers, and certain Officers of Excise, certain Provisions were made for the abolishing of Fees received by all Officers of the Customs, and for the making Compensation for the Loss of such Fees, which said last recited Act extends to all Persons, whether appointed by Patent or otherwise, acting by themselves or others in any Office or Employment relating to His Majesty’s Customs and Port Duties in Ireland; and it is expedient to make further Regulations for carrying the said last recited Act into Execution;’ Be it therefore enacted, That at any time after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to refer to the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland for the time being, the case of any Patentee or other Officer, Clerk or other Person, who shall have held or shall hold any Office, whether by Patent or otherwise, any way relating to His Majesty’s Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, or who shall have been or shall be employed in the Service of the said Customs at any Port in Ireland, who may have sustained or may sustain any Loss by the abolishing of Fees under or in consequence of the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Forty eighth Year of His Majesty’s Reign, and who shall claim, or in the Judgment of the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors, or of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, shall be entitled to claim or recover any Compensation for such Loss under or by virtue of the said last recited Act; and upon such Reference it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties for the time being to proceed, and such Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties are hereby authorized, empowered and required to proceed, as soon as may be after such Reference, to enquire into and investigate the Amount of Fees received by or on behalf of any such Patentee or other Officer, Clerk or other Person, or his Predecessor, during such Period of time as shall be described in such Reference, and to examine on Oath such Patentee, or other Officer, Clerk or other Person, and his or their Deputy or Deputies, if any, and also any other Person or Persons whatever, respecting the Amount of such Fees, and respecting the Duty required to be performed by such Patentee or other Officer, Clerk or other Person, and respecting any other Matters and Things whatever, which shall be referred to such Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties by such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors relating to or concerning such Patentee or other Officer, Clerk or other Person, and the Office held by him, and the Compensation which he

XXII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any Distiller shall Six Days at the least before the Commencement of any Period of Four Weeks during which such Distiller shall work, or shall be chargeable as working any Still or Stills, give and deliver a Notice in Writing, signed by such Distiller, to the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, and also to the Collector of the District within which the Distillery of such Distiller shall be situate, and to the Surveyor and Gauger in Charge of the Distillery of such Distiller, that such Distiller intends within the said Period of Four Weeks to distil any greater Quantity of Singlings or Low Wines than such Distiller is or may be required to do by any Law in force at the time of such Notice, and shall specify in such Notice the Number of Charges of Singlings or Low Wines in respect of which such Distiller intends to be charged with the Duty on the Spirits produceable therefrom according to Law within such Period of Four Weeks, then and in such case it shall be lawful for such Distiller, within such Period of Four Weeks, to charge such Still or Stills with a Quantity of Singlings or Low Wines according to the Number of Charges of Singlings or Low Wines specified and mentioned in such Notice, and no more ; and such Distiller shall be chargeable with and shall pay Duty for all such Spirits as might be produced according to Law from such Number of Charges of Singlings or Low Wines within such Period of Four Weeks, whether such Still shall or shall not be charged with the whole Number of Charges of Singlings or Low Wines according to such Notice ; and if such Distiller shall during such Period of Four Weeks charge any such Still or Stills with any greater Quantity of Singlings or Low Wines than according to the Number of Charges mentioned in such Notice, or shall distil in any such Still or Stills a greater Quantity of Spirits than such Distiller shall by Law be chargeable with in respect of such Number of Charges of Singlings or Low Wines, and such Excess only and no more as is hereinbefore provided for, or if upon the Account taken by the Officer in Charge of the Distillery of such Distiller of any Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines or Singlings, brewed or made or found in such Distillery within such Period of Four Weeks, such Distiller shall be chargeable by Law with a greater Quantity of Spirits than as aforesaid, the Officer in Charge of such Distillery shall charge such Distiller with double Duty for every Gallon of such Excess of Spirits, and such Distiller shall pay such double Duty, and shall also forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds : Provided always, that no such Notice of any such Distiller shall be valid or effectual for the Purpose of this Act, unless the same shall be delivered to the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes, and the Collector of the District as well as to the Surveyor and Gauger in Charge of the Distillery of such Distiller at the time hereinbefore required for that Purpose.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Distiller in Ireland to have or keep in his Distillery any Spirits of a Strength exceeding exceeding Twenty five Degrees over Hydrometer Proof, and that if any Spirits of a greater Strength than Twenty five Degrees over Hydrometer Proof shall be found in the Distillery of any Distiller, all such Spirits shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and that, for the Purpose of ascertaining the Strength of such Spirits, the Distiller shall, before he shall pump up or remove any Spirits from the Receiver or Receivers, or other Vessel or Vessels in which such Spirits are deposited, from the Still in the Distillery of such Distiller, give Notice in Writing Six Hours at the least to the Gauger or Officer in Charge of such Distillery of the time when such Spirits are to be pumped up or removed from such Receiver or other Vessel, which time shall be at some Hour between Seven in the Morning and Nine in the Evening, and such Officer shall attend accordingly at the time specified in such Notice, or within One Hour after, to gauge and ascertain the Strength of such Spirits, and shall take a true Gauge and try the Strength thereof, and shall cast and compute the same at the Strength of Twenty five Degrees over Hydrometer Proof, and shall keep an exact Account thereof by making Entries in the Stock Books and Minute Books of such Distiller of the Quantity and Strength of such Spirits, and of the time when the same were so gauged as aforesaid; and if any Spirits in the Distillery of any Distiller shall be pumped up or removed from any such Receiver or Receivers, or other Vessel, with such Notice having been first given as aforesaid, or before such Spirits shall have been so gauged by such Officer, the Distiller in whose Distillery such Offences shall be committed shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and all such Spirits so pumped up or removed contrary to this Act shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise: Provided always, that in case such Spirits shall exceed such Strength of Twenty five Degrees over Hydrometer Proof by less than Three Degrees, such Spirits shall not be forfeited on account of such Excess of Strength; any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures under this Act shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, sued for, recovered and applied in such manner and under such Powers and Authorities, and by such ways and methods, and according to such Rules and Directions as are appointed, directed and expressed for the recovering of any Penalties or Forfeitures in and by an Act made in Ireland, in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled An Act for settling the Excise or new Impost upon His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, according to the Book of Rates therein inserted; or in and by an Act made in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to provide for the better Execution of the several Acts relating to the Revenues, Matters and Things under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, and of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland; or in and by any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland, relating to the Revenue of Customs and Excise, or either of them, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same were herein repeated and re-enacted, with the like remedy of Appeal to and for the Party or Parties aggrieved as in and by the said recited Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years

C A P. CXXI.

An Act to repeal the additional Duties of Excise on French Wine imported and on Spirits exported from the Warehouses; and authorizing the Repayment of the additional Duty in respect of French Wine found in Dealers' Stocks; and authorizing the Commissioners of Excise Duties to repay or remit Duties paid on Liquors lost by accidental Staving before Landing. [23d July 1814.]

‘WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal the additional Duties and Drawback hereinafter mentioned;’ Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, the additional Duty of Excise imposed and Drawback of the said additional Duty granted on French Wine, by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for granting to His Majesty additional Duties of Excise in Great Britain on Tobacco and Snuff, and on French Wines, and, from and after the Tenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, also the additional Duties of Excise imposed by an Act made in the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled *An Act for granting to His Majesty, until Twelve Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, certain additional Duties of Excise on Brandy in Great Britain, on Brandy, Rum, Spirits, Aqua Vita or Strong Waters delivered for Exportation to any Port or Place, not being in Europe, from any Warehouse, Storehouse, Vault, Cellar or other Place under the Locks of the Officers of Customs or Excise, or either of them, shall cease and determine, and be no longer paid or payable; save and except in all cases relating to the recovering or paying any Arrears thereof respectively, which may at any time remain unpaid, or to any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture, Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures relating thereto respectively, which may have been incurred at any time before or on the said Fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, or before or on the said Tenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, as the case may require.*

II. And be it further enacted, That there shall be paid to all Dealers in and Sellers of Foreign Wine in Great Britain, for every Gallon of such French Wine (reckoning Five reputed Quart Bottles to the Gallon for such French Wine as shall be in Bottles) for which the Duty hereby repealed shall have been paid, and which French Wine shall between the Fourth and the Twentieth Days of June One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, be in the Stock, Custody or Possession of such Dealer or Dealers in, or Seller or Sellers of Foreign Wine, an Allowance of Five Shillings: Provided always, never-

27 G. 3. c. 13.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty ninth Year of the ‘ Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for repealing
 ‘ the several Duties of Customs chargeable in Great Britain, and for ‘ granting other Duties in lieu thereof, it is, amongst other things, ‘ enacted, that where by the Schedule and Table thereunto annexed
 ‘ the Duties of Customs by that Act imposed upon Goods, Wares
 ‘ and Merchandize, imported into and exported from Great Britain, ‘ are charged not according to the Weight, Tale, Gauge or Measure,
 ‘ but according to the Value thereof, such Value shall be ascer‘ tained (except in certain cases therein mentioned) by the Decla‘ ration of the Importer or Exporter, as the case may be, or his ‘ known Agent or Factor, in the Manner and Form, and under all
 ‘ the Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, and subject to the same ‘ Forfeitures and Penalties as are prescribed, directed and imposed ‘ for ascertaining and collecting the Duties to be paid according to the ‘ Value of Goods, Wares and Merchandize, by an Act passed in the ‘ Twenty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled ‘ An Act for repealing the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and ‘ for granting other Duties in lieu thereof ; and for applying the said ‘ Duties, together with the other Duties composing the Public Revenue
 ‘ for permitting the Importation of certain Goods, Wares and Mer- ‘ chandize, the Produce and Manufacture of the European Dominion
 ‘ of the French King, into this Kingdom ; and for applying certain ‘ unclaimed Monies remaining in the Exchequer, for the Paymen-
 ‘ of Annuities on Lives, to the Reduction of the National Debt ; b ‘ which last recited Act it is required, that the Importer or Ex-
 ‘ porter, as the case may be, or his known Agent or Factor, sha ‘ make a Declaration of the Value of such Goods, Wares an ‘ Merchandize on the Warrant of the Entry thereof, to be subscribe ‘ wit

' with the Hand of the Importer, Exporter or Proprietor, as the ' case may be, or his known Agent or Factor, in the Presence of ' Two of the principal Officers of the Customs of which the ' Collector is to be one, who are to certify the same under their ' Hands; and by several subsequent Acts of Parliament the Value of ' Goods, Wares and Merchandize imported into and exported from ' Great Britain is also directed to be ascertained in the manner
 ' provided by the said Act of the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign
 ' of His present Majesty: And Whereas great Inconvenience and ' Delay have been experienced by requiring the Declaration to be ' made in the Presence of and to be attested by the principal Officers
 ' of the Customs: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of any Act or Acts of Parliament as requires the Importer or Exporter, or his known Agent or Factor, to declare the Value of any Goods, Wares or Merchandize, imported into or exported from Great Britain in the Presence of the principal Officers of the Customs, and as directs such Officers to certify the same under their Hands, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and, from and after the passing of this Act, where the Value of any Goods, Wares or Merchandize, subject to the Payment of any Duty of Customs on the Importation into or Exportation from Great Britain is required to be ascertained by the Declaration of the Importer or Exporter, or his known Agent or Factor, the same shall be specified and expressed in Words at Length upon the Warrant or Bill of Entry, and be attested by the Signature of the Importer or Exporter of such Goods, Wares and Merchandize, or by his known Agent or Factor, as the case may be, and the Value so specified and expressed in the Warrant or Bill of Entry shall to all Intents and Purposes whatever be of the same Force and Effect; and such Importer or Exporter, or his known Agent or Factor, shall be in every respect bound thereby, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been as heretofore ascertained by the Declaration of such Importer or Exporter, or his known Agent or Factor, before the principal Officer of the Customs in the manner required by the Laws in force on and immediately before the passing of this Act; and in case the Value of the Goods, Wares or Merchandize so attested or declared on any such Entry shall be less than the true and real Value thereof at the Port of Importation or Exportation, as the case may be, the Goods, Wares or Merchandize may be dealt with, and the proper Officers of the Customs shall proceed in every respect in the manner prescribed in such cases by the said recited Acts of the Twenty seventh and Forty ninth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty; Provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to repeal or in any way alter the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures contained in the said recited Act of the Forty ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign regarding Goods, Wares and Merchandize subject to Duty on Exportation, of which the real Value cannot be ascertained at the time of Entry, but the same, as well in regard to the Declaration before the principal Officers as in all other respects, shall remain in full Force and Effect.

So much of any Act as requires Declaration of Value of Goods to be made in Presence of principal Officers of Customs repealed.
 Value of Goods
 subject to Payment of Duty specified on Warrant or
